RESEARCH PARK PLAN HITS SNAG

BARRED BY the warmth of the February sun, skater in Arlington Heights have nearly given up on park district skating rinks such as the one above at Pioneer Park, which looks more like a puddle. Recreation director Bill Appleby says this has been an average year even if there is no more skating — about 30 days total in December and January — but no comparison to the 63 days of skating last winter. An estimated 50,500 attendance at five village rinks has been recorded this winter.

Village Loses in Bid To Lure Space Center

Arlington Heights has gone out of the running in the first round of competition for location of the proposed $50 million NASA electronics research laboratory.

NASA Director James Webb recommended to Congress Feb. 1 that the facility be located in the general Boston area, and it remains unlikely that the recommendation will be vetoed.

Village Pres. John G. Woods, who has been to Washington in support of an offer of 100 acres in Arlington Heights for the center, said, "Naturally this was a disappointment since the laboratory would have been a tremendous asset to Arlington Heights, the Chicago area and the entire midwest."

BUT HE ADDED that he felt the village's efforts at attracting the site "have served to focus attention on the outstanding qualifications of the Chicago area for this type of facility."

He said the offer of 100 acres by Kenroy Realty Co. remains open for a comparable type of federal research activity, and the village will remain behind the location effort.

But Monday's village board discussions on annexation of the area indicate the proposed 400-acre research park out of which the 100 acres were offered may be a long way from incorporation in the village.

Board members lent a willing ear to objections by William Farrington, village president of Buffalo Grove, as he objected to the expansion of Arlington Heights north of Dundee Road.

At the same time, Kenroy attorney Howard Borde said he would not be willing to break off the 79 acres of the proposed research and industrial area which lie north of Dundee.

BORDE AND Kenneth Tucker, president of Kenroy, also objected strongly to the amendment of the zoning classification which is to be applied to the area.

They objected "from a planning standpoint" to exclusion of gasoline service stations from allowed business uses, and described their stand as a matter of principle.

Consideration of annexation of the area was deferred for two weeks, with no indication of what the solution would be at that time.

Gas Station Zone Debated

The zoning and annexation of what has already been advertised as a research and development park in Arlington Heights hit a few rough spots at Monday's village board meeting.

Both the M1A zoning classification devised to accommodate such a park, and zoning of the 400 acres itself, were recommended by the plan commission.

Development of the zoning classification began with a proposed draft from Kenroy Realty Company, seeking to develop the large land area between Arlington Heights and Wilke Roads north of the village limits.

VILLAGE BOARD members were in on informal discussions of the first drafts, then the matter was turned over to the plan commission and village attorney.

But the first objection which came from the board Monday was on a provision of the zoning classification listing gasoline service stations as permitted business uses.

Trustee Norval Stephens voiced the objection, and asked if gas stations could not be put on a special use basis as they are in other village zoning classifications.

Both Howard Borde, attorney for Kenroy, and Harold Carlson, chairman of the plan commission in attendance to answer questions on the ordinance, objected to Stephens' request.

THEY CONTENDED that both the Kenroy planner and the village's planning consultant had found gas station use compatible with other allowed uses in the district.

Borde assured Stephens there was no plan to put a gas station anywhere in the property at the present time, and added that 19 acres of the land up for annexation is presently zoned for such use at the corner of Wilke and Dundee Roads.

He said requests from oil companies had been turned down for that property in recent months.

CARLSON SAID the object of the classification was to permit as many compatible uses as possible in one large area to promote development.

But Stephens' request drew support from the required number of board members, including Village Pres. John G. Woods, to amend the ordinance and make gas stations a special use item.

Trustees Bud Beacham and William J. Moore registered dissent to the amendment, but voted along with the remainder of the board for approval of the class once it was amended.

THE SECOND hurdle in the way of annexation came as an objection from William Farrington, village president of Buffalo Grove.

He asked how far Arlington Heights intended to annex in a northerly direction, noting that 79 acres of the Kenroy property are north of Dundee Road and that this had previously been the agreed stopping line.

Farrington said he had no answer to how a developer would plan a research park in two different communities, though.

His principal ground for objection was that Buffalo Grove would eventually extend north of the Kenroy property, and that industrial development in the 79 acres might be detrimental and cut off access to Dundee Road.

VILLAGE ATTY. Jack Siegel told the board the only question before them was annexation of the entire 400 acres or none at all — that a piece could not be split off and the remainder annexed.

But Borde and Kenneth Tucker, president of Kenroy, were asked if they would consider detaching the 79 acres above Dundee Road immediately after the annexation went through. The property-owner must petition for disannexation.

At this point, Borde asked the board to defer consideration of the annexation ordinance until the next regular meeting, but added he would not consider detachment of the 79-acre parcel.

AFTER A brief resumation of the argument over service station provisions, Borde explained that he had requested deferral because the changed zoning ordinance would again have to be reviewed by the Kenroy investment group.

A motion for the annexation was tabled until the next regular board meeting Feb. 17.

Top Priority for Board

Downtown Building Height on Agenda

Top priority was again given the problem of high-rise construction in the downtown area after Arlington Heights village board members discovered Monday that past priorities had only been along limited channels.

Trustee Eugene F. Schlickman brought up the subject by requesting that a 14-story apartment plan first aired in August be put on the agenda for the next regular board meeting.

HE PROPOSED that the plan, involving St. Peter Church land on Highland Avenue between St. James and Eastman streets, be rejected "in order to give some decisive answer in a matter which has been pending since Aug. 3, 1963."

Village Mgr. L. A. Hanson said he had sent the proposal to the plan commission, with the request that it be turned over to the apartment committee for study. But the matter still stands as it did six months ago.

At the time the proposal was made, the apartment committee was working on an R-7 zoning classification which would regulate the height of high-rise apartment structures.

TRUSTEE Norval Stephens, a member of the apartment committee composed of members of both the village board and Plan Commission, reported Monday that the R-7 classification should be in draft form by the next regular meeting; but he added that no consideration had been given to high-rise buildings other than apartments.

He also indicated that the August proposal by attorney Fred Weber for 14 stories came nowhere close to meeting recommended requirements.

Trustee William J. Moore then expressed surprise at the limit of the committee's considerations. "I was under the impression that it would deal with the whole question of 'up'," he said.

TRUSTEE Jack Walsh agreed that this had been his understanding also.

"Then we haven't touched at all on the matter of downtown commercial height," Moore said, and asked that the committee be considering a height recommendation for the downtown area.

"Things are going to stand entirely still—not only the one which has been proposed, but any others which may be in the offing," Trustee Bud Beacham said in relation to downtown high-rise plans, viewed by the board as the key to redevelopment.

The one building which has been proposed is a combination store-office-apartment structure, 10 stories, at Davis and Evergreen.

When plans for this building were presented by Joseph Schneller in early December, board members told him regulations were under consideration at that time and would be rushed to completion.

WALSH SAID Monday an ACTION land use study committee, or some other committee of the citizens' group, would put high-rise consideration at the head of the list and get a recommendation to the Plan Commission as quickly as possible.

The 14-story apartment proposal is to be placed on the next board meeting agenda for consideration, but no other action was taken by the board Monday toward a solution of the downtown height problem.

Proposed Medical Park OKd

A second proposed medical park was approved Monday by the Arlington Heights village board, following the recommendation of the Plan Commission.

The center is to be located west of Northwest Community Hospital on a three-acre site facing Central Road.

PETITION FOR annexation and institutional class zoning was made by realtor Carl M. Behrens and Dr. John A. Heinz, a dentist in the village.

Zoning was granted with the provision that no building permits would be issued until a forthcoming planned development is approved.

IN HIS presentation before the Plan Commission Jan. 22, Behrens said the first building to be constructed would be a single story, 20,000 square feet, housing 18 offices.

Advises Vote On Annexation

Village Atty. Jack Siegel Monday advised the Arlington Heights village board to consider annexation of Arlington Gardens subdivision before settlement of the problem of water and sewer service to the area.

Residents of the area petitioned for annexation last summer, and shortly after that the village entered into negotiations with Citizens Utility Company, a private franchised company serving the area with water.

Citizens owns the water mains and all sewer pipes through the subdivision, on the west side of Arlington Heights Road south of Central Road.

THE COMPANY also owns a well and pumping facilities for the area, but has had trouble supplying the approximately 300 homes with water over past summers.

This fact and higher water rates than the village were among the prime motivations for the annexation petition.

At the time of the petitioning, it was anticipated that either the utility company would be acquired or parallel lines would be laid to service the area, but that the problem would be resolved before annexation.

Residents in the area agreed to pay the cost of such acquisition or construction of an alternate system on a time plan as a condition for annexation.

BUT SIEGEL indicated Monday that Citizens executives have been reluctant to deal. He said if the subdivision were annexed, the village could always file a suit for condemnation of the facilities and let a jury decide the price.

Then the village would have to be in a position to put up the money immediately, he warned.

TRUSTEE Jack Walsh said if annexation is coming up it should be completed in time to have the area included in the next village census.

The village, based on the census report, receives $5 per person within its limits in state motor fuel tax funds annually.

No Action Taken On Barbed Wire

No action has been taken yet to urge removal of barbed wire strung between Chicago and North Western Railway tracks in downtown Arlington Heights, Village Pres. John G. Woods said at Monday's village board meeting.

Police Radio Room 'Bombed' by Teen

A small, home-made bomb was thrown through a window and exploded in the radio room of the Arlington Heights Police Department just after 8 p.m. Friday, but the crime was solved the same night.

A 15-year-old high school boy admitted after questioning later that night that he had thrown the bomb because he was angry at police for picking him up on two previous occasions — one for lighting firecrackers.

THE YOUTH is presently being held by the Circuit Court's juvenile division in Audy Home, Chicago, for psychiatric treatment.

According to the police report, he was linked with the incident by acquaintances who had heard him speak of going out "with a bomb" that night.

The suspect at first denied any connection with the incident, but later told police his story of the bombing and described the bomb when alibis did not check out.

HE SAID THE bomb was a CO2 cartridge, filled with match heads and crimped with a fuse. The only damage done in the police department was the broken window and a scorched curtain.

The youth had also been in trouble in the village previously for taking money from parking meter fine payment boxes.

ACTION Groups Slate Meetings

ACTION began swinging into committees this week in Arlington Heights.

All 11 sub-groups of the Arlington Committee to Improve Opportunities Now were scheduled for their first meetings either this week or next.

The groups face individual facets of the problem of downtown redevelopment. All will meet in the village's municipal building.

Builders Meet with Trustees

Tell Building Code Change Fears

by JOAN LORENSON
Staff Writer

A dozen builders met last Thursday with the Arlington Heights village building committee to voice their fears about proposed upgrading of single family home building standards.

Higher standards are being proposed by the single family building standards committee of trustees Norval Stephens, Bud Beacham, and William Moore. The changes include increased lot area and frontage; increased square feet of area for homes, greater garage requirements; and specific room sizes.

Model plans approved and models open for 1964 would continue under current standards, upgrading wherever possible. All other buildings would have to conform to the rules effective March 1.

STEPHENS and Beacham assured the men their committee was not trying to force anything down the throats of the builders. "We're asking for your suggestions and help," Stephens said.

A committee of the builders met Monday to discuss in specifics their objections to the provisions of the standards changes. They are expected to meet with the standards committee before the Feb. 17 village board meeting.

"This is the finest group of builders in calibre and intelligence so you'll get facts and not fiction," Fred Wilkins of Miller Builders said.

THE INCREASED standards would hamper the builders in their competition, they claimed. "On a cost basis in Arlington Heights we're operating at a disadvantage," Al Miller of Miller Builders, said. The builder has to make up for the disadvantage by selling the reputation and kind of community and offering a better package.

The market will keep high quality building, according to the builders. "The builder is over the minimum present standards because the market is demanding it," said John Stoltzner.

The builders expressed concern about what the standards would do to them if there would be a market reversal.

"The building code should be minimum standards designed to protect the health and welfare of the structure's inhabitants," said Richard Hardwood. He added that Arlington Heights could not necessarily be a Lake Bluff because of the economic variables.

"You can legislate but people may not buy," Miller said. "If they can get a $30,000 house with more in Mount Prospect, they'll buy there."

STEPHENS explained the building standards committee was aiming at creating a density of three dwellings per acre. It hoped to force builders to construct homes of the $30,000 or higher price range. "If the homes that go in the village are not balanced out, the effect will be to raise taxes," he said.

The value of homes in Arlington Heights went from $23,000 to $24,511 according to a Bell Savings survey for last year. In Mount Prospect in contrast they dropped $1,000 so that Rolling Meadows has homes of higher value. The value of the homes must allow them to carry their tax load if taxes are to stay the same, according to Stephens.

Re-saleable homes give the market enough supply of residences in the $20,000 price bracket in below standard areas, Stephens told the builders.

Wilkins protested it is easier for a young couple to buy a new

DAMP Water Group Is Still Alive — Despite Handicaps

Meeting in a new location Tuesday night, commissioners of the Des Plaines, Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect and Palatine (DAMP) water commission proclaimed the commission still alive.

The action was the first meeting of the group in the Mount Prospect municipal building since Des Plaines announced their decision to secure water from Chicago to alleviate the city water situation without going through the Commission.

Des Plaines plans to sell $2,500,000 in revenue bonds and build their own pipeline from Chicago for water. The city gave as reasons for their action: an immediate need for water that DAMP cannot now deliver, and lower price by "going it alone."

WILLIAM T. MOTT, Mount Prospect commissioner to the DAMP, and chairman of the commission, delivered a stinging letter to the commission aimed at Des Plaines, Mount Prospect and other member municipalities.

In his letter, Mott said "In reviewing the decision of . . . Des Plaines to secure Chicago water on an independent basis, I believe that such decision had been made for political reasons long before we (DAMP) submitted our figures to them."

Mott explained later that he had learned that the Des Plaines city engineer had working plans and drawings prepared several weeks ago, "before the aldermen voted on the problem."

MOTT SAID in his letter that he will be interested "to see what Des Plaines will have to pay for the bonds and what their actual construction costs will be for laying the lines."

Mott continued:

"I also feel that the lack of cooperation received from the other three municipalities had a lot to do with our not being able to convince Des Plaines that it was cheaper and more economically feasible for them to cooperate with our commission in jointly securing a City of Chicago water supply."

The chairman then slapped Mount Prospect. He said, "I believe that Mount Prospect reneged on their responsibilities and, in effect, sold the commission down the river.

"On one hand they talked about cooperating with our commission, while on the other hand they were dealing with Mayor (Herbert) Behrel of Des Plaines to secure a supply of water should Des Plaines go it alone; they also were showing a lack of confidence in the cost and engineering data being used by the commission, in hiring the services of another engineering firm, Greeley and Hanson, to make an independent study of the water situation and the commission's figures."

C. O. SCHLAVER, village president, denied that any deal had been made with Des Plaines to purchase water. He was supported in this denial by Trustee Parker Ekren and Finance Director James King.

Mott said he had information that Mount Prospect intended to buy "large quantities of water from Des Plaines."

Schlaver said he felt, as did the village board, that "it is only sensible to make an independent engineering survey of water needs when you are going to spend money of this magnitude."

Mott's letter also rebuked Arlington Heights and Palatine for what he termed a lack of confidence.

However, Mott also praised Arlington Heights for their cooperation. He wrote: "The Village of Arlington Heights cooperated most closely with the commission during this discussion period and was the only municipality which agreed to purchase a supply of water from the commission."

MOTT EXPRESSED disappointment at the lack of cooperation by saying:

"They, however, also indicted a lack of confidence by indicating that they were planning to hire some independent consultant to obtain city of Chicago water information."

Mott said the next commission meeting will be March 3, at the municipal building in Mount Prospect. That location has been picked as the new permanent meeting place of the commission, and files are being removed from Des Plaines where they formerly headquartered.

A review of bond consultants is expected to take place at the next meeting, Mott said, with an eye toward hiring a consultant to advise the commission on bonds.

Hospital Fund Drive Clean-Up Action Set

Plans for a clean-up drive during February to complete the Northwest Community Hospital Expansion Fund campaign in Arlington Heights were set at a meeting of campaign leaders Tuesday night.

"Reports show we have raised $310,000 in our drive toward the Arlington Heights goal of $550,000," said Ed Baker, general chairman for Arlington Heights. "Obviously, the hardest part of the job is still ahead. Our campaign leadership is meeting later this week to make detailed plans for the clean-up work still to be done.

"Our study of reports on returns thus far leads us to two conclusions," Baker said. "First, we are making real progress toward our goal. Second, there are far too many people in this community who have not yet been given the opportunity to contribute.

"WE FIND that many people consider the hospital expansion one of the most important projects in our community life. No matter how you look at it, adequate hospital facilities are literally a life and death proposition to every one of us. Even so, in the best of our areas, only about half the families have contributed. In some sections, many people have not even been called on."

Southwest area campaign workers were cited for outstanding accomplishment by Baker. They led all other campaign groups by having obtained pledges from 45 per cent of the homes in their territory.

The division is under the leadership of William Brine, chairman, with George Peak and J. W. Carroll as co-chairmen and Mrs. George Sandy as Women's Auxiliary chairman.

CLOSE BEHIND Brine's southwest area is the southeast, with contributions reported from just under 45 per cent of the homes.

Top division captain in the southwest area is Benjamin Grogg, of 637 South Vail. Grogg has reported pledges as follows: 10 for $561, one for $500, seven for $435, nine for $424, eight for $416, 10 for $392, one for $200, and one for $50.

Leading captains in the southeast area are Ray Erickson, 601 Burton, and Harold Dotts, 600 Banbury. Erickson turned in nine pledges for $685, five for $495 and one for $100.

DOTTS REPORTED nine pledges for a total contribution of $3,675.

Other leaders called to the meeting to set final plans for the clean-up drive during February include Fred Siegel, chairman, and Gale Blocki, Jr., co-chairman, southeast area; Herbert Cornelius, chairman, and Richard Bronwell, co-chairman, northwest area; Charles F. Tully, Jr., and Kenneth E. Dougan, co-chairmen, northwest area.

Community Council Hears Plans for Junior College

Representatives of a broad base of community organizations were brought up to date on plans for a two-year community college in the area Jan. 30 at a meeting of the Arlington Heights Community Council (Commco). Then they were asked to help.

Feature of the Commco meeting at Arlington Heights Christian Church was a panel presentation including coverage of the origin, progress and future of the proposed junior college which would serve four northwest suburban high school districts.

Appearing on the panel were Harold Slichenmyer, superintendent of schools for District 214; Edward Smith, chairman of the District 214 Citizens' Community College Committee, and Mrs. R. B. Yadon, the committee secretary.

Slichenmyer explained his role as one of the originators of the area plan along with other high school administrators, but added that he could not be credited with inspiration — only with taking note of the pressure for such an institution within the area.

The superintenndent cited the fact that about 40 per cent of the graduates in the Arlington Heights high school district do not go on to college, and that many of those who go do not graduate.

HE ADDED that the need for at least some education and specialization after high school is increasing, while vacancies in existing colleges and universities are fast disappearing.

The nine high school districts originally involved in the community college proposal simply put up necessary funds for a feasibility survey, then the administrators removed themselves from direct involvement to the capacity of a steering committee.

Citizens' committees were appointed to carry through on the study in 1961. Both Smith and Mrs. Yadon have been members of the Arlington Heights and over-all committees since their beginning.

SMITH TOLD the approximately 50 organization representatives in the Commco audience that the number of participating high school districts had been decreased to four because of individual problems in other districts.

He said the four remaining — Arlington Heights, Palatine - Schaumburg, Niles and Glenbrook — are in a good position for a community college because of their broad industrial tax base.

Smith outlined beginning operation costs estimated at $1,000 a year per full-time student. Of this figure, state aid would contribute about $200, and students' tuition would add an equal amount.

The remaining $600 would be drawn from property taxation, which has been estimated to involve a rate of about seven cents per $100 assessed valuation throughout the college area — based on first-year enrollment estimates of about 1,600.

BUILDING AND site costs would bring the tax rate up near 15 cents per $100, Smith estimated.

Mrs. Yadon continued with cost estimates, adding that if all goes well the junior college would be in operation for the 1966-67 term.

She explained that petitions which are now being circulated are the first official step toward achievement of the community college goal.

The petitions go to the county superintendent of schools, and county superintendent and state superintendent of public instruction must pass on the idea before a referendum date is set.

A TENTATIVE time schedule looks for hearings to be held before the county superintendent in March and a referendum for establishment of the college district to be held in May.

Questions from the audience touched on elements of the proposal covered in the original summary — clarifying that the maximum tax rate requested would probably be 16 cents.

But others questioned the type of educational service to be rendered.

Panel members explained that plans included full accreditation to allow transfer of credits to any four-year school, and that emphasis would be put on technical training as well as liberal arts.

The college would be designed for those intending to go on with their education after the two years, and for those who would find two years enough for their chosen field, Slichenmyer explained.

SMITH SAID hopefully the school would take as many as applied after graduation from a high school in the four participating districts, but that staying in would be another thing.

At the close of the panel discussion and question session, the panel participants passed out petitions to members of the audience who indicated they would be willing to pass them among their respective groups.

Petitions must be signed by 500 or more persons in at least three quarters of the secondary school districts included in the proposal.

Mrs. Yadon, who is heading the Citizens' Committee's presentation subcommittee, also offered to set up presentation dates in February or March for any organization desiring more information on the proposal.

Set Deadline to Enter Parade Units

VFW Post 981 of Arlington Heights this week set March 15 as deadline for individuals and groups wishing to participate in the Memorial Day parade to submit details of their parade units.

Edward R. Doyle, publicity officer for the post, said information regarding parade units should include the name of the leader or officer in charge.

The services and parade will be held Saturday, May 30.

THIS YEAR the Arlington Heights VFW post is asking public support of the program, estimated to cost about $1,800, Doyle said. To launch the campaign for funds, Post 981 has donated $250.

Any size gift is welcome, he said. Contributions may be sent to the post home, 811 N. Yale Ave., Arlington Heights. They should be marked "Memorial Day Fund."

Questions about the program or fund campaign should be directed to S. Greschner, CL 3-0160, 108 N. Pine, Arlington Heights, or Robert Reynolds, CL 3-6728, 2307 Wilke Road, Rolling Meadows. (AK

YR's Meet Is Tonight

The Wheeling Township Young Republican Club will hold its regular monthly meeting tonight, Thursday, at 8 p.m. at the Colt Restaurant on Rand Road (Rt. 12) north of Arlington Heights.

Business for the evening consists of approving amendments to the club constitution and election of officers.

Lions Ham Dinner Will Aid Hospital

The Arlington Heights Lions Club's seventh annual Ham Dinner this Sunday, Feb. 9. will have a bit of extra community significance in the light of a recent pledge.

The dinner is one of the Lions' regular fund-raising activities — profits from which normally go to finance the club's activities to help the blind locally and throughout the nation.

But with last month's pledge of $5,000 toward the proposed addition to Northwest Community Hospital, the Lions took on an extra fund-raising chore.

THE PLEDGE, which was made to drive chairman Nicholas Lattof, is to be spread over the next three years, and all to be raised through activities in the community.

The Lions also pledged $10,000 over a period of years in the original hospital construction drive.

Sunday's family style ham dinner, to be held at the activities building of St. John United Church of Christ, 314 N. Evergreen, will be served from 1 to 5 p.m.

Tickets will be available at the door or from any club member previous to the event.

Donation is $2 for adults and $1 for children ages 5 to 12. (A

Delay Other Decision

33-Foot Sign for Theatre Approved

Requests for permits to erect two signs came under scrutiny of the Arlington Heights Village Board Monday.

The recommendation of building commissioner Harold Best to allow construction of a 33-foot-high sign for the Arlington Theatre was endorsed by the board.

The original application by manager Don Knapp was denied by the building department because of the height involved, which exceeds the 15 feet, 6 inches allowed under the village ordinance, and because flashing letters were requested.

But Best's recommendation was that the height be allowed because it would be that great if the sign were installed on top of the theatre building under provisions of the ordinance.

Flashing letters were excluded from the sign, which is to be installed on the theatre parking area facing Northwest Highway to advertise current and coming features.

ACTION ON THE second application, from Mark Motors, 2020 E. Northwest Hwy., was deferred until the next regular board meeting because of unusual circumstances.

The sign is to be installed, maintained and owned by Chrysler Corp. as part of a drive for corporate dealer identification. It was to be of standard design and size.

The request was for a 44-foot, 7-inch height, with the uppermost portion of the sign designed to revolve.

Best recommended that height be limited to 30 feet, which would be allowed under the local ordinance if the sign were placed on the showroom roof, and that the rotating portion be made stationary.

DEALER MARK Heller appeared with a representative of Chrysler Corporation and the sign company involved to request that the standard sign be allowed.

But the board hit on a compromise which would allow a height of about 35 feet and allow the rotating mechanism to simply remain disconnected without involving any change in the design of the sign.

Deferral was granted to allow the motor company to consider the change in size and whether it would still provide the free sign to the dealership.

Heller pointed out that he had been chosen as the first dealer in the Chicago area to sport the new standard sign, and that he would not like to miss the chance.

Women's Club Grew From Reading Circle

(Another in a series of articles on the aims and activities of member organizations of the Arlington Heights Community Council.)

On Jan. 16, 1887 — more than three-quarters of a century ago — six Arlington Heights women started a "reading circle," based on the then-popular Chatauqua plan, for the purpose of self-betterment.

From that modest beginning came the present Arlington Heights Woman's Club, today having a membership of 400 and responsible for many village improvements through its goal of promoting the welfare of the home and the community and stimulating interest along educational, civic, charitable and cultural lines.

The names of those six pioneers who founded the "reading circle" are Mrs. Amos W. Walker, Mrs. Daniel F. Fast, Mrs. George Fleming, Mrs. D. K. Draper, Miss Nellie Noyes and Mrs. Milton Goodfellow.

As the club grew in size it became state federated (1899) and joined the General Federation of Women's Clubs (1940). As a member of those two organizations, it expanded its aims to include state and national educational and philanthropic interests.

One of the most noteworthy of the club's accomplishments was its pioneer work in the construction of the Arlington Heights Memorial Library which became reality in 1952.

It was the culmination of a dream of the small founding group which began with donations of books by its own members and operated in the home of a member, a dream that was carried on by the founders' successors who even today remain active through the donation of equipment when needed.

THE ARLINGTON Heights Woman's Club has sponsored for many years the March of Dimes and the Salvation Army Doughnut Day in Arlington Heights. It has arranged a Christmas Craft show at the Countryside Gallery and presented the art work of club members at its own meetings. It has aided the American Indian Center in Chicago in various ways.

It has supported the American Field Service Program of Arlington High School whereby foreign students become pupils in this country and American students study abroad. It has raised money for the work of the Park Ridge School for Girls, the Public Health and Mental Health and Welfare committees, veterans' committees, CARE, cancer research, educational television and Indian scholarships.

Donations have been made to Northwest Community Hospital, the Arlington Heights Combined Area Appeal and the Arlington Heights Historical Society.

Meetings are held on the first Wednesday afternoon of each month from October through April at Recreation Park fieldhouse with varied educational and cultural programs presented after the regular business session.

These meetings are augmented by seven study groups, which schedule 21 separate meetings throughout the year and are responsible for many of the club's activities.

THESE STUDY groups and their respective chairmen are:

American home study, Mrs. Herman Mell, 207 N. Lincoln; art, Mrs. George Wesler, 332 S. Derbyshire; conservation and garden, Mrs. Herman Berthold Jr., 746 S. Highland; music study, Mrs. Hugh Hoym, 721 S. Dunton; Indian affairs, Mrs. Joseph Murphy, 8 S. Louis, Mount Prospect; International relations, Mrs. George Vitoux, 610 S. Evergreen; literature study, Mrs. Joseph Svoboda, 713 S. Walnut.

In addition to these study groups, there are the following departments: American citizenship, education, house and property, Park Ridge School for Girls, public health, mental health and welfare, safety, veterans, stamp and school board nominating committee.

Current officers are: president, Mrs. Z. R. Rogozinski, 1219 Woodford; first vice president, Mrs. Albert Peters, 403 N. Belmont; second vice president, Mrs. Paul George, 932 S. Evergreen; recording secretary, Mrs. G. M. Kendrick, 921 S. Beverly; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. H. Rosene, 404 E. Fairview; treasurer, Mrs. Gale Smith Jr., 1005 W. Grove; directors, Mrs. Marvin Brand, 1002 N. Walnut; Mrs. Roger Burke, 438 S. Vail; Mrs. Sam Cullison Jr., 511 N. Hickory; Mrs. Theodore Samuelson, 727 N. Chestnut, and Mrs. John Schaff, 515 E. Rockwell.

SUPPLEMENTing their work are Mrs. Milton Daniels, 805 N. Dunton, historian; Mrs. William Chalmers, 612 Burton Place, finance; Mrs. Frank Broniarczyk, 331 S. Phelps membership; Mrs. Orville Anderson, 701 S. Walnut; Mrs. H. A. Burnett, 317 S. Derbyshire, hospitality, and Mrs. George Sandy, 515 S. Chestnut, junior club sponsor.

Membership is open to all Arlington Heights women with applications recommended by two members with at least one year of membership. New members are inducted at the October and February meetings. (A

Officers Elected By Concert Group

The Arlington Heights Community Concert Assn. has elected new officers for the 1964-65 season.

Directing the activities of the group, which brings nationally prominent musical artists to Arlington Heights, will be Clayton Sauers, president; Patricia Sauers, first vice president and membership chairman; Sally Opela, second vice president; Joan Grisell, recording secretary; Eloise Zonsius, corresponding secretary; Arthur Franzen, treasurer; Dolores Hruby, artist screening chairman, and Richard Frisbie, publicity chairman.

Elected to the board of directors at the annual membership meeting Jan. 28 were Vincent Ahnquist, Lucille Blocki, Marvin Buehler, Joan Dunlop, Marie Ewing, Ava Jean Vigstedt and Boyd White.

HAZEL Carlson and Norbert Hruby were appointed to a nominating committee to recommend officers for the following year.

First task of the new officers and directors will be to organize the annual membership campaign. Members will be able to renew their memberships during the week of March 2. The drive for new members will be held the week of March 9. Subscriptions are in advance for the entire season's concert series.

The final concert of the current season, originally scheduled for March 5, has been postponed till April 23 because of scheduling difficulties at the Arlington Theatre. The artist will be Anna Russell, musical comedienne. (A

Technical Crews Rushing 'Blithe Spirit' Set Work

Technical crews for "Blithe Spirit," Arlington High School's mid-winter play, were battling deadlines this week as they rushed work on sets, sound and lighting systems.

The breezy Noel Coward comedy opens in Little Theatre on Thursday, Feb. 13 for the first of three performances.

Cast members are rehearsing after school and evenings under the direction of Lyovonne M. Trad.

THE SOPHISTICATED comedy, a "ghost" tale that provides playwright Coward with a variety of situations to exploit with his probing wit, features Claude LaRose Jr., Lynne Broderick, Sue Stratton, Pat Smith, Donald DePollo, Kris Swanson, and Kathy Ligon in the seven-member cast.

Geralynn DeZonna is assistant to Miss Trad, and Linda Hosek is assistant student director.

Working with James Walker, art instructor and technical director for the play, are members of the scenery crew:

James Perrin and Robin Mills, co-chairmen of the publicity committee, are being assisted by James Oestman, Linda Wheeler, Ray Thill, and Larry La Rose.

Properties committee co-chairmen are Darlene Kasl and Robin Mills, assisted by Nancy Palmatier, Francy Palmatier, and James Perrin.

Admission is $1 and tickets are now available from cast members, at Arlington High School office, and Paddock Publications, 217 W. Campbell St., Arlington Heights.

Curtain time for opening night, Feb. 13, is 7:30 p. m. Performances for Feb. 14 and 15 will begin at 8 p. m.

Church Women to Observe 78th World Day of Prayer

The local council of United Church Women will sponsor observance of the 78th annual World Day of Prayer Friday, Feb. 14, at 1:30 p.m. in Community Presbyterian Church, Wheeling.

Uniting in the worldwide prayer service will be women from churches in Wheeling, Mount Prospect, Half Day and Prospect Heights.

The theme for the 1964 service, which is open to the public, is "Let Us Pray." The service was prepared by Dr. Madeleine Barot, executive secretary of the department on cooperation of men and women in church, family and society of the World Council of Churches.

Gifts given during the service will be used for Christian church activities throughout the world.

THE INVOCATION and the benediction will be given by the Rev. George M. Ekstrom, pastor of Community Presbyterian Church, Wheeling. The Rev. Herbert J. Armstrong, minister of St. Mark United Church of Christ, Wheeling, will deliver the meditation.

Organist will be Mrs. Edward Krueger of Prospect Heights Community Church, and soloist will be Mrs. James Jacob of Prospect Christian Church, Prospect Heights.

Others participating in the service will be:

Mrs. William Eunson, Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd, Prospect Heights; Mrs. H. Christiansen, St. Mark Lutheran, Mount Prospect; Mrs. William Mykytiuk and Mrs. S. Fenner Adam, Community Presbyterian of Wheeling, Mrs. Sydney Mertz, St. Mark United of Wheeling; Mrs. George Harris, Prospect Heights Community;

MRS. J. B. French, South Church-Community Baptist, Mount Prospect; Mrs. Clyde Smith, Trinity Methodist, Mount Prospect, and Mrs. Archie Hampton, Northwest Covenant Church, Mount Prospect.

A nursery for younger children will be provided by Mrs. Alvin Kjellin, Wheeling Community Presbyterian; Mrs. Virginia Bennett, Prospect Christian Church, and Mrs. Irene Newcomb, Community Presbyterian of Mount Prospect.

Publicity was handled by Mrs. Donald Jacobson, Prospect Christian Church, and Mrs. Merle Willis, Wheeling Community Presbyterian.

Sandra Is Named Top Homemaker

Senior Sandra Zapfel has been named Forest View High School's 1964 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. She achieved the highest score here in a written knowledge and attitude examination given Dec. 3.

General Mills Inc., sponsor of the program, will award her a "Homemaker of Tomorrow" pin to signify her achievement, and her test paper will be entered in competition for state honors.

The state Homemaker of Tomorrow will be awarded a $1,500 college scholarship and will be named a national finalist. Her school will be presented with a set of Encyclopaedia Britannica, awarded by Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc. The state's second ranking girl will receive a $500 scholarship.

IN THE SPRING, state Homemakers of Tomorrow, each accompanied by a school advisor, will enjoy an expense-paid educational tour to Colonial Williamsburg, Va., Washington, D.C., and New York City.

The trip will be climaxed with the naming of the 1964 Betty Crocker All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow. She will be chosen on the basis of her original test score together with personal observation and interviews during the trip.

Her scholarship will be increased to $5,000. National runners-up will receive $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000 scholarships, respectively. (ACM-EG

KLEHM'S AD WRITER IN A PREDICAMENT

February 6—It's high time I ran an ad on house plants. Copy-wise, I've been murmuring to myself—

"WINTER DOLDRUMS? No need for gardeners to be blue when a visit through our greenhouses will cheer you up, etc."

Here is my problem. I stroll back through the greenhouses and start listing unusually attractive varieties — Bromeliad Splendens, Carissa Bonzai, Norfolk Island Pine, Firebrand Dracaena — and that darling little Cryptanthus Zonata, as exotic in appearance as it sounds and only 50 cents.

And that is my problem — I'm not half way through the greenhouses and I've bought two myself already! They're irresistible! But shucks, I rationalize — my house and I deserve a break these gloomy days, so home it goes.

GIFT SHOP "PERMANENT ARRANGEMENTS"

. . . that's the fancy new way to refer to artificial flowers. I like to say to myself about them, "Frankly fake, but fun." I just walked through the gift shop, and have just succumbed again — that arrangement with the coral tones will really do things for my living room!

SPRING SEEDS ARE IN

Now I really must scurry back to my typewriter, for I just spotted those beautiful bulging colorful seed racks. Inviting new varieties, delightfully colorful — the very promise of spring. And I have one of those GRO-LUX lamp outfits that we're featuring. Won't I have fun starting seeds! If you are gardeners, you will understand my predicament. I can't resist — but who wants to resist?

VIRGINIA TERRACE

The Terrace welcomes Robert and Mary Ellen Grunwald who moved to 1413 N. Wilke on Jan. 31 from Norridge. Robert is employed by Theodore Ebert and Co. in Chicago. They plan to join St. Thomas of Villanova Catholic Church.

Diane Stanley, daughter of the Leonard Stanleys, 1408 Oakton, was 6 on Jan. 28. Young friends who helped her celebrate at her afternoon party were Mike Stein, Cathy Weber, Tricia Fedderson, Virginia Griffin, Terry Trummer, and Diane's brother, Tim. Games and prizes, hats and favors and a flower-decorated cake were all part of the party fun.

Celebrating his first birthday on Feb. 1 was Raymond Love, son of the Raymond Loves, 1609 W. Olive. A family party given for Raymond on Sunday was attended by his grandparents, the George Masts of Mount Prospect and Joe Nickols of Chicago, his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Mellies of Antioch, his parents and his sister, Lori.

SATURDAY dinner guests of the Hugh Bredenbecks, 1706 W. Oakton, were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Roberts and daughter, Kathy, of Chicago and friends of the Robertses from Australia, the Joaf Peterson family. Both of the men are graduate students at the University of Chicago. Mr. Peterson, a minister in Australia, has a fellowship at the university.

On Feb. 2, Barbara Smith was 7 years old. A party was given for her on Saturday by her parents, the Dave Smiths, 1259 N. Chicago. Friends enjoying an afternoon movie followed by supper at the Smiths' were Barbara Hahn, Barbara Clinite, Linda and Donna Kenney, Denise Davis, Pam Mercer, Julie Willson, Cindy Ross, Kris Blackburn, and Barbara's sister, "Dede."

A second celebration, and an especially happy one for Barbara, was held Sunday at the home of her grandmother in Clarendon Hills. Barbara's Grandmother Smith returned to her home Sunday after a three and a half-month stay in the hospital. Attending the Sunday celebration at the Wayne Smiths were Barbara's great-grandmother, Mrs. Flora Breathwaite, her parents and her sister.

Two birthdays were celebrated by members of the Bruce Mullins family, 1415 N. Illinois, this week. Mike was 8 Feb. 2 and Marianne was 4 Feb. 3. The children's grandmother, Mrs. Dolores Spaetz of Park Ridge, joined the family for a celebration on Sunday. Their brother, Kevin, was also included in the festivities.

RECENT arrivals in the Terrace are Edward and Christine Roberts who moved to 1110 N. Yale from Chicago on Jan. 23. They were originally from Granite City. Edward is employed by the Veterans Administration Research Hospital in Chicago.

Wayne Herndon started school Monday. Many of his Wilke Road neighbors may have thought he had been attending school, since each morning Wayne, along with several other boys, walked toward the bus stop carrying a sack lunch. However, Wayne was merely accompanying his brother, David, to the bus stop. Now Wayne, son of the Brody Herndons, 1333 N. Wilke, attends nursery school.

Friday evening guests of Ray and Gail Israel, 1247 N. Chicago, were Mr. and Mrs. James Applegate and daughter, Karen, of Palatine and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Roznak and son, Geoffrey, of Elmhurst. Both the Applegates and Roznaks were neighbors of the Israels when they lived in Palatine.

Last Saturday, Katherine Bartel, 1210 N. Race was hostess at a coffee given for her new neighbor, Carla Edwards. Attending the coffee were Connie Dolejs, Edith Larson, Lee Pods, Darlene Krug, Myrna Dittmer, Peggy MacMillan, Nancy Polewko, Meryl Jessen, Anna-Liese Sommerfield, Florence Paul, Betty Combs, Ina Merckx, Marilyn Schmidt, and Sally Kruse, a Terrace newcomer also introduced at the coffee.

Recent houseguests of Phil and Lee Pods, 1208 N. Race, were Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Winick of Newaygo, Mich. During the four-day visit, the two couples made several trips to Chicago. They enjoyed dinner and cocktails at the Top of the Rock in the Prudential Building, visited the Furniture Mart, shopped and had dinner at Riccardo's.

Cheryle Speer, daughter of the Leland Speers, 1346 N. Yale, was 8 Feb. 3. She was honored at a theatre party on Saturday. Attending were Val and Mickey Moser, Sharon and "Dee Dee" Leister, Joyce and Carol Randle, Wendy and Cheryl Bloom, Mickey Alexander and Joyce Lynch.

Weekend guests of Al and Rosemary Shellander were Rosemary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jonas of Lake Geneva. (A

LESS COST PER MILE

by JOE LAMPING

Tire cost is one of the major expenses in your automobile today. With a little care and general maintenance, Joe's Sunoco has shown many folks how to get their money's worth by delivering many extra thousands of miles, not mentioning the gain in safety.

The best tire made cannot deliver its full potential of worth if it's handicapped by bad brakes, wheel misalignment, poor shocks, underinflation and other mechanical malfunctions. These are the services we specialize in at 2101 E. Northwest Hwy., Arlington Heights, besides many more to keep you 'going' safely. Pat and Maury Pera attended the wedding of close friends, Jan Kuhl and John Nelson, on Feb. 1 in Glenview. Two weeks before, Pat gave a shower for Jan in her home, 1104 S. Walnut. Guests were from Morton Grove, Arlington Heights, Chicago, Buffalo Grove and Edison Park.

Shirley and Dick Engmann, 1145 S. Walnut, gave a party for Shirley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Henry, Chicago, to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. Those attending were the Wes Jolgrens from Joliet and the William Moores, Miss Betty Cuifinni and Miss Barbara Henry from Chicago.

Pat Garrity, 1116 S. Walnut, was hostess for a cake demonstration in her home on Jan. 20. The demonstrator was Marie Vanderslice of Chicago, who showed 20 neighborhood girls how to decorate for showers, Valentine's Day, St. Patrick's Day and birthdays.

KAY AND JOHN Borucki, 406 Cypress, were guests of John's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Borucki of Evanston, at the Knights of Columbus dinner dance held at the Orrington Hotel in Evanston on Jan. 18.

James Daniel, son of Ginny and Ron Gajewski, Ridge Avenue, was christened recently and on hand to help celebrate were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Pepper of Glenview and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gajewski, Niles; Arlene and Mike Fenney and Jean and Walter Szermeta, Arlington Heights; Lee and Bob Nielson, Prospect Heights; George and Ceil Potter, Elmwood Park; and Judy Gajewski, Niles.

Lorraine Geborek entertained at a baby shower recently for Arlene Cayers. Attending were Jan Merges, Jean Szermeta, Jean Smuda, Jean Birkenheiers and Ginny Gajewski, all of Arlington Heights.

JIMMY Weinrauch, 1262 S. Mitchell, who was 6 years old, celebrated with a party for 20 children on Jan. 29.

Paul Trousil, 1103 S. Mitchell, was 7 on Jan. 25 and boys from the neighborhood who helped him celebrate were Robert Dinkle, Mark Dick, John Vertigo, Steve Kruger and Mike Weisner.

Overnight guests of Barbara and Al Vidmar last week were Rita Marcus and her four daughters, Diane, Ellen, Connie and Nancy. They were formerly from Arlington Heights, and have moved to Washington, D. C.

Wally Ambrose and John Borucki are the two delegates to the Board of Education. They will represent Arlington Heights Gardens at the meetings.

Congratulations are being received by Carol Cusak who bowled a 200 game last week. She is the president of the bowling league here in the Gardens.

Marlene Mellenthin, 1111 S. Mitchell, entertained her woman's club at her home on Friday. They all had a good time reminiscing about school days, as they are all ex-teachers.

Planning Consultant Gets Confidence Vote

The finance committee of the Arlington Heights Village Board reaffirmed its confidence in the village's planning consultant, M. Eugene Baughman Monday in a report to the board.

The report contained three recommendations for future practice to "remove any confusion arising out of his services."

Recommendations were the following, accepted by the board:

"Future statements . . . will show calculations of time, rates and other specific charges. The statements just rendered will be returned to the Accounts Payable ledger when this detail is presented.

"Projects assigned M. Baughman will be approved by the village board. A project will be any long, written report or recommendation, not comments on subdivisions or amendments.

"ANY OTHER assignments to M. Baughman will come normally only from the Village President, Plan Commission President, Village Manager or Village Attorney. In case of question Mr. Baughman will refer the assignment to the Village Manager."

The recommendations, which were prefaced with the finding that "Rates being charged are reasonable," arose from a meeting of the finance committee with Baughman Jan. 28.

The meeting was scheduled when a question arose at the Jan. 20 village board meeting over several months worth of bills on the ledger of accounts payable. Payment was withheld for clarification. (A home than a bigger but older home for $20,000.

UNDER THE NEW standards, rooms will be required to be a certain size so the builder will have to move walls and ruin the layout, said Stoltzman. If the builder can get no more for his money, he'll cut on quality.

The committee did not take into account design trends, according to Hardwood. Designs of homes being built in the New York area will spread to the Midwest but the proposed building standards would prevent the builder from adopting the innovations.

Arlington Heights has a right to establish a base to meet the tax demands but it is taking it a step too far in philosophy when it can tell a customer what kind of bedroom or basement he must have, Ben Pekin of Knobb Hill said.

ALTHOUGH every builder at the Thursday meeting is above the present minimum, all their developments would become non-conforming in some area, the builders said. The committee looked at 25 builders' homes including Bartel, Ivy Hill, Peterson, Catino, Stoltzer, and Miller. Wilkins said models his company built in Greenbrier and expected to last through 1965 would have to be scrapped.

The standards would "manacle a builder," said Hartman. The market and customer should dictate how the rooms are arranged.

"You're going to do an imperfect job in regulating the building instead of letting the market do it," Miller said. The village might not be able to control what happened or the image Arlington Heights might get, he continued.

THE COUNTY land will become more attractive to develop if the village forces a price squeeze. "We must sell location but we sell price," Hartman said.

The builders praised the Arlington Heights building department as "tough, stringent but fair." This is the only town where a builder can sit down with the building commissioner and discuss building, Hartman said.

Don't take a flyer on just any dryer

Get a Gas dryer on a free 60-day trial

Dry the modern gas way. Special offer lets you select a gas dryer of your choice and then enjoy the convenience, speed and economy of gas drying for 60 days before you buy.

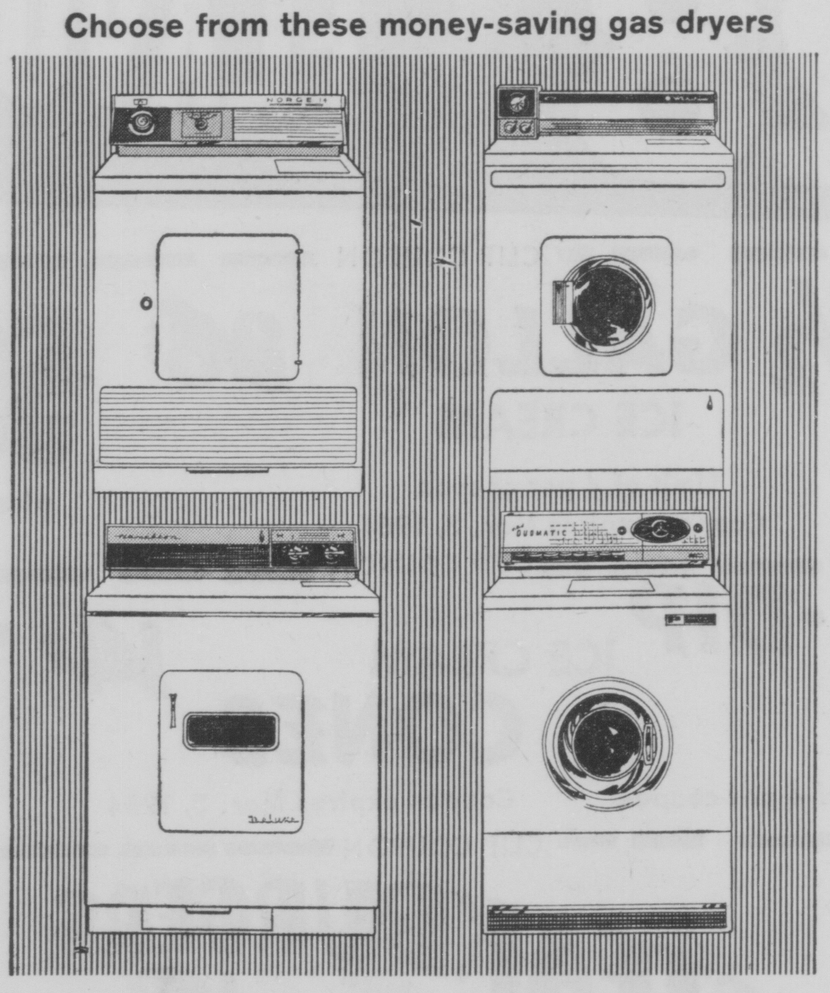
With a gas dryer, you'll save an average of nearly $20 a year on operating costs, compared with other automatics. You'll save on installation, too, for there's no investment in costly heavy-duty wiring needed to operate a gas dryer.

You be the judge. See how fast gas dries your clothes; how soft and sweet-smelling they come out of your dryer. There's no dry baking action that sets wrinkles when you dry with gas.

Choose from these money-saving gas dryers

Norge—Model DGE7020 featuring: 14-pound capacity

Whirlpool—Model LJD49X featuring: 2 speeds, 6 cycles



Hamilton—Model 94M3 featuring: Twin Air Stream Drying

Philco-Bendix—Model CG736 featuring: combination washer-dryer

Visit your Northern Illinois Gas Company showroom and select the dryer you wish to try for 60 days. No down payment required. (Matching washers also are available.) After a 60-day trial we're sure you'll want to keep your gas dryer. And you can arrange for low payments with up to 36 months to pay. If you're not delighted with your dryer after your home trial, we'll pick it up. No obligation, of course.

Your nearby appliance dealer also has an exceptional offer on the purchase of a modern money-saving gas dryer.

THE FIRST SKETCH of the proposed Elk Grove High School was released by architects Berger-Kelley-Unteed this week. The projected $5.35 million school is slated to open in September, 1966. The school will be built on property now owned by High School District 214 at Elk Grove Boulevard and Arlington Heights Road. Designed to house 2,500 students, the Elk Grove school will be the fifth high school in the old Arlington High School district. Voters will be asked to approve a $6 million bond issue on Feb. 29, with funds slated for the Elk Grove High School and the purchase of two future high school sites in Rolling Meadows and Prospect Heights. Caught in Ohio

Pair Accused of Bad Check Spree

A speeding charge in Ohio has led to the apprehension of two men charged with cashing phony checks in Chicago and the suburbs, including Rolling Meadows, Arlington Heights, and Mount Prospect.

Topps Department Store was the first to report to Rolling Meadows police that they were holding a worthless check in the amount of $57.80, written on the Custom Die Mold Corp., 2706 Belmont, Chicago, and signed by one Lester Nix who used a fictitious Rolling Meadows address.

The Chicago firm told police checks and check-writer had been stolen during a burglary, and Chicago police were on the case.

Harold Freitag of Freitag Hardware, Arlington Heights, was holding another worthless check drawn on the same firm. He was able to give police a description of the man who cashed it.

EAGLE FOODS soon reported a check signed by a Clarence Simpson, with another phony Rolling Meadows address, had bounced.

W. T. Grant Co. had one of the checks with the Lester Nix signature, and another check, made payable to R. L. Miller of Chicago, drawn on Phillips and Cherby Advertising Co. of Chicago.

Mrs. Mary Tam of the agency said the account had been closed and checks voided last April. The signature on the checks was forged, but handwriting experts verified "Phillips" and "Simpson" were written by the same person.

As northwest police compared notes, the bad checks turned up in Northbrook and Des Plaines, where "Miller" was picked up on a deceptive practice charge but released on bond.

CHICAGO police found the Miller driver's license, used for identification, had been stolen.

A photograph taken at Topps when Nix cashed a check there was identified as "Miller" by other victims, and police reasoned "Simpson" was a colleague.

The check cashing spree occurred Jan. 15, with Ward's in Randhurst among the victims.

Ward's Evergreen Park store had been hit by two men listed as Moore and Merrill, arrested for using stolen credit cards. One matched the description of Miller. The two men had been released on bond and failed to appear in court.

MERRILL was subsequently picked up in Ohio on the speeding charge, and police report the checks and check-writer were found in the car.

Possible charges against the men range from speeding, a traffic violation, to forgery, a federal case. In between are deceptive practices for passing bad checks, burglary and grand theft.

The various law officers involved have not yet determined which crime will be prosecuted first.

Debaters to Argue on TV

Debate teams from Proviso West and Prospect High Schools will argue the Congressional establishment of a youth conservation corps on "Rebuttal," Saturday, Feb. 22, from 2:30 to 3 p.m. on WBBM-TV, Channel 2.

The Proviso West team of Hillside coached by James A. Waage will take the affirmative position. The negative will be argued by the Prospect High team coached by Robert Goldman.

This will be the 16th debate in the first round of the interscholastic tournament, sanctioned by the Illinois High School Assn.

Forest View Plans Band Music, Panel

The Teacher Parent Council (TPC) of Forest View High School will hold its midwinter meeting Thursday Feb. 13 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school gymnasium.

The meeting will begin with music by the high school band under direction of Fred Elliot, followed at 8 p.m. by a panel discussion on the theme, "Analyzing the Adolescent — How to Help Him Develop Properly for the Future."

Speakers for the meeting will be Dr. Ronald Duckers, school psychologist, psychology instructor for the University of Illinois and education instructor for Northwestern University; L. D. Unterbrink, school social worker and private practitioner in adult and child guidance and Dr. Frank Smith, director of employe attitude service research for Sears and Roebuck and lecturer in psychology at Loyola University.

Mrs. Hunter To Campaign For Percy

Mrs. Leo L. Hunter of 940 N. Chestnut Ave., Arlington Heights, has been appointed women's chairman of the Wheeling Township Percy for Governor Committee.

The appointment was made by John G. Woods, who is committee chairman and village president of Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Hunter was the first female precinct captain ever to be named in Wheeling Township. She was appointed captain in Precinct 15 in 1959 by former GOP Committeeman Henry Busse.

She served two terms as secretary of the Wheeling Township Regular Republican Club and is currently secretary of the 13th Congressional District Republican Women's Club.

Need Puzzles, Books for Vets

Arlington Heights VFW Post 981 would like pocket book novels and jigsaw puzzles for use at the Elgin Veterans Hospital.

Mrs. Shirley McDougall, 433 S. Vail, Arlington Heights, said donations may be taken to the post clubhouse, 811 N. Yale Ave. or they will be picked up if necessary.

For pick-up, call Mrs. McDougall, CL 3-6151, or E. R. Doyle, HE 7-2864. (A

Ground Hog Day Adds Nothing to Village Social Life

The oddments that find their miscellaneous ways to a social columnist's desk are sometimes underwhelming in concept. This week, for instance, comes the information that Feb. 2 is not only Groundhog's Day, a perennial nothing, socially, but it also marks the beginning of Children's Dental Health Week. Makes you want to dash right out and start party-planning, doesn't it? Luckily for this column, Arlington Heighters are sociable regardless of Special Weeks, and with or without hexachlorophene and little underground creatures.

Mrs. Peter Friedrichs, 1112 N. Dunton, was 82 Saturday, and a party of 19 local and Chicago family members made a gala event of the occasion, celebrating with a party in the birthday girl's home. Co-starring with Mom in the guest-of-honor role was her daughter, Mrs. William Beck of Chicago, who observes a Jan. 31 birthday.

Linda Musich turned 7 last Thursday and feverish on Saturday, but an after-school party Friday made the birthday event a happy one. Even Saturday's ailment wasn't too hard to take because Grandpa and Grandma Musich, Uncle Jim Musich and his family, all of Milwaukee, came to spend a happy birthday weekend with Linda and the rest of the family at 403 N. Chestnut.

VISITORS this week in the James Bieser home, 815 W. George, were the host's brother and family, Dr. and Mrs. Leo Bieser and their son, Brent, of Kansas City, Kan. Dr. Bieser attended the dental society's convention in Chicago through Wednesday's closing session, when the family get-together also had to come to an end.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeMarrs, 122 S. Kaspar, returned Friday from a frost-free, sunny vacation in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, sharing the fun and sun with Chicago friends with whom they traveled.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stateler, 1014 N. Walnut, spent last week in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., golfing, relaxing and agreeing that Mrs. Stateler's sister, Miss Sue Hamilton, is a honey. Miss Hamilton, a Bradley University coed, volunteered to spend her between-semesters vacation at home with the Stateler children so that her sister and brother-in-law could have a get-away-from-it-all vacation in Florida.

The Donald Hammerstroms, 301 N. Derbyshire, are enjoying the visit this week of Mrs. Hammerstrom's brother and his family, the Richard Bergsunds of San Francisco.

ROBERT CORDARO, partly of Arlington Heights and mostly of Lakeland and Florida Southern College, writes that he and fellow Sigma Chi brothers are touring the state's Clermont area, locale of the world's largest citrus concentration. From the observation deck of Citrus Tower in the Highlands at Clermont it is possible to view a 2,000-square-mile area, containing 17 million citrus trees and hundreds of lakes.

On a printed form, listing places of interest in the area, Cordaro had checked the view from the tower and skipped the "wildlife arena and pit vipers." He concluded with a personal note that he'd like friends at home to know of his recent ...od and the rest of the family lived on the 1000 block of N. Evergreen for several years, and they now maintain a home in Florida. Bob's Dad is a musician on the Don McNeill "Breakfast Club" radio show, one with lots of long range commuting to his credit.

ALENE POSSELT, Millikin University coed, was home from Decatur for a whirlwind weekend as a bridesmaid in a local wedding party. Joining her in the same happy-hectic role was Deanna Drumtra, who came from Northern Illinois University to serve with Alene as attendants for their long-time friend, Miss Marjorie Lurtz, who was married Saturday to a former Mount Prospect man, John Sumoni, now of Detroit.

DePauw University senior, Martha Hawkes, spent last week's between-semester break in East Lansing at the home of Dennis Drewry and his parents. She returned to Greencastle in time to resume classes Monday, and is off and away again today, heading for Hanover, N. H. and the traditional Winter Carnival weekend at Dartmouth. Her Dad, an old Dartmouth man himself, predicts she'll have a tough time coming down out of the clouds and back to the books next Monday.

Friends and neighbors of Mrs. Esther Goede of 1801 E. Palatine Road, Arlington Heights, will be sorry to learn of the death of her brother, Herbert Reetz, late resident of Des Plaines. He died Jan. 22 in Elgin at the age of 54. Sympathies are extended to the family.

Sidelights
Of Arlington Heights

Arlington Heights, Scarsdale & Estates, Stonegate

Dorothy Meyer, CL 3-2298 Elsie Jedd, CL 3-5982

Friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. William Lorne Box Sr., 838 S. Evergreen, were sorry to learn of the death Jan. 10 to Box' father in Montreal. Box received word of his father's death almost immediately upon his return from Montreal where he had spent five days at his father's bedside, leaving only when the elder Box seemed out of danger.

SKIING IS becoming an ever increasingly popular sport with many residents of Stonegate and Scarsdale, and taking advantage of the recent school holiday were the L. W. Bredehofts, 201 S. Wilshire, who took their two younger sons, Paul and Carl to ski at Mt. Telemark and Hard Scrabble in Wisconsin.

Also in Wisconsin for the weekend were a group of young Stonegate boys including Ricki Daniel, son of the F. E. Daniels'. Dave Shuart, son of the Karl Shuarts, Steve Wagner, son of the Everett Wagners and Don and Jim Smith, sons of the Ed Smiths. They skiied in La-Crosse.

While in Colorado on a business trip, the Robert E. Mitchells, 330 S. Gibbons, took time off to spend three days skiing in Vail, and before returning home visited her brother and family, Maj. and Mrs. Gordon B. Howe in Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maybee, 400 E. Park, and their children, Piera and Laing, spent the past week skiing at Crystal Mountain, Mich.

THE JUNIOR Edward O. McKowns, 206 S. Gibbons, recently returned from a 2-week vacation in Mexico, dividing their stay between Acapulco and Mexico City. Mexico has been the favorite vacation spot for the McKowns and they have visited there many times, but this year's stay was perhaps the most exciting.

While in Acapulco, they were present during the political rally for Ordaz Diaz, president elect of Mexico, and while staying at a new resort hotel, were asked to be photographed while enjoying the hotel's facilities, which will later be used in advertising brochures.

Upon returning home, the McKowns left again for a flying trip to Disneyland with their two children, Karyl and Ted.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Jurco, 217 S. Windsor, joined a group of Arlington Heights friends Saturday to attend the Chamber of Commerce dinner dance in Rolling Green Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnice Basil, 427 S. Windsor and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herff of Arlington Heights, enjoyed a 4-day stay at the Thunderbird Lodge in Genoa City, Wis., while serving as chaperones for Girl Scout Troop 21. which was there for an annual outing.

Mrs. Henning Anderson of Allen Park, Mich., is in Arlington Heights for a 2-week visit with her daughter and family, the Richard Skows, 210 S. Gibbons.

THE EUGENE Lukasiks, 526 E. Central, went to Bloomington Tuesday to attend a birthday dinner party for their son-in-law, William Deiker, at the latter's home.

Twenty-four Dryden Place neighbors of the Phillip Picketts, who are moving to a new home in Acorn Acres near Lake Zurich, were hosts at a farewell dinner party Saturday.

The party was a progressive one which began at the Richard Deckers, where cocktails and hors d'oeuvres were served, and then went to the Albert Isaacs for dinner. Dessert was served at the W. S. Elliott home and then everyone went to the Fred Wittinghills for an evening of fun and dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Starnes Jr., 605 Burton, went to Milwaukee Sunday to see their daughter, Debbie, receive her nurse's cap at the capping ceremony in the College of Nursing at Marquette University. Miss Starnes, a sophomore at the university will continue her studies for two more years, after which she will receive her Bachelor's Degree.

The R. H. Martindells, 515 S. State, received word from their son, Richard, Saturday, that he has finished his boot training and is leaving San Diego to go to Pensacola, Fla., where he will attend aerial photography school.

THE CHARLES E. Skinners, 721 S. Beverly, are home from a 3-week business trip through the midwest. Before returning, they visited friends in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Duro, 510 Banbury, attended a reception Sunday in the home of their son and daughter-in-law, the Jerry Duros, following the christening of the latters' infant daughter, Colleen Greer, in St. Collette's Catholic Church of Rolling Meadows. Other guests attending the christening included the baby's great-grandparents, the senior Carmen Duros of Arlington Heights, and her uncle, young Carmen John Duro, who also was her godfather, and Mrs. Mary Ann De Silvio, her godmother.

Miss Frances McGrath was home from Ottumwa Heights College for a weekend visit with her parents, the Edward McGraths, 206 E. Rockwell, while her sister, Pat, who also attends Ottumwa Heights College, spent the weekend visiting a classmate, Miss Mary Sneider of Davenport.

The Ted Skiermanskis, 125 Burton, attended a family dinner in Chicago last week following the graduation of their hephew, Edward Gubricky, from Crane High School.

Former Stonegate residents, the Donald Bohlkens, who have been living in Columbus, Ohio, during the past two years, have returned to live in Arlington Heights at 828 N. Haddow. Last Wednesday, Mrs. Bohlken gave a coffee for her former Brighton place neighbors who were introduced to the newest member of the Bohlken family, their 2-year-old daughter, Beth.

Everett Needleman received birthday congratulations from 30 friends and Stonegate neighbors at a surprise open house last Wednesday at the Needleman home, 422 S. Gibbons.

Friends and neighbors of Charles W. Lincoln, 221 S. Patton, will be sorry to learn of the death of his mother, Mrs. Anne G. Lincoln of Hayward, Wis., who died Feb. 1 at the age of 81. Sympathies are extended to the family. (A

Cadillac FOR 1964

MORE TEMPTING THAN EVER!

Upper: The Coupe de Ville; lower: The Fleetwood Sixty Special Sedan

When you and your family see the new 1964 Cadillac at the show you will find it the most tempting motor car ever created!

Side by side with other new car offerings at the show, Cadillac for 1964 is more tempting than ever to look at! There's a cleaner, lower sweep to its lines . . . greater refinement in all its body contours . . . and a dramatically new divided grille.

But the big surprise awaits you when you follow your show inspection with a visit to your authorized Cadillac dealer.

For the 1964 Cadillac is more tempting than ever to drive! It has a new high-performance engine—the most powerful in Cadillac history. And Cadillac's Hydra-Matic Drive, recognized as the industry standard of excellence, is remarkably smoother and more responsive—while a new version, Turbo Hydra-Matic, is standard equipment on some models. Both assure amazing agility in traffic, noteworthy economy, and a new standard of performance.

The new 1964 Cadillac is more tempting to ride in! It's smoother and quieter in operation. The interiors are beautiful and luxurious as never before. And an exclusive new Comfort Control*, combining both heating and air conditioning in a single unit, enables you to pre-set temperature while automatically controlling humidity.

So don't be satisfied with just looking. To learn the whole story . . .

...just wait till you drive it!

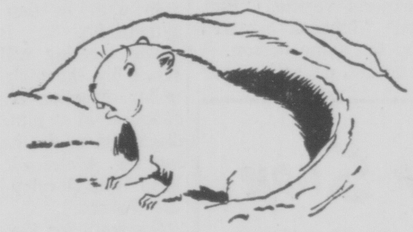
LOOKING AROUND?



Whether or not weather will be affected by the appearance of Mr. Groundhog is a timely question. Mr. Groundhog doesn't give away his plans in advance. A bright, sunny day February 2 just might bring him out for a look and a short walk.

If the weather should turn bad, however, local folks still won't have too much of a problem should they find themselves in need of a particular product or service.

Just about anything you need is available in the local business community. Information on products and services is as near as your telephone.

If you aren't sure exactly what you want and wish to "shop around," local merchants will be happy to see you and happy to serve you. Wherever you live in the community, a friendly, eager-to-please merchant is not too far away.

You don't need a special invitation. The "open for business" sign on every door indicates a genuine offer of service and satisfaction.

'Y' to Unveil New Facilities

Northwest Suburban YMCA will reveal its $185,000 addition to the public at an open house Sunday afternoon, Feb. 16, from 2:30 to 4:30 p. m.

New facilities that will be unveiled are a second gymnasium, two handball courts, a second all purpose room, a sauna room, and an extended locker and exercise room for the business and professional men's club.

A second teaching pool is scheduled to be added next summer to round out the expansion program.

THE YMCA, located at 300 E. Northwest Highway in Des Plaines, was opened in 1961 and membership grew rapidly until at the present time it claims over 13,000 members, the world's largest membership YMCA.

Co-chairmen of the open house are William J. Busse, board chairman, and Mrs. Stephen Jurco, who heads the 250-member women's auxiliary.

Group Slates Valentine Party

The Northwest Suburban Adult Group which meets every Tuesday night at 8:30 in St. Mary's Church Annex, 306 S. Prospect Ave., Park Ridge, plans an active February.

A Valentine party is scheduled for next Tuesday. Members are to bring a 50 cent comic grab bag item. There will be a movie for Tuesday, Feb. 18. The meeting Feb. 25 will be to plan a "night out" in March.

Single persons over 29 are invited. (B9

Hospital Director At Health Meeting

Alan B. Campbell, administrator of Northwest Community Hospital, Arlington Heights, is attending the eighth annual congress of the Illinois Association for Maternal and Infant Health, this week in Springfield.

Campbell is a member of the board of directors of the interdisciplinary group and also serves as statewide program director for the hospital administration section of the annual meeting.

The three-day program will be highlighted by the appearance of Dr. Morris Fishbein, eminent medical author and editor; Mrs. Betty Friedan, writer of the book, "Feminine Mystique," and Dr. John Rock, prominent obstetrician-gynecologist of the Rock Reproductive Clinic in Brookline, Mass., and author of the controversial book, "The Time Has Come."

Guests of honor will be Gov. Otto Kerner; Dr. Franklin Yoder, director of public health, and Dr. Samuel Andelman, health commissioner for the city of Chicago.

Approximately 1,500 doctors, nurses, hospital administrators, social workers, psychologists and health officials are expected to attend the meeting that began yesterday (Wednesday) and will run through tomorrow (Friday). (B9

Plan Open Houses For Future Nurses

Lutheran General and Deaconess Hospitals School of Nursing, Park Ridge, is planning to hold two open houses for future nurses. Open house will be held at the school on Tuesday, Feb. 11, and Friday, April 17.

Purpose of the two days is to provide prospective students with a chance to tour the school and residence hall and to counsel with members of the faculty, according to Miss Erna Ruggeberg, associate director of nursing education.

THE SCHOOL, located next to Lutheran General Hospital in Park Ridge, is the only school of nursing in the northwest suburban area. The school is fully accredited and has a capacity of 100.

A complete schedule for the open house dates will be announced later. (B9

Goldwater To Speak At Airport

Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.), candidate for the Republican nomination for President, will speak upon arrival at O'Hare Field Saturday, according to Jeb Magruder, chairman for the 13th District Volunteers for Goldwater.

Goldwater is scheduled to arrive at 3:55 p.m. He will speak that evening at a fund-raising dinner for the Republican Fund at the Chicago Amphitheater.

There will be a motorcade from the airport into the city, Magruder said. Area supporters of Goldwater are invited to join the auto caravan, he said.

YMCA Building Fund Over Top

The original building fund for Northwest Suburban YMCA has been subscribed completely, it was reported at the Jan. 27 meeting of the board of directors.

The financial report showed cash gifts of $695,945, pledges of $802,263, matching funds of $300,000 from the Metropolitan Chicago YMCA and one anonymous gift of $50,000 for a total of $1,152,263.

Total pledged to date for the expansion fund is $155,980.

For High Schools

Meetings to Hear About Referendum

Presentations in favor of the proposed $6 million high school bond issue on the ballot Feb. 29 will be made at many civic meetings in District 214 during the coming week.

Speaking will be members of the board of education, the school administration, and lay citizens committee which studied high school needs and helped develop the expansion plans.

The $6 million would finance construction of a high school in Elk Grove and the purchase of two additional sites for possible future high schools.

The following meetings are planned:

Thursday, Feb. 6 — Sunset Park PTA, Mount Prospect; Lions Park PTA, Mount Prospect; Busse PTA, Mount Prospect; Prospect Heights Lions Club, and Young Republican Club meeting at the Peters Building on State Road, Arlington Heights.

FRIDAY, FEB. 7 — Wheeling Rotary Club.

How Can Towns Finance Projects Fairly?

Pros and Cons of Methods Discussed

by TOM EDWARDS
Staff Writer

Roads which may have been adequate when communities were rural in nature may become sources of irritation for home owners as population densities, and therefore traffic, increase.

Clouds of dust rise off gravel roads, ruts develop, and even when thinly blacktopped, potholes abound.

Practically every northwest suburban municipality includes some old roads which it deems inadequate.

In some communities, property owners have clamored for better roads, drainage, and other public facilities.

That is, if they don't have to pay for the improvements directly themselves. They would have the village government take the necessary funds out of general tax revenues and motor fuel tax funds.

Special assessments — assessing the cost of public improvements directly to the "benefitting" property owner — aren't so popular with the citizenry. This much more direct method of financing may bring a clamor against improvements rather than for them.

USE OF MOTOR fuel tax funds, that is, gas taxes (which are apportioned annually to municipalities by the state on a population basis) is a quite indirect and relatively "painless" method of financing municipal improvements. In fact, citizens will probably hardly take any notice of a public improvement being paid for with MFT funds.

Practically the only other methods of financing public improvements are with general tax obligation bonds, the issuance of which must be approved in a general election; and for small projects, perhaps an appropriation from the general operating funds of a municipality.

Pros and cons of the "indirect" means of financing as opposed to the more direct special assessment method are primarily:

1 — Using motor fuel tax funds or general obligation bond issues is easier and faster, less expensive and less cumbersome than the more intricate special assessment procedures.

2 — Special assessments are fairer.

A MAJOR — and pressing — reason for looking to motor fuel tax (MFT) funds first as a source of financing is that they are collected regardless of whether they are used or not. (Every auto owner pays into the fund with each gallon of gasoline he purchases.) There is always trepidation about letting MFT funds accrue, a fear that the state may use them if it runs short of money.

Additionally, they can only be used for streets and associated improvements, and are only released by the state for such projects of which state highway officials have approved.

But is it fair and equitable to use general tax funds as opposed to direct assessments against the properties benefited?

Should a whole community be asked to help pay for a street or a sewer that is only going to benefit a few property owners? Should the whole community pay to increase the value of the property of a relatively few members of the community?

On the surface, it would seem that the honest answer is no.

THIS IS A particularly salient question today when subdividers are being required to install all improvements, streets, lights, sewers, sidewalks, water mains. Their cost is passed on in the price of the homes.

In effect, all of the homeowners in a new subdivision are asked to bear the entire cost of all of the improvements in the subdivision.

And if these new homeowners are later required to pay for the cost of bringing streets and utilities in an older section of the community up to urban standards, aren't they being asked to pay doubly?

However, the streets and other utilities which were already in the community upon the arrival of the new subdivision residents, which they freely use, were paid for by the prior residents of the town.

THEN TO BE fair, perhaps the newer residents of the community should help pay for improvements in the older sections of the town in order to reimburse the residents of those areas for the common improvements they had previously installed?

But if the older areas never had sanitary and storm sewers, should the new residents still be asked to shoulder a portion of the burden of installing them, even if they would improve the over-all public welfare?

The whole picture gets increasingly complicated the more one tries to winnow out the many contributions that have been made and should be made, the many strands rolled into a ball to make a community.

On the side of general tax levies, it might be said that the benefit paid for and received by each and every property owner evens out in the long run so that it is equitable for all.

THEORETICALLY, perhaps yes. Practically, perhaps no.

Maybe the greatest asset to direct special assessments to property owners benefiting from an improvement is that the financial "pinch" instigates them to examine closely the proposed project, the need for it and its feasibility.

The direct responsibility required of them probably will also result in the property owners becoming more cognizant of what is involved and required in a community to become mentally aware — and in turn, undertaking still other responsibilities voluntarily.

Against general tax levies, when a community as a whole is required to pay for an improvement which will benefit relatively few, those few that stand to benefit may importune for particularly elaborate and expensive improvements. They may seek a road capable of carrying heavy truck traffic in a residential area that will only have occasional passenger vehicles.

But if asked to pay for the improvement themselves, they will probably reflect more on its necessity, practicality and aesthetic qualities.

AS A corollary result, the village fathers, knowing that the project will be closely scrutinized, perhaps will take extra pains to make sure it is a worthy one.

Although public improvements increase the value and salability of property, the value may not be necessarily reflected in the individual owner's annual property tax rate.

Vital though it may be, installation of a sanitary sewer will probably not cause a change in the assessed valuation of the property, since it may only cost about $75 per lot to install, hardly an amount worth revising the assessment rolls for. Besides, it is underground and not readily viewable by the tax assessor.

Considering maintenance and eventual replacement costs, increases in general tax revenues gained by improving property would hardly be an argument against not using special assessments to finance the improvement.

Another argument is that special assessment bonds are difficult to market. True, interest rates on them tend to run higher, but this probably could be rectified by revamping the law governing special assessments.

AND THE bonds can be sold to local residents — which amounts to asking them to invest in each other and the community as a whole.

"New" villages, those in the throes of population immigrations, are slow to use special assessments, evidently thinking they can accomplish all that is necessary with MFT funds.

But it may be questioned whether they are adequately considering that they might need MFT funds in the future to construct truly arterial (general use) roadways between subdivisions and others that the subdivider will not be responsible for. And that its street maintenance costs will be higher.

To entirely finance all street and associated projects with MFT funds until these funds are all committed, and then to swing to special assessments, wouldn't seem to be fair. Rather, the village would have to get an additional general tax increase approved for new projects — and it is highly unlikely that the voters will do so if the project happens to be for one segment of town, no matter how dire the need there.

Northwest Scout Council Elects Officers, Board

Officers and executive board members-at-large of the Northwest Suburban Boy Scout Council were elected Jan. 8 during an evening dinner meeting held at the Sheraton-O'Hare Motor Hotel in Des Plaines.

Arthur E. Fink, Prospect Heights, was program chairman for this annual event, and James R. Williams, Des Plaines, nominating committee chairman, presented the 1964 slate of officers and board members.

Council officers for 1964 are as follows:

Harold English, Barrington, president; Daniel Bonaguidi, Des Plaines; Thomas Cocks, Chicago, and Arthur E. Fink, Prospect Heights, vice presidents; Robert Gillilan, Barrington, scout commissioner, and Grant F. Watson, Elk Grove Village, treasurer.

Elected representatives to the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America included these area residents: Albert A. Rose, Arlington Heights; Arthur E. Fink, Prospect Heights; Carl Buehler, Palatine, and Grant Watson, Elk Grove Village.

AMONG DISTRICT chairmen elected to the executive board as members at large were Robert Applehans, Palatine; Robert Beaupre, Hoffman Estates; Fred Reimann, Mount Prospect, and John Shelley, Arlington Heights.

Area residents elected to the executive board as members at large were: Paul Grieger, Hoffman Estates; Carl Lewin, Palatine, and James Otis, Albert A. Rose, and Thomas H. Stewart, Arlington Heights.

William Busse and Theodore Lams, Mount Prospect; Carl Buehler, Palatine; George Sheppard, Prospect Heights, and Harold Slichenmyer, Arlington Heights, were elected to the executive board as advisory council members.

The Northwest Suburban Boy Scout Council has grown, during the past six years to be the seventh largest of 81 Scout councils throughout the Midwest region. At the close of 1963, boy membership was 12,128 with 4,265 adult volunteer leaders.

FRANK B. NEWTON of Mount Prospect, Scout executive of the council, recently predicted a membership of 13,500 by the close of 1964 and at least 22,000 by 1970.

SOUTH MOUNT PROSPECT

Two-hundred Brownies attended the annual 2-day Song Fest at Lions Park School gymnasium Jan. 30 and Feb. 3. The activities were directed by Mrs. L. E. Sweet, neighborhood chairman, who was assisted by Mrs. Guy Courtney and Mrs. H. J. Prochaska.

Scouts from Troops 8, 47, 56 and 534 attended the first session, as well as guest Troop 152 from north Mount Prospect. At the second session Troops 19, 53, 114, 123 and 452 were present. The flag ceremonies were presented by a color guard from Junior Troop 708, and a representative from each of the Brownie troops led the Brownie Promise. Troop 47 formed the Taps echo group for the closing ceremony Thursday and Troop 123 sang the Taps echo Monday.

Members of Junior Troop 708 taught the song-dance "The Noble Duke of York." Among the songs taught the Scouts by Mrs. Courtney were: "Swiftly Flowing Labe," "Song Without Words," "All Day-All Night," "Kookaburra," and "Why Shouldn't my Goose?".

Seniors of Troop 499 recently attended a meeting of their sponsors, the VFW Auxiliary, and assisted in making cancer bandages. The Scouts served homemade refreshments and coffee at the close of the meeting.

PROSPECT HEIGHTS

Cadette Troop 258, under the leadership of Mrs. A. Mondus, is working on its Hostess Badge by having a father and daughter banquet March 12 at the Prospect Heights Community Church. The girls will do their own cooking and wait on their guests of honor, their dads.

Joyce Mondus, June Blakeman, Carolyn Perez and Gail Brezina, members of Troop 258, and Judi Selman and Linda Becker from Troop 565, went on the winter weekend at Camp MacLean, Burlington, Wis. Jan. 25 and 26.

The girls participated in such sports as tobogganing and ice skating and viewed movies on the Scout Round-Up in Vermont and primitive camping in Oregon. Each cabin of girls put on a skit of their choice for the other cabins. After being in the brisk cold outdoors, the girls enjoyed the good meals served in the mess hall with the fellowship of neighboring troops.

ROLLING MEADOWS

Cadette Troop 812 recently pursued the Challenge of Social Dependability by entertaining three Boy Scout troops at a box social. Food, dancing and fun contributed to a grand time for all at the Community Church Jan. 30. These girls are now one step closer to First Class.

ELK GROVE VILLAGE

Brownie Scouts of Troop 701, Ridge School, held their Monday afternoon meeting at the home of leader, Mrs. R. Gregory. They held a picnic lunch on the enclosed patio, entertaining each other afterward with little skits using puppets made by the girls.

SOUTH PALATINE

Brownie Troop 538 attended the Children's Theatre Jan. 18 at St. Viator's High School Auditorium, where they saw a production of "Huckleberry Finn" presented by the Pinocchio Players.

These Brownies then presented January 20, their own little play for mothers, brothers, sisters and friends. The play was entitled "The Tree Angel" and there were 11 posterboard trees, each with a Brownie face peeking through at the top. When woodchoppers came to chop down the trees, the tree angel gave all the trees legs and they ran away! Leaders for Brownie Troop 538 are Mrs. Fred Brown and Mrs. Roy Kearns.

Cadette Troop 788, with leader Mrs. Raymond Grissom, has combined with Cadette Troop 820. As Troop 820, 28 Cadettes spent a winter weekend ice skating and tobogganing at Camp MacLean, Burlington, Wis. Jan. 25-26. Mrs. Walter Lethem, Mrs. Warren Gieffers and Mrs. Kenneth Harding are the other leaders of this troop.

Even though there was no school Jan. 27, the girls in Troop 397 were kept busy working on badges. Mothers who helped the girls were Mrs. Susan Anderson for Drawing and Painting Badge; Mrs. Julie Hollander, Collector Badge; and Mrs. Kay Rayhill for Cook Badge.

HOFFMAN ESTATES-SCHAUMBURG

Brownie Troop 925 took advantage of the school holiday last week for a trip to Haeger Pottery in Dundee. The troop was accompanied by Mrs. J. Harris and Mrs. D. Spiering. The cotton print bean bags which the girls completed last month have been sent to Bobs Roberts hospital in Chicago. Later this month, 13 girls will receive their one-year stars at the same time the new Brownies are invested.

Ten girls from the Junior Troop meeting at Lakeview on Wednesdays recently made a trip to an animal farm to complete one of the requirements for the Pet Badge. Those making the trip with Mrs. R. Goddertz and Mrs. D. Rasmussen were Jan and Joan Rasmussen, Holly Heinemann, Susan Kirby, Debra Manning, Bernadette Duwez, Sandy Kroll. Laurinda Cowling and Nancy Bevilacqua.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

Fathers of Arlington Heights District Camp Fire Girls were guests at a box supper Feb. 4 in Arlington High School Cafeteria. Chairman for the event was Mrs. Evert Skoglund. The girls brought their supper in gaily-decorated boxes and served their fathers at tables using centerpieces and place mats which they made.

The flag was presented by the Shu-Tan Yi Ma group. Mrs. William Gardner is guardian of this sixth grade group from Miner Junior High School.

Snah Da Yo Ki group started off the program after supper by reciting a "Welcome to Our Dads" and doing an Hawaiian dance. The girls are from the sixth grade at South Junior High School and Mrs. Harold Purvine is guardian. An original skit about Camp Fire experiences was presented by the To He Cums Junior High Group, Mrs. George Kendall, guardian. Miss Kristine Engelbretsen of the Chickiyapi Junior High Camp Fire group played piano selections.

A skit was performed by the Wa Wa Kata group, who closed the program with Taps.

MOUNT PROSPECT

Happy Blue Birds of Westbrook School took advantage of the Teachers Institute Day Jan. 27 to have an afternoon wiener roast and ice skating party at Lions Park. The girls skated, roasted hot dogs and marshmallows and ate brownies.

Mrs. Lenore Frantell is the leader of the group, and members are Linda Carlson, Karen Flaherty, Kiane Frantell, Kathleen Gaffney, Linda Kinney, Linda Larson, Melinda MacCleary, Carol Maurer, Kathy Sharp, Roxanne Wayda, Wendy Welsh and Donna Friewer.

Angel Blue Birds, under the leadership of Mrs. Walter Stecher, have just completed 60 Valentine place mats to be presented to Magnus Farm in Arlington Heights. The place mats were made from white construction paper, red hearts and doilies.

These girls also recently visited the Sugar Bowl Sweet Shop in Des Plaines to see hand dipped chocolate being made. Also, the complete ice cream making process was explained to the group. Girls in the group are Judy Ames, Susan Doherty, Roxanne Fox, Kristy Holshouser, Barbara Homola, Laurie McMahon, Margaret Moraity, Joanne Peterson, Nanette Stecher, Karen Stewart, Leanne Van Celave, Sharon White and Marianne Zapfel. Mrs. Loy White accompanied the girls on the Sugar Bowl trip.

Also visiting the Sweet Shop recently were the Angel Blue Birds under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Capozzoli. They, too, enjoyed seeing the chocolates being made and hearing the story of ice cream. Girls in the group include Charlotte Borg, Nancy Grier, Gemma Capozzoli, Jill Gutenkunst, Lisa Rother, Susan Ursin, Pam Lower, Maureen James, Susan Wolfe, and Sandy Harris. In addition to their leader, Mrs. Elvet Lower accompanied the girls on the trip. (B9

Boy Scouts Prepare Store Front Displays

Plans for the local observance of Boy Scout Week, starting tomorrow (Friday) and running to Feb. 13, were being completed by the 316 units making up the Northwest Suburban Boy Scout Council.

In varied forms, the Cub Scout, Boy Scout and Explorer Scout units of the council will mark the occasion, said to be the nation's largest single observance by boys. Theme of the celebration is "Strengthen America—Scouting Can Make the Difference," and nationally 5,410,000 boys and adult volunteer leaders will take part.

Merchants throughout the area have given the Scouts the use of their store windows for displays of their handicraft skills and illustrations of the things they learn in Scouting.

IN ARLINGTON Heights, Troop 37 will set up their display in the windows of the old Gieseke store. Troop 57 will again take over the Webber Paint Co. windows, while Troop 135 will be seen in the Sherwin-Williams store front. The Arlington Theatre will be host to Troop 158.

Nearly all of the Cub Scout packs will be holding their traditional blue and gold banquets this coming week or sometime this month. Pack 57, for example, is scheduling its dinner for Feb. 21 at Park School.

Boy Scout Sunday, a highlight of the week, will see the Scouts attend their own churches in uniform. Boys of Jewish faith will attend Sabbath services tomorrow night and Saturday.

Many of their Scouts and Explorers will be receiving religious awards provided by the various religious bodies. Actually not Boy Scout awards, they are honors given by churches and synagogues after the boys have worked closely with their ministers, priests, rabbis or religious counselors.

AT ARLINGTON Heights' First Methodist Church Sunday, seven boys will receive the God and Country Award. St. James Roman Catholic Church will confer five Ad Altare Dei Awards. The First Presbyterian Church will also present a God and Country Award.

The Northwest Suburban Boy Scout Council has grown during the past six years to be the seventh largest of the 81 councils making up the Midwest region. Council Executive Frank B. Newton, Mount Prospect, said the year-end membership was 12,128 boys and 4,265 adult leaders.

Ogilvie to Speak At Bickley Dinner

Cook County Sheriff Richard B. Ogilvie will be the keynote speaker at the $25-a-plate fund-raising testimonial dinner for John H. Bickley, endorsed Republican candidate for Cook County State's Attorney.

Ogilvie's acceptance of the speaking assignment was announced by Edward C. Hofert, coordinator of the dinner. "Since John is a resident of the northwest area, it is only appropriate that we give him a 'favorite son' send off," Hofert said.

The dinner is scheduled for 7 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 22, at the O'Hare Inn, on Mannheim Road north of Higgins Road in Des Plaines. The event is the first of its kind planned exclusively for the northwest suburban area.

Friends and neighbors of John H. Bickley, a group of citizens in the northwest area, is planning the dinner. Bickley, a former member of the Mount Prospect village board and an attorney with the Chicago firm of Peterson, Bogucki & Bickley, is a former assistant U. S. Attorney.

HE SUCCESSFULLY prosecuted and won a deportation order against Chicago hoodlum Paul "The Waiter" Ricca. Ogilvie has said that his war on crime in Cook County will be aided by Bickley's election to the office of state's attorney.

"Ticket sales for the dinner are going so well," said Hofert, "that we had to order an additional 300." Tickets may be ordered by mail from Hofert at 602 S. Na-Wa-Ta, Mount Prospect, or Mrs. William Busse, 100 S. Louis St., Mount Prospect.

Hofert said tickets can also be purchased from the following area chairmen:

Harold B. Smith Jr., financial chairman of the dinner and Republican committeeman of Barrington Township; John (Bill) Carroll, state representative from the 6th District and publisher of Pickwick Papers in Park Ridge;

ROBERT O. Atcher, Schaumburg Village president; John G. Woods, Arlington Heights president; A. R. McIntyre, Wheeling president; Clarence O. Schlaver, Mount Prospect president;

Charles A. Hodlmair, former Elk Grove Village president; Eugene T. Devitt, Hanover Township Republican Committeeman; Dr. Martin P. Meisenheimer of Prospect Heights; Peter R. Flauter, president of the Maine Township Regular Republican Organization;

Patrick J. Muldowney, former Hoffman Estates Police Magistrate; Mrs. Frank Kolerus, a member of the Wheeling Township Board of Auditors; Theodore Meyers, assistant to the Republican committeeman of Palatine Township, and George R. Busse, president of the Elk Grove Township Regular Republican Organization.

Invitations to attend the dinner have been extended to Charles H. Percy and William J. Scott, Republican gubernatorial hopefuls, as well as the endorsed county GOP ticket and U. S. Rep. Donald Rumsfeld of the 13th Congressional District.

Studies Families of Disturbed Children

A report on two years of daily observation of families with serious emotional problems will be made by Dr. Jules Henry, professor of sociology and anthropology, Washington University, St. Louis, at Forest Hospital in Des Plaines, Wednesday, Feb. 12 at 8 p.m.

Dr. Henry, whose lecture is entitled "My Life With Families of Psychotic Children," has stated that "theory tends to be used to fill in gaps in knowledge" in understanding the origin of mental illness. His lecture will be a sampling of data obtained by him while living with families of psychotic children.

"The purpose of the sampling will be to illustrate to the psychiatric professions how direct and sustained observation can contribute to the development of knowledge in the field," Dr. Henry states.

AUTHOR OF "Culture Against Man," Dr. Henry is widely known for his field work with families of mentally ill children. His Forest Hospital lecture, one in a series of monthly scientific lectures offered by the hospital, will take up the problem of obtaining authentic data to enable the therapist to formulate "a workable hypothesis upon which to proceed in treatment."

"Much is known about the general characteristics of the parents of psychotic children," Dr. Henry states, "but it is difficult to get from the parents the specifics of the origin of the illness. Inasmuch as life is made up of an almost infinitely large number of actions and events, no parent can remember what he has done to his children to produce the psychosis."

DR. HENRY HAS taught at Columbia University, the University of Chicago, Stanford University and is past vice-president of the American Orthopsychiatric Association. His lecture is part of a series of monthly talks presented as a professional service by the hospital on the topic of the "American Family in Crisis." The role of the family as a medium for the production of states of mental health and disease is being explored in the lecture series.

Three hundred psychiatrists and other physicians are expected to attend. (B9

Three Experts to Judge Photo Contest

To Determine Top Winners

Judges for the Second Annual Photo Competition were announced this week by Larry H. Cameron, chairman for the contest co-sponsored by Paddock Publications newspapers and Randhurst Corp.

The panel of experts who will judge the 1964 contest includes:

—Arthur Shay, one of the nation's leading magazine photographers;

—Norman L. Meir, director of the photography department at Ray - Vogue Schools, the oldest professional arts school in America; and —Hallie Hamilton, assistant professor of journalism at Northern Illinois University and instructor in photography and photojournalism.

THE JUDGES will determine winners of $200 in cash prizes for first place awards.

Winning entrants will be announced Saturday, Feb. 29, at Randhurst shopping center, Mount Prospect, where all entries will be on display Feb. 27-29.

"We are honored to have such distinguished experts judge our 1964 competition," said Cameron. "Their interest and enthusiasm in behalf of our public service venture will do much to ensure success for this area-wide recognition of amateur and semi-professional photographers."

ARTHUR SHAY is one of the nation's most successful magazine photographers. More than 10,000 of his pictures have appeared in such national magazines as the Saturday Evening Post, Life, Time, and Fortune. He is a regular contributor to Sports Illustrated.

A native of New York City, Shay was a lead navigator during World War II in Europe, where he began publishing poetry, fiction, and articles as well as photographs.

After the war, he joined Life Magazine as a reporter, resigning three years later in order to become a free-lance photojournalist.

In addition to magazine photography, Shay is book reviewer for the Chicago Daily News, columnist for Chicago Scene Magazine (which has also featured his pictures), and playwright. His first play, "A Clock for Nikita," a comedy about life in Russia, will be produced in April at the Stagelight Theatre, Wheeling.

He is married to artist Florence Shay. They are parents of five children and live in Deerfield.

NORMAN L. MEIR has been director of the Ray - Vogue Schools' photography department since 1946, and many of his graduates are now among the nation's top photographers.

In addition to completing the Ray - Vogue course, Meir has studied at the New York Institute of Photography and the Eastman Kodak Co., Rochester, N. Y.

He taught photography in a Wisconsin vocational school before World War II, when he served four years with a Signal Corps Photographic Unit in the South Pacific. As a member of the Active Reserves, he was recalled to duty in 1950 and spent two years instructing Signal Corps photographers for the Korean War.

HALLIE HAMILTON is assistant professor of journalism at Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, and head of the journalism department's specialized press and photography study areas.

A cum laude graduate in journalism of Franklin College, he received the Master of Science in Journalism degree from Northwestern University and has done advanced study at University of Missouri and University of Illinois. He begins work next year on a doctorate degree at Indiana University.

Before joining the faculty at NIU, Prof. Hamilton was a free-lance photojournalist and industrial photographer for eight years.

From 1958-61 he was associated with the university's public relations and photography departments and has been in the journalism department since 1962.

He is married and the father of two children.

CAMERON SAID this week that a total of 259 photographs have been accepted for exhibit in the competition with additional entries being received daily.

The 1964 competition is open to all photographers in the northwest area except for employes of Paddock Publications, Inc. and Randhurst Corp.

Judging will be based on three classes for black and white prints — portrait and personality; action; and pictorial — and a single class for color open to all subject material.

A $50 cash prize will be awarded to first place winners in each class with ribbons presented to second and third place winners.

Entry blanks are now available at 57 camera, photo supply, and drug stores throughout northwest suburbs. Detailed rules and an entry blank will also be found elsewhere on this page.

CAMERON said entries will be limited only by available space. Exhibit area is assigned on a first come, first served basis with all entrants notified of acceptance and space number upon application.

Officially, entry blanks must be postmarked not later than midnight Saturday Feb. 22. Entrants will put up their exhibits on Wednesday, Feb. 26.

Inquiries regarding the contest may be directed to Cameron at CLearbrook 3-1520, Ext. 236. (A14

Organ Society to Hear Young Artist

Jay Bitter, 10-year-old concert organist, will be guest artist Tuesday at 8 p.m. for the northwest chapter, Hammond Organ Society.

The program, open to the public, will be held in Town Hall at Randhurst Center, Route 83 and Rand Road, Mount Prospect.

The young organist, a fifth

grade pupil in West Chicago, has been playing the instrument for three years. Mrs. Lillian Crawford of Kenosha, Wis., formerly of Lombard, is his teacher.

JAY HAS given organ concerts in Joliet, Moline, Beverly Hills, Oakbrook, and Kenosha, Wis. He was guest artist with the Wheaton Community Band at their annual July Fourth celebration last year.

For the past two years, the talented young prodigy has won first place in his class at the Illinois State Fair Organ Contest.

Currently, he plays at the Lyon & Healy Store in Oakbrook Shopping Center on Friday nights and Saturday afternoons.

Mrs. Clara Loomis will be hostess for the Feb. 11 meeting, and refreshments will be served following the program.

The public is welcome to attend, and there will be a small admission fee for non-members of the society. (B9

Dedicate Oxygen Center at Hospital

Life-Saving Role Is Seen

by T. WILLIAM SWINFORD
Staff Writer

The new hyperbaric (high pressure) oxygen research center at Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge, was dedicated Wednesday, Feb. 5, with some of the most respected names in this type of medicine in attendance.

Dedication services were held Tuesday evening in the hospital chapel with the Rev. Paul Boe, executive Lutheran Church delivering the message.

Wednesday saw a workshop on high pressure oxygen research, with Dr. Ite Boerema, of the University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands, speaking in the afternoon.

Dr. Boerema is considered one of the foremost authorities on this type of research, and has spent many years developing medical techniques utilizing oxygen under high pressure.

THE NORMAL pressure a human is subjected to is 15 pounds of air per square inch. Normal breathing means a person inhales about one-fifth oxygen with every breath he takes.

When taking oxygen from an oxygen mask, the percentage jumps to five times the normal amount.

Through experimentation, doctors have learned that the body absorbs 15 times the normal amount of oxygen when it is taken through a mask and the room pressure, or air pressure on the body, is three times normal.

Surgery under such conditions has proved exceptionally successful in some operations. Treatment of some diseases has been especially successful under such conditions, according to officials at the hospital.

Gas gangrene, a disease that requires a lack of oxygen to exist, and one that spreads rapidly, is one that medical authorities have been quite successful in treating under increased pressure.

The disease spreads rapidly, attacking the entire body occasionally in a matter of hours, according to Harold P. Kurtz, public relations director for the hospital.

Principal investigator for the research center at the Lutheran Hospital is Dr. Jack van Elk. He will be in charge of the three-chamber complex of high pressure devices.

One of the chambers is 42 feet long and has spaces for beds for six patients. The second chamber is 34 feet long and 12 feet in diameter and is an operating theatre.

Two operations can be conducted simultaneously in this chamber. The third chamber is 24 feet long and 10 feet in diameter and will be used primarily for research.

KURTZ said the small chamber can be pressurized to eight atmospheres or eight times the normal air pressure. This will be very valuable, he said, in treating certain types of maladies, notably the "bends."

The "bends" is a disease common to deep sea divers. However, the same malady can occur in construction people who are working in caissons or other pressurized places.

Although the center, the largest in the world, has been dedicated, it will not be completed until later in February because of construction delays, Kurtz said.

An open house for the general public will be planned as soon as hospital officials know the completion date of the project.

The workshop was sponsored by the hospital and the John A. Hartford Foundation, the latter of which made grants of more than $500,000 for the center.

The center will be named for the foundation. Total cost of the project will be slightly more than $1.1 million.

Additional grants were made by A. D. Johnson of Oak Park, for whom the building has been named; and by the Park Ridge United Fund, the Lutheran General Service League and many other individuals, foundations and corporations.

Some of the doctors who addressed the workshop at the Golf Mill Theatre in the Golf Mill Shopping Center are:

Dr. A. R. Behnke, Captain, Marine Corps, USN; Dr. J. W. Bean, University of Michigan School of Medicine; Dr. van Elk; Dr. G. G. Nahas, Columbia University; Capt. G. F. Bond, Naval Medical Research Laboratory, New London, Conn.; Dr. E. H. Lanphier, University of Buffalo, New York.

KURTZ SAID medical authorities presently hold great hope that such research will prove of benefit to certain disease states and in performing surgery.

It presently offers "great hope for 'blue babies,' heart and stroke victims and other types of illness and injuries."

Kurtz said research into treating cancer under such conditions is under way in the east and "great hope is held for added success in these areas."(B9

Group Strives for Church-State Separation

Northwest Chapter Has 400 Members

by DON HEINE
Staff Writer

Sixteen years ago last week, a charter was granted in Washington, D.C., to an organization called "Protestants and Other Americans United for the Separation of Church and State," abbreviated POAU.

Today this group has a Northwest Suburban Chapter, less than two years old, but claiming approximately 400 members from Park Ridge to Palatine and from Wheeling to Itasca.

POAU sounds strange to most suburban residents, yet Chapter President James L. Kusnerus predicts that both the chapter and the national group are fated to play an increasing role in public debate.

Describing itself as a non-sectarian, educational organization, POAU in the past decade and a half has led a number of battles against any expenditure of public funds for church-operated institutions.

IN MOST instances, POAU has found itself on the opposite side of issues of the Catholic hierarchy. Exchanges between the two sides frequently have been vitriolic.

Who are the people who support POAU? What are their goals? What is it they fear in church-state trends in the United States? Are they extremists? Are they anti-Catholic?

These questions and others were put to leaders of the Northwest Chapter to explain its role in this area.

In the future, POAU plans to identify itself publicly under the less tongue-tying title of "Americans United." This name was approved two weeks ago at the national conference in Houston.

Kusnerus, an engineer and resident of Mount Prospect, immediately emphasized that the organization has no feeling against Catholic neighbors. In fact, some chapters are said to have a few Catholic members, who are anxious to avoid tensions between denominations.

He said it is true that most of the issues raised deal with actions by the Catholic Church, but he considers this an accident of history. The organization also has opposed attempts by Protestant institutions to accept money from the public treasury.

Nationally, Americans United has been supported by many of the leading figures in Protestantism. National president is Dr. Louie D. Newton, president of the Southern Baptist Convention, largest branch of Protestantism in the United States.

Newton is one of the original members. Others, and offices held at the time were Dr. Edwin McNeill Poteat, president Colgate-Rochester Divinity School; Dr. Frank H. Yost, editor, Liberty; Dr. Charles Clayton Morrison, editor, Christian Century; Dr. J. M. Dawson, executive director, Baptist Joint Committee on Public Affairs; Dr. John A. Mackay, moderator, Presbyterian Church, U.S.A.; Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, Methodist; Dr. Charl Ormond Williams, president, National Education Association; Dr. Clyde W. Taylor, secretary of public affairs, National Association of Evangelicals; Elmer E. Rogers, aid to the grand commander, Scottish Rite Masons, Southern Jurisdiction.

THE NORTHWEST Chapter four times a year holds meetings for the general public. The program might feature a speaker, a panel discussion or movies, made available through the national office in Washington. Kusnerus says attendance averages about 60 persons.

There is no religious test for membership, although it is assumed that most persons joining agree on the general principles. National dues are $5 a year, which includes a subscription to Church and State, a monthly magazine of 16 pages dealing entirely with church-state relationships.

In 1962, the national office said the membership totalled 150,000 and announced an ambitious set of goals to be achieved by Dec. 31, 1964:

One million members, one million subscribers, 10 regional offices, 250 chapters and $1,000,000 for a new headquarters — "A Temple to Religious Freedom."

Dr. Glenn Archer, as executive-director, heads the home office paid staff of 18 persons, one of whose duties is mailing out more than a million pieces of literature each month. Dr Archer is former law school dean at Washburn University, Topeka.

The Northwest chapter is served by a regional office, directed on a full-time basis by Dr. W. Phillips Berwick, a Methodist clergyman.

Kusnerus is confident that Americans United is the one organization best equipped to represent the traditional religious freedom viewpoint of not only Protestants, but Jews and persons unaffiliated with any organized religion. In this position, he says, Americans United serves the same function as the Catholic hierarchy does in presenting its views.

In northwest suburbs, three school questions have arisen in which POAU members were interested, although the organization was still not fully established.

ONE INVOLVES the use of public school buses to transport parochial school students. Another, in Arlington Heights, was over the question of a village-paid nurse serving private schools. A third was a request that high school boards grant Catholic students an excused absence for one day to take part in a day of recollection.

These issues illustrate the widely different Catholic and Protestant viewpoints. Many Catholic parents have felt that if a public school bus goes by their house there should be no reason for it not carrying their child. However, the Protestant group has contended that if taxpayers support any phase of a church-operated institution they are being taxed to support a religion other than their own.

Back in 1947, the founders of POAU issued a "Manifesto" saying that the status of the public school in the United States is threatened because "One of the long-range purposes of this church is to secure total support for its extensive system of parochial schools from the public treasury. The founders said that transportion, free lunches, and textbooks would be marginal services which would open the door.

To buttress this argument, Americans United cites experience in European countries. It alleges that Holland destroyed its public school system in a generation by diverting funds to private schools.

Literature of Americans United also reports situations in which school districts in the United States are said to have been given a Catholic emphasis after the election of Catholic school boards.

One example listed is North College Hill, Ohio. Kusnerus says his interest in Americans United arose from the fact that he lived within a few miles of this school district. He says the school board incorporated the parochial school into the district, paid the church rent, paid the salary of teaching nuns and discharged the superintendent, resulting in a teacher strike and bitter inter-faith rivalry before the issue was settled.

Perhaps the most controversial figure in the POAU movement has been Paul Blanshard, lawyer-writer and former clergyman. He has served as a special counsel but is better known for his books, including "American Freedom and Catholic Power." One Blanshard thesis is that Catholic countries such as Spain and Portugual are totalitarian states denying basic freedoms to Protestants, Jews, and others, much in the same way Russia denies freedom to all religions.

Blanshard's criticism has been too strong for many Protestants, but his writings are widely quoted.

ONE DILEMMA facing Americans United is the question of how rigid an interpretation should be placed on the First Amendment "Congress shall make no law respicting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof."

For example, POAU has been critical of the O'Hare Airport management for permitting masses to be conducted on public property. Some Protestants have felt that this is hair-splitting.

POAU has refrained from taking a stand on some of the more drastic proposals, such as removal of the words "In God We Trust" from coins and the discontinuance of tax support of chaplains in armed forces.

Kusnerus says there are many side issues which could distract the organization.

Basically he believes the pressure for public funds for church-related activities is going to increase, placing a greater role on his organization.

Most attention of Americans United has been directed at school funds and the Catholic requests for funds.

The organization, however, cites instances in which it has opposed public funds or donations for Protestant institutions, often with success.

Specific steps opposed by the organization include:

Tax exemption for church-owned property not related to its sacerdotal function, including commercial office buildings, radio stations, wineries and food processing plants. (According to a recent survey of the National Council of Churches, 10 per cent of the real property in the United States now is owned by religious organizations and is tax exempt.)

DIPLOMATIC recognition of the Vatican. Although not currently a public issue it was in the administrations of Presidents Franklin Roosevelt and Harry Truman.

Appropriation of welfare funds for religious groups.

Special privileges for one church, over others.

Leaders of Americans United have been able to quote a Catholic President, John F. Kennedy, saying that subsidies for parochial schools would be unconstitutional. On the other hand, Catholics too have been able to draw support from non-Catholics. Recently Robert Hutchins, former chancellor of the University of Chicago, urged that private schools be given some support through public money for benefit of the nation.

The controversy appears certain to be around for a long time. (B9 AMERICANS UNITED ROLE is explained by the Northwest Chapter president, James L. Kusnerus (l.) and Public Relations Chairman LeRoy R. Erickson, both of Mount Prospect. The organization, which established the suburban chapter two years ago, has the official name Protestants and Other Americans United for the Separation of Church and State. (B9

Questions Need for Forrest Water Mains

Village board approval of an ordinance calling for special assessment installation of water mains on Forrest Avenue north of Euclid in Arlington Heights was delayed Monday.

Board members tabled consideration of the ordinance until the next regular meeting to do a little fact-finding after charges were aired by William E. Bolash, 719 N. Forrest, that the improvements were not justified.

He claimed that the original petition asking for the improvements to be considered was signed by only seven residents, while the majority of the 37 living on the long street did not see it.

In a letter read before the board Monday, Bolash said also that there was no water shortage in homes where wells were properly installed.

HE INSISTED that the water mains should not be installed simply on the recommendation of the village's fire chief, and that residents in the area were entitled to good fire protection with or without mains.

Chief Harvey Carothers had reported to the Board of Local Improvements that the area is not practically accessible from fire hydrants, and that the tanker truck and pumpers would be out of water in a matter of minutes.

Bolash also complained that the area residents were still paying off a special assessment for installation of sewers, and that the extra assessment for water mains would cause hardship.

Village Mgr. L. A. Hanson addressed the board to comment that there was never a "right time" for special assessments, but that he had gotten several calls from residents on Forrest Avenue at various times complaining that wells were falling or drawing mud.

Modern Etiquette

Q. When I am standing on a crowded bus near my fiancee, who is seated, and the seat next to her is vacated, is it all right for me to take that seat next to her — or am I supposed to allow one of the standing women nearby to take that seat?

A. You will show much more courtesy and good breeding if you allow a nearby woman to take the seat.

Q. For what, besides buttering breads, can the small butter knives be used?

A. These should be used only for butter, jelly, and cheese.

Chamber Honors 'Airman of Year'

Airman 1C James M. Johnston of the 755th Radar Squadron has been selected to receive the Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce "Airman of the Year" award.

Airman Johnston and his date, Miss Cathryn Flanagan, 911 N. Pine, Arlington Heights, were guests of honor Saturday at the Chamber's dinner-dance at Rolling Green Country Club.

He was awarded a plaque by the merchants' group and the squadron's William K. Aldrich award for examples of good sportsmanship, conduct, efficiency and personal initiative.

AIRMAN Johnston came to the annual honor through monthly, then quarterly competition.

A member of the Air Force since June, 1961, he came to the 755th Radar Squadron in July, 1963, upon completion of an 18-month tour of duty in southern Italy.

Presentation at the banquet was made by Lt. Col. Robert M. Kirby, commander of the squadron. The group's mission is to provide radar surveillance information to the Chicago Air Defense Sector, Truax Field, Wisconsin, and Chicago NORAD Control Center, Rockville, Indiana.

Airman Johnston presently works in the administrative section. (A

New Firm To Make Switches

A new company formed in Arlington Heights will manufacture reed relays and switches.

R. J. Grigsby, president, announced the opening of Grigsby-Barton Inc., located at 107 N. Hickory Ave., which will specialize in engineering packaged designs that adapt to a wide range of uses.

The reed relays and switches, according to Grigsby, meet new demands for high speed positive switching and long-life requirements in the fields of telemetry, logic circuits, electronic controls and communication networks. Other officers of the new company are W. W. Barton, board chairman; W. Forbes Barton, vice president; and George D. Sullivan Jr., secretary.

Cards Post Split on Frosh Mat

Arlington's frosh wrestlers registered a split in weekend action, routing York but falling to Downers Grove.

The Cardinals built up a 44-0 lead on York and fashioned a 44-8 triumph, but it was a different story Saturday.

Downers took the lead at 154 pounds and held on for a 25-19 victory. Arlington had a chance for the decision but fell in the heavyweight tussle.

Individual winners in the rout of York were Richard Namovicz (95), Blackman (103), Mike Mills (112), Bob Ungaro (120), Brad Somers (127), Brad Philo (133), Mike Jones (138), Clark Sims (145), Bruce Weber (154), and Verne Gongol (165).

Picking up the points for Arlington against Downers Grove were Ungaro (120), Somers (127), Philo (133), Jones (138), and Hyde (180).

The loss was Arlington's second of the season in nine outings.

Hear Talks by Hospital Staff

Gradually expanding staff and facilities at Elgin State Hospital are contributing to improve care and treatment of the mentally ill, according to Dr Rochus Stiller, clinical director. He spoke to an orientation session held Jan. 30 for new hospital volunteers.

Dr. Stiller termed the volunteer services a vital link between the hospital and the community.

Other speakers were Ahmad Shawwa, chief social worker; Mrs. M. L. Love, chief nurse, and Kathleen Yeast, supervisor of the volunteer services program. The session was the second of two held during January and attended by 138 people from Elgin and surrounding communities. (A14

Plan Changes in Prospect Drainage

Drainage of the 60-acre Prospect High School site and flooded basements in the Brickman subdivision to the east was up in the air this week — again.

A six-month study, accented by numerous meetings and complaints by home residents on Fairview, Prospect Manor, Eastwood and Highland Avenues in Mount Prospect, brought what was believed a final solution late in 1960.

The heavy summer rains last year again found homes with flooded basements in the Brickman area — and the high school blamed for the floods.

To correct the situation the high school is developing plans to switch the drainage from the Prospect fieldhouse roof to the Foundry Road storm drain swale. The increased drainage will necessitate enlargement of the 18-inch culvert under Foundry Road.

In addition a storm drain tile sufficient to carry the flow from the high school must be provided through the subdivision to the north of the school. The storm tile would go to the artificial lake in Memory Gardens Cemetery. This lake eventually drains through the Arlington Heights storm drainage system to Weller Creek.

THE SCHOOL sanitary sewage and roof drainage from the school proper will continue to flow through the combination storm-sanitary sewer which goes through the Brickman subdivision. This area is in the Feehanville drainage district.

Cost estimates on the change of drainage will not be available until engineering for the rerouting of the storm drainage lines is completed.

Norval E. Anderson, chief engineer of the Metropolitan Sanitary District, has notified High School District 214 that the sanitary district is "currently reviewing the sewer application" for the Chicago Construction subdivision north of the school. He stated the district was "withholding approval until ample provision is made for storm water drainage from the Prospect High School."

In addition, Anderson said the sanitary district had informed the subdivision engineers that plans must allow for all present and future storm water flow expected from the upstream watershed (the high school area).

In 1960 the school district diverted the drainage from the football field and track to the west into the Arlington Heights storm drainage system. This was a correction to the original drainage plans which had been inadvertently changed during construction.

IN ADDITION the surface drainage from the balance of the school property was changed to flow into a 24 inch tile running diagonally north to Foundry Road. The drainage from the front circle drive runs into a 12-inch tile which also flows to the Foundry Road culvert.

By changing the fieldhouse roof drainage another substantial amount of school storm drainage will be diverted from the Highland Avenue combination sewer, according to Supt. H. L. Slichenmyer of the high school district.

The original agreement between the high school and Brickman Home Builders Inc. permitted the school to use the combination storm-sanitary sewer built by Brickman in Highland Ave. The use of the sewer line cost the high school $25,000. This agreement was to serve school buildings occupying approximately four acres, and was estimated to be about 2,000 gallons per minute for storm drainage and 300 gallons per minute for sanitary flow.

Before the elimination of surface storm water the flow from the high school site was estimated to exceed this figure by Consoer & Townsend, engineers.

The sanitary district also is recommending that the high school attempt to retain as much storm water on the school building roofs as possible, discharging the storm water at a reduced flow rate. Other methods of retaining water on the school site might reduce the requirements in storm-tile size through the subdivision to the north, Anderson told the school district.

Plan Reunion

Library Gets 30-Second, Self-Serve Copy Machine

"Book learning" can now be dispensed from a vending machine just about as handy as getting a soft drink in a movie lobby.

Instant photo-copies from book pages, magazines, newspapers, personal and business documents can now be made with the new "Docustat" self-service photocopy machine recently installed in the Arlington Heights Public Library.

To get a copy of an important paper, document or perhaps two facing pages out of a library reference book, you merely deposit a quarter to have delivered in 30 seconds a slick facsimile. The machine, which could provide money for the library if the device operates at a profit, was requested, according to Mrs. Ewalt. She explained that the device could prevent a great deal of mutilation. The machine is operated by the person desiring the copy and does not require any time from the librarian.

The Docustat may not be a permanent fixture. It is in the local library on a 90-day trial that so far has attracted some genuine use along with what Mrs. Ewalt terms "curiosity use."

"Many business people do not know it's here," she explained. "It can be used by anyone."

The availability of the copying machine in the library should almost completely eliminate any mutilation or damage to books and periodicals due to "tearing out" by irresponsible people, Mrs. Ewalt asserted. The machine, installed on the main floor of the library, will copy large size magazine pages and material up to 10 by 14 inches, reducing it to a standard letter-size.

New Schools' Bids Studied

Bids for construction of the two new Arlington Heights elementary schools approved by referendum last November were opened and taken under study last week.

Contracts for construction of the 12-room Greenbrier School and eight-room Dwyer School are expected to be let at the Feb. 10 regular board of education meeting.

Total of the low bids for general contracting, heating and ventilation, plumbing, and electrical work for both schools is $546,045.

AT A SPECIAL board meeting Jan. 29, the architectural firm for the two schools was authorized to secure references and financial statements for a group of low bidders on each of the four contracts.

Bids of the two low general contract bidders, three low plumbing contract bidders, three low electrical contract bidders, and three low heating contract bidders were selected for this study.

Bids received and opened Jan. 28 included 19 for the general contract, 16 for the plumbing contract, 15 for the electrical work and 13 for the heating and ventilation.

OTHER ITEMS which must come out of the $710,000 bond issue passed for construction of the two schools are site development, movable equipment, architect and engineering fees, legal fees and contingencies.

Bid opening for sale of the bonds will be Feb. 10. (AF

Pick 7 Area Teens In Talent Audition

Seven area teenagers were selected in Talented Teen Search auditions held Jan. 30 at Randhurst Shopping Center to participate in semifinals of the Randhurst district, according to George F. Koehnke, president of the Talented Teen Foundation which conducts the contest.

The search, sponsored by the Coca-Cola Bottling Co. of Chicago, will select winners in 25 city and suburban area contests to compete at McCormick Place in early summer for an all expense three-week tour of Europe and other prizes.

Winners of the Randhurst district contest will go on to the finals at McCormick Place.

SEMIFINALS will begin at 2 p.m., Saturday, Feb. 8, at the Randhurst Town Hall. The public is invited to attend free of charge.

West suburban teenagers selected were:

Piano: Kimberly Schmidt, 14, 113 S. Evergreen, Arlington Heights, freshman, Arlington High School.

Singer: Ronnie Wakat, 15, 224 S. York St., Bensenville, sophomore, Fenton High School.

"TRI - TONES" (singers): Cynthia Lauridsen, 4N241 Briar Lane, Bensenville; Sandy Leveen, 4N208 Ridgewood, Bensenville; Diane Lambert, 4N775 Tri-State Hwy., Bensenville, all 14 years old, freshmen, Fenton High School.

Member of a jazz combo: Tom Szszesniak, 16, 231 Lorraine St., Addison, sophomore, York High School, Elmhurst.

Singer: Carol Rogers, 17, 219 Rohlwing Road, Palatine, senior, Palatine High School. (A14

Churches Join for World Day of Prayer

Churches of Arlington Heights, Elk Grove and Rolling Meadows will hold a joint World Day of Prayer service at the Community Church of Rolling Meadows, at 1:30 p.m. Feb. 14.

Rev. William H. Herman, pastor of the church at Kirchoff Road and Meadow Drive, Rolling Meadows, will be the speaker. "The purpose of World Day of Prayer is to bring people together across denominational, racial, national and cultural boundaries to pray for the needs of the world and to make an offering for the carrying out of the Church's mission across the world," he said.

REV. HERMAN

This year's service, "Let Us Pray," was prepared by Dr. Madeleine Barot, executive secretary of the Department on the Cooperation of Men and Women in Church Family, and the Society of the World Council of Churches, Geneva, Switzerland.

THE REV. Mr. Herman, a graduate of Kalamazoo College, received his bachelor of divinity degree from Andover Newton Theological School, and served in eastern churches before becoming pastor of the Rolling Meadows church in 1960. He has been active in youth work, and is a member of the city's Police Juvenile Advisory Commission.

Participating in the service will be Mrs. R. Swehla, organist, Mrs. William Herman, soloist and Mrs. T. VanDormolen of the Community Church of Rolling Meadows; and Mrs. D. Cochenour of Meadows Baptist Church.

Mrs. H. Kaeppel represents Church of the Good Shepherd and Mrs. E. Frech the Prince of Peace Methodist Church, both of Elk Grove Village.

FROM the Arlington Heights area are Mrs. J. Hutchinson, Christian Church; Mrs. W. Wiener and Mrs. J. Travers, Arlington Heights Evangelical Free Church; Mrs. A. Benedix, First Presbyterian Church; Mrs. C. Hilton, Southminster United Presbyterian Church; Mrs. N. Nelson, First Methodist Church; Mrs. C. Bloom and Mrs. O. Hansen, Our Saviour's Lutheran Church; Mrs. M. Woolley and Mrs. L. Lunsmann, St. Simon Episcopal Church; Mrs. A. Stelling and Mrs. G. Moudry, St. John United Church of Christ.

Mrs. Roy Cranmer of the host church, area chairman of the World Day of Prayer service, said nursery care will be available for the one-hour service.

Consider High School Office Building Bids

Bids totaling $174,000 for construction of an administrative center will be considered by the Board of Education of High School District 214 next Monday, Feb. 10.

The center is to be built at the northeast corner of the 60-acre Prospect High School site.

This is a reduction of almost $9,000 from original bids which totaled $182,990.

With the addition of almost $10,000 in architectural fees, $1,000 for landscaping and $15,000 for furnishings the total cost of the administrative center will be about $200,000.

The 1963-64 budget provides only $175,000 for the center, based on the original costs estimated by the school administration. Delays in working out details of the center have postponed the expected completion date. The original May completion will probably be set back to July or August, Superintendent H. L. Slichenmyer said this week.

THE DELAY will put the school system into the 1964-65 budget. Funds in the new budget for general building construction will provide the extra $25,000 needed for the administrative center.

Other building projects may be undertaken during the 1964-65 school year to the extent general construction funds will stretch. These projects include a loading dock at Arlington High School, a foyer for the Prospect High Field House, a combination garage-concession stand at Prospect and a new incinerator, also at Prospect High.

The $9,000 reduction from the original bids was achieved by a major revision of electrical fixtures, elimination of clocks and a change in folding doors used in the center.

Wayne Fritsch, representing the building architects Gerger-Kelley-Unteed, noted that an additional $2,000 reduction may be achieved by using caissons for foundation support in place of the pilings originally designated. The architects are still evaluating this change, he said.

Drainage from the building is being changed to feed into the Foundry Road (Arlington Heights) drainage system rather than the Mount Prospect combination sanitary-storm sewer line on Forest Ave.

ALTHOUGH permission to connect the storm drainage to the Mount Prospect system had been received from the Mount Prospect Village engineering department, the continued flooding of home basements in the area east of the high school required the change, Slichenmyer explained.

Low bidders on the administration building were Fleetwood Contractors, Inc., Skokie — general construction; Jacob G. Weber Co., Chicago — plumbing; Hans Jensen & Sons, Inc., Chicago — heating; and Barr Electric Corp., Northbrook — electric.

The one-story administrative center will contain offices for the superintendent, assistant superintendent, business manager, directors of personnel, curriculum and guidance, school psychologist and instructional coordinators. Space will also be included for the director of the area special education district.

Space for clerical workers and consultants will be provided. An extensive office equipment and IBM room will adjoin the office area. (ACM-E

SQUARE DANCE CLUB NEWS

Dorothy Meyer CL 3-2298

SWINGIN' SQUARES

Jamboree's comin'! In case you didn't get around to noting the date on your calendar the first time we mentioned the Swingin' Squares' ninth annual swingeree, do it now! Sunday, Feb. 16, from 2 to 5:30 in the afternoon. There's less than two weeks to go until the big date, so do your plan-making right away.

Last year's Jamboree was such a womping, stomping success that dancing was a bit snug once in awhile, so Swingin' Squares arranged for more room this time and dancing will be in two of Arlington High School's biggest halls. Both have excellent acoustics and between the two there'll be comfortable dancing space for 100 squares.

Two popular callers of national reputation, Max Forsyth of Indianapolis and Carl Geels of Fort Wayne, will co-call with club regulars, Bob Lewis and Dale Manson. The round dance portion of the program will be conducted by Carl and Marie Peterson.

ARLINGTON High School is located on Walnut and Euclid Streets in Arlington Heights. Nobody will have any trouble finding the right place, just ease into the traffic jam and follow the leader.

Swingin' Squares and friends will dance tomorrow night in the field house at Recreation Park, Arlington Heights, and everyone's invited to this February Frolic, too. It will be a good opportunity to get limbered up for the Jamboree and with Bob Lewis at the mike, it will be the limberest. Dancing starts at 8:30 p.m., ends at 11:30 and cookies mit coffee are served throughout the evening.

Guests are always welcome at all Swingin' Squares dances. The club meets the first and third Friday nights of every month, same time, same place. Lewis does the honors the first Friday night and Dale Manson squares 'em up the third Friday.

BUCKS AND DOES

Elk Grovers were on the prowl again since the last time we heard from 'em, and they now have two more banners, with a rain check for the third one. If this business of getting a rain check for a banner that's already been snitched is news to you, don't feel bad. It's news to this news-hound too.

Five squaresful of Bucks and Does took a bus (not literally! They only take banners.) to Racine, Wis. Jan. 18 for a dancing, banner-snatching visit to the Circle Eights club. Fortunately or unfortunately, depending on your bannerly point of view, some other club had already walked off with the Circle Eight pennants.

With a kindliness not often found in this hard-hearted age, the Circle Eights promised to send their banner on to the Elk Grove club as soon as they themselves retrieved it from its current custodians. They promised, too, to come r'aring down this way in March or April and get it back again.

THE NIGHT before their Wisconsin foray, the Bucks and Does called on the Swingin' Squares of Arlington Heights and took that banner away with them. A week later, Jan. 24, they invaded the grounds of the Country Corners in Mundelein and filched their pennant, too. As the B & D club says, "We got there firstest with the mostest—at least two other clubs visiting the Country Corners had the same idea."

Leaving themselves wide open for multi- lateral raids, the Bucks and Does now cordially invite everyone to come to their Valentine Dance Saturday night. Guest Caller Jim Stewart will share the mike with club caller, Bob Lewis. Dancing starts at 8 o'clock in Higgins School, Higgins and Touhy, Elk Grove.

Not available for thieving Saturday is the banner of the Lords and Ladies of Elgin. They paid a genteel visit to the Bucks and Does' last dance, Jan. 25, and reclaimed their wandering flag. That dance, incidentally, was one of the biggest for the Elk Grovers; 19½ squares of dancers filled the school and found out why Higgins School is such a popular place every second and fourth Saturday night. Bucks and Does invite you to come find out for yourself.

PALATINE SQUARES

Ed Hempel will be calling for the Palatiners Saturday night, and the club expects a big turnout for the occasion. On the program with Ed for the round-dance part of the evening will be Dot and Jerry Daniels.

Dancing, in Paddock School as always, will begin at 8:30 and end at 11:30, and coffee will be served throughout the evening. Everybody is welcome to join the gang for a swinging session of square dancing as you like it. (A14

Utility Asks Hike in Water, Sewer Rates

The first general increase in water and sewer rates since service was started in 11 subdivisions in Cook, DuPage and Will counties was requested Jan. 28 by Citizens Utilities Co. of Illinois in a hearing held before the Illinois Commerce Commission.

The revised schedule would standardize the company's rate structure throughout its service area, and will result in an increase of 14 per cent in revenue. However, some customers will receive a reduction in rates.

Ishier Jacobson, vice president; J. Hawley Taussig, evaluation engineer, and J. E. Griffin, vice president and treasurer, testified that the new rates were required to maintain a high standard of service for the company's 5,800 residential water customers and 5,300 residential sewer customers.

The revised water rates per thousand gallons are as follows:

First 4,000 gallons - $1.15
Next 4,000 gallons - .90
Next 12,000 gallons - .75
Next 20,000 gallons - .60
Over 40,000 gallons - .35 (no increase in end block)

Minimum monthly rate $4.60 water rate ranges from $3 to $5.

The charge for sewer service where sewage is discharged into the Metropolitan Sanitary District interceptor has been standardized in the proposed schedule at $3 per month. The present charge ranges from $2.50 to $3.50 monthly.

Where Citizens treats sewage in its own treatment plants, the company is seeking to standardize the rate at $4.75. The present monthly rates range from $3.50 to $5.

Following are the areas served by the Citizens Utilities Co., in which rates will be standardized:

ARLINGTON Heights Gardens, south of Arlington Heights
Arrowhead subdivision in DuPage County near Wheaton
Bluett's subdivision, east of Mount Prospect
Brinkman Manor, east of Mount Prospect.
Country Club Highlands in DuPage County near Bensenville
Fernway subdivision and Westhaven, near Orland Park
Lombard Heights subdivision in DuPage County, west of Lombard
Valley View and Butterfield in DuPage County
Waycinden Park, west of Des Plaines
Weathersfield subdivison in Schaumburg.
Colonial Village Subdivision in Northern Will County. (A 14

Retired School Teacher

Built Blue-Chip Fortune While Living in Poverty

SHEBOYGAN, WIS., (UPI) — Miss Theresa Lindenthal, a retired school teacher who "never spent more than $200 a year and lived on handouts" left an estate valued at nearly $750,000, her investment firm reported.

Bernard Brand, manager of the Sheboygan office of the Wayne Hummer Co., said Miss Lindenthal's estate was worth $742,989, mostly in blue chip stocks which "she always bought at margin." Buy on margin is paying part of the price of the stock and borrowing the rest.

Miss Lindenthal was 92 when she died in April, 1963. She lived with her brother, Henry, 89, who is now a patient at St. Nicholas Hospital.

"She used to live on handouts," said Brand. "She would go to rummage and bakery sales, and take whatever wasn't sold. She lived in virtual poverty."

BRAND said the woman lived in an old brick house "that sold for $3,200 and there wasn't $50 worth of contents in the house. She never painted the place in 40 years."

Miss Lindenthal had stock in 97 corporations at the time of her death and had treasury bonds worth $65,000.

"She used to carry her securities in an old shoe box with a string tied around it," Brand said. "I told her one time to go across the street and buy a nice leather case, but she told me she couldn't afford it."

Miss Lindenthal inherited about $18,000 in Idaho real estate and already owned some stock when she first came to Brand in 1939. She had retired as an elementary school teacher about 18 years earlier.

"She was a shrewd investor," said Brand. "She used her inheritance to guy General Motors Corp. stock and just kept re-investing her profits in other sound stocks."

SOME OF the stocks she held, according to Brand, were:

Sundstrand Machine Tool, 1,955 shares valued at $48,631; International Paper Co., 1,074 shares valued at $34,002; Reynolds Metals, 1,428 shares valued at $41,590; Interchemical Corp., 143 shares valued at $34,996; and Electric Storage Battey, 440 shares $24,805.

One-fourth of Miss Lindenthal's estate was left to her brother and the rest will be divided among eight relatives.

Revoke Licenses Of 5 Area Drivers

Licenses of five area drivers were revoked this week by the office of the Illinois secretary of state.

Three were for driving while intoxicated, one for displaying a license not issued to the holder and one for drag racing.

The list of suspensions included only one area resident, whose permit was suspended for drunken driving.

PROBATIONARY permits were granted to seven drivers.

Those whose licenses were revoked for driving while intoxicated were George R. Reading, 567 Greenwood, Northbrook; Kenneth R. Melvin, 501 Rambler Lane, Streamwood, and Larry E. Lassen, 337 Hiawatha Drive, Buffalo Grove.

The license of Alfred G. Anderson, 55 W. Johnson, Palatine, was revoked for displaying a license not issued to him.

Roger J. Cook, 2906 Oriole Lane, lost his license for drag racing.

THE LICENSE of James H. Thacker, 316 Spruce, Bensenville, was suspended for drunken driving.

Probationary permits were issued to the following persons whose licenses were suspended earlier but who did not have a total point accumulation of 62 points.:

Billy J. Metcalf, 27 Oak St.; Arturo T. Palomo, 1351 Algonquin, and Peter R. Robbins, 1252 S. Chestnut, all of Arlington Heights; William C. Mors, 904 Meyer Road, Mount Prospect; George T. Boyd Jr., 17W-035 Washington, Bensenville; Elwin F. Kline, 24W645 Lake St., Roselle and Henry J. Huart Jr., 118 Cedar Circle Drive, Streamwood. (A14

Recommend State System Of 2-Year Junior Colleges

CHICAGO, (UPI) — The Illinois State Board of Higher Education received a report Tuesday recommending the creation of junior colleges at the rate of about three per year.

Junior colleges could save each student and his family about $600 a year, the committee estimated. They also would save the state a substantial amount of the per-pupil cost of faculty, facilities and maintenance, the report said.

The committee recommended that the junior colleges be planned for not less than 3,000 students each and be located in areas where there will be high concentrations of potential students.

The recommendation was contained in the final report of the board's Citizens Advisory Committee. The report was drafted by Edward E. Lindsay, Decatur; Paul E. Mathias, Bloomington, and James C. Worthy, Chicago.

THE BOARD of higher education was established by the 1961 legislature to devise a master plan for the growth and operation of colleges and universities in Illinois.

"We recommend that the master plan provide for the establishment of a system of two-year junior colleges," the citizens committee report said.

The committee said the junior colleges should be "fully supported by state funds and tuition" and should be under the control of a state board of junior colleges.

The committee also recommended greater powers for the Board of Higher Education and the creation of a state research council to oversee on-going research and allocate funds for research.

THE COMMITTEE said the state appropriated $236 million toward operating the six state universities during the 1961-63 biennium and $292 million for the 1963-65 biennium. It cited estimates that the six universities will spend $402 million during the 1965-67 biennium, $624 million during the 1969-71 biennium and $974 million during the 1975-77 biennium.

"This would add by 1970 some $295 million to the biennial appropriations for operating costs for state universities, Chicago Teachers College and the public junior colleges," it said. "In addition, $162 million would be needed for physical facilities at the state universities between 1965 and 1970."

The committee said a revenue amendment to the Illinois Constitution, if passed in 1965 by the legislature, could not be effective until the 1967-69 biennium because it would require voter ratification in November, 1966.

IT RECOMMENDED additional revenue be raised by broadening the base of existing taxes, increasing the rates of existing taxes and/or adopting new taxes that could become effective without constitutional amendment.

The board, at its December meeting, decided to adopt a tentative master plan March 4 or 5. Public hearings will be held before the board votes final approval of the plan. (A-14

Reports 21,000 Illinois Kids Accidentally Poisoned in '63

SPRINGFIELD — Public Health Director Franklin D. Yoder says approximately 21,000 children were accidentally poisoned in Illinois last year.

Yoder said the vast majority of the reported cases occurred in children under age five. He said "this reflects the failure of parents to keep toxic substances out of the reach of children in the home."

Yoder said most hazardous household substances are labeled, "but toddlers cannot read." Yoder estimated that about 60 to 70 lives are needlessly lost each year in the state due to accidental poisoning.

Brutus Back from Pittsburgh

VENICE — Brutus came back to his family Tuesday after an unexplained trip to Pittsburgh.

Brutus is a three-year-old boxer, discovered missing last Tuesday by his owners, the Steven J. Lopez family.

Mrs. Lopez said the dog was found Monday in Pittsburgh by filling station owner Patrick McGrath Jr. McGrath sent the dog back air express. Mrs. Lopez said her two daughters "are just wild to have him back."

"I have no idea how the dog got to Pittsburgh," Mrs. Lopez said.

Purse Snatcher Gets $1,100

EFFINGHAM — Police sought a woman wearing red slacks and her male companion after the woman reportedly grabbed a purse containing $1,100 from a car at a boulevard stop.

Police said the two fled in a dirty red 1960 Ford after the purse-snatching incident.

The robbery victim, Anna Druen, operator of a poultry business, said she had just withdrawn the money from a bank and was returning home when she made a boulevard stop. She said the woman opened the car door and grabbed her purse.

Tavern Owner's Car Bombed

FREEPORT — A black powder bomb exploded in a tavern owner's car Saturday, but there were no injuries.

The car, owned by Vernon (Bullet) Kirk, 33, was parked in a city lot when the blast ripped a 12-inch hole in the floorboards, under the steering wheel and through the seat.

Kirk's wife, Romana, had parked the car minutes before the bomb exploded. Kirk has operated the Tropical Lounge for the past three years and has a record of gambling, assault and battery convictions.

Quarry Blasts Shake Plaster

HOMEWOOD — The engineer of this village is planning to rent a seismograph to record shock waves resulting from dynamite blasting in a nearby quarry.

Homewood Village Manager Robert Buechner says the blasts "have been of sufficient violence to cause plates, pots and pans to vibrate off of tables and shelves, and cause plaster to fall from ceilings."

The quarry, owned by the Material Service Division of General Dynamics Corp., is located outside the village limits in Thornton.

Illini Enrollment at 23,598

CHAMPAIGN — A record second semester enrollment at the University of Illinois reached 23,598, an increase of six per cent over the same semester last year, a university official said Monday.

C. W. Sanford, dean of admissions and records, said a year ago the enrollment totaled 22,199.

The number of graduate students increased by more than nine per cent — from 5,036 last year to 5,497. Undergraduate registration totaled 18,092 compared with 17,163 a year ago.

Ex-Convict Dies in Gunfight

PEORIA — A 27-year-old ex-convict was shot and killed Tuesday by Peoria police in a gunfight at a downtown tavern.

Dead is Robert Bobbie Gouran, who has been arrested 22 times since he was 15 years old, and had served two prison terms, according to police.

Wounded in the exchange were Gouran's wife of one month, Elizabeth, 33, and Peoria police officer William Taylor.

Both are in satisfactory condition at St. Francis Hospital.

Sitter Saves Tots from Fire

WOODSTOCK — This community planned to honor a 17-year-old girl with the "City of Woodstock" award for rescuing three children from a fire.

Woodstock Mayor Thore Emricson said the city council would present the title within the next two weeks to Mary Lee David.

Miss David, a senior at Woodstock High School, was babysitting Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Knutson when she saw flames in the kitchen.

She rushed upstairs and carried two boys, David, 4, and Junior, 2, outside and then returned to get the 16-month-old girl, Tina.

Antique Cars to Lead Way

CHICAGO — A cavalcade of antique and late model cars will drive from Chicago to Dixon, Ill., April 15 to mark the opening of the seventh annual Illinois Editors Traffic Safety Seminar.

Seminar president Lewis S. Mrkvicka, executive editor of the Aurora Beacon-News, said the cavalcade will follow generally the route taken April 15, 1914, by a motorcade led by then Gov. Edward F. Dunne. The expedition 50 years earlier was staged to promote the development of good roads.

'Disappointed' in Wheat Plan

BLOOMINGTON — William J. Kuhfuss, president of the Illinois Agricultural Association, says he was "disappointed" with President Johnson's wheat plan outlined in a special farm message to congress Friday.

Kuhfuss in a statement criticized the wheat certificate approach advocated by Johnson.

He said the President's approach "could not possibly accomplish the President's stated goals of substantially raising farm income while avoiding budgetary increases and maintaining the wheat price at a level that would not raise the price of bread to the consumer."

Goodwill Wants Your Discards

Mirrors to Keep Deer Off Highway?

CARTERVILLE, ILL., (UPI) — An experiment with mirrors was under way at the Crab Orchard National Wildlife Refuge in the hope it will reduce nocturnal deer-automobile collisions.

Stainless steel mirrors have been mounted on posts along a one-mile stretch of Illinois 148 just south of Crab Orchard Lake in the refuge area.

The 3-by-5-inch mirrors are affixed two to a post which are spaced 35 feet apart on either side of the highway.

Automobile headlight rays striking the mirrors are reflected at a 90-degree angle to the road and are expected to stop deer short of the highway while cars are passing.

ARCH MEHRHOFF, refuge manager, said the experiment will last at least two years and records will be kept on the number of deer-auto collisions in the area. He said New Jersey Parkway officials have written him about the experiment. The State of Illinois, which contributed the posts on which the mirrors are mounted, also is interested.

Mehrohoff said the mirror system worked successfully in Europe but that the refuge experiment is the first application of the deer mirrors in the United States.

"We are worried about the driver, not the deer," said refuge manager Robert Personius, who is Mehrhoff's assistant.

PERSONIUS said the deer population in the refuge exceeds 1,000 and that there are some 50 deer-auto collisions a year in the refuge area.

"It's amazing that no one has been killed in these deer-car wrecks," said Personius. "Some of the cars have been badly damaged and several persons have been injured." (A14

And Is the Army Mad!

Sinek Piwtorak Is Zenon Adasiak Now

MILWAUKEE, (UPI) — What's in a name?

Plenty of work for the U. S. Army, said Zenon James Adasiak, 19, who was absolutely sure the name was his today.

Adasiak, a mechanic assigned to an armored division at Amberg, Germany, has also been known as Zenon Piwtorka and Sinek Piwtorak. But while on a special leave he became a naturalized citizen Monday and officially got the name Zenon James Adasiak.

"THE ARMY'S going to love me," he said after the ceremony. "They're going to have to change all my records when I get back."

When he was born in West Germany he mistakenly was given his mother's maiden name of Piwtorak on his records. The family came to the U. S. in 1950 and settled in Kenosha after two years in Chicago.

In his immigration records, however, his first name got mixed up to read Sinek instead of Zenon. (A14

Rumsfeld Lists Nominees For Academy Appointments

Nominees for appointment to U.S. military service academies from the 13th Congressional District include 14 young men from this area.

The entire list of nominations for classes entering in 1964 covers 9 of the 11 townships and wards in the 13th district, according to Cong. Donald Rumsfeld (R-Glenview), who announced the names.

From the district nominees, two will be appointed to the Naval Academy and one each to the Air Force and Military Academies. They also will compete with nominees from throughout Illinois for the 15 openings at the Merchant Marine Academy.

NOMINATED from this area were the following:

John W. Fellman Jr., son of John W. Fellman, 215 S. Chestnut, Arlington Heights; Charles R. Fyfe Jr., son of Charles R. Fyfe, 8 Evergreen, Elk Grove Village; Charlton T. McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Boukas, 107 N. Louis St., Mount Prospect; and Wayne T. Petersen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne W. Petersen, 2505 E. Grove St., Arlington Heights, nominated for the Merchant Marine Academy, Kings Point, N.Y.

John E. Heisel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton W. Heisel, 137 Norridge Lane, Hoffman Estates, and Edward C. Schweiger, son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Edward C. Schweiger, 504 S. Dale Ave., Arlington Heights, nominated for U. S. Military Academy, West Point, N.Y.

Ralph Kaspari, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Kaspari, 803 Wa-Pella, Mount Prospect; Thomas W. Ostermann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ostermann, 1305 Cottonwood Lane, Arlington Heights; Brian F. Patarich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Patarich, and Eugene A. Rose, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Rose Jr., 631 Burno Drive, both of Palatine, nominated for Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs.

CADET CAPT. Robt. B. Applehans Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Applehans, 177 Brentwood Drive, Palatine; Stephen P. Mueller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Mueller, 206 N. Dale, Mount Prospect; John R. Robbins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Robbins, 130 N. Gibbons Ave., and Lucky L. Somers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucky W. Somers, 608 S. Cherchez la Femme, Even with Horses

NECEDAH, WIS., (UPI)—Spirit wonders today if it was worth horsing around with a lady.

Spirit, a stallion who earned the reputation of being the wild horse of the Necedah National Wildlife Refuge, was doing his thinking in a barn in the farm of Lester McGinnis, Tomah. The confinement was a big change from his five month romp in the outdoors.

THE HORSE fled into the refuge last fall after escaping from McGinnis while he was trying to load him on a van. Then the long roundup process began.

Week after week, McGinnis, friends and relatives went to the refuge to try and catch Spirit, a name given the horse by Milwaukee Journal outdoor writer Tom Guyant, who came across the story. McGinnis coaxed. He tried tempting food. He tried tricks. He put up a reward for Spirit's capture.

But the horse ran wild.

At last McGinnis turned to a "Mati Hari" among horses.

McGINNIS, along with several other men, took a mare into the refuge and staked her out. The they buried a series of ropes in the snow as traps to tie up Spirit if he came close enough.

McGinnis reported that Spirit, apparently lonesome for the kind of companionship he could understand, came galloping up to a halt and was snared.

Spirit was reported by Mrs. McGinnis to be settling down in his barn home. (A14

Notes from Arlington Acres

Marie Marshall CLearbrook 5-2936

Mrs. John Humphrey, 417 S. Gibbons, who underwent surgery Wednesday of last week, is reported to be progressing nicely, although she is not allowed visitors at this time. Ruby is in Room 608, Lutheran General Hospital.

Good news comes from the Emil Straub home, 521 S. Phelps. Joan came home Sunday after being in Holy Family Hospital for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Wozniak, 436 S. Prindle, are happily showing off their new son, 7-month-old Michael Joseph.

Kathy Ehlen, 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ehlen, 437 S. Gibbons, celebrated her Jan. 30 birthday at the Hamilton Grill on Michigan Avenue in Chicago, a restaurant owned by her dad. Gathered around the dinner table, in addition to her parents, were her sister, Carol, and Patty Chappell, Kathy's best friend.

A DINNER party in honor of David Houser's third birthday was given Jan. 26 by his parents, the Thomas Housers of 416 S. Waterman. Among the guests, in addition to his sisters, Deborah and Deneen, were grandparents, the senior Thomas Housers of Chicago and the Charles Ochsenhirts of Des Plaines, an aunt and uncle, the James Housers, and a family friend, Mrs. Bea Ziska of Chicago.

Arlington Acres couples who quietly celebrated wedding anniversaries within the last week are: Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Knudson, 413 S. Phelps, who were married 16 years Jan. 31; Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Jensen, 524 S. Waterman, who marked their 19th anniversary Feb. 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Koenen, 529 S. Prindle, and Mr. and Mrs. James Massey, 509 S. Gibbons, share twin anniversaries. Both couples were married eight years Jan. 28.

The Massey anniversary celebration was postponed as James had to be in the east on business while Elsa spent the week in Minnesota visiting her family, and was marked this week with a quiet dinner for two.

Since Randy Fritz shares his Jan. 29 birthday with his cousin, Kevin Manning, a party to honor both boys was hosted by Randy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fritz, 420 S. Phelps, on Jan. 26. Guests at the dinner for 3-year-old Randy and 13-year-old Kevin included Randy's sister, Madeline, Kevin's parents, the James Mannings of Chicago, Grandma Sophie Fritz and Grandma Mary Manning of Arlington Heights.

BRUCE ALVIN celebrated his fifth birthday on Jan. 29 at a family party. A score of aunts, uncles and cousins, as well as his 3-year-old brother, Kenneth, were present to share in the festivities and enjoy cake and ice cream.

Bruce is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Alvin, 513 S. Phelps.

Congratulations and best wishes for many more go to Margaret De Stefanis, 532 S. Waterman, on her Jan. 31 birthday.

Friday, Feb. 7, at 8 p.m. the Arlington Acres Civic Association will hold a regularly scheduled meeting in the meeting room at Lauterburg and Oehler's. Members are urged to attend because of the importance of the topics to be discussed.

Several changes in the association's by-laws have been suggested and will be voted on, and plans for future activities will be talked over.

Arlington Heights Trustee Bud Beacham will discuss with the members the pros and cons of the village's plan to induce research and light manufacturing to settle in the area.

FINALLY, the association feels that the members should know more about the proposed Northwest Suburban Community College before the May referendum. With this in mind, they have invited two speakers, Mrs. R. B. Yadon, district secretary of Illinois Congress Parents and Teachers and recording secretary of Citizens' Community College Committee, and Mrs. Charles Toot, president of the American Association of University Women, to discuss the character of the proposed college, the need of the community for such a college, the advantages it will afford the community and the steps taken to get it started if the referendum is approved.

Refreshments will be served. (A

Students Go To Museum At Hinsdale

Students from two Arlington Heights schools recently visited the Hinsdale Health Museum.

Fourth grade pupils from Windsor School, accompanied by their teachers, Miss Rose Pagani and Mrs. Doris Keith, and first grade students from Patton School, accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Lillian Helwig, saw a performance of Valeda, Hinsdale's Talking Glass Lady.

The first graders also saw a puppet play staged by museum volunteers on the care of teeth and health and safety. The fourth graders listened to a discussion on the skeleton exhibit led by one of the museum staff and saw a film entitled "You, the Human Animal," produced by Walt Disney and narrated by Jiminy Cricket.

The visitors also enjoyed a loan exhibit being displayed through the courtesy of Mead Johnson Laboratories. "A Doctor's Office a Century Ago" displays the primitive surgical instruments and simple drugs of bygone days. It will be shown until Saturday, Feb. 15. (A

OFTEN MISPRONOUNCED

Gaucherie (awkward — ness). Pronounce go-sheh-ree, with principal accent on last syllable.

Credence. Pronounce kreedens, and not as "kreh-dens."

Nicety. Pronounce in three syllables as nigh-seh-ti, with accent on first syllable.

Verecund. Pronounce ver-eekund, accent on first syllable.

Blase (sated with pleasure). Pronounce blaw-zay, accent on second syllable.

Fiat (a sanction or decree). Pronounce figh-at, with accent on first syllable.

Modern Etiquette

Q. I've been told that a person should always keep looking at another person while talking with him. Is this true?

A. You do, of course, indicate closer attention to what the other person is saying if you look at him — but be sure to avoid a fixed and hypnotic stare that could make the other person feel uncomfortable.

Q. At a small, informal wedding, is it all right for the bride and bridegroom to walk down the aisle together?

A. Yes, if the wedding is small and the bride has no near male relative to walk with her.

Q. Is it proper to place the elbows on the table while drinking from a cup, holding the cup with the fingers of both hands?

A. No. The cup has ONE HANDLE, and is properly held with ONE hand.

ONE OF A SERIES OF SHORT COURSES IN MONEY MANAGEMENT

QUESTION:
Just why should we have a checking account?

ANSWER:

Almost everyone in the Northwest Suburbs has a checking account. And no wonder! Checks are the easy, safe way to mail money to anyone. In addition, your check book provides a record of bills paid while your cancelled checks are proof of payment.

A checking account has some other important advantages too. For example, it's a big help at income tax time. By reviewing your check book, you can quickly total your deductible expenditures.

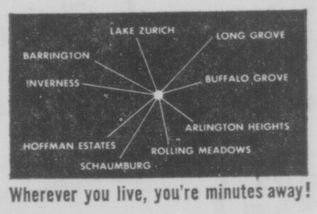
A checking account also eliminates the need to carry large sums of cash on your person. Take your check book along when you shop. It's the safe way to buy!

A checking account helps build your credit standing too. It's the business-like way to pay.

The convenience and safety of "paying by check" costs just pennies at Palatine National Bank. Stop in soon and talk it over.

And if you open your checking account now, we'll give you use of a Safe Deposit Box FREE FOR A FULL YEAR! It's the perfect way to protect your valuable papers and belongings from fire and theft.

P.S. Our one stop banking service also includes savings accounts, traveler's checks, and all kinds of loans including personal, commercial, collateral, home improvement and low cost auto loans.



Wherever you live, you're minutes away!

Without Annexation

Board Approves Arrowhead Plat

Village Atty. Jack Siegel outlined the legal powers of the Arlington Heights Board of Trustees Monday, and the board approved the final plat of Arrowhead subdivision unit two by a 4-1 vote.

Trustee William J. Moore cast the lonely, but emphatic, "no" in the twice-deferred voting on the 30-home plan for an area outside the village limits on Schoenbeck Road south of Palatine Road.

The trustees had asked developer Jack Wenborg to consider annexation of the subdivision to the village, saying such annexation would prevent future problems caused by "piecemeal" annexation.

Moore contended at an adjourned board meeting Jan. 27 that approval of the developer's final plat of subdivision should be withheld until he agreed to annex.

Under Illinois statutes a municipality with a comprehensive plan and subdivision control ordinance is granted authority to pass on plans of a subdivision or development within a mile and a half of the municipal limits.

But Siegel told the board Monday that the plan may only be rejected if it does not comply with village standards or agree with the proposed use of that area under the village's comprehensive plan.

He added that a desire to have the area within village limits would not be a legal basis for refusal.

Trustee Bud Beacham, who made the motion for deferral of the matter to await the attorney's opinion, outlined problems of rendering village services to the area if homes came in one at a time in the future rather than as a group.

He said even though he was in favor of annexation he would vote for approval because of the legal requirements.

Moore asserted his right to disagree with state statutes and continued, "I still don't like it and I'm still not going to vote for it for the reasons Bud (Beacham) just stated."

Wenborg, present during the discussion, did not comment until the vote was taken. He then said, "Thank you — now who will sign it (the plat) and when?" (A

Q. Certain guests we entertain have the annoying (to me) habit of putting their cigarettes out in my coffee cups. What can I do about this?

A. Very firmly place an ashtray within reach of each of these ill-bred persons and say, "Would you mind using this, please?"

TRAPPED — Francis J. Sohns, 46, of 305 E. Camp MacDonald Road, Prospect Heights, is shown trapped in his sport car early Saturday morning at the intersection of Route 83 and Euclid Avenue. Sohns told state police he was traveling north on Route 83 about 3:30 a.m. when he applied the brakes to stop for a traffic signal. He said his auto skidded out of control and struck the light post. Mount Prospect firemen were called to the scene to free Sohns from his auto. State police said no arrests were made. Sohns was taken to Holy Family Hospital by Mercy Ambulance. (A

Eastwood Events

Taking the train to Seattle and driving back home gave Mr. and Mrs. William Richter of N. Dryden Avenue a wonderful way to see all the western country. In Seattle, where the Richters visited awhile, they met their son, Bill, with whom they drove home, by way of the coast, with a stopover in Las Vegas. The Richters were especially enthused with the majestic Redwoods of California and the Hoover Dam, just taken-for-granted names before, but which proved to be unforgettable sights.

Party games and refreshments were on the bill of fare at the Stephen Cohas' Saturday afternoon when Richard was host at his 7th birthday celebration. He included his brothers and sisters, Larry, Danny, Marny and Joanie in the fun, along with his neighborhood pals, Glen and Jackie Larson, Peter Manchee, Chuckie Fill, Michael and Kevin Hughes and Bobby Schwantz. The Cohas live at 704 N. Beverly Lane.

HOLIDAYS AND sickness have caused lots of shuffling in the Eastwood bridge tournament schedules, but in the mid-winter lull several parties have recently been given. The Al Gamenthalers were hosts last Saturday for the Dick Vlaches, George Farrells and Homer Nielsens. The Herman Raasches were also hosts Saturday night for Nina and Norm Hoym, Ruth and Bob Luker and Virginia and Bob Fritz.

A business trip took Ken Behm of 202 N. Lincoln Lane to Indianapolis last week. There he attended the convention of the Bryant Mfg. Co., with which he has been associated for the past nine years.

NEWS SURE DOES travel - from our little Eastwood column all the way to St. Petersburg, Florida! Recently it was reported that Mrs. Henry Raasch, who formerly lived on Dryden Avenue, was a patient in St. Anthony's hospital in that city. While recuperating there, Mrs. Raasch was visited by Marian Haseman's mother, who also lives in Florida and receives the Arlington Herald where she read about Mrs. Raasch's illness. Mrs. Haseman's father was also a patient in St. Anthony's and though the two mothers were unknown to one another they discovered their Arlington Heights son and daughter are adjoining backyard neighbors! Incidentally, Mrs. Raasch is much improved from her heart attack and is now back at home.

On Jan. 25, Barbara Raasch, the Herman Raasch's daughter, representing the Portage Park Swim Club, set a new meet record in the Chicago Park District 15-17-year-old 50-yd. butterfly. In the meet she also took first in the 13-14 girl's 100-yd. individual medley. The same day she gathered up three other gold medals in the Chicagoland Open Meet where she took a first in the 13-14 100-yd. breaststroke, swam on the 13-14 200-yd. medley relay and swam butterfly in the 15-17 400-yd. medley relay.

MR. AND MRS. James Rogers of Lincoln Lane returned Monday from a short vacation in Arizona, where Jim was on a business trip and Jean went along for the pleasure part. They spent three days in Tucson and four days in Scotsdale at the Fountainbleu Apts. Their evenings were spent visiting many of the night spots and sightseeing the Arizona countryside was on their daytime agenda.

Two Eastwood families have been saddened by deaths this past week. Services were held on Jan. 27 in the Methodist Church for Lewis D. Crockett of 638 N. Hickory St. Mr. Crockett, who died in Northwest Community Hospital, leaves Mrs. Crockett and his four children, Patricia, Catherine, David and Wayne, to whom are offered the very deepest sympathies of the entire community.

The Jerry Schoendorf family of 302 N. Lincoln Lane are also sent condolences on the death of Mr. Schoendorf's father in Detroit. The Schoendorfs moved to Eastwood last November. (A

Accused of Theft

James F. Theis, 307 W. Wing St., Arlington Heights, was arrested Monday on a charge of theft by deceptive practices.

The complaint was signed by Miss Betty Wagner, 42 S. Chestnut Ave., who told police she had given Theis $200 in December with which to settle a charge against her in Rosemont.

SHE SAID she had expected him to appear in court on the charge of disorderly conduct Dec. 2, but had received notice of failure to appear.

When she questioned Theis, Miss Wagner told police, he said first that he would take care of it, and later that he had spent the money on Rush Street. (A

St. John to Start Lent Study Feb. 12

St. John United Church of Christ of Arlington Heights will begin a series of Lenten studies on Ash Wednesday, Feb. 12, based on the theme, "Where in the World Is the Church?"

The Rev. Robert S. McDonald, pastor, said the series is what he termed "a significant and exciting departure" in theme.

The presentation Feb. 12 will examine the church and its own task, the Rev. Mr. McDonald said.

IN ANOTHER meeting, representatives of advertising, radio and television will study the impact of the Christian faith in these areas.

A drama will be presented by members of St. John Church School to illustrate the potentialities of parochial and public school educaton.

A panel discussion of union relations will form the basis for another in the series.

Art forms, publications, drama and political life are other areas that will be examined.

The series is open to anyone in the community, the pastor said. (A

Free X-rays Scheduled

Free chest X-rays will be offered residents of this community Tuesday, Feb. 25, when a mobile X-ray unit is parked at the Ben Franklin Store, 9 W. Campbell, Arlington Heights.

X-raying hours are from 12 noon to 6 p.m.

The mobile X-ray unit will be available for persons who need X-rays for pre-employment, pre - marital, pre - natal or licensing purposes, as well as those who have not checked their chests for tuberculosis within the past year.

This X-ray is also available to persons needing diagnostic X-rays as the result of suspicious signs found in small film surveys.

The service is provided by the Suburban Cook County Tuberculosis Sanitarium District in cooperation with the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook County, and municipal health departments. (A

Taxpayer Must Give Notice of Address Change

Taxpayers who have moved after filing their federal tax returns should make sure the postmaster gets their forwarding address, E. C. Coyle Jr., district director of Internal Revenue, said this week.

This is particularly important if they have a refund coming, whether check or savings bond. If the taxpayer changes his address before filing, his new address should be used on the return.

Carefully printed or typewritten identification of the taxpayer's name and address are vitally important to prompt processing of the return, Coyle said.

Taxpayers living in the suburbs should use only official post office addresses, not subdivision names. Refund checks and other correspondence are processed through service centers, and mail can be delivered from these centers only to post office addresses. (A14

Sheila Ann Spiel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Spiel, 730 N. Harvard, celebrated being 6 with a party for kindgergarten classmates. Present were Nancy Sorensen, Rebecca Petersen, Joyce Mills, Nancy Niell, Jeannie Gustafson, Susan Blizzard, Anne Lindner, Susan Kaufman, Virginia Griffin, Kathy Fogerty and Leana Kozakari. Also on hand for the party were Sheila's sister, Susie, and her neighborhood friend, Laurie Kaufman.

The following weekend, Sheila was hostess at a family party attended by her grandparents, the Peter Michalskis, godmother, Mrs. George Spiel and Michael and Bobby of Chicago. On hand also were the Paul Spiel and Tom Spiel families nad Miss Mary Spiel, all from Chicago. Arlington Heights relatives joining Sheila's party were the Richard Ketzas, Mrs. Anne Wos and Greg and Nancy. Brother Jamie also joined in the celebration.

MRS. GLEN Rubenking, 948 Fernandez, traveled to Springfield on Saturday for luncheon with a group of college friends. Classmates attending the luncheon were from Galesburg, Jacksonville, Mason City, Normal and Springfield, and one guest from California who had flown in for her parents' 50th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Thad Ostrowski, 928 N. Kaspar, celebrated their son, Paul's first birthday on Sunday. Guests joining them for ice cream, cake and coffee were Paul's godparents, Mr. and Mrs. John McNamara of Arlington Heights; the Jim Ralston family of Niles and Tony Petruzzi and family of Bellwood.

Gail Marie Lill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lill, 832 N. Kennicott, celebrated a second birthday. Joining the family for the occasion were Gail Marie's aunt, Jerry Vortko, and cousins, Nancy and Steve Vortko.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vesecky, 928 N. Kaspar, are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Vesecky were married at home 50 years ago with Mr. John Chrastka, brother of the bride, standing with them. They were remarried at St. James Church in Arlington Heights on Sunday by the Rev. George R. Roth, with Mr. and Mrs. John Chrastka of Chicago again standing with them. On hand for the ceremonies were their four children; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vesecky of Palatine, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Vesecky, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. George Seelenbinder, all of Arlington Heights. Also on hand were their five grandchildren and two neices, the Ehrings of Lake Zurich, the L. Zanzies of Chicago and Miss Donna Henne of Rolling Meadows.

Minday Corda, 923 Kaspar, celebrated her 12th birthday on Jan. 28 by going out to dinner with her mother, Mrs. Walter C. Corda, sister, Diane, and brother, Michael.

Mrs. Stephen Erd, 650 N. Kaspar, celebrated a Feb. 2 birthday with her immediate family.

FETED BRIDE in the past few weeks was Margie Lurtz, daughter of the George Lurtzes, 909 N. Patton. Margie, who became the bride of John Simoni in Mount Prospect on Saturday, was honored at several parties preceding the wedding.

Among them was a bridal shower given by Mrs. Sylvia Craig at her home, 1316 N. State Road. Present were Mrs. Lurtz, Mrs. Jim McNamara, Sylvia's daughter, Diane, Mrs. Ann Muran, Mrs. Marion Umbdenstock, Mrs. Marie Ptak, Mrs. Irma Cornforth and Mrs. Lil Hurst of Chicago.

Immediate family and close friends, 25 in number, gathered at the home of Miss Janet Heim of Skokie, Margie's maid of honor. Decorations on both occasions carried out the turquoise and white theme and were planned by Mrs. Sylvia Craig.

Dinners for Margie were given by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilbins of Palatine and Miss Karen Westerhold of Northfield. The rehearsal dinner was given at O'Hare Inn by Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Simoni of Birmingham, Mich.

Birthday congratulations go to Fritz Grant, 3; Carolyn Hugg, 16; and Eddie Gaenzle, 13.

FROM SHERWOOD

The Sherwood dinner dance was held Jan. 25 at Inverness Country Club. Chairman of the planning committee were Mr. and Mrs. Chet Giuliani. Other members of the committee were: Mrs. John Auld, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chodera and Mrs. Margaret Manley. An Italian theme was carried out with hors d'oeuvres of antipasto, chianti and chicken cacciatore. Music for dancing was provided by Tom Conforti. About 60 people attended.

The Ridge Park - Sherwood column now has a new correspondent. Taking over from Jan Bone, who's moving, will be Elaine Bisel. Neighbors with news are asked to call her at 358-4409. (A Visits from neighbors and friends during the last two or three weeks have brightened the recuperating days for Mrs. Eunice Bowdle of N. Beverly Lane. A fall early in January resulted in a week's stay in Northwest Community Hospital, where she underwent treatment and casting for a broken leg.

Mid-semester holiday from classes at the University of Illinois early last week meant a two-day visit home for Ann Kalkhoff and three classmates from Presby Hall. With her Olive Street home as "base," the girls joined Ann on Chicago trips during their stay, returning to Champaign Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Finch of E. Oakton celebrated their 22nd wedding anniversary Saturday evening at a dinner party attended by the John Pharrs of Arlington Heights, Robert Harts of Elk Grove, Gene Hughes and the John Clarks of Mount Prospect. Also joining the family for the affair was their daughter, Kathy, home from classes at Northern Illinois University at DeKalb. Her 10-day visit ended on Sunday.

THE GENE RYAN family of E. Oakton also enjoyed a visit from their daughter, Mary, a student at Northern, whose mid-term holiday also ended Sunday.

Miss Chris Bylski of N. Beverly Lane also headed for DeKalb and to resume her junior year at Northern earlier in the week.

Jim Stewart of N. Beverly Lane joined friends for a motor trip to Devils Lake, Wis., last weekend for ice fishing and other winter sports.

Houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. George Lett in their N. Belmont home for a week were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hammell of North Arlington, N. J. During their visit, Donna celebrated her eighth birthday on Jan. 25. Fifteen classmates and neighborhood friends also helped observe the occasion. A train trip back east ended the Hammells' visit last Wednesday.

Also celebrating their birthdays on Jan. 25 were 12-year-old twins, Bonnie and Heather Gerrard. Joining them for an afternoon of swimming and roller skating at Glenview's Playdium were Elaine Sell, Sharon Lasswell and Nancy Colliani. A dinner party in their N. Hickory home afterwards topped by birthday cake and ice cream ended the day of celebrating for the girls.

Eleven-year-old Steven Radcliffe of N. Hickory celebrated his birthday Saturday. Joining him for lunch and an afternoon at the movies were Scott Knaack, Keith Swearingen, Martin Roths and Randy Fisher. A family birthday dinner party on Sunday observed the birthdays for both Steve and his grandmother, Mrs. Gladys Radcliffe of Chicago. Also attending were Aunt Lee Scheck and grandmother, Mrs. Edna Scheck, of Arlington.

CELEBRATING her entry into teendom on Feb. 1, Carolyn Waffle hosted a slumber party in her N. Dryden home. Helping her observe the occasion were Kathy Sterner, Diane Brown, Colleen Williams and Linda Davis for a Friday evening of birthday cake, snacks, records, little sleep and lots of talk.

The Stew Sage family of E. Oakton motored to Lake Geneva on Sunday to attend the Lions Club sponsored "Fisheroo." The family enjoyed ice fishing and boating, sleigh rides and other amusements available. Thursday Mrs. Sage joined other members of the Chicago Maternity Center at the "kickoff" luncheon at the Casino, for their dance to be held on March 7.

HICKORY MEADOWS

Ten-year-old Craig Lasher of E. Talbot celebrated his birthday on Jan. 26 with a family dinner party. Guests included his grandmother, Mrs. William Lasher, and Mrs. Ann Benson, both of Chicago.

Saturday 11-year-old Susan birthdayed with an afternoon at the movies followed by cake and ice cream with the family. Joining her for the occasion was her soon-to-depart-for-the-east friend, Constance Gregg. The Lashers, former Greens residents, moved into Hickory Meadows in time to enjoy the holidays in their new home.

Debaters Win 7, Lose 5

The Forest View High School debaters won seven and lost five rounds of debate Saturday, Feb. 1, as 55 schools from Illinois participated in a debate tournament at Augustana College in Rock Island.

The topic was Resolved: That Social Security Benefits Should Be Extended to Include Complete Medical Care.

THE FOREST View affirmative team consisted of Barbara Blair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Blair, 733 S. Dulles, Des Plaines; and Rosemary Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gordon, 500 Kathleen Drive, Des Plaines.

The negative team won five and lost one round of debate. Don Runion, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Runion Sr., 1199 Bosworth Lane, Elk Grove; and Dick Mosher, son of Mrs. M. Mosher, 531 Kathleen Drive, Des Plaines, were on the negative side.

Miss Ruth Berkoff, debate coach at the high school, accompanied the team to the tournament. (A

Club Lists February Activities

February activities for the Arlington Heights Park District Over 50 Club were announced this week by club director Elizabeth Meyer.

On Thursday, Feb. 13, the meeting will be highlighted by a musical program and a Valentine party. Each person should bring a valentine and sign his own name.

The club will have a merry-go-round party Thursday, Feb. 27. Each person should bring a white elephant to be used for door and table prizes.

Both activities will be held at Pioneer Park, 500 S. Fernandez. The day will start at 10:30 a.m. with cards, crafts, dart ball and social hour. Everyone should bring a sandwich for noon lunch. Coffee, tea and cake will be supplied.

The programs and parties will begin at 1 p.m.

New members are welcome. Call CL 3-0620 for information.

Cut Price Of Season Swim Pass

The Arlington Heights Park District announced this week that season passes for the father and son swim night at St. Viator's swimming pool can now be purchased at a reduced rate.

With six nights of swimming remaining, the cost of a family pass has been reduced from $5 to $2.50. All adult men and boys seven years and over are eligible.

The swim activity meets on Thursdays from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

Persons who do not have a season swim pass may be admitted by paying the general admission of $1 for adults and 50 cents for children (eighth grade and under).

To register, stop at Pioneer Park Fieldhouse office, 500 S. Fernandez, CL 3-0620. (A Five Ways to Save!

1. Set up an auto "depreciation fund" in a special savings account. Figure out the monthly rate of depreciation on your auto—and put that amount into a savings account for your next auto purchase. Pay cash — and save the financing costs.
2. Encourage the whole family to save by letting each family member have his own savings account.
3. When you get a raise, save it. You got along without it before and, given time, even a small weekly increase will mount up surprisingly in your savings account.
4. Save with a purpose — such as owning your own home or sending your children to college.
5. When your doctor orders you to quit smoking or cut down on coffee breaks, keep the amount you save — to add to savings.

2 shapes known the world over.

Nobody really notices Coke bottles or Volkswagens any more.

They're so well known, they blend in with the scenery.

It doesn't matter what the scenery is, either. You can walk in and buy a VW in any one of 136 countries.

And that takes in lots of scenery.

Deserts. Mountains. Hot places. Cold places.

Volkswagens thrive.

Hot and cold don't matter; the VW engine is air-cooled. It doesn't use water, so it can't freeze up or boil over.

And having the engine in the back makes all the difference when it comes to mud and sand and snow.

The weight is over the power wheels and so the traction is terrific.

VWs also get along so well wherever they are because the service is as good in Tasmania as it is in Toledo.

(The only reason you can't buy a VW at the North Pole is that the Volkswagen people won't sell you one. There's no VW service around the corner.)

We hear that it's possible to buy yourself a Coke at the North Pole, though.

Which makes us suspect there's only one thing that can get through ahead of a Volkswagen.

A Coke truck.

Our roots are deep...

He planted the elm tree... William J. Busse, President and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Mount Prospect State Bank. Born and reared in Mount Prospect, his roots trace back to the pioneer family that settled in this area in 1848.

Like the tall elm tree in our parking lot, our roots are deep in the good earth of Mount Prospect.

The elm tree was planted as a sapling in 1926 by the grandson of the man who lived on the property... the man who had also helped organize the small village bank in 1911.

Today, 53 years later, the modern Mount Prospect State Bank stands on "grandfather's" old home-site. And the tall elm in the parking lot is still a "member of the family"— a living, growing reminder of the traditional service and stability we are honor-bound to preserve and pass on intact to future generations.

This is assurance that "The Bank" will always be here to serve you — and your children. For our roots are deep in the rich earth of Mount Prospect... and will continue to be.

Teacher Salaries Up for Discussion

Teachers' salaries, for the 1964-65 school year will be the major topic on the agenda Monday night at the Arlington High School District 214 school board meeting.

For the first time since the school board recognized the Teachers' Association of District 214 as an official spokesman of the faculty, the teachers organization will be on hand with firm salary recommendations.

Cost of the increases asked by the teachers would be almost $100,000.

Two years ago a major upgrading of the teachers' salaries cost more than $125,000 for about 300 teachers. Last year, the teachers schedule was improved by about $70,000 for more teachers. The proposal for next year would cover salary improvements for about 450 teachers.

Budget restrictions may keep increases this year to about $60,000. It is expected that Supt. H. L. Slichenmyer will recommend acceptance of the teachers' salary requests to at least this amount.

THE TEACHERS' Salary Committee, headed by Robert Grabitz, is asking for two "fringe benefit" plans and a straight $50 per year increase for all teachers. This would be in addition to the regular "step" increases given to teachers for each added year of teaching experience.

The two insurance plans would provide major medical coverage on a family plan and income protection beyond the maximum 60 days now provided by the school district. The 10 days of sick leave per year for a maximum of six years, is the minimum required by state law, Grabitz noted.

Cost of the major medical insurance plan would be about $60,000 per year, Grabitz explained. This would provide insurance coverage for both hospital and medical bills for teachers and for their families.

The recommended policy would have a $50 deductible clause, with 80 per cent of all expenses from $50 to $10,000 paid by the insurance carrier.

UNDER THE income protection plan proposed teachers would receive $403 per month for a maximum of 24 months after a 60-day waiting period. Cost of this plan would be about $15,000, according to the salary committee.

The $50 per year increase for 450 teachers would cost an additional $22,500.

Supt. Slichenmyer has recommended that a fourth salary schedule be added to the teachers' salary rates. The present schedule has three main categories — teachers with a bachelor's degree, teachers with a master's degree and teachers with master's degrees plus 32 additional hours of credit. The fourth category would add a schedule for teachers with master's degrees plus 60 hours of credit.

The additional salary category has not been discussed by the salary committee, Grabitz noted.

In several mass meetings, members of the Teachers' Association endorsed all three recommendations of the salary committee. The group did not approve of any proposed reduction of the salary requests.

BETWEEN 85 and 90 per cent of the faculty of Arlington, Prospect and Forest View High Schools are members of the teachers' association, Grabitz stated.

The organization of teachers associations in the suburban area follows a national pattern established by the National Education Association (NEA) at its 1962 convention. Many local school boards this year are dealing with teachers as a professional organization for the first time this year.

The District 214 Teachers' Association is affiliated with the Illinois Education Association and the NEA. It is described as a professional association and not a teachers union.

Teacher unions have not yet been organized in northwest suburban Cook County schools although the schools in Chicago, Niles, Maywood, Berwyn, Cicero, and many south Cook County suburbs have a majority of teachers who belong to the American Federation of Teachers (AFL-CIO).

Recognition of the growing power of teacher unions and the growing number of professional associations (organized in many cases as a means of halting union organizing) has been made by the National School Boards Association.

At the 1963 NSBA convention delegates approved a resolution urging local school boards to adopt procedures "which will actively involve school boards, the administrative staff and teachers in discussing total budget needs with particular emphasis on the determination of salaries and the handling of grievances." Forest View News

Happy birthday wishes go to Cheryl Baldassari, Janet Olson, Kathy Hughes, Lynne Wilder, Lillian Hughes, Edith Olson and Patty Press.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ayres, 1525 S. State Road, were Sunday dinner guests of Bob's aunt, Mrs. Myrtle Collosky of Park Forest. Later in the day they visited Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Collosky in Flossmoor.

Sharon Luczak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Luczak of Arlington Heights Road, returned to Quincy College on Sunday, after having a week off between semesters.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Capellani of Arlington Heights Road attended the wedding of Miss Ramone St. Angelo to Larry Woodard in Argo on Saturday. Don was one of the ushers in the bridal party for Larry, a coworker.

Scott Gorgius joined his grandmother for dinner at the Gorgius home Tuesday evening.

Sunday the Otto Gorgiuses were among the 31 relatives who gathered for dinner at the Rustic Manor in Gurney in honor of Mrs. Agnes Wilhelm, Loraine's aunt, to celebrate her 75th birthday. After dinner the guests returned to the Wilhelm home on Sand Lake for games, ice skating and cake and coffee.

Friends extend a get well wish to Jim Larson.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hilgeman of S. Busse Road enjoyed dinner at Andy's Steakhouse in Hinsdale on Saturday evening with Lou and Lorraine Cetrone of Chicago. After dinner they went bowling in Willowbrook.

LAKE BRIARWOOD

Get well wishes are coming to Mrs. Anna Schar, mother of Esther Jorgenson, who has returned to the Jorgenson home in Lake Briarwood after spending a week in Ravenswood Hospital in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Holfeld of Briarwood Drive were among the guests at the wedding of Ed's step-sister, Miss Jeanette Kuhl to John Nelson in Glenview on Saturday. Herta Holfeld was the soloist for the church services. They later attended the reception at Vosnos in Morton Grove.

Dinner guests of the Holfeld family on Sunday was the Carl Tamminen family of Oak Park. After dinner they enjoyed the ice skating on Lake Briarwood.

The Roger Bardwells are back from their trip to Mexico and happy to report "it was fun." They spent three weeks motoring through Mexico. Several days, including Christmas, were spent visiting friends in thought was a beautiful and in-Guadalajera which they thought was a beautiful and interesting city. In Mexico City they saw a bull fight; the floating gardens at Xochimilco, Maximillian's Castle at Chapultepec and the pyramids. They then traveled south to Taxco and Acapulco for many more interesting sights. They also included many small towns and villages on their agenda where they stopped to enjoy the local color and the ways and native costume of the people. All in all, they report that they had a beautiful and educational trip and are back to settle down to regular routine again.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lord and Berek have just returned from a trip to Atlantic City, where they combined business and pleasure.

COLONIAL HEIGHTS

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kingsborough of Rusty Drive were happy to welcome unexpected guests on Sunday, when the Tom Parr family of Chicago stopped for a visit. The Parrs were neighbors of the Kingsboroughs before they moved to Mount Prospect.

A welcome to the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Skow, 1714 Robbie Lane, who moved here from Chicago.

The Dominic Cipriani family of Estates Drive spent Monday at the home of Mrs. Cipriani's sister in Oak Park.

Skip Menard invited Miss Judy Adasiewicz of Chicago to spend Saturday at the Menard home. Included was shopping at Randhurst.

Mrs. Laura Hansen added another daughter to her household for this week, when she took care of her niece, Karen, for her sister, Mrs. Joan Rode, who had pneumonia. Friends hope Joan is feeling better, but Laura will miss having Karen around.

On Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hansen and their daughters visited another sister of Laura's in Chicago, Mrs. Pat Curtis and her five children.

MR. AND MRS. John Shumilo of Robbie Lane attended the wedding of Miss Jo Ann Zim on Saturday. The reception was held at DiLeo's Restaurant in Chicago. On Sunday they finished off a busy weekend with the christening of their daughter, Debbie.

The George Menards entertained Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Menard of Addison on Sunday forenoon. Joe and George are cousins.

Gene Menard helped his teammates win their meet against Prospect High on Friday, where Forest View mat men were guests, by pinning his opponent, thereby winning the match. (AME

Lenten Theme Is Chosen

"Questions of Christ's Passion" will be the topical theme of Lenten services at St. Peter Lutheran Church of Arlington Heights this year.

A series of six Wednesdays will offer a total of 12 services in which the "Questions of Christ's Passion" will be considered. Ash Wednesday will begin the season on Feb. 12.

Services each Wednesday will be held at St. Peter Church at 6:15 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. The entire community is invited to these Lenten services. An informal coffee fellowship will be offered to guests and visitors following each service.

St. Peter Lutheran Church is located at 111 W. Olive, between Highland and Vail Avenues. (A

Announce New Registration For Playschool

The Arlington Heights Park District announced this week that new registrations are being taken for the third session of playschool.

The new session will start Tuesday, Feb. 25, and continue through April 30. The playschool meets on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 9 to 11:30 a.m. at Pioneer, Hasbrook and Recreation Park Fieldhouses.

Boys and girls, ages three, four and five, are eligible for the class. The playschool is a cooperative program, and mothers are required to assist the teacher on a rotating schedule.

Starting Monday, Feb. 17, those in the first two sessions will be able to fill whatever vacancies still remain.

The fee for the 10-week program is $15.

To register call CL 3-0620. (A

New Lane Bryant Store to Open Feb. 13 in Randhurst

The new Lane Bryant store, set to have its grand opening on Thursday, Feb. 13 in the Randhurst Shopping Center, Mount Prospect, is the latest addition to a nationwide group of retail stores which started humbly in 1900. In that year, a widowed seamstress opened a small shop in her New York home and started a business which today does nearly $80 million a year in sales.

In 1900 Mrs. Lane Bryant was forced, by the death of her husband, to turn to custom tailoring in order to support her six months old son, Raphael. Four years later, having developed a reputation for fine custom fittings, she opened her first shop, specializing in bridal sets and lingerie.

In that year she designed the world's first ready-to-wear maternity garment. Her customer was so pleased that she informed her friends and the garment, though considered daring, became very popular at Lane Bryant's. The creation of the first maternity dress might be termed the turning point in her life, but to Mrs. Lane Bryant it was just another figure problem she had to solve with her skillful needle.

BY 1908 business had expanded to such an extent that it was necessary for Mrs. Lane Bryant to move to bigger quarters in an important business area of New York and to enlarge her manufacturing and retail facilities.

The next year Mrs. Bryant married Albert Malsin, an engineer and inventor. He adopted her son, Raphael, and soon after Mrs. Malsin began to wear her own maternity clothes. A daughter and two sons were born to the couple within the next four years.

Although Malsin intended to continue in his own field of endeavor, the absence of Mrs. Malsin made it necessary for him to take an increasing interest in his wife's unique enterprise. While she continued to design dresses, he began systematically to develop and expand the business. They abandoned old techniques of manufacturing and began to mechanically cut dozens of identical dresses at once, employing high speed sewing methods which lowered the cost of producing dresses.

By 1911 the first maternity advertisement was accepted in the New York Herald. At the same time Lane Bryant published its first printed catalog. The original maternity dress, which had become so popular, was shown as the fifth garment in the book. It became known as the famous "No. 5."

ABOUT THIS time the Malsins enlisted the services of a friend of the family, Harry Liverman. Liverman later was to become chairman of the board and to serve in that capacity until his death in the summer of 1961.

One day, in conversation, Malsin, pointed out that this was a country of specialization. Liverman agreed and together they decided that Lane Bryant should do just this, that the company should choose certain fields of retailing and concentrate their energies upon them. Bridal finery was dropped and the firm took revolutionary steps forward. The specialization was in stout sizes, then half sizes, clothes for Chubby Girls, for those over 5'7", Junior-Plenty sizes for teens and young women, and Minims.

By the time of Albert Maslin's death in 1923, the store's sales in stout sizes had passed its maternity business in volume; and Lane Bryant had established stores in Chicago, Detroit and Brooklyn, as well as a separate mail order division.

AS BUSINESS in hard-to-find sizes increased and the modern, wholesome attitude towards maternity developed, the Lane Bryant store gradually emerged from the side streets onto the Main streets. One by one stores were established in most of the major shopping areas across the country. In 1928 the Newman-Benton Midwest chain of clothing stores were absorbed. By 1941 the mail order operations were shifted from New York to Indianapolis.

Today, Lane Bryant is moving into the suburban shopping areas all over the country. The Randhurst store is designed to provide the famous Lane Bryant size specialties for the Main Line area.

Although Mrs. Lane Bryant died in 1951, she did live to see her firm develop into a nationally-known company. The leadership of the company continues under the direction of her son, Raphael Malsin, who recognizes the firm's unique position in the special size field and endeavors to guide the organization in the same pioneering tradition formulated by his mother. (RH

THIS PHOTOGRAPH WAS printed from life by Gerald Brockhurst, famous American portrait artist, in 1947. The painting of Lane Bryant was commissioned on the occasion of the opening of the first Lane Bryant stores on Fifth Avenue in New York. This perhaps marked the change in the thinking and attitude toward expectancy, for up to that time Lane Bryant stores had been on side streets. Expectant mothers did not want to be "discovered" shopping at that store. After World War II, the attitude changed completely and now Lane Bryant Stores throughout the country are on the main thoroughfares or in major shopping centers. (Rh

Music to Suit Every Age, Taste, Interest

By BETTY ROGERS

One of the things that brought me to the conclusion that perhaps I had been unduly intolerant of the music of today came when my eldest daughter asked, "Mom, are the Blues, Jazz, — or is Jazz the Blues?"

When I started to explain, I realized that she wasn't really interested in an answer. She went on to say, "You talk about the music I listen to, but that record you just bought is worse than any I ever play!"

WHAT SHE was referring to is a record I just found called, "Singing the Blues." It is a collection of some of the Blues I had on my old 78s. Songs like Fats Waller, playing and singing, "Bessie Bessie," Jack Teagarden and Satchmo singing "50-50 Blues," and Billy Eckstein, before he sounded like Billy Eckstein, singing "Jelly Jelly" along with other great songs. I think they are great; my children don't. That's the nice thing about music, though. There is such a variety that everyone can have their favorite kind, whether it be classical, semi-classical, pop, jazz, operatic, vocal, instrumental, or whatever, there's enough music in this world to satisfy everyone.

Background music in stores and offices has become a familiar sound in recent years. The music is usually un-obtrusive so that the listener is never very conscious of it. The strange part is that when there is no music, you are aware of the absence of it.

I know that when I'm down in the Randhurst Corp. offices and the Muzak (the commercial name of the background music system used throughout Randhurst) is off for a short period, I miss it. Another thing I have noticed is that when a particular favorite of yours is played, your ear is attuned and you immediately become more aware of the music. It makes shopping and working much more pleasant.

IF YOUR family has varied tastes in music and recordings, Randhurst has many stores that should be able to satisfy your search for a particular record. Jack Schaps at the Randhurst Music Center has a complete selection of records along with phonographs to play them on. Records are also sold in the record department of all three department stores. Kresge's and Sun Drugs have good selections too, and Luon & Healy, of course, has a substantial record section.

If you like your music "live" —Henry Brandon and his Orchestra can and will make sure that your ears will have a treat. Soon, Henry and his orchestra will be playing for a dance on the Mall.

For many years Henry Brandon entertained at the Edgewater Beach Hotel in Chicago. And for you folks who remember when the Blackhawk Restaurant had big bands, Henry's was one of them. More recently, he has been accompanying many of show business' great stars that have been appearing in Chicago. Among them, the San Francisco Ballet at McCormick Place, and the "Clan" at Villa Venice last year.

All you "gals" who are fans of Robert Goulet should know that it's Henry Brandon's Orchestra that backs Robert up on the two new albums that just have been released.

Merchants Choose Flynn President

Robert J. Flynn, general manager of Randhurst Shopping Center, was elected president of the Randhurst Merchants Association, Inc. at the Jan. 20 meeting of the board of trustees.

ROBERT J. FLYNN

Flynn, who resides in Libertyville with his wife and two sons, has been associated with the Randhurst Corp. since April 1961, and has served as general manager of the multi-million dollar shopping center since January 1963.

Also elected as officers of the Randhurst Merchants Association, Inc. were vice president, O. John Roe, manager of Carson Pirie Scott & Co. at Randhurst; secretary, Henry R. Salby, manager of Kresge's at Randhurst, and treasurer, Raymond S. Johnston, president of the Randhurst Bank.

Randhurst has grown from its opening, in less than a year and a half, from 52 stores and services to 70 stores and services plus medical and professional offices.

Slate Golf Lessons at Randhurst

A series of golf lessons, taught by Sam Rauworth, a professional golfer, will start at Randhurst Town Hall the week of Feb. 17.

Classes will be held from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. and from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m. Thursdays and from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. and from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. Saturdays.

Content of the four one-hour lessons is based on fundamentals, stance, and golf course etiquette, Rauworth said. He will stress individual attention and how to get more fun out of golf.

The classes are open to men, women and children, whether amateurs, par shooters or beginners, Rauworth said.

Anyone interested may contact Miss Tuttle at 259-0500.

Report 'Good' Use Of Postal ZIP Code

Business firms, which account for 80 per cent of the nation's first class mail, are making good use of the nationwide ZIP Code to help speed their deliveries, a Post Office Department progress report showed this week.

At the same time, a departmental spokesman said, the general public is showing increasing signs of accepting the five-digit coding system for addressing mail.

The report from the department's 15 regions pointed to extensive use of ZIP Code during the Christmas season by both the public and large volume mailers, although no effort was made to learn the ratio to total volume.

HOWEVER of 24,100 firms reached through December, the report said that 21,000 — 88 per cent - agreed to participate in the program.

Some magazine publishers (users of second class mail) have coded as much as 75 per cent of their address files, and 59 per cent of the country's direct mailers (third class) are now in the process of or plan to add ZIP Code to their existing or future lists, according to the January, 1964, issue of The Reporter of Direct Mail Advertising, offical publication of the industry.

ZIP Code was first introduced last July 1. When fully operational, it is expected to eliminate as many as six of ten handling procedures of mail in transit, thus reducing the chances of human error and cutting down as much as 24 hours between deposit and delivery of out-of-town mail. (A-14

Aboard Guadalcanal

James E. Terrill, son of Mr. and Mrs. David W. Terrill of Mardan Estates, Long Grove, was advanced to the rate of quartermaster third in the U.S. Navy on Jan. 16.

Serving in the navigation division aboard the helicopter carrier USS Guadalcanal, Terrill was home on a two-week leave, returning to his home port, Norfolk, Va., the day before his advancement became effective.

JAMES E. TERRILL

Upon completion of recent Caribbean maneuvers, all personnel of Terrill's ship were made honorary members of the 6th Marine Regiment. The Marines were the first aboard the Guadalcanal since her commissioning in July, 1963.

When the Guadalcanal leaves Feb. 11 for the Caribbean, she will be flying the flag of ComPhibRon 12 after being made a flagship in January. (WUS

At Norton AFB

Airman 3C Allen T. Billy of Prospect Heights has made one of the fastest jumps in history from Air Force technical school graduation to a high level special research project.

Airman Billy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Billy, 307 W. Marion, finished the supply specialist school at Amarillo AFB, Texas, last month. Today, he is working in the office of the Air Force Deputy Inspector General at Norton AFB, Calif., helping extract vital military flying experience data from the records of thousands of pilots.

Airman Billy is one of 50 young airmen working on the project. They will complete it early in February and then go to new assignments.

He is a graduate of Arlington High School. (Wus

At Greenville AFB

Airman 3c Delbert A. Eden of 1406 W. Busse Ave., Mount Prospect, is being reassigned to McConnell AFB, /an., following his graduation from the technical training course for Air Force personnel specialists at Greenville AFB, Miss.

DELBERT A. EDEN

He attended Schurz High School, Chicago.

Airmen Reassigned

Two area youths have completed a technical training course for Air Force jet aircraft mechanics at Amarillo AFB, Tex., and have received new assignments.

Airman 3.C Johnny R. Baird, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Baird of 12 Pine St., Willoway Ter., Arlington Heights, was reassigned to Truax Field, Wis.

Airman 3C David A. Connery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd A. Connery, 204 S. Milwaukee Ave,. Wheeling, also was reassigned to Truax Field. He is a graduate of Prospect High School.

With the Marines

ROMANTIC NOTE — Annette Funicello and Bob Cummings in romantic beach scene from American International's "Beach Party," opening Sunday, February 9 at the Catlow Theatre. Dorothy Malone and Frankie Avalon also star in the color and Panavision musical comedy.

Winston-Broadway Hit Play Accord

Winston Little Theatre will beat Broadway to the draw, with its production of "The Whole Darn Shooting Match," on Feb. 22 and 23.

The recent announcement that "The Whole Darn Shooting Match" is scheduled to open on Broadway next season, under its new name "Easy Does It," supports Winston Little Theatre's choice of this comedy.

Written by the young playwright Jack Perry, the play's action takes place in the Creative Room of the Advertising Department of the Warneke Chemical Company.

WARNEKE'S one retail product, "Easy," an all-purpose liquid detergent, has been brought to local prominence by the advertising staff.

A do-or-die struggle ensues when the company's new president decides to eliminate his house agency in favor of a Madison Avenue concern who will steer "Easy" into a full scale national advertising campaign.

Director Leslie Gargan, 302 N. Dryden, Arlington Heights, informs us rehearsals are going well and that the whole cast enjoys working on this farcical comedy and will be ready to give their audience a first-class show.

HEADLINING the cast, as the Director of the Advertising Department, is Tom Swingle, 214 W. Johnson, Palatine. Swingle and his leading lady, Betty Kandlbinder, 1308 E. Gloria, Palatine, bring their two characters to life with their spirited presentations. Elaine May and Tom Poston will have these roles on Broadway.

Production co-ordinator George Daniels, 567 W. Hellen Road, Palatine, reports all technical crews are moving swiftly and efficiently, to insure a technically well prepared production. Practice make-up sessions are being held, set construction crews are active and properties are being collected.

The various crews are headed by the following people:

STAGE MANAGER - James Beall, 211 Winston; Set Design - Beall; Lighting - Robert Nemec, 138 S. Walnut; Costumes and makeup - Joyce Hinton, 241 N. Dean; Properties - Lois Christie Nemec, 138 S. 'Yum Yum' Held for 3rd Week

The new Jack Lemmon comedy, "Under the Yum Yum Tree," now in its second week at the Golf Mill Theatre, goes into a third and final week this Friday. Playing the theatre as an exclusive northwest suburban run, the management announces Thursday, Feb. 13, as the last day of the engagement.

The hilarious adult comedy about a girl crazy landlord and his pretty tenants, co-stars Carol Lynley, Edie Adams and MERLIN'S NEMESIS, Mad Madam Mim, turns herself into a crocodile during their hilarious Wizard's duel in Walt Disney's "The Sword in The Stone," an all-cartoon feature about legendary young King Arthur. It starts Friday at the Arlington Theatre and is a Buena Vista release in Technicolor.

Open House Planned by Chorus Unit

Mrs. Lorraine Rosenkrantz, director of Town and Country Mixed Chorus, will be the hostess of an open house held in her home at 243 Ashley Road, Hoffman Estates, for those people in the area who might be interested in joining the choral group.

The open house is planned for this Monday at 8 p.m.

Officers of the chorus will be present to answer questions and generally to get acquainted with the people in Hoffman and the surrounding communities.

THE CHORUS holds its regular meetings in Palatine every Tuesday evening in the annex St. Philips' Episcopal Church. The group has been active in and around Palatine for over ten years. Many of the members are people who love music but are not trained musicians.

Interested parties, if unable to attend the open house, may phone Mrs. Rosenkrantz, 529-5297, for information regarding the chorus. (Bill

Modern Etiquette

Q. I've been told it is improper for me to have empty vases displayed in my living room. Correct?

A. Ordinary flower containers should be stored away until filled with flowers. But vases that have decorative value are used with, or without, flowers.

Q. When a man is dining in a restaurant with his wife, and another couple stops at their table for a few words, must he rise?

A. A man always rises when a woman stops at his table.

JAMES GARNER AND Polly Bergen are pictured discussing the marital mixup in which they find themselves in "Move Over, Darling," the romantic comedy starting this Friday at the Oasis Drive-In Theater in Elk Grove Township. The 20th Century-Fox color release also stars Doris Day. (Bill

THREE YOUNGSTERS, Jack Eiler, Kim Bugler and Dick Eiler, strike a pose after their act in performances given at Randhurst recently by the Delores Eiler Tot and Teen Entertainers. Bookings for the young entertainers are open for the 1964 season. Interested parties may call 358-5507 or CL 5-3143. (Bill

Opening on Feb. 29

'Little Foxes' Is Next for Arlington Village Theatre

The last night of February, which this leap year is the 29th, will herald the opening of Arlington Heights Village Theatre's mid-winter production.

The play is "The Little Foxes," Lillian Hellman's drama of the South during the transitory 1900s.

The little foxes in the play are a ruthless woman and her unscrupulous brothers, who sacrifice the future of husband, wife, child and the well-being of the community in their snarling contest for money and power.

BUT AGAINST this backdrop of savagery, where foxiness seems to triumph, Playwright Hellman flings the fragile but tensile hope that there exists a courageous few with strength enough to fight the people who would eat the earth.

In the role of Regina, vixen of the Fox family, Director Richard Tyler cast veteran actress Kay Hawley.

In the 14 years in which she has been a member of Village Theatre, Mrs. Hawley has played more than a score of roles, ranging from the scatter-brained Penny Sycamore in "You Can't Take It With You," to the innocent Alma in "Summer and Smoke."

HER BROTHER Oscar will be played by another actor well-known to Village Theatre patrons. John Lobenhofer had leading roles in "Desk Set," "Teahouse of the August Moon," "Mr. Roberts," "Inherit the Wind," and a host of others.

Herb Braden, the hard-hearted guardian of young Patrick in last season's "Auntie Mame," will portray brother Ben in "The Little Foxes." His previous appearance with the Arlington group was as Captain Norcross in "A Majority of One."

Often, in the complexity of casting, real-life relationships bear no resemblance to roles played on the stage. In this instance, however, Bob Hawley, as Horace Giddens, plays the husband of his actual wife, Kay Hawley. "Harvey," "The Tender Trap," "Auntie Mame," are among the thirty some productions in which Mr. Hawley has had prominent roles.

ALICE LINDE, who specializes in character parts, will be Birdie Hubbard, gently erratic wife of the bullying Oscar. Mrs. Linde appeared in "Picnic," "Summer and Smoke," and "Solid Gold Cadillac" among others.

As William Marshall, financier from the North, Al Wilcox adds another dimension to his roles for Village Theatre. Last year he was the provincial Mr. Upson in "Auntie Mame." He has also been a prosecuting attorney, a criminal, a policeman, a doctor and an inspector.

Newcomers with featured roles in "The Little Foxes" are Judy Siepp as young Alexandra, Eugene Good as her cousin Leo and Phyllis Weber and Howard Shick as Addie and Cal, trusted servants.

PERFORMANCE nights for "The Little Foxes" are Feb. 29, March 1, 6, 7 and 8, at the Prospect High School, 801 Foundry Road, Mount Prospect.

Curtains are at 8:30 with Sunday night performances at 7:30 p.m. For reservations, call the box-office at CL 9-3200. (Bill

Simone to Direct Guild's 'Best Man'

Vic Simone, a Hoffman Estates resident, is the director for the Guild Players' next production, "The Best Man," by Gore Vidal, to be seen Feb. 28 and 29 at Parkside School in Roselle.

Simone, a native New Yorker, started his acting career at the age of twelve. While attending Fordham University, his interest in theatrics ran from acting to directing. Since that time, he has been in all phases of the theatre.

Three years ago, Simone joined the Guild Players and started the guild's workshop with much success.

HE HAS ALSO portrayed such characters as Bernie Dodds in "Country Girl," Mr. Fenn in "Someone Waiting" and Edward Martin in "Grand Prize."

Helping with all the characters involved in a presidential campaign, is Hank Netter, stage manager, and his assistant, Ginny Hartshorne. Netter has been on stage twice for the guild as Emmett in "Silver Whistle" and Jules in "My Three Angels." Ginny rather keeps herself handy backstage.

For information about tickets, contact Ernie Wurm, ticket chairman, 529-3118. (Bill

Slate Caricaturist At Art Guild Meet

"DAVO," popular caricaturist, will be featured at the Des Plaines Art Guild meeting Monday at 8 p.m. in West Park Fieldhouse, 651 S. Wolf Road, Des Plaines.

Illness prevented "Davo" from keeping his caricature demonstration date for the Des Plaines group last year, and Art Guild program chairman Larry Sindberg rescheduled him for the 1963-64 season.

The program will begin with a brief business meeting, and following "Davo's" demonstration, refreshments will be served. Visitors are invited to attend, according to Art Wetter, president of the group.

"DAVO," Dave Hirsch, is a native Chicago southsider recently transplanted to Morton Grove. His schooling, following graduation from Hyde Park High School, has continued at the University of Illinois, Roosevelt University, Chicago Academy of Fine Arts, Institute of Design and the Art Institute.

While employed in the package and design departments of Stone Container Corporation for 4½ years, he began doing caricatures for friends, and this led to caricaturing at summer art fairs.

Art Guild president Wetter extends a cordial invitation to all area residents interested in art to attend the monthly demonstration meetings held the second Monday night of each month in West Park Fieldhouse, Wolf Road and Greenview, Des Plaines. (Bill

Teachers in Art Exhibit

Five art teachers from Mount Prospect School District 57 are currently sponsoring an art exhibit at Randhurst, between the Carson, Pirie, Scott and Co. Store and Wieboldt's Store.

The all-inclusive exhibit will be on display through Saturday, Feb. 15, from noon to 4:30 p.m. on weekdays and noon to 4:30 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday.

Exhibitors are Mrs. Betty Hubbard, Leonard Presley, Miss Judith Hensel, Miss Sally Siddens and Mrs. Marjorie Kelly.

Many of the art works are for sale. Prices will be available at the site of the exhibit. (Bill

Orchestra San Pietro In Civilized Evening

by RICHARD P. FRISBIE

The time is the latter part of the 18th Century. You are Prince Paul Anton Esterhazy. You don't have a television set, but you own half of Central Europe and employ an especially talented musician named Joseph Haydn.

When you are in the mood, he brings in an ensemble and performs just for you.

This musical luxury was duplicated for members of the Arlington Heights Community Concert Association by the Orchestra San Pietro of Naples Jan. 30 in the Arlington Theater.

In fact, it is unlikely that Esterhazy ever heard anything better.

Each of the 19 players in the Orchestra San Pietro is a virtuoso, and Conductor Renato Ruotolo knows how to extract from them masses of sound that is both rich and delicately shaded.

THE MEMBERS of the orchestra are remarkably young and seem to play with fiery intensity, treating the music with the respect it deserves.

A particularly fine moment was the Concerto for Oboe and Strings by Marcello, in which oboe soloist Arrigo Galassi seemed so utterly in command of his instrument that his playing sounded as effortless as breathing.

Ruotolo, however, has a sense of fun and showmanship as well as musical sensitivity. For the second half of the program he scheduled a solo for the contrabass, originally written by a bass virtuoso named Bottesini to give himself an opportunity to show off.

GIANNI AMADIO, the orchestra's bass player, was more than equal to the challenge of music that required him to combine the motions of sawing wood and churning butter on a grand scale.

While successfully coping with Bottesini's calisthenics, Amadio managed to call forth a remarkably mellow tone from his venerable bass, obviously a valuable antique complete with cracks and time-darkened varnish.

The Bottesini piece happens to be lovely music as well as a stunt, otherwise Ruotolo would have had nothing to do with it.

IT WAS JUST such a program as that fun-loving rascal Haydn might have put on for Prince Esterhazy. The final work was Haydn's Sinfonia No. 45, in which the players tiptoe off the stage as each completes his part.

At the end, no one is left but the conductor and two violins.

As I recall reading the story somewhere, Haydn wrote this work as a hint to Prince Esterhazy that the boys in the band needed a vacation. During the original performance, each player in turn blew out the candle on his music stand and went home to bed. The Prince got the hint.

THE ORCHESTRA San Pietro tiptoed completely deadpan, and many in the audience did not at first realize that it was one of Haydn's jokes. This made the humor all the more delightful when the stage became about half empty and everyone began to snicker—but not loudly enough to interfere with the music.

It was a very civilized evening. (Bill

Klopp Designer for Annual Flower Show

A local landscape architect, Harold O. Klopp of Palatine, whose business is at 1314 W. Northwest Hwy. in Arlington Heights, is show designer for the 6th annual Chicago World Flower and Garden Show.

The floral extravaganza will March 7 and run through March 15.

There will be demonstrations on garden care and special lectures and movies presented daily with choral groups from the metropolitan Chicago area providing musical interludes in both afternoon and evening.

SPONSORS of the show are the Chicago Flower and Garden Show, a non-profit organization, and the Chicago Horticulture Society.

Tickets are available through local garden clubs, florists, nurseries, garden supply stores and service organizations.

Among exhibitors at the show will be Charles Klehm & Sons Nursery of Arlington Heights. Klehm's will display colorful trees, flowers and rhododendron in full bloom in formal and informal garden settings.

Klopp lives at 114 S. Benton, Palatine. (BILL

Brotman signs the final contract for the "Farewell to the Aragon" dances with Wayne King. King, formerly a Chicagoan and resident of the North Shore, began his career as a band leader at the Aragon in 1926. He will end the era of ballroom dancing at the ballroom on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 7, 8, 9. The Aragon will eventually be converted into a roller rink, but has already announced several outstanding attractions also, including the Closed Circuit TNT Liston-Clay fight for Feb. 25. Tickets for the Aragon dances are available at the ballroom on Lawrence at Broadway every day, from 10 a. m. till midnight. Brotman is a well-known Chicago theatre owner and is one of the partners in the Oasis Drive-In Theatre, Elk Grove.

Ordinance No. 321

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING THE VILLAGE OF ELK GROVE VILLAGE ZONING ORDINANCE RELATING TO CERTAIN PROPERTY

WHEREAS, the Board of Appeals of the Village of Elk Grove Village, sitting as a Zoning Commission at a public meeting duly called and held according to law (Appeal No. 63-12), considered the question hereinafter described from

R-1 Single Family Residence District

to

B-1 Business District

AND, WHEREAS, the President and Board of Trustees of the Village of Elk Grove Village, having considered the recommendation of said Zoning Board of Appeals, find and believe that the highest and best use of said real estate is that of

B-1 Business District

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the President and Board of Trustees of the Village of Elk Grove Village, Cook County, Illinois:

Section 1. That an ordinance entitled "An ordinance to regulate and limit the height and bulk of buildings; to regulate and limit the intensity of the use of lot areas, and to regulate and determine the areas of open space within and surrounding such buildings; to classify, regulate and restrict the location of trades and industries and the location of buildings designed for specified industrial business, residential and other uses; to divide the entire Village of Elk Grove Village into districts for the purpose of this ordinance; to fix standards to which buildings or structures shall conform; to prohibit uses, buildings or structures incompatible with the character of such districts respectively; and to prevent additions to and alterations or remodeling of existing buildings or structures in such a way as to avoid the restrictions and limitations lawfully imposed hereunder, and to provide penalties for violation hereof," passed and approved July 8, 1957, known as Ordinance No. 20, as amended, be amended by reclassifying the following described real estate from

The North 15 acres of the North West Quarter (¼) of the North East Quarter (¼) of Section Thirty Two (32) Township Forty One (41) North, Range Eleven (11) East of the Third Principal Meridian in Cook County, Illinois.

Section 2. That said real estate as reclassified shall be subject to all the limitations and conditions placed upon properties in the B-1 as defined in the ordinances aforementioned.

Section 3. That any person, firm or corporation who violates, disobeys, omits, neglects or refuses to comply with or who resists the enforcement of any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined not more than One Hundred ($100) Dollars for each offense, and each day that a violation is permitted to exist shall constitute a separate offense.

Section 4. That this ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication, according to law.

PASSED this 23rd day of January, 1964.

APPROVED this 23rd day of January, 1964.

Ordinance No. 323

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING CHAPTER 14, ARTICLE III REGULATING THE SPEED OF TRAFFIC OF VEHICLES ON ROADS OR STREETS WHICH ARE NOT PAVED OR NOT SURFACED

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the President and Board of Trustees of the Village of Elk Grove Village, Counties of Cook and DuPage, Illinois:

Section 1. That Chapter 14, Article III of the Municipal Code of the Village of Elk Grove Village is hereby amended by adding thereto the following:

"Section 14.340. That no person shall drive or operate a vehicle upon any public road or street in the Village of Elk Grove Village which is unpaved or unsurfaced at a speed greater than is reasonable and proper. If the rate of speed of any motor vehicle operated on any public road or street in the Village of Elk Grove Village which is unpaved or unsurfaced exceeds twenty-five (25) miles per hour, such rate of speed shall be prima facie evidence that the person operating such motor vehicle is running at a rate of speed greater than is reasonable and proper."

Section 2. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect upon its passage, approval and publication according to law.

Notice to Bidders

FOR BOARD OF LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS
VILLAGE OF ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, ILLINOIS
PAVING IMPROVEMENTS
MFT SECTION 36-CS

The Board of Local Improvements of the Village of Arlington Heights, Illinois, will receive Sealed Proposals for the construction of the Paving Improvements on George Street, Burton Place, and Belmont Avenue, as provided in Special Assessment No. 155, until 8:00 P.M. on February 27, 1964 at the office of the Village Clerk at the Village Hall, Arlington Heights, Illinois.

All Proposals received will be publicly opened and read aloud in the Village Hall at Arlington Heights, Illinois, at 8:00 P.M. on February 27, 1964.

The contract documents including plans and specifications are on file and available for inspection at the office of the Village Clerk of the Village of Arlington Heights at the Village Hall.

Copies of documents including plans and specifications required for review or bidding purposes may be obtained only from the Village Clerk by depositing Ten Dollars ($10.00) with the Village Clerk for each set of documents so obtained.

The full amount of the deposit for one (1) set of documents and one-half (½) of the deposit for any additional sets of documents will be refunded to each bidder who submits a formal proposal to the Board of Local Improvements, and who also returns the plans (and specifications on additional sets) in good condition to the Village Clerk within ten (10) days after his bid security has been returned to him.

A certified check or cashier's check drawn on a solvent bank in the State of Illinois, payable without condition to the President of the Board of Local Improvements, Village of Arlington Heights, Illinois, in an amount not less than ten per cent (10%) of the bid, shall be submitted with each proposal.

All contractors will be required to furnish pre-qualification ratings before purchasing plans and specifications.

No bid shall be withdrawn after the opening of proposals without the consent of the Board of Local Improvements for a period of thirty (30) days after the schedule time of closing bids.

The Board of Local Improvements reserves the right to reject any or all proposals and to waive any informalities in bidding.

The successful bidder will be required to furnish a satisfactory Performance Bond in the sum of the full amount of the contract.

In general, the improvements on which proposals are requested will require the construction complete of approximately 2,264 tons of waterbound macadam base course, or 855 cubic yards of Pozzlanic Base Course, 3,437 lineal feet of concrete curb and gutter, 222 square yards of P.C.C. Base Course Widening, 897 tons of bituminous concrete binder and surface courses, and appurtenant construction.

Plans and Specifications for this project were prepared by Consoer, Townsend and Associates, Consulting Engineers, 360 E. Grand Avenue, Chicago 11, Illinois.

Payment will be made in Special Assessment Bonds and Vouchers bearing interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum. An amount of $24,-066.90, covering the Public Benefit portion of the assessments will be retired from the Village's allotment of Motor Fuel Tax Funds.

DATED at Arlington Heights, Illinois this 23rd day of January, 1964.

"Our Aim: To Fear God, Tell the Truth, and Make Money": H. C. Paddock, 1898-1935

The Way We See It

President Urges Suburb Planning

President Johnson's message on housing and community development, delivered to Congress Jan. 27, calls for new efforts in a field of federal participation which may seem strange to many.

He recommended that aid through federal loans be extended in what has long been considered the American boom area — the suburbs.

But the President's introductory words best explain a pressing need for the community development programs he has proposed:

"The great expansion of our urban areas over the last two decades has too frequently been carried out in a sprawling, space-consuming, unplanned and uneconomic way."

Chicago's northwest suburbs are no exception to this statement. The boom trend has promoted a carelessness with space which planners for the Northeastern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission predict would devour the entire metropolitan Chicago area by 1980 if continued.

The program proposed by President Johnson would strike two sound blows for orderly suburban development and preservation of open space — the essence of the suburban atmosphere.

Municipalities would be eligible for public facility loans with deferred amortization to allow acquisition of land for right-of-way and public improvements, and financing of public improvements, in anticipation of area development.

"Such advance acquisition — which would assure location of such facilities in accordance with planned development — could also result in substantial savings," Mr. Johnson said.

The loans would also allow communities to establish water and sewer systems which would be adequate not only for the present, but for years of growth and development to come.

The improvements could be made and charged to future increases in revenue, rather than based on present revenue inadequate for future planning. Municipalities would be able to put off repayment of the federal loans long enough for revenues to catch up.

Under the second proposal, federally insured loans would be granted to private developers for acquisition and improvement of land for planned subdivisions.

"It is essential that all of these programs be based on the existence of effective planning arrangements in the community or region," the President said.

The concept of planned development has been injected into several local zoning and subdivision ordinances, and those communities without such a provision are finding themselves in need.

The President also proposed similar aid to private developers "in planning totally new and complete communities."

He called for a program of up to $25 million a year in matching grants to states for the establishment of urban public service training and research programs.

The administration, in proposing aids to advanced planning in the suburbs of America, has done some good advanced planning itself.

Devotion of loan funds now to "boom" areas can go a long way toward prevention of the deterioration of these areas, and save the greater cost of future renewal.

Renewal and reconstruction in the nation's cities, boom centers of the past, is the biggest segment of today's housing program.

The Problem of Apathy

An "Action Course in Practical Politics" is being sponsored by the Rolling Meadows Chamber of Commerce beginning Feb. 18.

Aim of the course is to help overcome public "apathy" about politics.

The project is certainly timely. Only last week in Detroit, former President Eisenhower suggested that the Republican Party sponsor "party-to-people" panels which would conduct forums, public discussions, and round tables across the country.

Because this is an election year, we may expect to see more than the usual number of special political projects of this sort.

The more realistically they approach the problem of interesting voters in politics, the more good they will do. If they are not realistic, they will not have much lasting success.

Realism should start with recognition of what lies at the root of the problem of "apathy."

Some of the things that voters don't like and cause them to remain aloof from party politics are:

—The domination of party affairs by bosses or cliques. This is exemplified by such things as an about-face of convention delegates at the command of a leader, or passing on political jobs from father to son, in dynastic style (this is especially frequent in Illinois).

—The patronage systems, both the petty kind involving jobs doled out by aldermen, sheriffs, mayors, governors, etc., and the big kind represented in million-dollar contracts.

—Blind pledges of loyalty to an entire party slate, no matter what incompetent or corrupt candidate finds a place on it.

—The huge sums of money spent to gain an elective job, often amounting to several times the salary paid to the winner for his entire term of office.

If the workshops include a discussion of some of these problems, they are going to have much more lasting success. Political parties will only be improved as the result of the influx of independents who are willing to work to root out bossism, pay-offs, and regimentation.

By helping to inspire and prepare people for this task, the "Action Course in Practical Politics" will be well worth the efforts devoted to organizing it.

Baby Photo Racket Hit

by LEE SECHLER
DuPage News Editor

A racket — and in my opinion that's all it can be called — is preying on parents of new babies in the suburbs.

I'm speaking of the "suitcase studios" which are backed up by a horde of people who call and call and call, urging you to take advantage of "free" offers.

My wife got involved with one of these studios during the time I was in a hospital, and we are still getting calls from them.

SECHLER

It finally reached the point where it was necessary to speak very roughly with the woman who kept calling because she wouldn't accept a polite no.

A GOOD example of one salesman's approach — and probably the entire suitcase approach to selling — came recently when a Palatine resident said she would take the 50 cent picture they offered but that she couldn't afford the rest of the pictures.

"If you don't take them," said the salesman, "we'll burn them. How would you like that?"

This was their first baby. Neither of the parents take photographs, and they wanted a record of the little fellow.

THE SALESMAN'S retort reduced the woman to tears, but she held firm to her principles and wouldn't allow herself to be pushed into buying something she couldn't afford.

But how many other times has this and other such approaches resulted in sales for these leeches? Many, I'm sure, because I've known a number of commercial — honest for the most part — photographers who have made studies on how much the public gets bilked on the so-called "free" offers.

Said one:

"I would have charged half that much. And if the person would have taken only one picture now, the negatives would be on file for the future."

HE WAS speaking not of the case involving the Palatine housewife, but of another woman who was bullied into paying a $25 order when she thought she was getting a free picture.

The quality of the pictures left much to be desired, and the poses were nothing compared to professional work.

I know a little about the racket because I almost was one of the door-to-door photographers.

BUT A COMMERCIAL, who explained the innermost workings of the game, offered me a job taking weddings.

"You'll think more of yourself and commercial photographers if you don't get involved in that kind of picture taking," was his explanation.

Not only have I felt more honest about my own work since then, but I've developed a more realistic approach to commercial photographers.

If they want to stay in business and eat everyday, they have to give the public good work and honesty.

The one I worked with that time feels that most of his business comes by "word of mouth" from people who have ordered pictures from him.

'Shout Up or Shut Up'

Pop Music Revival

by BOB CUMMINS
Staff Writer

After the failure of my campaign to get a high school named after the Everly Brothers, I lost interest in popular singers for a long time. You might say it was a case of heartbreak.

But time heals all wounds. And now my interest in popular singers is reviving.

It all happened when I chanced to get my hands on copies of Disc and Melody Maker. These journals are voices of the British music business. They are packed with articles like "Blowing Up a Boom," "Shout Up or Shut Up," "The Heat's on Beat," and "I Hope I Get It in My Stocking."

CUMMINS

BUT THE BIGGEST news they have to report is about the Beatles. "Beatles Make Disc History—Again!" shouts a front-page headline in Disc. "Beatles Hit Charts for Seven!" screams the banner in Melody Maker, which goes on to say:

"One ... two ... three ... four ... five ... six ... seven. A magnificent seven!

"A sizzling seven from the unbeatable Beatles, who leaped effortlessly to No. 1 in the Pop 50 this week with their million-seller 'I Want to Hold Your Hand.'

"It pushes their first million-topper 'She Loves You' into second place — an unequalled achievement in the record world."

THE FRONT page also had a picture of the Beatles captioned: "It's fab! The Beatles jump for joy as their discs leap up the charts."

And jumping the Beatles were, with both feet high off the floor, hands clutching their guitars. They are unmistakably members of the frenetic or hyperthyroid school of popular singers, as opposed to the lassitudinous or iron deficiency school so ably represented by the Everly Brothers.

The most striking aspect of the Beatles' appearance, however, is their haircuts. They have picked up the idea in haircuts originated by the Three Stooges and brought it to fruition.

MAYBE YOU already know about the Beatles and this report is quite superfluous. The Beatles are supposed to come to the U.S.A. Maybe they're already here. Maybe they've already been on the Ed Sullivan show. I wouldn't know. My TV broke down quite a while ago.

But since I heard about the Beatles, I'm thinking about getting the TV fixed. Until then, I can content myself with a Beatle badge, (available in four colors at only 2/6d. each), or perhaps a pair of Beetle cufflinks at only 15 shillings.

But the Beatles haven't conquered all as yet. The interesting compilation in Disc called "The World's Top Pops" shows that Geulah Gil's "Say It with Flowers" is the best-selling record in Israel, "Gi Meg En Cowboy Til Mann" by Wenche Myhre is still No. 1 in Norway, and Elvis Presley's "Bossa Nova Baby" is the hottest platter in Hong Kong.

My advice to all of them is "Watch out for the Beatles!"

Hogwash to Conspiracy

How 'Candidacy' Is Born

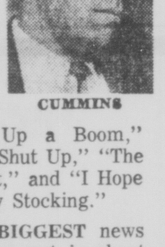
by BRUCE LADD
Associate Editor

Senator E. Farthingdale Smudge rose from his leather-covered chair and began to pace the room.

Deep in thought, he twitted and twisted his long white mustache.

"Gadzooks," he bellowed, halting his pacing abruptly. "I've got the answer!"

He flicked a button on the inter-com set at his marble-topped desk and called in Miss Iva Gripe, his confidential secretary.



LADD

"Miss Gripe, arrange a press conference for 3 p.m." the senator ordered. "I'm announcing my candidacy for President."

"BUT, SENATOR," Miss Gripe protested. "Your term in the Senate runs four more years. And you have a commitment to get more hog feed subsidies and to increase District 1's share of the distillery trade."

"Hogwash," the senator retorted. "There's a conspiracy against us and we must fight. The supreme sacrifice is in order. I'm running for President."

Miss Gripe, recognizing further protestations as useless, retired from the room. Sen. Smudge reached for the telephone and dialed Harry Dealer, chief political advisor and confidant.

"HARRY, I'M running for President," the senator reported.

"That's interesting," Harry said with noticeable lack of enthusiasm. "Why?"

Sen. Smudge thought for a moment.

"Why? Lookit, Harry. This guy Robin Goodfellow can't just walk into the Presidency. Somebody's got to take him on, and it might as well be me."

"But, Farth," Harry came back. "Goodfellow's image is pure. He's got a record, finance, popular support. Why oppose him? What's the issue?"

SEN. SMUDGE adjusted his weight in the chair and flicked his cigar in the direction of an ash tray.

"You know the situation here, Harry," the senator explained. "If Goodfellow is elected he's moved ahead of us. Besides, I never liked the guy. He's holier-than-thou stuff. And he's not liberal enough. He's got too many big ideas, like cutting hog feed supports and reducing the beer business."

"What about party unity?" Harry asked.

"The heck with the party," the senator cried. "What's more important here — the party or me?"

"I see your point, Farth," Harry commented.

THEY CONCLUDED the conversation by agreeing to hold a strategy meeting at midnight.

A few hours later, at 3 p.m., the press assembled in Sen. Smudge's office.

"Gentlemen, I'm running for President," the senator began. "I'm running because I'm sick and tired of the wheeler-dealers in the party. I put the needs of my district and those of the party above my own interest. It's time a Presidential candidate concentrated on issues, like reducing hog feed subsidies and helping to eliminate distillery development."

"Senator, just last week you promised to complete your term in the Senate," a reporter observed. "What's changed your mind?"

SEN. SMUDGE looked distressed. With theatrical aplomb, he curled a lip and dramatically pounded a fist on the table.

"I'm running because I'm sick and tired of the wheeler-dealers in the party," he answered.

"Who are the 'wheeler-dealers' you're talking about, senator?" another reporter queried.

"It should be obvious, gentlemen," Sen. Smudge proclaimed. "The hog feed and distillery people have been talking to my opponent. It's obvious they made a deal, isn't it?"

No answer came.

And a candidacy was born.

Special Study Finds General Benefit in Solving Aged Need

(UPI)—Aging itself is not necessarily a problem for the elderly, according to a recent University of Wisconsin study.

The special project, financed by a grant from the Wisconsin Committee on Aging, concluded that the problems of the elderly are the same as in other groups and that their solution would benefit all. The major problems listed were poor health, low income, impoverished social life and lowered self-esteem.

Pepin County was chosen as typical of Wisconsin farm areas.

"One of the major improvements in our social provisions for the aged would be a modification of the restrictions which discourage nursing home residents from doing any of those helping tasks with which they are familiar, such as cooking, gardening, or housekeeping," the report states.

"In the noble attempt to avoid the work-house approach, we are denying some people in institutions even those small activities that could lend a sense of worth and usefulness and enhance their self-esteem."

Other findings in the Pepin County study, "Growing Old in Rural Wisconsin," included:

INCOME — Retirement was viewed as satisfactory where income is adequate and it appeared that the rate of rural voluntary retirement did not differ markedly from urban compulsory retirement.

SATISFACTION — Older persons with financial security and good health generally were in good spirits and satisfied with the amount of their social activity: Most of the population maintained a large degree of self-dependency.

WORK — About half the women still did most of their housework, but only 30 per cent of the men worked part or full time.

CHURCH — The study said there was reason to believe some of Pepin's older persons felt their church neglected them; only 30 per cent had been visited recently by a pastor and 26 per cent never went to church often because they could not get out freely.

POLITICS — Other than voting, Pepin's older persons showed "very little political activity," with the exception of strong opposition to consolidation of high schools; each community school was seen as a center for whatever social life there was and older persons resented closing the building because of a lack of alternate social outlets.

Disagrees with Swinford's Column on Teacher Residence

Ah, to be 27 and the possessor of great talents and knowledge! In my own life, 27 is only five short years ago and I have been a Mount Prospect resident for more than five years but I still cannot lay claim to the great insights of the esteemed Mt. Prospect News Editor, Mr. T. William Swinford.

To reluctantly further show my lack of knowledge and understanding in respect to journalism, I have to agree with those other "Fence Post" writers who feel a lack of accuracy in the reporting of Mount Prospect news. In my pettiness, I have often even felt that there were times when the Mount Prospect Herald showed signs of prejudice against Mount Prospect in biased reporting. Of course, I realize that my college degree in English and attempts at objectivity do not measure up in any manner to the glorious list of honors and awards bestowed upon Paddock Publications, Inc.

However, it is more specifically Mr. Swinford's column in the Critic's Corner, "Gold Crisis Also Local" in the Thursday, Jan. 30, issue of the Mount Prospect Herald that I would address my brillance to.

Showing an astute knowledge of a "major national problem," Mr. Swinford likens it to local problem in which he deplores the fact that there are those who serve Mount Prospect in various official capacities and live outside our village limits. After specifically citing the superintendent of schools, building inspector, water department superintendent, three policemen, he turns to the village teachers.

Now our young but venerable recent college graduate, with wisdom that comes with age and experience and with clarity and objectivity seeks to rectify a gross wrong.—Good Grief, let's keep the money from fantastic teacher salaries in circulation in Mount Prospect! !

Of course Mr. Swinford knows and knowing we also know, did not point out that many teachers are married women and either through pressures of society or personal choice live where their husbands live and that often the precise location of the home is decided by the husband's occupation. But that still leaves men in education—surely there, vast sums could be kept in Mount Prospect! However, unfortunately it is frequently impossible to obtain a home of desired size in the community in which a man is teaching if his income is sole income for the family.

How many male teachers or principals do you think could obtain a new home in Mount Prospect, or Arlington Heights for that matter,—and I rather imagine their wives have the same ideas and desires as to what their home should be as do the wives of more affluent men in our community and I rather imagine both are equally proud of their husbands and their endeavors. (Our family is in no way connected with education in Mount Prospect other than our share in paying for it.)

But the thing that seemed to strike me most about Mr. Swinford was not so much what he said but rather how he said it. The words struck as those of the young man newly arrived on the scene with sword in hand ready to attack and correct the ills of society. In truth, probably why it had such a devastating effect on me was it reminded me of too many college papers in which I set about to "make things right with the world."

Mr. Swinford is as I learned 27 and arrived in Mount Prospect in September 1963. Perhaps the Busses, Willes and some of the other older residents of Mount Prospect could learn from this young man due to his long experience here in Mount Prospect. But alas, we can no longer call him a Mount Prospect resident, for he has recently moved to Arlington Heights—and taken his gold with him.

Says Goldwater Thinking Is Not Negative

After reading Mr. Hayes' article of Jan. 23 I am taking this means to express my complete disagreement with his statement accusing Barry Goldwater guilty of negative thinking.

If this were true, Washington, Hamilton, Jefferson and Madison and all of the other great men who believed that a constitutional republic was the best of all forms of government would fall into this catalogue.

There are a great number of American citizens who favor this Senator who has followed and held fast to our forefathers' pattern of thought, and go along with him when he says Americans "must now make a choice in this land and not continue drifting endlessly down and down toward a time when all of us—our lives, our property, our hopes, and even our prayers—will become cogs in a vast machine."

In answer to the compromise policy of the liberal wing, Senator Goldwater has this to say, "Why not victory for sound constitutional principles in government—why not victory over the evils of communism?"

No, Mr. Hayes, I would say this is as far removed from negative thinking as a person could get.

Praises News Coverage of Teacher Benefit

The Teachers' Association wishes to thank you and your splendid publication for the very fine coverage you afforded us in our effort to help David Oswald with a benefit night. We have received numerous comments expressing keen admiration in our effort to help a member of the teaching profession. These comments were made from people outside of the teaching profession and their only way of knowing of this effort was through the articles that appeared in your paper.

Our director of publicity mentioned to me that Helene Bristol had been more than gracious and cooperative in every way to insure us of a successful venture in this effort to raise money. Again let me extend our sincerest thanks for your help.

Heedless Drivers Blocked Squad Car Dash to Hospital

On Jan. 20, 1964, I found it necessary to call upon the Buffalo Grove volunteer police to transport my son to Northwest Community Hospital for emergency treatment.

I would like to take this occasion to thank this fine organization for their prompt, courteous and efficient response.

I would also like to use this occasion to call attention to the shocking revelation I experienced on this same trip to the hospital from Buffalo Grove to Arlington Heights.

During this 20-minute trip, only one car pulled over to the right to make way for the police car with siren sounding. The many other cars we passed on the road were either completely oblivious to or ignorant of this necessary procedure in response to any sirened emergency vehicle.

In one unbelievable instance we had to remain behind a car for two blocks going 25 m.p.h. through downtown Arlington Heights with the siren sounding and horn honking. This time lost and extra risk didn't render serious consequences in our case, but in a more grave emergency such an incident could very well mean the difference between life and death.

It became apparent to me that something should be done to alert the public to the menace they create whenever they do not heed the sound of a siren.

I hope this account will awake the responsibility we all have to the men who drive these emergency vehicles for our help and protection.

Denies Parking Violations Near St. Raymond's

In reference to the picture contained in the Herald of St. Raymond Church:

I am afraid your staff photographer did not observe what was taking place when he took the picture of the parking of cars in the 300 block of S. Elmhurst Avenue.

The time of morning was between masses and the cars on the west side of the street are not parked but proceeding south toward Lincoln Avenue after picking up their children from catechism or letting out their wife and children for church services. This particular Sunday (if it was a current picture) would have been Sunday, Jan. 19, when the wind was blowing 60 miles an hour and daddy did not want his precious family to catch cold while walking from the parking lot with him.

WE HAVE three policemen paid by St. Raymond's Parish every Sunday morning stationed so traffic can flow in and out of the parking lot on to Route 83 without hampering the speeders passing by the intersection. These men do a beautiful job and a cheery "Good morning" from them adds to our security in having them.

I have never observed one car parked on the west side of the 300 block of Elmhurst since the "No Parking" signs went up and we secured our block long parking lot. Your photographer should be informed what "Daddy" does for his family on Sunday mornings getting them to and from church and observe the cars are moving not parked or maybe he did not write the caption under the picture.

Finds Recent Issue Loaded With Humor

I could not let another hour pass without expressing my appreciation of your special humor issue of Jan. 23.

I refer to the several guffaw-producing features which make this one of the finest collections of satirical and just plain funny writing that I have ever read.

You even used part of the front page to describe deadpan the action of the Arlington Heights Village Board in deferring to Jewel Tea and Osco Drug in a simple thing like a surplus liquor license—a license that will cost local businessmen dearly, to put it mildly.

THEN AN editorial asking someone, like maybe the village, and its taxpayers to finance access to the tollway for the largest northwest c o m m u nity west of Des Plaines—that was a corker.

But, finally, that brilliant analysis of the Illinois road-building policies that admits rather cheerfully that the new and expanded Route 53 cuts Rolling Meadows in half. The article also points out that the planners hope that it will not be necessary, in the development of the Euclid-53 cloverleaf and expansion to further isolate the city, but . . . well, progress must be served, and in 1980 maybe, people will need and want to go to Grayslake. In the meantime, as I understand the satirical article, since otherwise the new 53 won't help anybody, it might just as well help the Arlington Park Race Track, although, of course, the principal reason for its construction wasn't to be a track access road.

Brilliant humor!

You were kidding, weren't you?

Says Hayes Butters Way For Communism

There are many of us who wonder and rightly so, if we are a world power? Consider Cuba, Panama, Viet Nam, Korea, Bolivia, Zanzibar and, of course, our State Department. Or would you consider the above mentioned as failures? Perhaps Mr. Hayes is able to by-pass the obvious and bring to the fore all the intellectual forces at his disposal, including Lenin, Khrushchev and Kozlov.

There are too few of us who realize that we are being brainwashed by much of what we hear and see on TV and radio, and by what we read in our newspapers.

Mr. Khrushchev said in 1959, "The Communists will destroy capitalism through the spread of the ideology (communism). We are as sure of this as we are sure the sun will rise tomorrow. All we have to do is grease our ideology with butter."

Mr. Hayes has supplied enough of that butter.

The facts remain that our so-called intellectuals have spun such a web of rationalizations that the basic morals of right and left are by-passed. There is an old saying that "common sense is not so common" and of course today that is obviously too true.

Actually Mr. Hayes criticizes Mr. Goldwater's followers for having plenty of intestinal fortitude to stand up for God and Country and deny the Comunists what they have strived for, for 40 years.

If Mr. Hayes is unaware of what the goal of communism is, before he continues in his sphere of journalism, I suggest he read "Masters of Deceit" by J. E. Hoover. (As we understand it, the FBI approved it.) "Witness" by Whittaker Chambers, "Conquest of the American Mind" by Witmer, "I Saw Poland Betrayed" by Arthur Bliss Lane (former ambassador to Poland), "Web of Subversion" by James Burnham and "Brain Washing in the High Schools" by E. M. Root.

The above suggested reading material is not only good for left editors, but right for right, that is if left editors could possibly print anything right. I remain on the right.

Wants More News Items On Schaumburg

Regarding village government, community affairs, etc., we who live in Schaumburg and surrounding area would like more news of our community and not of Streamwood, Bartlett, Elk Grove, etc.

Lately it seems that's all we get.

I hope when Schaumburg High School opens next fall we will begin to get news of our children's high school.

Reports GOP Shunned City Election Role

In the Jan. 30 issue of the Paddock Publications, Tony Modica (?) asked me why I and my group didn't form a full non-partisan ticket. I'm afraid Mr. Modica has been misinformed. I didn't have a group.

Previously, I have always stayed clear of city politics. I had more than I could handle in my precinct. And I'm sorry to say that I never accomplished being the kind of captain that the precinct deserved.

But in this last Rolling Meadows election I was contacted. Because I didn't believe in a coalition ticket produced by the city officials and the group with whom they aligned themselves, I participated in backing a candidate in the third ward. My ward, Mr. Modica. I was interested in the fact that a man in my ward had the courage to buck the coalition ticket. And he won, Mr. Modica, as you well know.

The men that I worked with in that election told me that they were against the same group that I was against. If that is not true, that is something that they have to live with, not me.

I have all the respect in the world for Jim and John Mackin, Mr. Rafferty and Bill Hickey because they are willing to be known as Democrats. That is more than some of the city officials do. I don't like their politics and they don't like mine. That makes us even. From here we start speaking to each other.

I'm a Republican and I know why I'm a Republican. Do you know why you are a Democrat?

But I will let you in on a little secret . . . Long before the city election was due . . . I, and I alone, asked the committeeman to take an interest in the city election. He put it up to the Rolling Meadows precinct captains. Do you know what? My request was voted DOWN. Now that is as far as that idea got. (If you are insinuating that the township supervisor and the senator are in your group, they are keeping very poor company.) So you see you don't really have much to fear from the Republican Township Committeeman.

But all this is past history. I would think your publicity writer would get tired of the same subject and try something else for a change. (If you don't watch out, you are going to run out of names.)

I shall let you in on another little secret . . . Nine months ago I asked to be relieved of the responsibility of the precinct as I wished to devote my time working for Chuck Percy. I am hoping that Precinct 13 . . . in fact all of Rolling Meadows . . . will vote for Chuck.

Precinct 13 is supposed to have a new captain and again he is not from Rolling Meadows, which (whether you like it or not) is the committeeman's prerogative. I don't approve of this myself as I don't think it goes to make good public relations. As I have tried to explain in these columns before, the precincts are the political break-downs of the township. The wards are the break-downs of the city.

Your accusations of my being used politically are silly. I've heard that one before.

But another election will come along some day and if the same trick is tried again, I may run for mayor. Just to give the people a choice.

Grandmother Proud of Tot's Perseverance

I am sure nobody but a very fond grandmother could take such pride in anonymous pictures of her granddaughter as appeared in your Jan. 2 issue.

The little girl making the noble effort to conquer the art of ice-skating with her new ice-skates (a Christmas gift) was Susan Marie Wallentin, 506 S. Louis St., Mount Prospect.

I am sure that these pictures could well portray a lesson in life to generations once and twice removed—a fall—a pick-up and even another fall and another pickup, should prove that we should never let one or two, or even more failures "get us down."

Perserverance pays at any age!!

Objects to 4-Lane Highway Bisecting Quiet Subdivision

In the snug, secure world of the suburbs with its wealth of material acquisitions, there also exists a vast desert of apathy and regimentation. One of the few outposts in this desert is this one corner of protest. One still finds in the "Fencepost" the time-honored privilege of airing a gripe.

In good conscience, I cannot give up a fight for an issue in which I feel so strongly without at least lodging a verbal protest. My extreme agitation is over the fact that our quiet little subdivision is very likely to soon be bisected by a four lane highway.

When we moved here, not quite two years ago, we boasted that we were only two miles from the Northwest Tollway. But that was as close as we cared to be to a super highway. Now, we find that "the powers that be" have decreed that Euclid Avenue will be extended west of State Route 53 in what is planned as a four-lane limited-access road. Although a concession was made to build the road at existing grade level, nothing was said about speed limits, tonnage limits, or divided lanes. With a cloverleaf now under construction, I'm fearful for the worst. This expensive venture parallels an existing through road about one-fourth mile south.

People tell me, "There's no use fighting,—nothing anyone can do will stop it. The ones with the most money and power will get their way." Efforts in fighting this problem in other nearby subdivisions has proven my advisors are probably correct.

So here I sit unable to do anything but watch the bulldozers and protest. Don't think I didn't try to arouse others to do more than just sympathize with me. Few are willing to work at a real fight because knowledge of past experience has shown its futility.

The above thoughts have led me to some deeper conclusions. We, in the northwest suburbs, are among some of the luckiest people in America, moneywise and locationwise. But if our forebears in this country had been content to sit back and say, "What will be, will be," we'd still be Englishmen singing "God Save the Queen." I shudder when I think that George Orwell's descriptions could happen as a result of apathy and desire not "to get involved." 1984 will happen if we sit back and say, "nothing we can do about it."

Well, there is something you can do about it! If you've got a gripe or a cause find a group that has aims sympathetic to yours and join it and be active in it.

Remember too, this is an election year. Find out what the candidates stand for. If you have strong feeling on some issue, make sure your candidate at least indicates that he will agree with you in his actions if elected. If he doesn't carry out his promise, then in the next election, makes sure he loses his job.

Please don't complain and do nothing else; register to vote if you haven't done so and go and vote after careful consideration of not only for whom but for what you are voting!

Gets Disgusted Having to Read About Strangers

We have a Palatine Enterprise but very little Palatine news. How about a little news about folks we used to hear about?

I'm sure there are a lot of us folks between the ages of 50 and up to 75 or more, one doesn't hear about. We only read about strangers one never heard of or knows.

I'm sure you can find a lot if you find the oldest members of our churches. I and a lot of others get very disgusted reading about strangers every week.

Wants More Dissertations On Candidates

Having read Charles Hayes' "critique" of Barry Goldwater, I feel it only fair he prepare similar dissertations on our other candidates; for instance, President Johnson, Nelson Rockefeller, and Richard Nixon.

Phone Calls, Loose Dogs Are Nuisance

I must write to you about what happened to me this past Saturday morning at 7 in the morning.

The phone rang, I answered and there was some girl screaming for Richard.

I said you have the wrong number. The girl started in with obscene language, and a boy too. I listened to see if I could recognize it. I think I did.

Where were these parents at this hour of the morning, that these children were making these calls.

I am not the only one that is being bothered by these phone calls.

Talked to the police they suggested that I change my number. Why should I go through all this? Something should be done, and done fast.

These children are sick, and I mean sick.

On Monday at 5 p.m. my daughter received a call, someone asking for help. They just kept it up. It unnerved her so that she was hysterical.

She thought that it was my husband, as he has heart trouble.

I wish you would print some thing about this in the DuPage Register.

Maybe some of these parents will sit up and take notice.

Incidentally, my daughter has an unlisted number and no children to give out the number.

Talk about pornography, that you can burn up, but how do you rid yourself of this?

Here is another problem we have too. DOGS.

These people move out in the suburbs, and they must think that they are out in the jungles. They leave their dogs run loose all day and night.

These people have no respect at all for other people's property at all. I can't leave the grandson out to play in the yard without first cleaning it up.

Tell these people to keep their dogs in their own yards. You are a crab. Yet these same people don't want the dirt in their yards.

No wonder the children are doing what they are doing. The parents are too busy, doing nothing fast. I don't see why we should enclose our property just to please the whims of one's neighbors.

I wish you would print something about this, as soon possible.

WHAT TO DO?
WHERE TO GO?

The PADDOCK BILLBOARD provides the answer

The gang's all ready for a big night out, but no one's willing to make the decision of "What To Do, Where To Go." That's the moment you've been waiting for — the chance to lead the way — after consulting the PADDOCK BILLBOARD.

Whether it's dining, or the movies, the theatre or dancing, the PADDOCK BILLBOARD tells the story for the Northwest Suburbanite. Always available in the home, easy to use, the PADDOCK BILLBOARD tells what's playing, features outstanding dishes at the area's best restaurants, and provides background and insight into the legitimate suburban theatre, as well as concerts, art shows and other local activities.

JUST DOGS

The obedience folks are watching with interest the proposed new rule changes for obedience trials by the American Kennel Club. The first full publication of the proposed changes appeared in the December 1963 issue of the American Kennel Gazette.

Since publication there has been a number of suggestions sent to the A.K.C. by various obedience clubs and individuals as to perhaps a little better wording or clarification of the new rules, however by and large the rules as they have been re-written are all for the better as far as obedience folks are concerned.

ACTUALLY, there are no changes that really are different; one has brought up some little talk. It has to do with a tracking test being held by a club on some day other than the day of the club's regular licensed obedience trial. The number of dogs per hour that a judge should be expected to do was eight in novice, seven in open and five in utility. It used to be eight, seven and six.

One item of interest, the indoor ring for the utility class has been increased to 35 feet by 50 feet. This is good, with the jumps that are involved.

At the Midwest Training Club Association meeting held Jan. 12, at LaFollette Park in Chicago, the rules were gone over at great length. Inasmuch as the association represents most of the training clubs in the midwest, the minutes from that meeting which did contain various suggestions for final improvement of the rule changes were forwarded to the A.K.C. The new rules will become official when published in the Gazette in February or March.

The winner of the Ken-L Ration annual dog show award from the midwest is Champion Treceder's Painted Lady, a boxer owned by Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Smith of Columbus, Ohio.

The sterling silver plaques, often called the academy awards of the dog show world, are presented to owners and handlers of the four dogs that won the most 1963 "best-in-group" victories in their regions of the nation. Lady won 60 group victories.

The awards will be presented this Saturday evening at a dinner held at the Astor Hotel in New York. This will precede the 88th annual Westminster Kennel Club show to be held in Madison Square Garden on Feb. 10 and 11.

Better dogs

Your editor has often mentioned the fact that a dog that has had some obedience training makes for better relations in a community. Matter of fact for neighbors who do not have dogs it becomes a sort of "must" if a dog owner wants to keep "Slugger" on good terms with everyone.

A recent letter to the paper from Jo Pozsgay of Prospect Heights, which was handed to this editor, brought out the point that too many people are letting their dogs run all over the countryside.

Jo, who is historian for the Lincolnwood Training Club for German Shepherds, has a definite point and it is well taken. Some folks don't seem to care if their dog is a public nuisance.

Lion Sophs Split In League Action

DeLaSalle handled St. Viator's sophomore basketball entry for the second time this season Saturday, pulling away in the second half for a 45-41 victory.

The loss set the Lions' season mark at 12-4. Larry Nomellini's club stands 7-2 in Chicagoland Prep League action and is tied for second.

St. Viator battled back from an eight-point first period deficit and pulled into a 20-20 deadlock at the intermission in Saturday's contest.

THE TWO teams were tied heading into the final period, but DeLaSalle posted a 15-11 advantage for the victory.

Paul Dumke fired in 15 points for the Lions, and Dick Merkel added 10.

On Friday evening St. Viator coasted past St. George, 52-35, with the reserves playing most of the fourth quarter.

St. Viator held a 28-18 halftime lead with John Loughman and Dumke the main contributors on offense.

Dumke paced all scorers with 20 markers on eight field goals and four free throws. Loughman tallied 14. (Sp

Records Tumble As 'Y' Tankers Post 172-120 Win

Eight individual pool records and five relay marks were broken as the Northwest Suburban Girls YMCA swimming team rolled over the West Suburban 'Y' of LaGrange Saturday, 172-120.

Cathy Rowe (Arlington Heights) broke her own prep record with a clocking of 1:17.5 in the 100 yard individual medley.

Other new marks set by area swimmers were Andee Sue Hibbs of Palatine, 21.7 in the 25 yard backstroke; Mary Ellen Geisler (Prospect Heights), :34.6 in Midget 50 yard freestyle; Connie Foster (Mount Prospect), 1:12.2 in 100 yard freestyle; and Jeanne Pollard (Mount Prospect), :39.5 in the Junior 50 yard breaststroke.

THE 100 yard Cadet relay team set a new mark of 1:26.6. Working on this unit were Cathy Narup (Arlington), Jan Lesniak (Prospect Heights), Sandy Gabler (Arlington Heights), and Susie Hale (Mount Prospect).

Jill Olson (Mount Prospect), Jeanne Pollard (Mount Prospect), Andee Farmer (Des Plaines), and Mickey Hibbs (Palatine) teamed up for a 2:17.4 record in the Junior 200 yard medley relay.

Another new mark was set in the Cadet 100 yard freestyle relay event with Susie Hale, Sandy Gabler, Jan Lesniak, and Andee Sue Hibbs turning in a 1:14-.6 clocking.

ALSO PICKING up individual firsts for the Northwest girls were Jan Lesniak (Prospect Heights), Jackie Nesvig (Palatine), Patti Wollerman (Arlington), Gail Klingenmaier (Arlington), Mickey Hibbs (Palatine), and Diane Kelley (Arlington).

In the Prep Division the local 'Y' took firsts in both freestyle relays thanks to one team of Patti Wollerman, Elizabeth Tobin, Kathy Rowe, and Connie Foster and a second of Jackie Nesvig, Dawn Altenberg, Connie Foster, and Kathy Rowe.

Under the direction of coach Roger Tobin and swimmers will prepare now for the District I Preliminary meet on Feb. 29 at Proviso West in Hillside. Only six girls in each event will earn a berth in the District I finals on March 14.

Pirates' Soph Gymnasts Win

Palatine's sophomore gymnastics team trounced Forest View, 90-41, Friday.

The Pirates took the first three places in all events except the side horse and horizontal bar, where the Falcons picked up two thirds.

Pacing the Bucs was Gary Funke, scoring a double-win with 30 points on the horizontal bar and 37 on the still rings. Funke also took second place in tumbling with 33 points.

OTHER WINNERS in each event were Rod Tison, 47, trampoline; John Dunlop, 24, side horse; Randy Keller, 38, parallel bars; and Randy Griggs, 33, tumbling.

Second places went to Brad Olsen, 37, trampoline; Greg Klopf, 18, horse; Rick Ellis, 27, horizontal; Britt Dickson, 28, rings; and Gordie Hominick, 30, tumbling.

Falcons Dave Cook and Dave Furst took third place on the horse and horizontal with 17 and 20 points, respectively.

Palatine thirds included Bud Wirsing, 32, trampoline; C. Johnston, 32, parallel; Lindholm, 22, rings; and Bruce Burrows, 28, tumbling.

Cardinal Jayvees Split; Post 52-43 Triumph Over R-B

Hinsdale's junior-varsity basketball team jumped off to a seven-point lead in the first half but had to hold on against a furious Arlington rally in the final two periods before posting a 53-51 victory Saturday.

The Cardinals pulled within two points (37-35) at the end of three periods with Scott Weber and Tom Jasper leading the charge. Weber flipped in 10 points and Jasper six.

Weber finished as high man for the Cardinals with seven baskets and four free throws for 18 points. Jasper collected 12 and Jerry Fink ten.

Score by quarters:

Arlington	6	11	18	16—51
Hinsdale	10	14	13	16—53

IN ANOTHER jayvee encounter last week Arlington bumped Riverside-Brookfield, 52-43.

The Cardinals broke on top 8-0 and held the lead throughout the contest. Jerry Fink and Weber paced the first half assault with Scott Somers and Jeff Galyon taking over in the final two periods.

Fink was high for the Cardinals with 13 points. Weber tossed in 11 and Somers ten.

Score by quarters:

Arlington	12	17	8	15—52
Riverside	6	10	10	17—43

Knights' Jayvees Record Two Wins

The junior-varsity cagers of Prospect captured two Mid-Suburban wins last weekend, trouncing Forest View, 52-29, Friday and topping Maine West, 44-39, Saturday.

Coach Warren Collier's Knights jumped off to a 12-4 lead over the Falcons in the first period Friday and expanded it to 30-8 at the half.

Outpointed 11-10 in the third period, the Knights came back in the last frame to again outscore the Falcons, 13-10.

RICH MADER led Prospect scoring, firing in 11 points, while Bryon Borgardt paced the losers with nine. Jim Larocco and Greg Kowal each tallied 10 points to tie for the Knights' scoring honors Saturday. Hendricksen led Maine West with 15.

Relay Team Vies In Time Trials

Seventy-one boys turned out in an attempt to qualify for the Arlington Heights Park District midget relay team when time trials were held at the Prospect High School indoor track.

The purpose of the track trials was to determine the five boys who would make up the park district's relay team.

The five boys to qualify were John Kruse, from Kensington school; Ken Malcomson from South School; Ricky Clemans from Park school; Tom Sayre from Park School; and Scott Lloyd from Dryden school.

A schedule has been arranged where the boys will practice together as a team and receive coaching in baton passing and relay running.

This Saturday, Feb. 8, the team will run in time trials at the University of Chicago. If their time is among the top four in the suburban division, they will then compete in the Chicago Daily News Relays at the Chicago Stadium on March 6.

Last year's team won the suburban division of Relays.

Cadet Division Setting Pace on 'Y' Boys Squad

The Northwest Suburban "Y" Boys swimming team is now past the midway mark in its season with only four meets remaining before the preliminaries and finals.

The Cadet Division has made a strong showing, winning seven out of eight meets, with an undefeated medley relay team of Eddie Laue (Arlington) Paul Najt, Scott Ballard and George K. Busse (Mount Prospect). The same boys also claim a strong Freestyle Relay.

Breaking team records in their individual events were Eddie Laue (Arlington Heights), backstroke 19.4; Scott Ballard 20.2; and Paul Najt, breaststroke 21.2.

THE MIDGET Division has had team records broken by Robert Rousseau (Mount Prospect), swimming the 25 yard freestyle at 14.2 and the butterfly at 16.7. Richard Mottweiler (Mount Prospect) holds the team record at 19.2 for the 25 yard Breaststroke.

In the Prep Division Chris Olander has set the team record at 34.2 in the 50 yard backstroke and 1:13.9 for the 100 yard Individual Medley.

Team records have been broken by the Junior Division in the 50 and 100 yard Freestyle events by Bruce Wackelin (Palatine) clocked at 27.5 and 1:04. Dave Brinkley (Mount Prospect) holds the record in the 50 yard backstroke 35.2 and breastroke 37.9.

New members this season are Eddie Laue, Jim Stull, Ernie Beal, Tor Wigert, Flip Hibbs, Bill McCaffrey, Chris Olander, John Cisler, Bill Hill, Jim Karberg, Dick Syphers and John Crabb. (SP

St. Viator's Frosh Five Registers Two More Wins

St. Viator's frosh basketball team is back on the right track.

After a loss to St. Mel the young Lions have roared to three straight victories.

The locals bumped both St. George (47-19) and DeLaSalle (44-36) in action last week and now own a 12-4 mark over-all. St. Viator is 7-1 in league play and tied for first place.

THE LIONS scored in double figures in every quarter as they bombed St. George by 28 points. Kevin O'Connell paced the attack with some fine outside shooting good for 20 points. Frank Hogan and Dan Collins contributed 11 each.

St. Viator never trailed in an eight-point conquest of the DeLaSalle Meteors. They held a 26-18 advantage at halftime.

O'Connell continued where he left off against St. George with a nifty 21-point performance. Hogan added 15 as the frosh raced to their 12th victory.

The Lions tackle St. Joseph on the road this Friday. (Sp

Arlington's Soph Tank Squad Drops Two Meets

Arlington's sophomore swimmers dropped two meets to Niles West and Niles East in recent competition.

Niles West posted a 56 - 39 victory, collecting seven firsts, and Niles East claimed a 65-30 decision.

Paul Hembd and Russ Larson were the individual standouts for the Cardinals.

Hembd took firsts in the 50 yard butterfly in both meets with clockings of :29.6 and :29-.9. Larson headed the breaststroke in both battles (:35.1 and :35.4) and also ruled the 100 individual medley against Niles East (1:13.5).

Mike Pelletier gave Arlington a first in the 150 free style against Niles West with a 1:38-.3 clocking.

The Cardinal sophs topped the 200 yard medley relay against both Niles entries. Working on the victorious squad were Lowell Christy, Bill Sayre, Hembd, and Art Kieck. They had a 2:03.9 effort in nipping Niles West.

Rauworth Giving Lessons

Bill Appleby, superintendent of recreation for the Arlington Heights Park District, announced this week that openings still remain in the first session of professional golf lessons.

The instruction is given by Sam Rauworth, professional golf teacher. The classes meet on Monday evenings and Tuesday morning.

Rauworth gives a complete series of lessons covering all phases of golfing.

Although the class got underway last week, Rauworth stated that new students would be given instruction to bring them up to the rest of the class.

All interested persons are urged to call CL 3-0620 to register.

Jokers Shock Chi-Mars

The Chi-Mars suffered their first defeat in the Arlington Heights Sportsman's basketball league in last week's action at the hands of the Jokers.

The Jokers took an eight point lead at half time and relinquished only one of those points before the final whistle. Jim Summers and Wayne Haemker led the Jokers to their 60-53 triumph over the Chi-Mars by scoring 24 and 18 points.

Beauty Spots: Hints to Female Moods

RUFFLE COIFFURE WAS created for the new soft look for evening. A small coiffure, it features a soft crest of waves fanning into a dramatic lift on the right from a smoothly-waved and closely defined forehead treatment. The Ruffle is one of a collection of hair styles for Spring and Summer designed by the official hair fashion committee of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association, Inc.

Beauticians Tell New Hair Designs

by MARIANNE SCOTT
Women's Editor

The men in our lives will do well to do a little "boning up" this season so they can be "in the know" about a fashion revival that will give them a clew to the many and varied moods of us women. This fashion revival is the use of beauty spots, which depending on where they are placed, tell the tale.

Using the same sign language as the women in the days of Louis XIV, at the corner of the mouth means an invitation to a kiss, the side of the nose implies freshness, on the forehead is majestic, close to the ear means passionate, on the middle of the cheek is gallant and above the lip, a flirt.

AND IF THE men learn this much, we can keep them on their toes by moving the beauty spot a little to or fro. Just an inch away from the ear, yet not in the middle of the cheek, or below the lip instead of above the lip should keep them guessing.

Beauty spots are destined to gain more and more in importance according to the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association, Inc., which has just announced, in time for National Beauty Salon Week, Feb. 9-15, what milady should be wearing in spring and summer coiffures. This being Leap Year, there is no one hair style, but a collection to represent several feminine moods.

According to the NHCA, the hair fashion authority of the beauty profession, the Leap Year Coiffure Collection heralds the return of the woman in hair fashions for 1964 Spring and Summer.

PROVOCATIVE COME hither curl of soft wave adds height to the left side of this Vamp Coiffure for asymmetrical balance. The Vamp complements the swirling fullness of soft chiffons, frothy ruffled blouses and soft suitings, making a strong feminine force this season.

BEGUILINGLY RUFFLED, yet intuitively aware of the head shape beneath, the Marlene Coiffure is an updated coiffure, reminiscent of the Marlene Dietrich look in the Blue Angel. The Marlene Coiffure, like others in the Leap Year Collection, herald the return of the woman in hair fashions for Spring and Summer.

GONE ARE the little boy and little girl fads, as well as the space balloons and bubble heads of other seasons announce the authorities. The woman is here for Leap Year, imaginative, romantic, truly feminine.

Styles are said to be just as flexible as clothing fashions for the season. Some are smooth, some are ruffled, all are soft. All are small and graceful, intuitively aware of the head shape beneath. A big interest will be on parts, long and short, either at the sides, or at the center, straight, or angled.

Daytime coiffures are free and easy, of elegant simplicity, according to the hairdressers. After dark coiffures tend towards a romantic mood that can face morning with confidence. Imaginatively desirable for that special occasion, they can be transformed easily into a young and natural look for daytime activities.

MOST OF THE coiffures in the collection have a slightly asymmetrical silhouette. For evening, the hair at the crown, left a bit longer than in other seasons, features extra height dramatically dressed into lacy curl patterns, while hair at the sides is dressed forward or back, hugging the head gently.

New attention is given to the line movement at the back, which is frequently combed into a soft blouson effect. The front, sides, as well as the back, all contribute to the importance of the entire effect, a 3-dimensional appearance.

Among hair colors, blondes will become truly important again, with reds and natural brownettes vying strongly for attention. Newest in color is the tone-on-tone effect, achieved with two or three tones of a single color for a coiffure.

THE STYLES, which include such titles as Marlene, Romance, Imp, Vamp and Ruffle, will be shown throughout the nation in observance of National Beauty Salon Week. Area hairdressers, members of Affiliate 47, were officially introduced to the Leap Year Coiffure, Jan. 26 and 27 at a meeting of the Illinois Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association in Peoria, and a number of area women are already sporting one of the Leap Year Collection.

And lest we be accused of not keeping up with current fashions, let's sharpen those eyebrow pencils and draw a beauty mark to give the men a break in decoding our moods.

Celebral Palsy Reports

Link Expectant Mother's Smoking, Premature Birth

Heavy smoking during pregnancy increases the likelihood of premature birth, expectant mothers are warned in a pamphlet just issued by United Cerebral Palsy Associations.

Prematurity, it points out, is an important causative factor in cerebral palsy.

Dr. Joseph L. Koczur, chairman of the Chicago's UCP medical Advisory Council, said that a recent study supported by the UCP Research and Educational Foundation and the Federal Government's National Institute for Neurological Diseases and Blindness showed that over one-half of the individuals born with one of the more common forms of cerebral palsy (spastic paraplegia in which both legs are affected) had been premature.

THE STUDY, conducted by Dr. Nicholas J. Eastman, professor emeritus of obstetrics, The John Hopkins University School of Medicine, and Dr. Schuyler G. Kohl, professor of obstetrics and gynecology, State University of New York Downstate Medical Center, analyzed the background of 753 children afflicted with cerebral palsy in comparison with that of the same number of normal children.

The incidence of premature birth in various types of cerebal palsy series was 31.2 per cent in contrast to only 8.2 per cent in the control series.

Dr. Koczur said that a number of studies in recent years have indicated that the smoking mother-to-be is more likely to give birth to a premature infant than the non-smoking expectant mother.

Cigarette smoking histories obtained from prenatal interviews with 2,736 women in Baltimore who were delivered of single liveborn infants showed that the prematurity rate for smokers was 18.8 per cent compared to 11.2 per cent for nonsmokers.

THE RATE of premature birth increased with the amount smoked. The incidence of prematurity went as high as 22.9 per cent for infants of women who smoked more than a pack of cigarettes daily.

This evidence is generally consistent with studies conducted in California and in Birmingham, England, according to Dr. Koczur.

Dr. Richard L. Masland, director of the National Institute for Neurological Diseases and Blindness, reported that the agency's perinatal Collaborative Project is sharpening knowledge of the factors causing prematurity and that excessive smoking is known to be a cause.

Speaking before a recent national conference in Chicago, Dr. Masland said that "the likelihood of prematurity is significantly increased by heavy smoking during pregnancy."

THE UCP pamphlet enumerates some of the other things an expectant mother should avoid. These are: contact with people having German measles and chicken pox during her first three months of pregnancy; exposure to known toxic substances — lead (paints), chemicals (cleaning fluids); unnecessary x-ray; and taking any drugs not specifically prescribed by her doctor.

The pamphlet may be obtained without charge by writing United Cerebral Palsy, 203 N. Wabash, Chicago, 60601, and including a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Kinsey Aide Says

'Successful' Marriages Are Often Flops

The vast majority of so-called "successful marriages" are barely going concerns, declares a former colleague of the late Dr. Alfred C. Kinsey.

Dr. Kinsey's former colleague is Dr. John F. Cuber, professor of sociology at Ohio State University, who recently completed a three-year exploration of the marital experiences of 437 normal, successful, upper-middle-class men and women. He is currently writing a book report on his study which is scheduled for publication later this year.

According to an article published this month, the first public account in the United States of the study, Dr. Cuber found that most of the 437 marriages were "conflict-habituated," "devitalized," or "passive-congenial."

TWO OTHER kinds of marriage, Dr. Cuber found, account for only a small minority of all marriages. In the "vital" relationship, there is a vibrant, exciting sharing of some important experience. The "total" relationship—the rarest of all—is like the vital, with the important addition that the partners share most or all aspects of life.

Dr. Cuber found a small proportion of good man-woman relationships in or out of marriage. A surprisingly high number are carried on outside of marriage. Often, the extramarital affair does not include sex.

AMONG some of his other findings:

Hypocrisy, pretexts, euphemisms and rationalizations are widely practiced by one or both partners in "successful" marriages. For instance, hundreds of malcontent husbands clamor for foreign posts to escape stultifying marriages.

Sex behavior and attitudes vary greatly among the married. Some women described by their husbands as "unaffectionate" have shown themselves to be vital and passionate with outside partners.

In spite of cynics, genuine love—the ideal of the romantic poets—is real. But nobody knows how or why. "There's an alchemy of love about which we know nothing."

IN A high proportion of marriages, communication between the man and the woman is at an impasse.

Romantic love, as a basis of marriage among young people, is becoming very rare.

Marriage counseling, hampered by taboos and lacking a foundation of reliable research, is of doubbtful value.

The article appears in the February issue of Science Digest.

Hearts 'n Flowers Wrap-Up Valentine's Day in Style

For centuries Feb. 14 has been commemorated as a "special day for love" in honor of a gentle soul who lived a long time ago—St. Valentine. 1964 will be no exception. St. Valentine's Day this year will be celebrated by young and old alike with the customary exchange of Valentine cards and gay parties.

Youngsters particularly love to exchange Valentines. It's estimated that some 52 million children under 14 years of age are slated to send a dozen each or so to classmates, teachers and friends.

HERE ARE some ideas, all of which are inexpensively made from valentine gift wrapping paper, for Valentine's Day party givers. They come from Mrs. Peggy Gilbert, design studio director at Norcross Inc., one of the country's leading greeting card and gift wrap manufacturers.

For a teenage party, when a favorite cola punch is to be served and the Christmas punch bowl is packed away, a gay Valentine gift wrap can dress up a large mixing bowl so that it can double as a punch bowl. Mrs. Gilbert suggests using "American Beauty Valentine," with its appropriate hearts and flower design, to make a pleated collar which sits around the bowl. Heart-shaped coasters are cut from the paper and a giant heart is cut out and pasted on a board to hang behind the table.

AT A JUVENILE party a Valentine mail box adds to the festivities, and saves postage too. Use a shoe box covered with wrap to make the box in which little guests can "post" their cards to each other on arriving. Back box with a giant heart cut from "Valentine Kittens," wrap and tack vertically to the wall, cutting a slot large enough to take "mail" in the front, and cutting off top of box. During the festivities the hosting youngster can "deliver" the mail to each child.

WHEN EXCHANGING VALENTINES with the family, turn them into treasured keepsakes by mounting on fabric-covered cardboard to hang as wall plaques. Valentine cut-outs also make excellent party decorations.

A Valentine centerpiece for a Valentine shower or engagement party can be made to look like a "King and Queen" of hearts. Just cover empty oatmeal boxes with the wrap, add face parts to each and ribbon curls for the Queen, top each with a crown made from foil, and fill with amusing favors or miniature gift packages.

Valentine cards, too, can be a source of ideas for every type of Valentine celebration, says Norcross. One such idea is to use those the family exchange and treasure to make a wall decoration. Each card can be mounted on a piece of cardboard that has been covered with any scrap of pretty fabric you have handy, then decorated to your whim with scraps of lace and ribbon. A ribbon loop for hanging completes each plaque.

Wash Toy Animals Often for Safety

Thousands of stuffed animals found their way into the eager arms of children on Christmas morning. As appealing and harmless as these toys are when new, mothers may be sadly mistaken if they think they will stay that way. So warns Mrs. Anne Sterling, director of consumer relations for the American Institute of Laundering.

Chances are that teddy bear has been around—around where dirt hides from the most careful homemaker. Chances are too, that her youngster, like most youngsters, puts "Teddy" in his mouth.

GERMS LIVE in dirt, and are spread in dirt. Junior is being menaced from dangerous germs in his teddy bear.

It is very important that stuffed toys receive periodic "baths." This is best done at a professional laundry where special equipment is used for making the animals as fluffy and as sanitary as they were when new.

Double Dydees To Aid Dixon

The preparation of gift items to be donated to Dixon State Hospital will be the main order of business at the Feb. 13 meeting of Double Dydee Mothers of Twins Club. The session begins at 8 p.m. in Lauterburg and Oehler meeting room, Arlington Heights.

Dixon Hospital was voted "Charitable Institution of the Year" by the Illinois organization of Mothers of Twins Clubs, Inc., therefore all of its clubs are supporting this project in similar ways.

At next Thursday's meeting a white elephant auction will complete the evening's activities.

All mothers of twins who are residing in the Paddock area are welcome to membership in the Double Dydees and may call Mrs. Allan Squires, Cl 5-6343, for further information.

Valentine Party

The Dorcas Aid of St. Peter Lutheran Church, Arlington Heights, will meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the cafeteria of the church, 111 W. Olive St. The social committee is planning a Valentine party to follow the business session. Members are reminded to bring a Valentine gift for their secret pals.

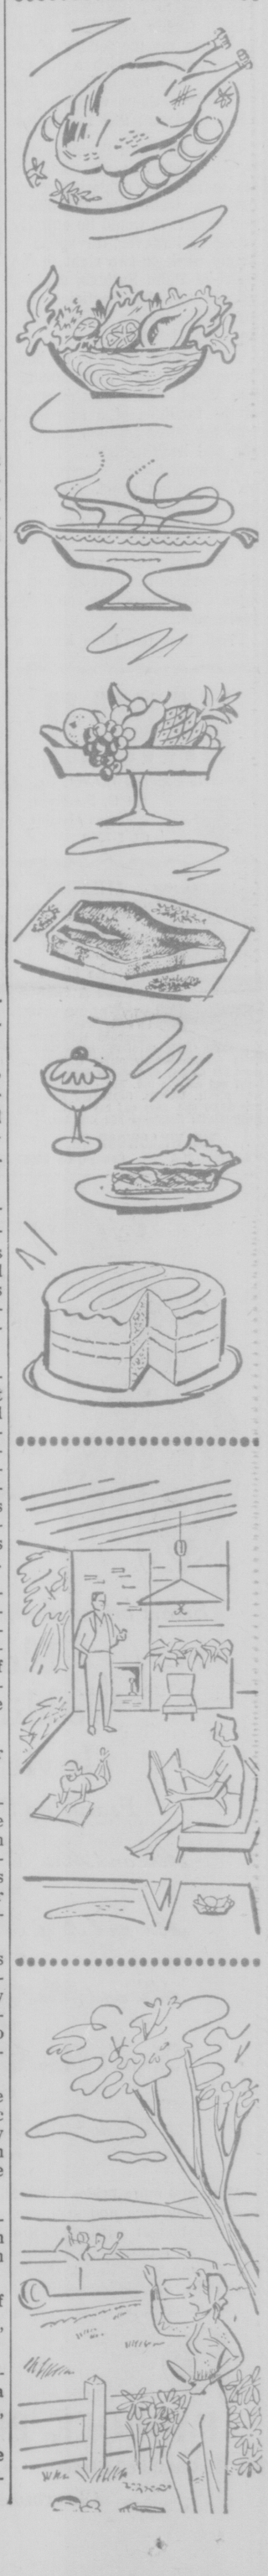
"Worshipping Together" will be the topic for the devotional discussion period, to be conducted by Rev. R. O. Bartz.

Hat History Is Hoffman Club Topic

"History of Hats" will be the topic of Mrs. Bonnie Lee Whitten of the Sperry and Hutchins Co. when she speaks Feb. 10 to Hoffman Estates Woman's Club. Mrs. Whitten's talk will include a fashion show of hats from 1900 to the present.

The meeting will be held at 8:30 p.m. in Congregation Beth Tikvah.

Tickets are still available for the Woman's Club Card party being held Thursday evening, Feb. 6, at 8:30 in Golden Acres Country Club. Tickets will all be sold at the door.



Winter Fun in Palm Springs

California 'Spa' Has Ideal Variety

by JEANNE WELCH
Travel Editor

A trip to Palm Springs in Southern California provides a vivid example of the strides made in commercial aviation within recent years.

It is quite a contrast to step from a huge and luxurious American Airlines 707 jet, which flies from Chicago to Los Angeles in four hours, into a small Bonanza Airlines' Fairchild which requires about 40 minutes to span the 100 miles to Palm Springs.

Both flights are very enjoyable, one for the feeling of effortless power which a jet engenders and the other for the relatively close-up views it provides of desert and mountains.

ONCE IN Palm Springs, winter vacationers usually rent cars for on-their-own exploring of the canyons, waterfalls, mountains and desert. It would be entirely possible, however, to spend a happy week or two right in the heart of Palm Springs, soaking up sun and the beneficial mineral of the waters which bubble up from the sand.

An excellent place to do both is the elegant new Palm Springs Spa Hotel, which combines all of the facilities of a fine hotel with the latest refinements of a spa and health resort.

Whirlpool baths, mineral water swimming pools, massage, heat treatments, salt rubs (they take the nicotine out of the system), you name it, The Spa has it. The mineral waters come from springs discovered by the Agua Caliente Indians some 600 years ago.

Proof that the tribe knew a good thing when it found it lies in the fact that the new hotel is built on land leased from the present Agua Calientes under terms of the first 99-year lease of Indian lands ever approved by Congress.

"TAKING THE baths" can occupy as little as an hour or a half a day. It depends somewhat on how long one spends in a darkened cubicle where, nerves relaxed by the baths and massage, cat naps can go on and on.

Mineral baths invigorate as well as relax and after a couple of treatments the vacationing tired business man and the harassed den mother are ready to take off for one of the many golf courses which dot the desert landscape or take a chance with the nimble-footed horses which are accustomed to mountain paths.

The feminine contingent of Palm Springs winter visitors is perhaps most often to be found in the shops of Palm Canyon Drive, reveling in the colorful displays of resort clothes, the California and imported decorative home accessories which line both sides of that "Main Street."

CALIFORNIA, no less than Texas, is known as the state of the superlative, of the extravagant, of the larger-than-life-size.

I was pleased to see, therefore, that the familiar and homely tradition of mother driving father to the station for his daily commuting chore has its counterpart in Palm Springs.

As an incoming Bonanza plane circled the airport a Jaguar zoomed up to the gate, driven by mother in an Italian silk orange and avocado slack suit. Father, complete with town clothes and alligator attache case, dutifully bussed his chauffeur and dashed off to catch the commuter plane which would land him in Los Angeles in 40 minutes.

Yes, Virginia, life in Palm Springs is not all fun and games. (T VISITORS TO Palm Springs, Calif., world-famous spa, are startled to find a sparkling, 60-foot waterfall in Tahquitz Canyon. Within a few minutes drive and a 20-minute hike from the center of the village, Tahquitz Falls is only one of numerous tourist attractions at Palm Springs area. (T

For Novice, Too

Scandinavia Is Ski Center

You don't have to be a champion skier or even own a pair of skis to enjoy winter sports in Scandinavia. The truth is that, despite visions you may have of high-flying ski jumpers and daring slaloms down steep mountains, these play minor, albeit spectacular, roles in Scandinavian skiing. The favored type, due to the rolling terrain, is the more easy-going cross country trek in which both the beginner and the serious amateur can share the fun.

Skiing is such a natural part of Scandinavian life that, in the winter months from January through March, you can enjoy it within the city limits of all the Scandinavian capitals except the most southerly one, Copenhagen. But then Copenhagen makes up for this lack by being the gay gathering place at the conclusion of Scandinavian ski tours, where you can also do your final shopping.

IN HELSINKI, Finland, for example, you can don your skis right outside the Olympic Stadium and follow the marked trails that encircle the city. Or you can venture 50 minutes north by train or bus to Hyvinkaa, where the terrain is excellent, snow conditions particularly good and there are two ski jumps and a slalom slope. The train fare is only $1 one way, connections are frequent, and you can be back in Helsinki for dinner and some pleasant night life.

Finland's main winter resort is Lahti, two hours northeast by train. It's the country's most modern city, yet here you can ski right off your hotel doorstep into the beautiful countryside surrounding it. Lahti holds its annual Salpausselka Games March 7-9 and has a special ski stadium, slalom slopes, a ski jump, skating rinks and excellent hotels.

In Oslo, Norway's capital, a short ride by "trik," the suburban railway, takes you to Holmenkollen hill, where international championsips are held March 12-15. Oslo's newest attraction is the big skiing center at Varingskollen, half an hour by coach from the city's center. A chair lift, ski tows, slalom and downhill runs for the expert and less expert, a ski school, ski hire facilities and a cafeteria are among the many facilities which have made Varingskollen immensely popular.

For longer winter vacations, Norwegians favor such resorts as Voss, two hours from Bergen, on the Bergen Railway, and Geilo, midway between Oslo and Bergen on the same line. Voss, a center for ski competitions since 1877, has a new 25-passenger cable car which carries skiers in four minutes into lovely ski terrain 2,000 feet above the village. Both resorts have special gala weeks, offer nightly entertainment that varies from folk singing and folk dancing to fashion shows and fancy dress parties, and have authorized ski schools where private instruction costs $2 to $3 an hour and group lessons less than $1.

STOCKHOLM also gives the amateur ample opportunity to indulge in his favorite sport. Marked ski trails, rest huts and hostels make excursions easy. Saltsjobaden, a half hour by train or car, is popular. Also, because the Swedish capital lies on a network of waterways, it is excellent for skating trips, and sailing on skates and ice-yachting are particularly popular here.

Sweden's favorite ski resorts are in the provinces of Dalarna, five hours north of Stockholm by train, and way up in Jamtland, 10 hours north. The big event in Dalarna, which is noted for its folklore, is the Vasa Ski Race on March 1. It starts in Salen and stretches for 55 miles to Mora, on a course that King Gustavus Vasa followed in 1521 and it usually attracts over 1,000 participants and tens of thousands of spectators. Jamtland offers sportsmen more accommodations than any other area and is readily accessible by a railway which takes you into Norway.

Don't bother to bring your own skis with you to Scandinavia. Skis and sticks can be rented for 50 cents a day; for less than a dollar the boots are included. (T

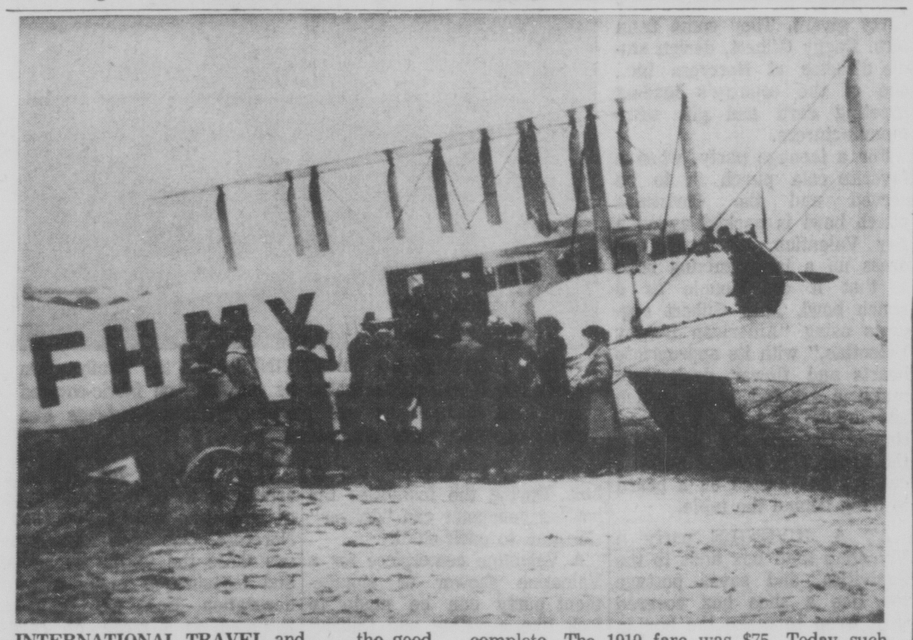
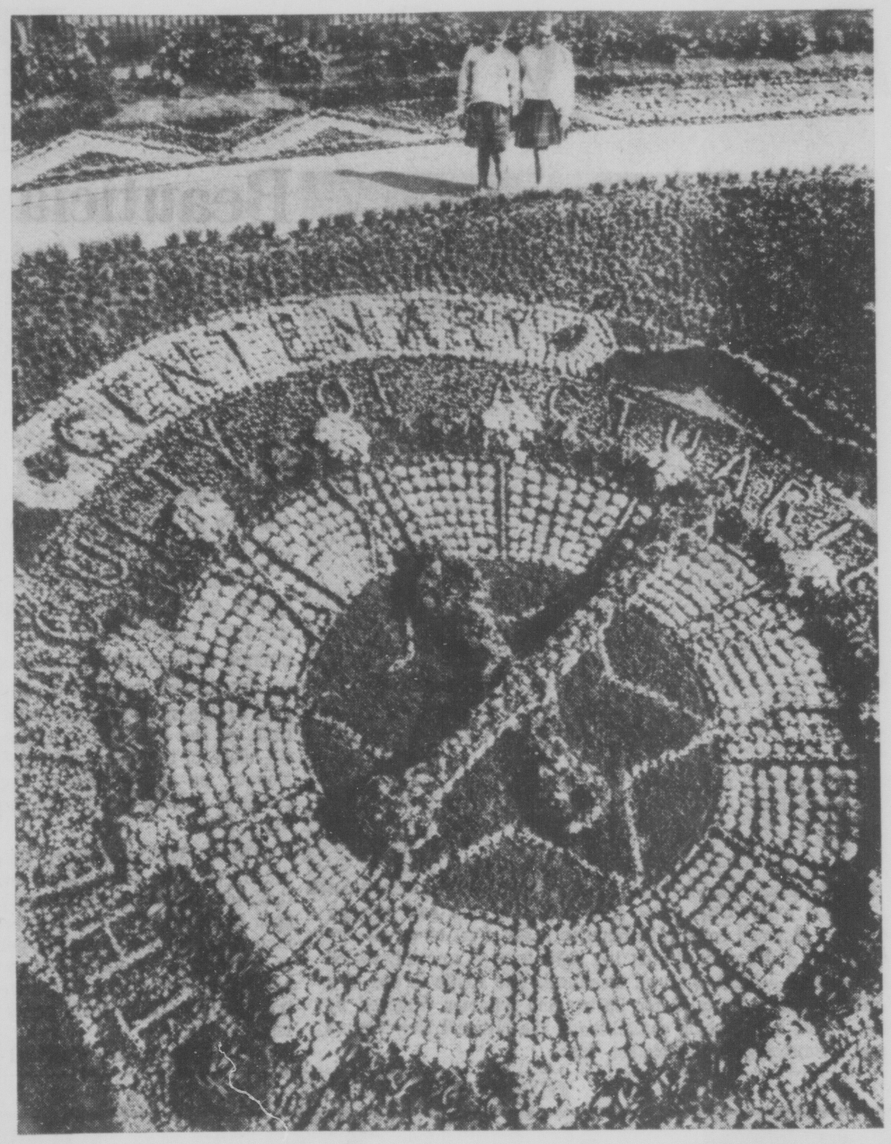
Travel and Adventure



INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL and . . . the good old days: The first intercontinental commercial flight was made 45 years ago this week, when an Air France "Goliath" made its inaugural flight from Paris to London on Feb. 8, 1919. Eleven passengers were carried on the historic flight which took 2-and-a-half hours to complete. The 1919 fare was $75. Today such a flight from Paris to London in a modern Air France Caravelle jet is done four times daily. The 1964 flying time is but a third of the "Goliath" (just 50 minutes), the number of passengers carried is seven times as many (75), and the fare is one-third less ($26.80). (T



EDINBURGH FLORAL CLOCK — It's always flower time on the Floral Clock in Princess Street Gardens in Edinburgh, Scotland. The clock is between Edinburgh Castle and the Historic Royal Mile. It is set with 24,000 plants, changed every year. (T

Visitors Tell the Thyme On British Floral Clocks

"I know a bank where the wild thyme grows" said Shakespeare. In Edinburgh, Scotland if you want to find the thyme, you can look on the local floral clock.

The Edinburgh Floral Clock, most famous in the world, is 59 years old this year, and has problems not likely to be met within an ordinary timepiece.

FOR INSTANCE, since flowers are planted in soil even upon the hands, rain increases the weight to be moved by the mechanism. And until recently the bellows to produce the hourly cuckoo calls kept wearing out. Now the calls are produced by electronics.

The theme of the floral planting in Scotland's capital is changed every year. About 24,000 plants are used, all rooted. They're mostly succulents, dwarf bedding plants and alpines. Three men work for three weeks to change the plantings.

The clock is located at the side of the Princes Street Gardens in the heart of Edinburgh, just off the Royal Mile. It is one of the sights of the historic old town.

OTHER FLORAL clocks are located at Weston-Super-Mare, Leamington Spa, Hastings, Swansea and Southend-on-Sea, in England.

The one at Southend is the largest in the world, with a 20-foot dial. (T

Jet-age Theme for Chicago Maternity Center Luncheon

Flight conditions were perfect as 12 enthusiastic members of the Paddock area team working on the 1964 Chicago Maternity Center fund drive "took off" Jan. 30 to join the other 250 luncheon guests of Mrs. John Andrews King, their honorary chairman, at The Casino in Chicago. It was a champagne flight with red carpet treatment on C.M.C. Stork Lines as the Maternity Center moved into the jet age. The familiar stork emblem was replaced by a jet plane dangling the familiar diaper-clad baby from its beak, both on table centerpieces and wall decorations.

Following the luncheon, guests heard Daggett Harvey, the center's president, and Dr. Beatrice E. Tucker, its medical director, report on the accomplishments of the past year. "The Chicago Maternity Center is not a big place," said Mr. Harvey, "but it is doing a big job. It delivers 3000 babies safely each year in their own homes; it gives practical training to about 200 medical students, doctors and nurses, and its work is known the world over. In 1963, 30 Peace Corps trainees attended its clinics, assisted Medical teams in home deliveries and observed work in pediatrics. So did the Papal Volunteers for Latin America, a Missionary group. Research done at the center adds to worldwide medical knowledge."

DR. TUCKER'S description of her daily experiences, particularly her description of her "day in court," because of traffic difculties, and the erratic behavior of her "stork wagon," a converted Checker Cab, delighted her audience and impressed them anew with the depth of devoted service she has given to the Center and for the health of Chicago's mothers and babies, commented local team members.

Local area team members attending the luncheon included Mesdames Robert Schneberger, S. L. Sage, Betty Black, G. T. Beard, Harry Colburn, Robert P. Campbell, and Nat T. Burfeind of Arlington Heights; C. J. Zettek Jr. of Elk Grove Village; John D. Patterson and George N. Tuttle of Mount Prospect; Frank Seery of Inverness Countryside and John S. Flaherty of Palatine. (S AN AIRLINE MOTIF, complete with red carpet treatment, set the background for the opening luncheon of the Chicago Maternity Center's annual enrollment drive Jan. 30 at the Casino. Among area women lunching that day were Mrs. C. J. Zettek Jr. of Elk Grove Village, Mrs. John S. Flaherty of Palatine and Mrs. Robert Campbell of Arlington Heights. The women are members of the Arlington Heights team which will present its 11th annual benefit cocktail dance March 7. (S

Area Juniors Sew Gowns For Medical Ship HOPE

The seven Paddock area clubs of the Seventh District Junior Organization of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs have on hand a surplus of white sleeves and worn collars as a result of a plea for children's hospital gowns. Members of the Arlington Heights Juniors, the Elk Grove Juniors, the Des Plaines Juniors, Rolling Meadows Juniors, Mount Prospect Juniors, Schaumburg Juniors and Rolling Meadows Juniors are joining members of the other 211 junior clubs in Illinois in making children's hospital gowns for use aboard the S. S. Hope from the remaining portion of the shirt.

Project HOPE is a people-to-people program aimed at understanding and friendship. Aboard the medical ship, S. S. HOPE, American medical skills and techniques are taught to the people of other nations in their own environment; in turn, medical personnel aboard ship learn the illnesses and diseases faced daily by these people.

THE S. S. HOPE's medical team of more than 500 American volunteer medical and health personnel, and the 1700 Indonesian and South Viet Nam, and Peruvian medical personnel selected 45,000 patients for special treatment, performed 4,000 major surgical operations, gave mass inoculations involving over one-half million doses of vaccine, performed oral surgery for the first time in Viet Nam, donated 11,000 medical books to hospitals and clinics and distributed more than 3,000 quarts of milk weekly to the children of Peru. An orthopedic center is maintained by HOPE; at present the S. S. HOPE is in Ecuador continuing its work.

Last year 9,000 stuffed toys were made and donated by the Junior Organization of the General Federation of Women's Clubs of which 2,000 came from Illinois.

A new documentary covering HOPE's activities in Peru is available to interested organizations. Further information may be obtained from the presidents of the local clubs: Mrs. Howard Schick, CL 5-1013, Arlington Heights; Mrs. John Heiberger, HE 7-0951, Elk Grove Village; Mrs. Jack Bornhoeft, CL 3-7172, Mount Prospect; Mrs. Alvin Weber, CL 5-1849, Rolling Meadows; Mrs. Leonard Newendorp, LA 9-7488, Schaumburg; Mrs. Raymond Spletzer, LE 7-5545, Wheeling.

Bride's Twin Sisters In Dally-Smith Rites

The former Susan Lee Dally of Arlington Heights had her twin sisters, Betsy and Barbara, as her only attendants for her Jan. 24 marriage to John William Smith of Elk Grove Village. The evening ceremony was performed by Dr. Paul Stumpf in the First Presbyterian Church, Arlington Heights, in a candlelight setting.

The bride and her attendants are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Addison B. Dally, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James G. Smith.

MR. DALLY escorted his daughter down the aisle, her bridal gown of white velvet fashioned with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and a bell shaped skirt ending in a chapel train. A crown of pearls and crystals held her bouffant veil in place, and she carried a cascade bouquet of carnations and lilies of the valley.

Larkspur blue satin street-length dresses were worn by the twin attendants. The gowns had an empire waistline and a floating panel from the back neckline to the hem of the skirt. Each of the girls carried a bouquet of carnations and blue larkspur.

KEITH BEHRENDT of Rolling Meadows was best man, and ushering the guests to their pews were Richard Lehmann of Elk Grove Village and Robert McDowell of Mount Prospect.

Organist for the double ring rites was Mrs. Isaac Strain.

A CHAMPAGNE buffet was served to 80 guests in Old Orchard Country Club immediately after the ceremony. The bride's mother received in a geranium pink chiffon sheath dress with matching accessories and had a white rosebud corsage pinned to her shoulder. Mrs. Smith chose a yellow knit jacket dress with pale green accessories, and her corsage was of yellow rosebuds.

The newlyweds are now back at the University of Illinois, where the groom is studying market research. They are living at 510 W. Green St., Urbana. They had a short honeymoon at Pheasant Run Lodge, St. Charles, before the start of the second semester at the university. (S

Do not say, "Her last letter said she was coming." This implies that it is the LAST letter she will ever write. Instead, say, "Her LATEST letter."

Do not say, "I beg to differ," or, "I beg to say." Instead, say, "I beg PERMISSION to differ," and, "I beg LEAVE to say."

Palatine Juniors Host Sun. Membership Tea

The annual membership tea of the Junior Woman's Club of Palatine is set for Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5 in Mrs. Nick Kallens' home at 881 N. Martin Drive, Lake Park Estates. All women from the Palatine area who are interested in the club are welcome to attend. Mrs. Carl Teutsch, FL 9-1530, may be called for further information.

The Juniors serve the community and philanthropic groups through active participation and contributions. The club promotes social development through its regular meetings on the first and third Tuesdays of each month, 8 p.m., in Gray Sanborn School cafeteria, 101 N. Oak St.

THERE ARE 11 standing committees in the club, each member joining the one of her choice for the year. Committees are membership, program, hostess, courtesy, civics and public welfare, revisions, auditing, publicity, ways and means, allocations and entertainment.

There are also four departments in the club which provide for special interests. These are American home, art and music, international relations and literature and drama.

AMONG THE many local organizations who receive donations annually from the Palatine Juniors is Northwest Community Hospital, which has been allocated the largest amount through the club's history, that of $2,957. Members also give many volunteer hours to local institutions.

Social events include a potluck supper with husbands invited, a Monte Carlo party and Christmas and Spring banquets.

January Luncheon Brightens Winter's Social Lull

WAITING FOR A FOURTH for luncheon and bridge are Mrs. Bernard Cahill, Mrs. Robert Wybest and Mrs. Les Dena, all of Mount Prospect. The women were among Mount Prospect Woman's Club members and guests who jammed Mount Prospect Country Club last week for the group's January luncheon and card party.

POST HOLIDAY SOCIAL LULL was brightened one day last week when Mount Prospect Woman's Club sponsored its January luncheon and card party. Held in Mount Prospect Country Club, guests at the affair included Mrs. Frank Jantac, Mrs. Peter Tsolinas and Mrs. Harry Anderson, all of Mount Prospect.

AFTER LUNCHEON in Mount Prospect Country Club Jan. 28, Mrs. Ted Beyert and Mrs. Jack Lynch of Mount Prospect chatted and sipped coffee as they awaited partners for cards. Mount Prospect Woman's Club was sponsoring the event.

Narcotics Evil, Topic At Wayside

Assistant District State's Attorney for Cook County, James J. Meehan, will address Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic Woman's Club Thursday, Feb. 13, at 8:30 p.m. at their regular monthly meeting. Previously with the Narcotics Bureau, Mr. Meehan is now prosecuting attorney. He will speak on the "The Narcotics Evil.'

Tea hostesses for the evening will be members of the Auditing and Decency Committees, according to Mrs. Paul Hoppe Jr., club president.

Tuesday, Feb. 18, at 8:30 p.m., the Library and Literature Committee will hold its monthly book review at the home of Mrs. Thomas Dunn, 1518 W. Fremont. Mrs. Robert Cole will review "A Man Named John," the life of Pope John XXIII, by Alden Hatch. Mrs. Charles Walsh will review "Through Darkest Adolescence,' by Richard Armour. (S

Turkish Visitor Talks to Juniors

A young student visitor from Ankara, Turkey was guest speaker at a recent meeting of the Social Service Committee of Arlington Heights Junior Woman's Club at the home of Mrs. Pete Toffoli, 358 S. Dryden. Eighteen-year-old Mine Acemi, who is spending a year with an Arlington Heights family, told the Juniors of her impressions of this country and opportunities offered a foreign student here.

Mine is one of 111 young people from Turkey who arrived in the United States in August for a year of study on arrangement by the American Field Service. She is enrolled as a senior at Arlington High School, following her graduation from the 3-year course of study offered in Ankara high schools.

THE WOMAN'S club members were told of the similarity in the curricula of Turkish and American high schools, despite differences in the length of study. In addition to earning credits in most of the subjects also offered in U.S. schools, Mine has studied English for six years which was helpful in passing examinations given by the American Field Service. She is making the most of her opportunity to study here by concentrating on subjects such as American History and Typing.

The young Turkish student commented on her enthusiasm for American food and ready-made clothes, which are almost unavailable in Turkey. Most of a family's clothing in her country is made in the home, even men's suits must be purchased made-to-order from a local tailor. American supermarkets with their countless varieties of foods and other merchandise are still great novelties to her.

MINE SPOKE of many differences in attitudes and opportunities of teenagers in her country and here. Such privileges as dating, unchaperoned, are still frowned on in Turkey, she said. The number of automobiles on the streets and the ready entertainment offered by American television were two differences at which she still marveled.

The young student expressed her appreciation for the warm welcome she has received in her "American foster home" and in Arlington Heights. She was surprised at Christmas time with the gift of a transatlantic telephone call to her parents in Ankara by the student council of Arlington High School.

Concluding her talk to the Junior's committee, Mine told how she was looking forward to a visit to the New York World's Fair on her way home at the end of the school year. Her future plans include enrollment in college in the fall, with plans to study science and medicine.

St. John Women Plan Style Show

St. John Greek Orthodox Woman's Club is planning its annual fashion show for Feb. 22, according to Mrs. Gust Aretos of Mount Prospect, chairman of the event. It will take place at the Hotel Ambassador-West in the Guildhall.

Fashions will be presented by Bonwit Teller. (S

Teaching Pair United In Holiday Nuptials

A Palatine girl, now a fourth grade teacher in Sun Prairie, Wis., was married on Dec. 28 in Palatine's First Methodist Church. She is the former Valerie Ann Danforth, daughter of the Gordon Abbott Danforths, 510 W. Hellen Road.

Her bridegroom is Arthur Mark Arveson, who is choral director of Sun Prairie High School. He is the son of the Wallace L. Raylands of Antigo, Wis.

The couple both attended Carroll College in Waukesha, Wis., before starting teaching assignments in Sun Prairie.

THE WEDDING date was set for Christmas vacation, the newlyweds then departing for a week's honeymoon tour of the southern states.

The 3:30 afternoon ceremony was performed in candlelight by Chaplain Robert E. Buzza of Carroll College and Rev. Wilbur Childress of the Palatine Church. The choir director from the groom's home church in Antigo, G. L. Doverspike, was soloist, singing "Wedding Prayer" and "O Perfect Love," accompanied by Miss Mercie Heise at the organ.

CHRISTMAS greens, red poinsettias and white pompons decorated the altar for the double ring rites. The bride also chose a holiday motif for her bouquet, a crescent of red roses set with three white roses and a single white poinsettia in the center.

She wore an ivory brocade princess style gown which fell into a chapel train, complemented by a chapel length veil held by a crown of pearls.

Her attendants were gowned similarly, the maid of honor in Kelly green brocade and the bridesmaids in solid Kelly green brocade. They carried bouquets fashioned of white poinsettias and holly.

Linda Wilds of Palatine was maid of honor, and Meredith Danforth, the bride's sister, and Sylvia Bliss of Delavan, Wis., were bridesmaids.

Standing with them were Philip Arveson, the groom's brother of Milwaukee, as best man and David Boyd and John Bowe as ushers. Mr. Boyd is a University of Wisconsin student and Mr. Bowe attends Princeton Seminary. Serving as groomsmen were Donald Ott of Garrett Seminary and David Hanner of Palatine, brother-in-law of the bride.

Candlelighters for the formal ceremony were Deborah Clark of Palatine and Andre Arveson, brother of the groom. (Jenart

FOR THE day's festivities the bride's mother was gowned in forest green velvet and had a white gardenia corsage. The groom's mother wore sapphire blue chiffon and satin and had a yellow rose corsage.

The couple greeted 150 guests at a reception in the church fellowship hall immediately after the nuptials. (S

DAR Promotes '64 Theme By Forming Area JAC Clubs

The Illinois state DAR regent, Mrs. Ralph A. Killey, has proclaimed "Accent on Youth" as her theme for the year. In compliance with this theme, Eli Skinner Chapter, NSDAR has appointed a Junior American Citizens Committee under the direction of the regent, Mrs. John L. Oster, who is also state chairman, Junior American Citizens Committee, NSDAR.

Primary purpose of the Junior American Citizens Committee is the teaching and promotion of Americanism and good citizenship to children and young people of the country. Through the organization of JAC clubs, boys and girls of all ages, races and creeds, are taught the principles of good citizenship, its privileges and responsibilities; loyalty to the United States of America and respect for its flag; the history of the country and of its government.

Clubs are sponsored by DAR chapters or organized by the state JAC chairman in schools, settlement houses, orphanages, community centers or in any youth group. Club activities are under the supervision of a director who need not be a member of the DAR; membership is free.

MRS. OSTER has organized and directs two JAC neighborhood clubs in her home. The officers of the Betsy Ross JAC Club are: president, Sara Kelehan; first vice president, Janet Hynes; second vice president, Lizbee Oster; secretary, Diane Hynes; color-bearer, Janet Anderson; song leader, Jeanene Follett. This club has chosen to do knitting, embroidery and cooking during the activity period.

Officers of "The Alamo" JAC Club are: president, Kenny Follett; vice president, Jimmy Anderson; secretary, Dennis Kelehan; color-bearer and song-leader, Gregg Oster. This club works on tin can projects in their activity period.

BOTH CLUBS observe national patriotic holidays with research, parties and special projects. The clubs met for a short memorial service to the President on the day of his assassination. Combined efforts of the clubs will be a 10-minute demonstration at the 68th Annual State Conference, NSDAR, March 25, at the Palmer House in Chicago in honor of Mrs. Robert V. H. Duncan, President General, NSDAR.

Eli Skinner Chapter also places the "Accent on Youth" with the DAR Good Citizens Award given to the outstanding Senior High School girl. This year the chapter adds Forest View to Arlington High, Prospect High and Palatine High, West.

Winners from these schools will be guests of honor at the chapter's Feb. 6th meeting at 1 p.m. in the home of Mrs. J. J. Hutchinson, 203 Grove Street, at which time Mrs. D. F. Gutzman, chairman, DAR Good Citizens Committee and past DAR Good Citizens State Chairman, will present the girls with pins.

John McGaughey of Arlington High will speak on "American History in the Illinois Schools" at the meeting. (S Lanigan at 255-2846. (S

Women Prepare For World Day of Prayer

Tuesday, Feb. 11, at 9:30 a.m. the Women's Fellowship of the Congregational Church of Arlington Heights will meet in a service of prayer and communion, preparatory to the community-wide, inter - denominational observance of World Day of Prayer Friday, Feb. 14.

Mrs. Lloyd Dobricka, 226 S. Yale, Mrs. Carl Crumrine, 110 S. Kennicott, and Mrs. W. Rowland Koch, 1710 W. Grove, will lead a service of prayer and meditation, and the Rev. W. Rowland Koch and deaconesses will serve communion. All women members and friends of the church are invited to share in this service.

Refreshments will be served by co-hostesses Mrs. Richard Lanigan, 1525 N. Patton, and Mrs. John Tabar, 113 N. Waverly, Mount Prospect. Nursery car will be provided for pre-school children.

Those who desire transportation are asked to call Mrs. Kenneth Prince at 392-4374 or Mrs. Lanigan at 255-2846. (S

Mrs. W. E. Thiele Heads Democratic Women for '64

New president of the Wheeling Township Democratic Women's Organization is Mrs. W. E. Thiele, 13 Lynbrook, Prospect Heights. Mrs. Thiele was elected to the office Jan. 28, at the club's regular meeting held in the headquarters in Arlington Heights.

Serving as vice president will be Mrs. E. F. Smetana, 201 Wolf Road, Prospect Heights, and second vice president is Mrs. Frank Moskal, Rand Road, Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Eugene Murawski, 1000 Rand Road, Arlington Heights is corresponding secretary and Mrs. Harvey McDonald, 1627 N. Evergreen, Arlington Heights, is treasurer.

OFFICERS WILL be installed Tuesday, Feb. 25, at a dinner in the Villa Venice. Honored at the dinner will be four members, Mrs. R. W. Felten and Mrs. C. Smith of Buffalo Grove and Mrs. Walter G. Brawner and Mrs. Moskal of Arlington Heights, who brought in the most new members to the club. Mrs. Thiele, out-going vice president, announces that 34 members have joined the organization since March 1963. The four women will be pre-sented with jeweled donkey pins and Mrs. Felten, who topped the list in getting new members, will be a dinner guest of the club.

All Democratic women in the area are invited to the dinner, where Committeeman James Stavros and Committeewoman Magdalene Remsing will be present. Reservations may be made by calling LE 7-2099.

Nurses to Teach Diabetic Children

Mrs. John A. Detweiler and Mrs. Walter Duda of Arlington Heights Nurses Club will conduct a class to teach diabetic children the proper method of injection, care and sterilization of their hypodermic equipment.

The class will be held Friday, Feb. 7, at 4 p.m. in the East Room of Pioneer Park Field House.

THIS CLASS is not limited to children only, the nurses announced. Adult diabetics or parents of a diabetic child tooyoung to administer his own shots, may wish to use this as a refresher course. Those attending are asked to bring an orange, syringe and hypodermic needle.

A service of the Mothers of Diabetic Children in the Northwest Suburban Area, there is no fee for the course. Mrs. John Lindstrom, CL 3-2226, or Mrs. F. V. Schlexer, CL 9-3433, may be called for further information. (S

Fashion Board Says–

Checks Lead Style Parade in Spring

"Your check is good if it's in black and white," is the latest fashion news from Wieboldt's at Randhurst. Daring, dashing and different is the new look to wardrobes, which will lead the Spring fashion parade in a bold array of houndstooth checks and patterns. This includes the "military" look, a step ahead this season.

Easily falling in line with two seasons of popularity behind it are the "stretch" fabrics-blouses, skirts, dresses and sweaters, all in new designs. The nautical look, complete with middy collars, braid and brass buttons, is set to steal the style scene for the younger set in "younger than springtime" blazer suits, dresses and companion pieces.

THESE AND vivid yellow accessories, the most important contrast for black and white this year, will be included in a special showing in the Junior Fashion Shop at Wieboldt's on Wednesday, Feb. 12.

Members of the 1964 Spring Junior Fashion Board plan to model the styles from 1 to 2:30 p.m. The public is invited; there is no admission charge.

New board members of the Paddock area include: Nancy Hochchild and Loretta Sebastian, Forest View; Linda Brennan and Susan Musial, Sacred Heart of Mary; Debbie Allen, Sandee Schaerf and Donna Dearen, Arlington High; Kathy Farleigh and Sally Wolfe, Prospect; Linda Lou Craig, Palatine; and Carole Lukas of Lake Park High, Medinah. Sweetheart Night For 'Y' Auxiliary

One night a year men are invited to Northwest Suburban YMCA Women's Auxiliary meetings, and Feb. 13 is that date. The auxiliary has scheduled Miss Katherine de Jersey for "Sweetheart Night," her topic, "How to Be Happy Though Married."

Miss de Jersey is vice president of the Chicago chapter of the American Federation of Astrologers. She teaches, writes and lectures and has guided the affairs of more than a thousand clients in all walks of life, including stage, screen and TV personalities.

AMONG HER many professional appearances are those at the Camellia House of the Drake Hotel and the Jack Eigen Show. At one time she had her own radio show.

Miss de Jersey's approach to astrology is never fatalistic or final. "Astrology can help to smooth over the rough spots ahead and encourage the grasping of opportunities. The integrity and action of the individual are still the paramount factors," is a statement she continually emphasizes.

The 'Y' auxiliary meeting will begin at 8 p.m. in the all-purpose room. Anyone is welcome to attend as an auxiliary guest. (S

Cook Concentrates on Fancy Desserts

Cheese Cake Heads List of Favorites

by LOIS SEILER

Destined to delight the eye and the palate are the three delicious desserts being featured today. They satisfy the sweet tooth of the members of the Junior John W. Eder family of Mount Prospect, and are considered their favorite desserts.

One is an elegant cheese cake which Mrs. Eder has been making for years.

"It is quite easy to prepare," this good cook explained, "and is a dessert my children always ask for on special occasions."

It consists of a graham cracker crust, cream cheese filling and sour cream topping. This cake should be made and baked the day before it is served and stored in the refrigerator.

Because this cheese cake is exceptionally rich, a little goes a long way, and a 9-inch cake will serve 8 to 12. It is an outstanding company dessert.

A French Custard, made by a family recipe, also holds great family appeal. "It hardly takes any time to prepare," Mrs. Eder commented, "and is a nourishing dessert for children."

Eggs, milk and sugar are the primary ingredients, with nutmeg and vanilla used as flavorings. Bake in individual cups over carmelized sugar, the custard may be inverted to serve, and the carmelized sugar becomes a flavorful sauce.

"THE CHILDREN often eat this dessert from the cups, and are certain to eat right down to the bottom where the carmelized sugar is," Mrs. Eder smilingly explained. Another quickie dessert which she finds can be easily mixed together for her family or a bridge gathering is an unusual and tempting recipe called Prince of Puddin's.

"This is made using graham cracker crumbs, while a dessert called 'Queen of Puddin's' is made using bread crumbs," Mrs. Eder explained.

Egg whites are stiffly beaten with sugar in this recipe, as you would for a meringue, only baking powder is added and graham cracker crumbs and chopped nuts are folded in.

Baked in a square tin just until it is light brown, this dessert should be chewy and is served topped with whipped cream or ice cream.

Prince of Puddin's is just the right size for Mrs. Eder's family of eight, or will serve two tables of bridge nicely.

The Eder family lives at 314 I-Oka in Mount Prospect. Their six children are: John, 14; Anita Louise, 11; Jim, 9; Nancy, 7; Jeff, 4, and Jean, 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Eder belong to a potluck bridge group, where new dishes are sampled and recipes exchanged in addition to the card playing. Mrs. Eder is also active in the Chi Omega Alumnae Club, St. Raymond's Women's Club, and is candy chairman for the Mount Prospect Campfire District.

A little asparagus reaches the market in February, but supplies are very light until March, rising toward a peak in April-May.

AN ELEGANT cheese cake is one of Mrs. John W. Eder's dessert specialties. That it is a family favorite is evident from the expressions on the faces of Nancy, Jean and Jeff Eder as they anticipate sampling their mother's rich and delicious dessert. (SH

CHEESE CAKE

Crust:

20 graham crackers, crushed
¼ cup butter, melted
2 tablespoons sugar

Mix ingredients together and press into the bottom of a 9-inch cake pan which has a removable bottom. For a crispy crust, the crust may be baked for a few minutes in a 400 degree oven, if desired.

Filling:

1 large and 1 small package cream cheese (11 ounces)
½ cup sugar
½ teaspoon vanilla
2 eggs, beaten

Cream the cheese and sugar. Add vanilla and beaten eggs and beat until smooth.

Pour into graham cracker crust and bake for 20 minutes at 350 degrees. Remove from oven and let cool for 5 minutes. Prepare the topping. Raise oven temperature to 450 degrees.

Topping:

½ pint sour cream
2 tablespoons sugar
½ teaspoon vanilla

Mix ingredients together and pour over the cheese. Bake at 450 degrees for five minutes. Let cool. Refrigerate overnight.

Remove from refrigerator 20 minutes before serving. Serves 8 to 12.

FRENCH CUSTARD

¾ cup sugar
2 cups milk
½ teaspoon salt
2 eggs, beaten
½ teaspoon vanilla
⅛ teaspoon nutmeg

Carmelize ½ cup of the sugar by heating it in an iron skillet until brown, but not burned. Divide carmelized sugar into the bottoms of 6 custard cups.

Heat milk, remaining sugar, salt, vanilla and nutmeg together; scald. Pour it slowly over the beaten eggs. Pour into the six custard cups.

Set cups into a pan filled with 1-inch of hot water. Bake for 45 minutes at 350 degrees. The custard may be inverted to serve.

PRINCE OF PUDDIN'S

3 egg whites
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 cup graham cracker crumbs
½ cup pecan meats

Beat egg whites until they hold in soft peaks. Gradually add sugar and beat until very stiff. Add baking powder; fold in crumbs and nutmeats.

Turn into an 8-inch square greased baking pan. Bake until a very light brown, about 20 minutes at 350 degrees. Watch carefully.

Cut in squares and serve topped with whipped cream or ice cream. Serves 8. (SH

Oriental Glamor Plus 'Top' Value

For the smart homemaker with an eye to her budget, chicken is a wise buy any time of the year. Dollar for dollar, chicken is the best value of all leading meats. But as every good cook knows, thrifty foods can be exciting and chicken is always a treat.

YOU CAN prove the point with Crisp Oriental Chicken. It looks like fried chicken and has the same crispness, but it is baked for convenience. The chicken pieces are dipped in evaporated milk, rolled in seasoned corn-flake crumbs, and baked in a shallow pan lined with heavy-duty aluminum foil. Cheers for Crisp Oriental Chicken!

1 broiler-fryer chicken, cut in serving pieces
1 cup corn flake crumbs
1 teaspoon Ac'cent
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
Aluminum foil
½ cup evaporated milk
1 tablespoon soy sauce

Combine corn flake crumbs with Ac'cent, salt and pepper. Mix evaporated milk with soy sauce. Line shallow baking pan with aluminum foil. Dip chicken pieces in evaporated milk, then roll immediately in seasoned corn flake crumbs. Place chicken pieces, skin side up, in foil-lined pan; do not crowd.

Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) about one hour, or until tender. No need to cover or turn chicken while cooking. Serve with a mustard sauce, if desired.

Yield: 4 servings. (SH

French Foods

Little individual pizzas to serve as party snacks or after-school snacks can be fresh-baked in a jiffy with refrigerated oven-ready biscuits.

The Spanish Olive Oil Institute suggests this easy way of fixing the pizza snacks: First, open the package, separate the biscuits, and press each one as flat as possible. Brush generously with Spanish olive oil. Then place bits of sliced Mozarella or domestic Swiss cheese in the center, top with a teaspoonful of chili sauce or pizza sauce, sprinkle with oregano.

Pop into a preheated 450 degrees oven and they are ready to eat in 8 to 10 minutes. Especially popular with teenagers, but grown-ups like them at the cocktail hour or for evening TV snacks, too. (SH

Lt. Greco Takes Bride on Western Honeymoon

Las Vegas, Reno, Lake Tahoe and Squaw Valley are all included in the honeymoon itinerary of Lt. Daniel Edward Greco, son of the Edward Grecos, 721 Lams Court, Mount Prospect, and his bride, the former Elizabeth Kidwell, daughter of the Lamar Kidwells of Sherwood Oaks, Elgin. The couple was married Jan. 18 in a 12:30 nuptial high mass in St. Peter Damian Catholic Church, Bartlett, and not until March 1 will they settle in Phoenix where the bridegroom is stationed with the Army Air Force at nearby Luke Air Force Base.

Rev. Thomas P. Horne officiated at the service during which Mrs. W. E. MacKinney of Elgin served as organist and soloist. The service was followed by a reception for 400 guests in St. Charles Country Club. Besides the Chicago area, guests came from Dada Point, Calif. and Denver.

AMONG THE out-of-towners was Miss Mimi Kidwell, who flew here from classes at the University of Denver to serve as her sister's maid of honor. Another sister, Suzanne Kidwell, was one of the bridesmaids, as were the groom's sister, Miss Linda Greco, Miss Madonna Alford, a girlhood friend of the bride, and Miss Judy Thrun, a Kappa Delta sorority sister of the bride.

The attendants' sheath gowns were of cranberry silk linen, fashioned empire style. They wore matching pillbox headpieces with butterfly veils, and each carried a pale pink, long-stemmed Dutchess rose.

The bride's gown was an empire silk alpaca with "A" line train with alencon lace insets. Her veil was a matching open halo fountain with 3-tiered silk illusion veil.

BEST MAN was the groom's brother, Donald Greco, and groomsmen were Peter Dunderdale and Bernie Lalor of Arlington Heights, the groom's cousin, John Greco, and Cecil Holtz of Elgin.

The groom is a graduate of Coe College, Cedar Rapids, where his bride also attended, and where he became affiliated with Alpha Sigma Phi social fraternity. (S MAKING PLANS TO ATTEND Alpha Gamma Delta's national Reunion Day April 16 in Chicago are Mrs. W. Meister of Arlington Heights and Mrs. T. A. Meyer of Mount Prospect. AUTHENTIC SCANDINAVIAN costumes are being made by these five energetic women of Palatine Methodist WSCS for the society's smorgasbord Saturday from 5 to 8 p.m. in William Fremd High School, Quentin Road. At the sewing machine is Mrs. Marshall Brooke; with her, left to right, are Mrs. David Kuh, Mrs. Walter Lethem, Mrs. Andrew Nelson and Mrs. Russell Erickson. The first four are co-chairmen of the 10th annual dinner, and Mrs. Erickson heads the dining room committee. (S

Methodist WSCS Ready For 10th Smorgasbord

Busy hands are now at work completing arrangements for the 10th annual smorgasbord dinner which the WSCS of the First Methodist Church, Palatine, will serve Saturday in the newly named William Fremd High School on Quentin Road.

This authentic Scandinavian feast is a high point for the churchwomen as they plan all phases of the meal, which include kitchen duty, dining room decorations and table service and even a babysitter to provide convenience for families with small children.

SERVING will be in two shifts, one from 5 to 6:15 p.m. and the other from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Tickets may be purchased for either of these servings.

Families of Palatine and neighboring suburbs are welcome to make this a "night out," which has become the custom of many members and friends of the church since the inception of this event 10 years ago. The WSCS is prepared to serve 1,200 guests for Saturday's dinner.

Tickets are available from the church office, FL 9-1345, or from ticket chairmen, Mrs. Howard Meadors, FL 9-1164, or Mrs. Albert Knez, FL 8-5128.(S

Lt. Robt. Hawk Takes Chicagoan as Bride

Five attendants in cranberry red floor-length gowns, white fur hats and white fur muffs with red poinsettias preceded Miss Sharon S. Smith down the aisle of First Methodist Church of Chicago Lawn Dec. 28 when she became the bride of Lt. Robert R. Hawk, son of the G. Thomas Hawks, 1103 Watling Road, Arlington Heights.

The bride, daughter of the James D. Smiths, of Chicago, was given in marriage by her father during the noon-time ceremony. Her gown was of white peau de soie with scooped neckline, long sleeves, and a full skirt that ended in a chapel train, and her shoulder-length veil was held in place with a peau pillbox.

The bride's life-long friend, Claudette Swierad of Chicago, was her honor attendant and the bridesmaids included the groom's sister, Mrs. Kenneth Brooks Jr. of Schiller Park, the former Susan Hawk.

LT. HAWK WAS attended by his Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity brother, Jerry Aiken of Westchester, as best man and his ushers included his brother, Tom Hawk Jr. and his brother-in-law, Kenneth Brooks Jr.

One hundred guests attended the reception held in the Banana Steak House in Oak Lawn, where the bride's mother received in a gold brocade dress with gold accessories. Mrs. Hawk chose an Italian knit in teal, with bronze accessories.

The couple, both graduates of Northern Illinois University, are making their first home in Alexandria, Va., where the groom entered engineering school upon his graduation from Officer Candidate School. He was graduated from NIU in 1962 with a major in physical education.

THE BRIDE was graduated in June '63 and taught elementary education in Markham until the holidays preceding her marriage. She was affiliated with Sigma Sigma Sigma at the University.

Pittsburgh and Washington, The couple honeymooned in D.C., en route to Alexandria, and expect to return to reside in the Chicago area in July.

St. Raymond Mardi Gras Mixer Feb. 18

St. Raymond's Catholic Women's Club is sponsoring a Mardi-Gras mixer and potluck dinner dance at 8 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 18, in the school auditorium, Mount Prospect. Music will be by Jack Cordaro's orchestra with dancing from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Mrs. George Fratto, chairman, announces that the dinner dance is an informal affair and that casual dress is permissible. (S

Hat Sale Next For Kiwi Club

The Chicago Kiwi Club will meet Feb. 12 at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Earle Hogate, 8730 S. Merrimac, Oak Lawn. A Mad Hatter's hat sale will highlight the program.

Membership in the Kiwi Club is open to former American Airline stewardesses. Reservations for the Wednesday meeting may be made with Mrs. F. Feeley of Evanston or Mrs. R. Haas of Clarendon Hills. (S

Sorority Activities

ZETA TAU ALPHA

A wine-tasting demonstration by Armanetti Liquors highlighted the Feb. 4 meeting of Northwest Suburban Alumnae of Zeta Tau Alpha.

The meeting was held in the Park Ridge home of Mrs. Warren Kreft, where the April 11 annual luncheon of the chapter was duscussed.

PI BETA PHI

Arlington Heights Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi will meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 12, for a card party in the J. O. Ross Company offices, 320 S. School St., Mount Prospect.

DELTA ZETA

A speaker from Clearbrook School for the Retarded will talk to members of Delta Zeta Alumnae club at the group's Feb. 11 meeting. The group will meet in the Mount Prospect Home of Mrs. Tom LeFabare, 1131 Juniper Lane at 8 p.m.

Following the talk there will be a bake sale.

Reservations for the meeting should be made with Mrs. Richard Candler, CL 9-0975.

CHI OMEGA

Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. House will entertain the Chicago Northwest Suburban Alumnae of Chi Omega in their home at 1120 N. Harvard, Arlington Heights, at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Feb. 14. 'Trash and Treasures' Date Set for February 22nd

The annual "Trash and Treasures" rummage sale, sponsored by the Amity Service Auxiliary of the Chicago Foundlings' Home, will be held Saturday, Feb. 22, in the Community Church of Rolling Meadows, Meadow Drive and Kirchoff Road, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The Amity Auxiliary, which has many members who live in the Paddock area, is one of many such groups in the Chicago area composed of adoptive parents and friends interested in the Home's work with young mothers and children. Proceeds will finance special projects for the benefit of the Foundlings' Home, 1720 W. Polk St., Chicago.

Mrs. Samuel Woodke, 412 S. Pine, Mount Prospect and Mrs. Lawrence Curphey, 409 Stratford Circle, Woodland Heights, are co-chairmen of the sale, and Mrs. Eugene Di Blasi of Mount Prospect is one of the committee members.

THE CHICAGO Foundlings' Home was founded in 1871 by Dr. George E. Shipman as a haven for babies whose mothers were unable to care for them. It gives special attention to the counseling and guidance of girls who seek its help as well as its work in the adoptive field.

The Home, which moved into Chicago's West Side Medical Center in October 1959, is a completely modern structure with the most up-to-date facilities for carrying on its services, according to Mrs. Di Blasi.

"Contributions of rummage will be appreciated," stated Mrs. Woodke, who may be called for pick-ups at 392-0744. (S

Sheriff Ogilvie, Luncheon Speaker for GOP Women

Cook County Sheriff Richard B. Ogilvie will be guest speaker at the annual luncheon of the Wheeling Township Women's Republican Club Saturday, Feb. 15.

Ogilvie rose to local and national prominence when, as a special assistant to the U.S. Attorney General, he successfully prosecuted the federal government's case against syndicate mobster, Tony Accardo.

Shortly before his election as sheriff, Life Magazine listed him as one of 100 outstanding leaders of the "Take-Over Generation," men and women who had achieved distinction in their fields while still relatively young.

OGILVIE was a tank commander in the European theatre during World War II, and was severely wounded. He made the decision to enter public service during his hospitalization.

After his recovery he finished his undergraduate education at Yale University and went on to obtain an LL.B degree at Chicago Kent College of Law.

He is a former member of the board of directors of the Chicago Crime Commission.

In 1962, when he was elected sheriff, he led the Republican slate of candidates for Cook County offices.

ALL REPUBLICAN women in the township are invited to the luncheon, which will be held in Old Orchard Country Club at 1 p.m.

Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Dale Retherford, 15 N. Emerson, Mount Prospect, by calling her at CL 9-1123. Other members of the ticket committee are Mrs. Leroy Nelson, Mrs. Bud Matt, and Mrs. Ronald Thon, all of Arlington Heights.

SHERIFF OGILVIE

Decorations for the luncheon are being prepared by Mrs. Richard L. Sims, Arlington Heights, and other arrangements are being made by Mrs. Franklin Friday, Mount Prospect.

Mrs. George Coker, Arlington Heights, is the club president.

MASKED BALL COSTUMES are modeled by the Charles Lockwoods and John Kuranzes. Prospect Heights Woman's Club annual benefit for library building fund will be held Saturday at Old Orchard. (S

Prospect Heights Masked Ball Is Saturday Night

The Woman's Club of Prospect Heights will sponsor a Masque Bal de Monte Carlo Saturday night at Old Orchard Country Club from 8:30 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes. Casual wear may be worn if desired announced a club spokesman.

Proceeds are earmarked for the organization's library building fund. The present community library is maintaind in part by the woman's club and a major goal of the club is to one day provide a separate building to house the thousands of library volumes.

Mrs. Marge Wroble, chairman of the group's ways and means committee, will be in charge of the masked ball program.

Ticket reservations may be made by calling either Mrs. Ilah Fibish at 392-6194 or Mrs. Helen Smith at 535-6339.

John Zufa and his orchestra will provide dance music for the function. (S

Valentine Lunch Sat. For WSCS

Valentine nosegays are on the minds of members of the WSCS of Prince of Peace Methodist Church, Mount Prospect, as they complete plans for their Valentine luncheon to be held at 12:30 Saturday, Feb. 8, in Trinity Methodist Church, Mount Prospect.

Ham, Swedish meatballs and a chicken casserole, along with a variety of salads and desserts will comprise the menu. Ticket information may be obtained from Mrs. Harold Potts, HE 7-9294. (S

Blends Require Special Care

Why run the risk of ruining your very best garments? Whenever in doubt as to proper handling of a blend of fibers in a garment you've purchased, take it to the fabric care expert, a professional laundry or drycleaner, suggests the American Institute of Laundering.

With so many materials on the market today comprised of a synthetic nature, it is almost impossible to know how to treat each blend correctly. Although an article may be labeled launderable, should you wash it at home or have it done by an expert?

If you will take into consideration the price of your garment you will see that the minimum charge for the service for professional care will be very small when compared to the worth of the garment.

You can also be assured that your garment will retain its "new look" longer. (S

Prize Cherry Pie Winner Announced

This is the time of year when homemakers' thoughts turn to homebaking and delectable, fresh-from-the-oven pies. And to most Americans, pie means "Cherry Pie."

Early colonial records tell us that thrifty Yankee housewives sometimes baked as many as a hundred pies during the fresh fruit and harvest season when pie filling was easily available. These tremendous bakings were frozen during the severe New England winters and brought out, one by one, to be thawed in front of the fire. And, to this day, many New Englanders traditionally demand pie for breakfast.

BRIMMING WITH RED, tart cherries and quick-cooking tapioca, this handsome pie salutes February, Cherry Pie Month. The easy-do recipe calls for canned cherries, measured and packaged, ready for use. (SH

HOW MUCH easier for the modern homemaker, who can purchase such superb pie "fix-in's" as red tart cherries, conveniently measured and packaged in a can, ready for use! How enjoyable the task when the appetizing aroma of gently browning cherry pie pervades the kitchen! And what a rich reward when you treat your family to the wholesome goodness of a freshly baked, homemade cherry pie!

A prize winning cherry pie recipe is being featured in a timely February consumer program by the National Red Cherry Institute and Standard Milling Company, millers of Ceresota and Heckers' brands of unbleached flour.

The easy-to-make recipe calls for ripe, red tart cherries, sugar, quick-cooking tapioca, almond extract and lemon juice in the filling and pure, unbleached flour for the crust to make it taste better and stay fresh longer.

An illustration of the prize Cherry Pie will be featured on one million flour bags and a folder containing the prize recipe and other outstanding kitchen-tested cherry recipes will be inserted in each bag.

SHERRY ANN'S
WINNING CHERRY PIE
(Yield: 9-inch pie)

3 No. 303 cans pitted red tart cherries, drained (3½-4 cups drained cherries)*
1¾ cup sugar
3 tablespoons tapioca (quick cooking)
1/8 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon almond extract
½ teaspoon lemon juice
1 tablespoon margarine or butter

*If frozen cherries are used —2 (20 oz.) cans, thawed and drained 60 minutes; decrease sugar to 1 cup.

Combine sugar, tapioca and salt; mix with cherries, almond extract and lemon juice. Add red food coloring, if desired. Allow to stand while preparing pastry.

Pastry

2 cups sifted Ceresota Unbleached Flour
1 teaspoon salt
2/3 cup vegetable shortening
4-5 tablespoon cold water

Combine flour and salt. Cut in 1/3 cup of shortening until mixture has the consistency of cornmeal. Add remaining 1/3 cup of shortening and blend into size of large peas. Stir in water, 2 tablespoons at a time, until dough forms a ball.

Shape in waxed paper and divide into two parts. Roll one part and fit into pie pan. Roll remaining dough for top crust; slash steam vents.

Pour cherry filling into pastry-lined pan; dot with margarine or butter. Moisten edge of bottom pastry, cover with top pastry; trim and flute edge. Cover edge with aluminum foil. Bake at 425 degrees for 30 minutes. Remove foil; bake 10 minutes longer. (SH

A Cheery Welcome!

There is nothing friendlier than an invitation to coffee. It needn't be a formal afternoon party with fancy sandwiches and the silver service. A relaxing, informal gathering in midmorning—when a mother can really enjoy that second cup of coffee—is the warmest way to entertain old friends or introduce new ones to the neighbors.

Instead of a traditional coffee ring or rounds of doughnuts or buns, serve these delicious little individual coffee cakes. I takes so little time and effort to make them. That's why miniature coffee cakes are particularly fine for church or club coffees too.

INDIVIDUAL COFFEE CAKES

¼ cup shortening
1 cup sugar
2 egg yolks
1¼ cups sifted, enriched flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup milk
2 egg whites
1/3 cup sugar
½ teaspoon cinnamon
½ cup chopped walnut meats

Cream shortening. Add 1 cup sugar gradually and cream thoroughly. Beat egg yolks. Add to first mixture. Mix and sift flour, baking powder and salt and add alternately with milk. Beat egg whites stiff but not dry. Fold in.

Pour into well-greased individual pie pans. Mix 1/3 cup sugar with cinnamon and chopped walnut meats. Sprinkle over batter. Bake in moderate oven, 375 degrees, 20 to 25 minutes. Serve hot. Yield: 8. (SH

Cherry Dish Makes News In February

Certain to be newsy items during the month of February are recipes starring red cherries. Cherries are plentiful, and this gay fruit fits in so well with menus on February's red letter days—particularly Washington's birthday on the 22nd.

GETTING away from the standard cherry pie, here's just the dessert for this month's dinners or afternoon coffees. It's called Cherry Roly Poly and stars the fruit baked inside a sweet biscuit dough with cherry sauce poured on top.

For making sure your biscuits, as well as pie crusts, are tender and flaky every time, lard for the shortening is highly recommended by noted home economist Reba Staggs.

CHERRY ROLY-POLY

2 cups sifted enriched flour
1 tablespoon baking powder
¾ teaspoon salt
¼ cup sugar
4 to 6 tablespoons lard
¼ to ½ cup milk
1 can (1 pound, 4 ounces) or 1 pint pitted sour cherries
½ cup sugar
2 tablespoons cornstarch
Water

Grease a 9-inch square baking dish. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Cut in lard until mixture has fine even crumb. Add enough milk to make a soft dough. Turn onto a lightly floured surface and knead gently for ½ minute.

Roll into an 8 x 10-inch rectangle about ¼ inch thick. Drain cherries, reserving liquid. Place cherries on biscuit dough. Roll as for jelly roll and cut into 1-inch slices. Place, cut surface down, in baking dish.

MIX SUGAR with cornstarch. Add enough water to cherry juice to make 1 cup liquid and mix with sugar and cornstarch. Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened and clear. Bake rolls in a hot oven (425 degrees F.) 15 minutes.

Pour juice over rolls and bake 10 minutes longer. Yield: 8 to 10 rolls. (SH

Spreads 'n Breads For Entertaining

Spreads and breads—grand go-togethers make your late evening entertaining most enjoyable. An attractive tray of finger-size sandwiches, served with hot mulled cider, will tempt your guests on these cold nights.

As Margaret Rudkin, famous for her home-kitchen bakery and recent author of an unusual cookbook, would say, "These spreads are so delicious when filled between your favorite kinds of bread."

Cut white and Hovis slices of bread in a variety of shapes: triangles, circles, or small squares; then fill with the spreads below. Use several spreads so guests may have a variety of sandwiches.

SALMON SPREAD

To 1 cup flaked cooked or canned salmon, add ¼ cup each finely chopped celery, green pepper and lettuce. Moisten with French dressing and season to taste.

EGG AND ANCHOVY

Chop together 6 hard-cooked eggs, 3 celery stalks and 8 anchovy fillets. Add mayonnaise to bind, paprika and pepper to taste.

CHICKEN AND OLIVE

Combine 2 cups ground dark chicken meat with ½ cup chopped ripe olives, add a little mayonnaise to bind, and salt and pepper to taste.

CORNED BEEF, HORSERADISH

Combine 1 cup chopped cooked corned beef, 1 tablespoon prepared horseradish, 3 tablespoons mayonnaise or whipped cream cheese. Add a little dry mustard to taste.

CRAB AND AVOCADO

Combine 1 cup flaked crabmeat, 1 cup mashed avocado, lemon juice and Tabasco to taste, mayonnaise or creamed cheese.

EGG AND SARDINE

Combine chopped hard-cooked eggs with mashed sardines and a little softened butter. Season to taste.

SHRIMP AND CHUTNEY

Combine 1 cup diced shrimp, ¼ cup chopped chutney, and ¼ cup catchup. (SH

Week's Best Food Values

Major perishable food items cost less, and beef, pork and poultry are in distress supply at wholesale, reports the University of Illinois Consumer Service.

Costs tumble. Bacon is a bargain buy by brands, fryers are cheaper again and eggs dramatically lower for larger sized. Other notes from the market report of Feb. 3 - 8 are that fresh fruit and vegetable arrivals are on the increase; wholesale costs are lower except for cucumbers, better quality tomatoes and some salad vegetables.

THE CHICAGO area food values include:

Meats: Beef rump and rib roasts, round and sirloin steaks, chuck roasts, stew beef, hamburger; pork chops, steaks, loin roasts, pork butts, ham steaks.

Poultry: Fryers, large eggs, turkey.

Produce: lettuce, carrots, radishes, cauliflower, mushrooms, potatoes, onions, celery, cabbage, apples, bananas, temple oranges, avocados. (SH

The ancient Greeks were so fond of radishes that they made golden replicas of them.

Fresh grapefruit sections are a delicious garnish for cooked, seasoned fresh spinach.

Oranges were brought to Florida by Spanish explorers in the early 16th Century.

Swiss chard is actually a beet, one which does not, however, develop an enlarged, fleshy root.

Artichokes are available all year but April brings the peak supply.

Diced soft-ripe avocado makes a rich and delicious garnish for soup. Add avocado cubes at serving time.

Famous Chefs Savor Chicken

Just about every world-famous chef has his own way with chicken. Tips from these superb cooks are invaluable to the creative homemaker; just an idea or a combination of ingredients can start her own wonderful recipes of her own devising.

Listed below are exciting notes on favorite chicken recipes from top-notch chefs throughout the country.

HERMAN RUSCH, Chef Dir. Greenbrier, Hot Springs

Breast of Chicken Aloha—Chef Rusch soaks the chicken breasts in coconut milk. To make the coconut milk, soak toasted coconut in milk to cover for about ½ hour. Then roll the chicken in toasted coconut and dip the pieces in egg batter. The chicken is fried and served on a platter garnished with preserved kumquats.

IRA DOLE, Executive Chef, Brown Palace, Denver

Glazed Chicken Pancakes — Chef Dole adds grated orange rind to a basic recipe for French pancakes. The crepes are filled with creamed chicken, rolled, and covered with unsweetened whipped cream. Then the pancakes are glazed under the broiler.

HENRY MAZZUCCA, Manager, Teheran Restaurant, N.Y. City

Chicken Queen Soraya—When former Queen Soraya dined at the Teheran, she chose this dish and liked it so much she asked for the recipe. It was renamed in her honor. Pockets are cut in boned chicken breasts and stuffed with a layer of dried apricots. The breasts are then covered with a layer of soft cubes of buttered bread. The chicken is baked until brown.

JOHN SANTI, Chef, La Fonda del Sol, N.Y. City

Peruvian Chicken—Chicken is simmered in broth, milk, orange juice, lime juice, and traditional spices; the chicken is removed from the pan and the pan juices are spooned over the pieces. Peruvian Chicken is served with orange segments and a Bermuda onion salad.

CHARLES F. WOODRING, Chef The Nugget, Sparks, Nev.

Fried Chicken—Chef Woodring serves fried chicken with attractive accompaniments—creamed spinach and lemon sherbet. The tangy, cool taste of the sherbet is an unusual and pleasant contrast with the delicate taste of the chicken.

JERRY OSSIP, Director Cambridge Inn, Paramus, N.J.

Baked Chicken with Fruit — Mr. Ossip's favorite is chicken baked in a Dutch oven, and he puts the accent on the accompaniments. The baked chicken comes to the table garnished with glazed peaches and accompanied by rhubarb conserve, spiced crabapple, and a popover. The vegetable is unusual and delicious—creamed braised celery with walnuts.

MRS. M. CAMMERLANIDER Owner, Golden Eagle oHtel, Innsbruck, Austria

Chicken Stuffed with Chicken Livers — (This hotel has been managed by the family since 1[illegible]) Mrs. Cammerlander stuffs chicken with a mixture of rice, chicken livers, peas and mushrooms, bound by egg yolk. At serving time, the chicken is carved and served over the stuffing with tomato sauce.

Broiler-Fryer 'No Playgirl'

While the broiler-fryer loves company occasions, she is no mere frivolous playgirl. In the matter of nutrients, chicken is intent on providing a high nutritional return for the food dollar.

Chicken has a protein content that no other meat exceeds and few equal, and the protein is of the highest possible quality because it contains all the essential amino acids—the chemical units of which protein is made. And while chicken is high in quality protein, it is low in fat content. Chicken is low, too, in calories, making the bird an excellent buy for the dieter.

Sauce Seafood With Tapenade

This subtle mayonnaise-thick sauce from the Mediterranean can be used on any kind of cold seafood, or place a spoonful of it in slices of cold ham or salami, roll up and serve as cornucopias; or use as a stuffing for celery.

TAPENADE SAUCE

¼ cup capers, well-drained
2 cans (2 oz.) anchovy fillets, drained, minced
1 can tuna fish (7 oz.) drained
1 or 2 garlic cloves, crushed
½ teaspoon dry mustard
½ cup Spanish olive oil cup chopped black or green olives

Combine all ingredients, beat in electric blender until pureed and thick; or, mash and beat with wooden spoon first five ingredients until paste-like, slowly beat in olive oil, add olives when sauce is thickened. Makes 2 to 2½ cups sauce. (SH

Spicy Trio

Tuna, plus crushed corn chips, plus curried mayonnaise, adds up to a delightful filling for tomatoes or avocados.

Tasty Snacks

Put on your hors d'oeuvre cap —Stuff raw mushroom caps with tuna moistened with sour cream and a dash of curry powder. Simple and delicious.

Here's HAUGH to Plan a Party

A Marshmallow Zoo Birthday Party Is Fun for Small Fry

by DOLORES HAUGH

In these blustery winters it is fun to plan a party well in advance of the day so that small fry may assist in the making of the favors and invitations. It also helps the sick youngster have interesting diversions as he is "recuping" plus an incentive to get well fast. The Marshmallow Zoo Birthday (or even just a skating) party can do all this for you.

INVITATIONS

Use light blue construction paper and fold it twice as is a French fold card, or you may prefer the long thin look so cut it with pinking scissors double fold to fit a long legal-sized envelope and let your child cut out pieces of white paper in the shape of large and small marshmallows.

With these pieces let him fashion animals, pasting his paper marshmallows on the blue paper. Inside you type the following on white paper and with pinking scissors cut out verse and paste inside the invitations. After the invitation is finished, with magic marker draw bars vertically across animal on front of the invitation. Inside write the following verse:

Come on over, we do mean you,
Because we are going to make a zoo
Tall giraffes, elephants, mice,
All kinds of animals, wont' that be nice?
How will we make them just you wait and see,
Oh yes, it's a birthday party for me.

Have the birthday child sign his name. If a skating party eliminate the last two lines and state instructions to dress warm and bring skates. Also mention transportation arrangement. In either case state time, date and tell your guests to wear washable clothing that can get sticky.

This party is for children who are old enough to be interested in crafts, listen to instructions and obey them. And don't be a meany, have a dish of marshmallows marked "For Animal Makers to Eat."

PREPARATIONS

Have a large work area set up, preferably in the basement or kitchen as the floor may have to be washed up later but it won't have to be if you stay with the children. In order to do this you must have all the refreshments, which will be light, birthday cake, ice cream and cocoa with a marshmallow bunny on top ready to serve, or easily prepared in the same room with the children. Have several bags of both white and colored marshmallows, miniature and regular size.

Leave the bags open for a while the day before or night before the party so they will not be too mushy. Also have boxes of toothpicks, cloves and pins if you feel the children are old enough to handle them. Have these items divided in muffin tins for each end of the table, which has been covered with newspaper. Ribbons, yarn and scissors, will help make the colorful animal. Have shoeboxes or any deep boxes and black or colored pipecleaners handy, enough so that each child may make one cage.

A paper punch used ahead of time with one inch spaces between holes on longest side of the box will allow the child to thread the pipecleaners easily. Pictures cut from coloring books may help the child choose which animal he would like to make.

Let the children color the inside of the cages with crayons and then place the zoo on the table prepared for serving. A large box made into a cage will hold all the birthday gifts for the birthday child. You may wish to ask each guest on the invitation to wrap his gift in animal print paper.

DECORATIONS

The centerpiece is the marshmallow animal zoo made by the children and have the cake decorated with marshmallow animals, too. Pick up one of the bright circus colors of red, blue or green and use one or all three in the balloon decor, napkins, plates and paper cups. Each child will have a take home bag and favors can be bags of circus candy peanuts, popcorn balls picked from a tree at the zoo. If you have any time, a few games of find the marshmallow, or guess what animal I am at the marshmallow zoo will please any little guests, for sure.

So don't monkey around, start your birthday child off on a wonderful Marshmallow Animal Zoo Party. (S

There's Heartbreak In Gourmet Cooking

by BETTY AINSLIE

Every now and then I try to sneak in a cookbook dinner — that's a recipe book type meal for the family.

Planned as a gourmand's delight, it mostly ends up as a gastronomic disaster and a candidate for the garbage can.

The weeks drift on with the usual run of hamburger, spaghetti, a pot roast, maybe a chicken or two occupying the piece de resistance of the main meal. But there comes a day when I gather my cookbooks about me and decide on something particularly pleasing to my palate.

Now here lies the trouble. The recipe sounds delectable, contains ingredients enjoyed by the entire family; but this dish will be looked upon with suspicion and distrust by all.

I'm busy blending exotic spices together, adding sour cream or tomato sauces, sprinkling a dash of seasonings and carefully whipping the ingredients into something different and special when what happens?

SON NO. 1 on his fifth or sixth trip to the refrigerator stops to lift the cover of this new concoction delicately simmering.

"What's that!" Expression and tone mean he's not going to like it. Will taste it but has already made up his mind against it. Decides to settle for bread and butter and an extra helping of dessert that night for dinner.

Daughter has a more direct woman's approach. She burns a finger dipping out a succulent piece from the kettle and declares frankly.

"Gosh that look awful. What is it?"

SHE'LL SAMPLE this new dish. Offer her opinion unasked, usually deciding she likes the first taste. Lectures her brothers on the advantages of trying anything and tasting everything. She loads her plate and after the third or fourth mouthful states that this stuff tastes burned or scorched, is too seasoned or not enough seasonings — in fact it tastes kinda awful actually. She pushes her full plate away with a final word to her brothers.

"Well at least I tried it." After inspecting the refrigerator decides on lettuce and luncheon meat sandwich.

Son No. 2 won't sample, inspect or even try anything new. His nose puckers up and his face takes on the expression of getting a glimpse of a rattlesnake as he says flatly.

"Ugh! What's that?"

If forced to eat a single mouthful, his expression and actions are enough to discourage further attempts at having him try the new recipe. He settles for a peanut butter and jelly sandwich and a can of soup.

POP, THE brave and hearty soul, trys anything once; but ends up with a left handed compliment.

"This tastes pretty good, but I prefer meat and potatoes."

Now I wonder why children develop violent dislikes for tasting something new? Why anything unfamiliar immediately arouses the negative reaction.

Babies are fed everything. Our children swallow happily strained and chopped foods of every type and texture without a murmur. But comes the time when their wishes can be made known, they all develop favorite foods and distrust anything cooked en masse. Now casseroles I enjoy. They're simple, save work of washing lots of dishes, are ready in a jiffy, but are thoroughly disliked by my family.

A recipe that takes me a good afternoon of alternate cooking and cooling, adding and mixing. One that fills the house with a delicious appetite appealing odor will be still regarded as a lethal dose of poison.

IF IT'S A dessert, the groans may be slight — they just will sacrifice the sweet. But the main dish is a dish of another color — which just may be part of the trouble. Possibly it is eye appeal which causes instant dislike. Something with green food coloring added is not a favorite in this house. Familiar foods changed in color like green noodles or blue whipped cream.

But cooking can become a mite discouraging when your starred concoctions fail to bring family appreciation, no matter how glorious the colored pictures depict this new experiment. Even if the finished product looks like a dream, if your cover lifting dinner eaters turn thumbs down on the new recipe you're apt to stick to the hamburger, chicken, ham or roast beef routine and not allow for any variations or casserole surprises.

You'd think I'd finally learn and never open a cookbook or read a mouth-watering new recipe, but try them I will, and I'm becoming a rather expert short order cook when I do. Automatically I heat a can of soup and make up several sandwich fillings whenever I feel this spell of experimental cooking. (S

Palatine Pair Marks 50th Anniversary

Observing their 50th wedding anniversary Feb. 5 are the Paul Keulmans, 1324 Virginia Drive, Palatine, who have resided in Palatine since 1959. Prior to 1959, since their marriage in 1914, they lived in Chicago.

Prizes will be presented to the guests chosen as king and queen of the Mardi Gras.

Following dinner, there will be dancing to the music of the Jerry Ditman band. A late evening coffee bar will also be included in the affair.

'Four Seasons Study Planting

A demonstration and helpful hints on planting seeds in flats were given by Phil Demus of Glenview at Tuesday's meeting of Four Seasons Garden Club. Mrs. William Mack of Wheeling was hostess.

Mr. Demus started gardening as a hobby 10 years ago and learned about its various phases by reading and by trial and error. His latest interest is in organic gardening and mulching.

He "practices what he preaches" by tending to a 40 by 80 foot garden in which he raises both flowers and vegetables.

Auto Is Vital to Mrs. J. J. Suburb

by JODY CARR

The physical education people are making a big to-do over the sorry state of our nation's children. It seems our boys and girls are not able to accomplish a specified number of sit-ups and/or push-ups and that sort of thing. One of the reasons for this, they say, is that children are driven almost everywhere . . . that they don't walk enough.

CARR

If children have been found to be lacking in the area of physical fitness, think about grownups . . . you and me. Have you ever stopped to think about the importance of the automobile in your life?

Let's take a look at a typical day in the life of Mrs. J. J. Suburb. Mrs. Suburb drives the family "second car," and I'll wager Mrs. Suburb hasn't the foggiest idea of just how much time she spends in that automobile of hers and how much exercise she doesn't get because of it.

THIS IS MRS. Suburb's day to run errands. Shopping list in hand, she climbs into her car and away she goes. Stop at the service station for gas, then off to the drive-in cleaners. But first, how is the cash supply? Better run down to the drive-in bank for some money.

Goodness, look at the time! Only an hour 'til lunch, and there's nothing in the house to feed the children. We'll solve that one. They'll love to have a hamburger at the drive-in restaurant. The drive-in car wash is right down the street. Might as well take care of that on the way to the school.

After lunch, Mrs. Suburb drops off the library books at the drive-in deposit box. Next item on the agenda is a stop at the drive-in beverage store to pick up refreshments for tomorrow night's party. Right around the block is the drive-in creamery where Mrs. Suburb stocks up on ice cream and assorted goodies for the children. It must be a slow day at the post office—only three cars ahead of Mrs. Suburb's at the drive-in mail box.

THIS IS MRS. Suburb's day to play bus driver for the Brownie troop. When all the little people finally are delivered safe and sound, Mrs. Suburb is exhausted! Too tired to cook, she suggests that she and her husband, who spends most of his working day in the other car, treat the children to dinner at a drive-in restaurant and a drive-in movie.

As to physical fitness, if the regular round of housework isn't enough, there's always television with its daily exercise program. I don't know about Mrs. Suburb, but I intend to go right on driving. (S

Bed Sizes Brew Family 'Revolt'

The earliest king-size bed on record is one used in the fifteenth century by a king, his entire family and visiting friends.

Lupe Velez, Hollywood film star in the late twenties, first gave status to the oversized bed in America. (The unique "California size" today is 72x84.)

In 1957, the king-size bed appeared for the first time on the regular price list of the Simmons Company.

Today the firm reports three double beds sold for each single bed and a 40 per cent increase in sales of queen size beds the first six months of 1963 over 1962.

Sleep observers now predict that the queen (60x80) will outsell the king to become America's standard double bed size in the near future. (People are growing larger.) Note: Lady Pepperell has added size 90 x 108 to the new Vivid Tone sheet line.

Another note for those who sell Pepperell's stretch-fit bottom sheets: the average person changes his sleeping position 22 to 45 times per night, according to a sleep behavior study conducted by Mellon Institute, Pittsburgh.

Blanket selling tip: Customers shopping for blankets to fit queen size bed should be shown 90 x 108s, which experience proves is ideal also for queen beds. S

Local Business Women Slate Membership Tea

Mount Prospect Business and Professional Women's Cub will hold its second annual membership tea on Sunday, Feb. 16, from 3 to 5 p.m. in Old Orchard Country Club, Arlington Heights. All eligible women in this area are welcome to attend.

Warriors to Test Falcons

Forest View Journeys Outside Loop Saturday

by HOWARD HARMENING

Forest View tangles Friday night with the Mid Suburban Conference leader Maine West and then continues its travels Saturday for a non-loop clash at Lisle.

The host Warriors from Maine led their attack with 6-9 center Joe Wehlacz and 6-6 forward Jim Smith as they sit neatly on top of the league with a 6-0 mark.

Smith tops the team's scoring in the conference with 96 points, while Wehfacz isn't far behind with 95. Also back on the roster is 6-2 forward Dave Aegerter, an All-Stater in football.

"Aegerter will probably see some action," says coach Gaston Freeman, "but he's a doubtful starter. He's still slow after being out for two months."

AEGERTER, WHO played briefly against Deerfield Friday, dropped in one from the line in that clash.

Wehlacz, meanwhile, led the scoring in the Warriors' 70-44 victory over Deerfield with 23 points, while Smith ran a close second with 22.

In Saturday's 51-40 win over Prospect, Wehlacz, with 18, and Smith, with 12, again paced the Warriors and were the only two players to hit double-figures for Maine West.

Maine West is 14-4 for the season.

Friday Night Contest

Knights Host Spartans

by HOWARD HARMENING

Prospect's Knights will host Glenbrook North Friday night with coach Dick Kinneman's charges trying to protect their second place position in the Mid Suburban Conference.

With four loop games remaining on the schedule, the Knights own a 4-2 record with a two-game bulge over their Friday opponents and Deerfield.

The Spartans are led by forwards Jim Holder, 6-3, and Steve Priddy, 6-1. Holder, the team's top scorer, has 202 points in 17 games this season, while Priddy is second with 199.

PRIDDY, WHO'S missed three league games, is topped by center Brian Erler, 6-3, in scoring in the Mid Suburban though. Erler has tallied 73 points in six loop games; Priddy has 40.

Holder, second in rebounding for the team also, tops the Mid Suburban with 98 points in six games.

On the boards, Erler has led Glenbrook North efforts, snatching off 104 for the season. Holder, meanwhile, has been averaging five rebounds per game, according to coach Joe Hajost.

"INJURIES HAVE hurt us," says Hajost. "We've lost John Kerber, a 6-2 forward who would've helped, to illness, and two guards I probably would have started against Prospect."

The two guards, Mark Stanley, 5-7, and Ken Klancnik, 5-11, are probably out for the rest of the year, says the Spartan chief. Stanley has had a reoccurence of pneumonia, along with a groin injury, to put him out of action, while Klancnik pulled a tendon.

"I might bring up two junior varsity players for this game," Hajost added. One of the players, Paul Brubaker, a 6-2 sophomore forward, is the leading scorer for the junior-varsity. The other is Randy Hofman, a 5-10 guard.

DAVE GOBEILLE
Earns Praise

THE SPARTANS have had other problems than injuries this season, and Hajost indicates the biggest one is defense.

Pressing full court almost every contest, the Spartans have allowed an average of 68 points a game for the season.

"We've also had a lot of trouble with our free throws," adds the coach. "We've hit 56 per cent from the line, making 236 out of 425."

THE SPARTANS, owning a 4-13 season record and 2-4 in conference, "looked good against Glenbrook South," whom they defeated, 60-48, but lost to Deerfield, 64-54, in their last two loop clashes.

Kinneman. meanwhile, says he was "very pleased with the rebounding of Don Neubert and Dave Gobeille" against Forest View and Maine West.

Neubert, who had 22 points over the weekend, won the game against the Falcons, 45-42, in the last 30 seconds of the overtime after stealing the ball, hitting for a bucket on a layup and then sinking a charity toss after he was fouled. Gobeille helped out on offense Saturday with 15 points.

"We're hoping for more scoring from Dave (White)," Kinneman added. White tallied 12 points against the Falcons but then slipped against Maine West to fire in only one bucket as the Knights dropped the crucial league game, 51-40.

Cards Host Blue Demons

Wissen's Crew to Travel Saturday, Meet Trojans

by BOB FRISK

When you're trying to shake a lengthy losing streak, you welcome the chance to bump heads with those second division clubs.

Saddled with five straight setbacks, Arlington High would welcome that chance too, but Ted Wissen's Cardinals have drawn two rugged assignments this weekend in their final hardwood doubleheader of the 1963-64 campaign.

Front-running Maine East comes to town Friday evening, and Arlington journeys to Downers Grove Saturday. Combined, the Blue Demons and Trojans have been good for 26 victories in 32 games.

MAINE IS coasting along unbeaten in the West Suburban Conference. Bernie Brady's Demons may be more interested in their battle with Riverside-Brookfield Saturday, but they know better than to overlook Arlington, especially in the Cards' backyard.

Downers is the author of a 6-3 league slate, but Lloyd Wasmer's outfit had to go into overtime to topple Arlington in an earlier meeting and isn't interested in the Cardinals' 1-8 mark in the West Suburban.

The story is the same. Maine and Downers will be favored in the weekend tussles with Arlington, but the Demons and Trojans are not dismissing the Cards as a sure thing, an easy league conquest.

THEY'VE BEEN watching the box scores. They'd had scouts in the stands. They've seen this Arlington team come up with some creditable performances even in defeat.

Arlington's Ted Wissen indicated Tuesday that regular Dan Sherman, shelved by illness three weeks ago, may be ready for action this weekend. However, Ted did admit that nothing was definite and it was just a matter of "wait and see."

Sherman still ranks as the Cards' third leading scorer although he's missed the last five games. Arlington has yet to win a game with Dan on the sidelines.

PAUL SPLITTORFF continues as the Cards' leading point-producer. He's way out

Harmening Joins Staff

Harold Harmening, 25, has joined Paddock Publications, Inc. as a sports and general assignment writer, Executive Editor Charles Hayes announced this week.

Harmening, a Navy veteran, will cover the athletic programs at Prospect and Forest View high schools in addition to his general assignment duties.

He replaces Bill Halls who resigned to join the Associated Press in Detroit, Mich.

Harmening comes to Paddock Publications from the Elgin Daily Courier-News where he has been a sportswriter for the past 13 months.

FOLLOWING HIS discharge from the Navy, he served for a month as an editorial trainee for the Elgin Courier and then worked for six months as a general assignment reporter in the Carpentersville-Dundee area.

Harmening returned to the Elgin daily in 1962 after a year of study at Elgin Community College under the newspaper internship program, sponsored by the Wall Street Journal.

Harmening lives at 1560 Mark Ave., Elgin, with his wife, Cindy,

Bright Future Indicated As Frosh Fives Roll On

FOLKS IN THESE PARTS have learned not to hold their breath waiting for an area basketball team to earn a trip to the state tournament.

We've had representatives one and two victories away from a coveted slot in the schoolboy finals, but they've always stumbled before the bags were packed.

Arlington's surprise team reached the sectional finale in 1960 before falling to Elgin. Prospect's state-ranked outfit was stunned in the sectional opener the following winter. Palatine reached the sectional but bowed in first round games on two occasions.

To plug this unfortunate omission we could expand our "area" a bit and point with pride at Barrington's trip to Champaign in 1964. The Bronchos made the trip but came home after falling to Edwardsville, 59-57.

It's no secret our chances are pretty slim for a state slot this winter, but there's some genuine excitement over future prospects in the immediate area.

It takes more than a good record as freshmen to insure varsity success, but these plebe units have been causing quite a commotion since the campaigns opened in December. Best of the lot appear to be Arlington and Prospect, both unbeaten in 11 outings, but don't overlook St. Viator, Palatine, and Forest View. There's some promising talent available at each school on a frosh level.

Cards, Knights Unbeaten

ARLINGTON AND PROSPECT could take unbeaten records into their meeting on Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 11, in the Knight fieldhouse. Both clubs face weekend encounters and will be favored to maintain their spotless marks.

Dick Kinneman, varsity coach at Prospect, is very high on the current group of Knight frosh. "That's the best freshman team we've had since Lussow (Fred), Empkie (Fred), Grams (Keith) and that bunch went unbeaten," Dick admits without reservation. "They were at the Prospect building but played under the Arlington name in the days before the first split."

That frosh club lost its big boy (Clements, who moved), added an All-State transfer two years later (George Pomey), added a boy who went out for wrestling as a frosh (Bill Zadel), and proceeded to win 47 of 51 varsity games under the Prospect High School banner.

Earl Benoche is guiding the current Prospect yearlings with assistance from J. O. Jackson. Benoche came to Prospect last fall after serving in the Bradley, Ill. elementary system. He had previous coaching experience at Manteno, Ill. High School and St. Patrick's of Kankakee.

Benoche works with a starting alignment of Tim Empkie (6-1) and Tommy Lundstedt (6-2) at the forwards, Al Shers (6-3) at center, Dan Carda (5-11) and Don Whitlock (5-8) at guards. Paul Staudenmaier (6-0) and John Phillips (5-9) are the leading 'A' reserves.

The bulk of the scoring comes from front-liners Empkie, Lundstedt, and Shers although Carda and Whitlock also can come up with that big game.

Empkie, brother of the former Prospect High standout, will be lost at the end of the school year as his family is moving to Connecticut.

Ecker Handles Arlington

ARLINGTON'S TED ECKER, a former Moline High School All-Stater, is in his first year as the Cardinal frosh coach. Ted played his college ball at Iowa State University and North Park College, earning three major letters.

He admits he learned most of his basketball from North Park's Royner Greene, the man credited with starting Middletown (Ohio) High School on its way to national prominence as a prep power.

Ecker, who is assisted by Bob Knilans, starts a frosh 'A' entry of forwards Dave Lockwood (6-0) and Steve Conley (6-0), center Pat Martin (6-3), and guards Steve Allen (5-11) and Terry Townley (5-10).

Allen, son of the Cards' varsity football coach, is the leading

Lions, St. Joseph Battle for Third in Chicagoland Division

Two weeks ago St. Viator's varsity basketball team had its sights set on the top rung in the Chicagoland Prep League title chase.

Three straight setbacks have altered those aspirations, but Ron Feiereisel's Lions are still located in the coveted first division and very interested in staying there.

Third place will be at stake Friday evening when the St. Viator quintet journeys to St. Joseph in Westchester to meet the dangerous Chargers.

The locals will battle a host St. Ignatius five next Tuesday evening.

FEIEREISEL knows what to expect Friday in Westchester. His Lions toppled St. Joseph in overtime in an earlier meeting, 56-55, and this one promises to be just as close.

The boy to watch is 6-foot-4, 185-pound Dick Sebek, a cinch all-conference performer who's throwing in points at a 19.6 per game clip in Chicagoland competition.

The Lions saw too much of Mr. Sebek in the first get-together. He fired in 30 points on 12 baskets and six free throws.

Saturday Evening

Cage Headliner At St. Viator

In a unique basketball exhibition two games will be staged in the St. Viator High School gymnasium this Saturday evening, Feb. 8.

In the first contest at seven o'clock the school lettermen's club will battle some fathers of the athletes.

At approximately 8:30 p.m. the Northwest All-Stars will meet the DePaul University freshman squad.

Several former college standouts will play for the Northwest entry.

LINED UP are ex-DePaul performers Larry Nomellini, Dan Monckton, and Mike Donahue; Steve Zebos, soph coach at Maine East who played at Southern Illinois University; Larry Kurka, former Northwestern star; Ed Bouchee, a professional baseball player; and Ted Ecker, Arlington High's frosh coach who earned All-State honors at Moline and played at Iowa State University.

Nomellini, a coach at St. Viator who is handling the program, may still add other players to the roster before Saturday's tip-off.

Admission for both students and adults is one dollar. A sock hop will follow the game.

Tickets may be purchased at St. Viator High School in Arlington Heights.

outing with St. Viator.

Terry Michalski (6-1), a senior forward, is third in scoring with 93 points. He had 12 against the Lions in that overtime thriller.

St. Viator and St. Joseph are tied for third place in the league with 5-4 standards. The winner Friday gains sole possession of third place.

ST. VIATOR also knows not to underestimate its opponent next Tuesday although the Lions did rock St. Ignatius in mid-January, 73-52.

Turnley Boyd (6-2) and Art Harmon (5-8) are the key men on offense for George Lux's Wolves although Gene O'Malley, a 6-foot junior, threw in 19 last week against St. Joseph in a surprise performance.

Lux also has been receiving capable efforts from such boys as Dan Sudeikis (6-2), Joe Coglianese (5-10), and Carlo Russo (5-8).

ST. IGNATIUS is 3-5 in the league with victories over St. George (67-62). St. Mel (80-54), and Holy Cross (92-55).

Feiereisel will stand pat on his lineup for the two conference tussles, working with Jim Vidt (6-1), Joe Heitz (6-2), Chuck Grandt (6-3), Jim Murray (5-9) and Kenny Hoffman (5-8).

Murray and Grandt have carried the squad on offense in Chicagoland competition. Jim has 144 points in nine games and Grandt 140. Next in line is Hoffman with 75, but Ken has picked up only eight points in the last three contests.

The Lions stand 9-6 for the season.

Borgardt's 19 Sparks Jayvee Win

A 19-point scoring spree by guard Bryant Borgardt was the highlight of a 51-40 Forest View victory over Glenbrook South in a junior varsity preliminary game last Saturday night at Glenbrook.

Coach Bob Rees' charges outscored the junior Titans in two quarters and latched on to their third Mid Suburban conference win of the season.

Center Steve Jacobsen also contributed handily towards the Falcon win by pouring in 12 points.

Forest View's season record now stands at three wins and eight losses.

Falcons Top Knights on Frosh Mat

Forest View freshman wrestlers crushed Prospect, 34-12, Friday, winning four matches on pins and one on a default.

Taking wins by pins were Stan Rohner in 112-pound class; Gene Menard, 127; Craig Smith, 138; and Phil Reder, heavyweight. The Knights defaulted the 145-pound match, with Dave Kaspari of Forest View getting credit for the victory.

Winning by decisions for the Falcons were Carl Ward, 95; Ron Cook, 120; and Bragau, 133.

Although getting no pins, Prospect won four decisions: Hansen at 103; Roger Anderson, 154; Randy Gerstung, 165; and Dan Spera, 180.

Rugby Union To Show Films

The Midwestern Rugby Union, formed to control, promote, and teach rugby in this area, plans to hold a series of films as an introduction to the sport.

The introductory films will be shown on Wednesday, Feb. 12, at 8 p.m. at the Town Club, Clayton and Genesee Streets, Waukegan.

Anyone interested in additional information should contact Barry Kennedy, CHerry 4-0623.

Forest View Stuns Pirates By 28-18 Count

Forest View pulled the biggest surprise of the wrestling season last Saturday at Palatine when they handed the highly regarded Pirates a 28-18 shock.

Al Henson's team, winners of just two of fourteen previous duals, dished out Palatine's third loss in 15 matches.

The Falcons won eight of the twelve matches, including six of the first seven and held leads of 11-0 and 22-5 before the Pirates could stage a rally.

OMAR AVILES got the Falcons moving when he pinned Bill Barker just 15 seconds before the end of their 95-pound match.

Aviles' teammate Larry Andrews built a 4-2 lead in the first two and added another on riding time to dispose of Steve Cromar, 5-2.

Forest View went up by 11 when 112-pounder Terry Hayden came off a scoreless first period to blank Pirate Jim Bailey, 6-0.

Mike Gluck broke the Falcon streak when he pinned Arnold Perez in the 120 go. The victory gave Gluck a 19-0 mark for the season. Mike's pin was nullified moments later however, when teammate Butch Mummert was pinned by Forest View's Gary Hodson in 5:48.

THE FALCON edge reached 19-5 when Bob Jennings beat Harvey Fanning 4-1 at 133, and stretched to its widest margin when George Derby blanked Don Wille 7-0 in the next match. The Derby-Wille go was scoreless after two periods.

Seth Norton matched Gluck's record when he rolled over Joe Gebhart, 6-1. Pete Phillips made it 25-8, Falcons, when he rallied to top Charley Preus 5-2 at 154.

The Pirates' Jim Koeppl broke up a close match when he pinned Mickey Colovos at the 4:37 mark in the 165-pound bout. Koeppl held a narrow 2-1 edge at the pin.

Chuck Lemke gained the last Falcon victory when he blanked Mike Reynolds, 5-0 at 180. Mike Lang of Palatine closed the match with a 3:18 pin of Ray Goertz.

Palatine's Gymnasts Top Falcons

Palatine swept by Forest View gymnasts, 91-41, in the varsity meeting Friday, winning the first three places in all events except three where the Falcons placed third.

Dominating the trampoline, the side horse and tumbling events, the Pirates opened with Skip Ray winning on the trampoline with 127 points, trailed by teammates Steve Gibson (102) and Gary Dove (92).

Coach Jim Brown's Bucs stretched the lead in the side horse to 32-12 when Dennis Weder (95) won, followed by Pirates Tom Schreiner (85) and John Anderson (82).

BILL LONG of Palatine then took first on the horizontal bar with 111 points, while Larry Frye's 105 earned Palatine second place. Marty Sidor of Forest View placed third in the event with 90 points.

On the parallel bars, Palatine's Bob Witmer won with 104 and Tom Gliot's 92 earned second, with the Falcons again taking third place when Dick Antti picked up 88.

Jeff Weaver (104) of Forest View took another third place on the still rings, where Palatine's Fred Hodgdon and Bob Harvey tied for first with 109 points apiece.

In tumbling, Palatine took over again, with Steve Applehans' 129 good for the victory and Skip Ray's 93 and Ron Smith's 90 taking second and third place, respectively.

Knights' Sophs Still Unbeaten; Handle Falcons

Prospect's frosh-soph cagers stayed on the unbeaten list Friday in the Mid-Suburban Conference, shelling Forest View, 46-23.

The Knights led 9-3 in the first period and let loose in the second to lead 23-6 at the half. Prospect continued to outrun the Falcons in both of the last two periods, 15-10 in the third and 8-7 in the final.

Center Tom Beard, with 11 points, and forward Dan Agard, with 10, paced the Knights' scoring, while forward Steve Mueller led the Falcons with eight.

scorer with 172 points and a 15.6 per game standard, but Lockwood has been red-hot in recent outings. Dave fired in 12 baskets against York and 15 against Hinsdale in the past two weeks. He owns a 14.1 ppg.

Conley, Martin, and Townley also have been able to come up with those big days on offense and can't be left alone.

Leading Cardinal reserves right now are Jim Donchess (6-4), Jim Swanezy (6-1), Mick Wadzita (5-9), Mike Grant (5-9), and Doug Fink (5-10).

Arlington didn't lose a frosh 'A' game in football during the fall and now boasts a perfect mark in basketball.

We want to emphasize again that it takes more than a good record as freshmen to insure success on a varsity level, but the future certainly looks bright.

Folks may not have to wait too long to see one of these area clubs make some big noise in the "March Madness" that grips our state every year at tourney time!

Ten Years Ago This Week...

Rog Thomas was high for the losers with eight field goals and three free throws . . . John Sujack and Bill Randag paced the Cardinal sophs to an easy 63-45 win over Glenbard.

Prospect's Gym Squad Routs South

The Prospect Knights routed the varsity gymnasts from Glenbrook South, 75½-55½, Saturday by dominating the trampoline, side horse and tumbling events.

Prospect took a 16-6 margin on the trampoline and outpointed the Titans 13½-8½ on the horse and 13-9 in tumbling to pick up most of its winning points.

The only event in which the Titans gained the edge was on the parallel bars when they added 12 points while the Knights tallied 10.

THE TITANS also threatened on the high bar and still rings, but Prospect again managed to outpoint the losers, 11-10 and 12-10, respectively, in the two events.

Prospect swept titles in every event. Taking the victories for the Knights were Mike Zadel, 155 points on trampoline; Mike Duda, 112, side horse; Terry Taylor, 106, high bar; Bill Kist, 149, parallel bar; Harry Threlkeld, 135, rings; and Al Smith, 118, tumbling.

The Knights also copped two second places and three thirds. Second place was gained by Greg Dombrow, 117, on the trampoline and Gary Toole, 102, side horse.

In third place were Bruce Frasch, 77, trampoline; Paul Swanson, 106, rings; and John Strobel, 68, tumbling.

Harstad Leads Win

Cards Rout Hinsdale's Gym Outfit

Arlington's varsity gymnasts rebounded from their only setback of the season with a convincing 83-49 conquest of Hinsdale Saturday afternoon.

With the victory, their ninth in ten duals this winter, the Cardinals remained in a first place league deadlock with Maine East.

Tom Walthouse's powerhouse will journey to Proviso East this Friday evening at seven o'clock to meet the always powerful Pirates.

ARLINGTON outscored the Red Devils in five of the six events but had to yield the top three slots on the side horse.

Senior standout Ron Harstad turned in the most impressive performance with a sparkling 182 count on the parallel bars. "It was a perfect routine," head coach Walthouse enthused.

Bob Broome came up with a fine effort on the side horse, collecting cards of 81-84 from the two judges for a 165 total and seven team points.

ALSO SCORING firsts for Arlington were Gary Holveck on the trampoline (163), Harstad on the horizontal bar (155), and Reid Olson on the still rings (167).

Seconds were claimed by John Ungaro on the side horse, soph Jim Johannesen on the horizontal bar, Ulrich Geissler on the parallel bars, and Harstad on rings.

Harstad, as usual, was the big point-getter for Walthouse's varsity. Ron showed 19 points with his two firsts and second.

The summary:

Arlington 83, Hinsdale 49

Trampoline — Won by Holveck (A), 163; 2nd, Cox (H), 146; 3rd, Romme (A), 133; 4th, Stewart (A), 129; 5th, Codington (H), 97; 6th, Gage (H), 81.

Side Horse — Won by Broome (A), 165; 2nd, Ungaro (A), 132; 3rd, Rudowyj (A), 133; 4th Hughes (H), 117; 5th, Boehmke (H), 91; 6th, Kinsey (H), 52.

Horizontal Bar — Won by Harstad (A), 155; 2nd, Johannesen (A), 133; 3rd, Holveck (A), 123; 4th, Burns (H), 114; 5th, Monhart (H), 109; 6th, Stolbach (H), 79.

Parallel Bars — Won by Harstad (A), 182; 2nd, Geissler (A), 158; 3rd, Burns (H), 128; 4th, Olson (A), 123; 5th, Strobach (H), 119; 6th, Monhart (H), 91.

Rings — Won by Olson (A), 167; 2nd, Harstad (A), 145; 3rd, Geissler (A), 118; 4th, Hajny (H), 98; 5th, Adams (H), 93; 6th, Phelps (H), 82.

Tumbling — Won by Gage (H), 134; 2nd, Edwards (H), 107; 3rd, Coddington (H), 96; 4th, Rossiter (A), 92; 5th, Brosseit (A), 88; 6th, Romme (A), 82.

Arlington Faces Rugged Weekend

in front with 268 points and could go over 300 this weekend. The 6-foot-3 southpaw is scoring at a 17.8 per game clip.

Junior Bob Conner has moved into second place in the offensive totals with 138 markers and a 9.2 standard.

Maine East's Bernie Brady has seen his club roll over nine straight West Suburban opponents, including a 60-34 rout of Arlington in mid-December.

JEFF JONSWOLD, a three-year regular, still is the big man on offense with 143 points in nine West Suburban outings, but the Demons feature a balanced attack. Everyone can score.

Guard Larry Wiseburn, sidelined last Friday against Glenbard with an injury, is next in line with 100, and this swift junior should be ready for the weekend twin-bill. If he doesn't get the first call Friday, senior Ted Zillmer will open in the backcourt.

Maine features a set of the quickest guards in the conference with Tommy Eichler (5-9) rounding out the backcourt combo. Eichler doesn't score much, but he did find time to throw in 20 against Glenbard last Friday.

Rounding out the Demon alignment will be Terry Bauer (6-4) and Rick Cozad (6-5). Bauer is averaging 10-plus points per game in the conference, and Cozad is a shade under at 9.8.

DOWNERS GROVE coach Lloyd Wasmer welcomed back forward Ray Chladek (6-3) a few weeks ago, and Ray has been an invaluable performer for the Trojans. He missed some early games because of an injury but has pumped through 66 points in his five loop appearances.

"He's also averaging about 12 rebounds a game and took down 24 against LaGrange last week," Wasmer enthused.

Joining Chladek in the starting alignment Saturday will be either John Howat (6-2) or Jeff Schubert (6-3) at the other forward, Kurt Sieben (6-4) at center, and Randy Thingvold (6-0) and John Martinek (6-2) at the guards.

Thingvold still is the big man on offense, but the Trojans have a balanced attack. Four of the five starters are averaging in double figures.

Mickey Smith, one of the standouts in the Trojans' overtime victory over Arlington in December, has had some trouble on offense in recent weeks and may be relegated to the bench. Smith has 82 points in nine league games but only 22 in the last five.

Varsity Wins

Falcons' Swimmers In Split

Forest View's tankers split Thursday against Glenbrook South, winning the varsity segment, 66-29, but dropping the frosh-soph, 80-15.

A varsity team of Don Campbell, Ed Boddy, Dave Lueck and Cliff Hadick set a new school mark for the Falcons in winning the 200-yard medley relay in 1:59.6.

Besides being on the winning relay team, Lueck also swam to another victory when he copped the honors in the 100-yard breaststroke in 1:16.9.

COACH KEITH NORTH also praised John Buczek as doing "a fine job going 1:02.7" to top the 100-yard butterfly. Buczek picked up a second title in the 200-yard individual medley, winning it in 2:33.7.

Daryl Oberg of the Falcons also tallied a double win, taking the title in 200-yard freestyle in 2:19.2 and in 400-yard freestyle in 5:12.1.

Other firsts in individual events were recorded by Forest View's Bill Reising in 50-yard freestyle (25.5) and Tom Blair in diving (46.6 award).

FOREST VIEW also won the 200-yard freestyle relay in 1:46.6.

Capturing second places for the Falcons in the meet were Don Campbell in the 200-yard individual medley; Tom Tyrell in diving; and Cliff Hadick in 100-yard freestyle.

Third places went to Mike Mortenson in the 200-yard and the 400-yard freestyles; John Hittman, 50-yard freestyle; Mike Bodozian, 100-yard backstroke; and Bob Hughes, 100-yard breaststroke.

In the frosh-soph segment, Forest View took three seconds for their highest points. Craig Brown, Mike Nolan and Tom Post placed second in the 100-yard individual medley, the 100-yard freestyle and the 300-yard freestyle, respectively.

Sportsmen's Show Set to Open Feb. 21

Chicago's annual Sportsmen's and Vacation Show, the world's largest and most complete, takes over spacious International Amphitheatre just off the Dan Ryan Expressway from Friday, Feb. 21, through Sunday, March 1.

Called "the best ever" by producer Thomas E. Durant, the show features several innovations for the 10-day run.

The popular "Parade of Outdoor Champions" stage and water spectacle, presented twice daily in the center building, will have a new format built around a large cast of stars.

day and toppling Glenbrook South, 64-53, Saturday.

Fenton led the scoring against the Knights with 13 points and Mueller paced the team against the Titans with 15.

SATURDAY NIGHT the Falcons will be more evenly matched. Lisle presently has a 5-10 season record and is 3-4 in the Fox Valley Conference, where the team is in third place. The Lions, whose basic offense is one-two-two and who play a switching man-to-man on defense, are sparked by 6-4 senior-center Bob Arlon and 6-2 junior-forward Rich Mason.

Arlon has averaged 15 markers a contest for the season, while Mason has hit for 13. Another threat will come from 6-2 senior-forward Bob Knight, averaging 10 points a game.

"WE'RE PRETTY good on the boards," says coach Tom Heggen. "Knight has been averaging 10 rebounds a game. Arlon's second with eight."

"We've lost a lot of our games - at least five - by six or eight points," he added. "What's really hurt us are free throws."

After explaining the Lions have worked the last month on charity tosses, the coach bemoaned one fact: "Now that we're better and can make them, we're not getting as many chances. We're not drawing fouls."

Lisle lost last weekend, 61-53, to Fenton. The coach says his club has been shooting 40 per cent from the field.

Knight Rally Falls Short; Maine West Wins Loop Feature

by CHUCK HOFFMAN

Maine West tightened its vise-like grip on the Mid Suburban conference lead in beating Prospect Saturday evening, 51-40.

The Knights' determined rally with two minutes remaining in the rough contest was halted when they crept to within four points of the Warriors. Maine ran off seven points to end the game.

Prospect remains second in the conference with a 4-2 mark, both losses being to Maine West. Maine has not lost in conference competition and holds a 6-0 record.

AS IN THE first battle, Prospect eked out a one point lead in the first quarter, then faltered in the second. While the Knights were scoring seven points in the quarter, the Warriors accounted for 11 to lead at the half 21-17. The same four point bulge was held in the third quarter, but Maine opened up for 18 points in the final stanza.

Maine started the game off right with a driving layup off the opening center tip. Upon getting the ball, Prospect began its slowdown tactics. The Knights held the one point edge at the quarter's end.

Prospect refused to alter its slowdown tactics during the second quarter. Dave White and Bill Phillips dribbled and passed around the outside of the keyhole and looked for openings and close shots. But the Knights had hit a cold streak; they couldn't seem to find the range. Except for free throws, their shots had become erratic. Meanwhile, Maine's Jim Smith and Joe Wehlacz countered with hooks and jump shots and edged ahead at the half.

DAVE GOBEILLE and Don Neubert, prided for their rebounding but overlooked in shooting, got hot in the third and fourth periods and led the Knights during this time.

Neubert, whose free throws had won the Forest View game the night before, hit three successive jumpers for the far corner and a free throw. Gobeille, playing with three fouls since the second quarter, drove in for layups and short set shots.

But Prospect could not forge ahead because the Warriors were matching them basket for basket. Wehlacz used his five inch advantage over Gobellie effectively, hitting his sweeping hooks and short shots for the first time all evening. Smith also scored three baskets on jumpers from the free throw line.

AFTER MAINE had gone ahead by eight points with five minutes left, Prospect coach Dick Kinneman called a time out. Moehling and White each scored a basket, and Maine's lead was cut to four points. Victory did not seem impossible.

But Wehlacz hit his shots, while Prospect encountered another cold streak. Maine went ahead by 10. Don Gabbert, fouled by Neubert, hit a free throw for the eventual 11 point victory margin.

Gobeille fouled out with a minute left and left to a standing ovation. He had scored 15 points, his most productive evening of the season. Maine stalled out the last minute, and their third straight victory over Prospect was assured.

NEUBERT, WHO scored 10 points, and Gobeille carried the Knights' attack. Moehling and White, who have been the Knights' scoring leaders all year, did not have a good night. Moehling accounted for 10 points, but White's only two were in the first quarter.

Prospect has four conference games remaining, with Glenbrook North, Deerfield, Glenbrook South, and Forest View.

Knights Rip Glenbrook in Soph Gym Meet

Prospect frosh-soph gymnasts rolled over Glenbrook South, 89-43 Saturday, dominating every event in their romp to victory.

The Knights tallied for six first places; four seconds; four thirds; four fourths; and four fifths.

Winners for Prospect included Wendling (30 points) on the trampoline; Haugen (34), side horse; Liston (31), high bar; Wells (35), parallel bar; Desstefanis (36), rings; and Burger (38), tumbling.

Placing second for Prospect were Bob Anderson (26), side horse; Hardt (28), high bar; Macauley (32), parallel bars; and Coughlin (32), tumbling.

Macauley took three thirds, with 24 points, 25 and 28, respectively, on the side horse and rings and in tumbling. The other third place went to Sestermenn (19) on the trampoline.

Three Games Behind

Lions Fall Twice in Chicagoland Action

It was a "lost weekend" for Ron Feiereisel and his St. Viator varsity basketball team.

The Lions dropped three games off the pace set by St. Patrick with a double loss in Chicagoland Prep League competition.

St. George belted the locals Friday evening, 70-50, with Tony Barone leading a second half assault. DeLaSalle shaded the Lions Saturday, 37-32, rallying in the final period for the victory.

Checked with five points in the first half, Barone collected 17 in the final two periods in pacing the Dragons of Evanston to their 20-point victory.

ST. VIATOR had edged St. George in an earlier meeting, 44-41, but this one didn't follow the defensive pattern. The Dragons held a 30-28 halftime lead but pulled away by 11 with a 21-12 third quarter.

Barone finished with 22 points, hitting 12 straight free throws.

St. Viator was out of rebounding position throughout the game because of a failure to move the ball in close to the basket and as a result the Lions often only had one shot.

CHUCK GRANDT poured through 20 points for St. Viator on six field goals and eight free throws. Jim Murray added 12 on a four and four evening.

"We were just outplayed," Feiereisel summed up. "We let down on defense."

On Saturday evening the DeLaSalle Meteors gained a 37-32 victory, pulling the game out with a fourth period explosion.

St. Viator appeared to have control with a four point lead and only three minutes remaining, but they couldn't hold on.

"THE BIG PLAY came when we had a one-point lead midway in the final quarter," Feiereisel remembered. "They missed the first of a one-and-one free throw attempt but got the rebound and put in the go-ahead basket. Then they stole the ball, got another basket, and took a three-point lead."

It was a control game with the Lions working effectively against the DeLaSalle zone defense. St. Viator held a 19-17 halftime lead and took a 29-25 advantage into the concluding segment.

Grandt took game honors for the losers with 15 points on four field goals and seven straight charity throws. Chuck is only four markers behind teammate Murray now in the conference scoring derby. Jim ranks third with 144 points in nine games.

ST. VIATOR journeys to St. Joseph of Westchester Friday evening and will meet a host St. Ignatius team next Tuesday.

The Lions stand 5-4 in league action and are tied with St. Joseph for third place. St. Patrick (8-1) and DeLaSalle (7-2) are the front runners.

Card Frosh Roll On

Lockwood Scores 32 in 11th Win

Dave Lockwood, who fired in 12 baskets the previous week against York, collected 15 Saturday in leading Arlington's unbeaten frosh 'A' basketball team to a one-sided 75-38 victory over Hinsdale.

Lockwood added two free throws to finish with 32 points in the Cardinals' 11th straight victory of the 1963-64 campaign.

"The boys started slowly but ended up playing a fine game," head coach Ted Ecker reported.

Lockwood, who has registered 46 baskets in his last five games, now has 155 points and a 14.1 ppg. He ranks behind sharpshooting guard Steve Allen, who has 172 and a 15.6 per game mark.

Allen contributed nine baskets to the latest victory. Steve Conley had 11 points and Terry Townley eight.

Score by quarters:

Arlington	13	20	13	29—75
Hinsdale	7	11	10	10—38

Doug Fink poured through 18 points on eight baskets and two free throws as the Cards' frosh 'Bs' bumped Hinsdale, 52-30.

Arlington held a 24-18 halftime advantage and outscored the Imps 12-4 in the third quarter.

Nine boys scored for Bob Knilans' outfit with Bob Hecht and Scott Richey contributing six each and Jim Donchess five.

Score by quarters:

Arlington	12	12	12	16—52

Red Heads to Visit Arlington High Gym On Tuesday, Feb. 11

HERE'S THE SQUAD that will be in the Arlington High School gymnasium Tuesday evening for a special exhibition. The world famous Red Heads, shown with coach and business manager Benny Overman, will battle a group of area coaches in an event sponsored by the Arlington Booster Club.

The Red Heads are coming to town.

In an event sponsored by the Arlington High School Booster Club the Red Heads, America's greatest girls' basketball team, will battle a group of area coaches on Tuesday evening, Feb. 11, at 8 p.m.

The hardwood spectacular will be staged in the Arlington High gymnasium.

The Red Heads were organized in 1936 and have toured throughout the country. They hold attendance records all over the sports world, and have been featured in many magazine articles. The gals also have made several television appearances.

The All American Red Heads play men's competition every night of the week from October until May. Not only are they capable of playing men's teams, they beat them quite often.

By far the most traveled team in girls' basketball, the Red Heads have played to more than 7,000,000 fans in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Alaska and Philippine Islands.

THESE HARDWOOD headliners feature fancy passing, clever ball handling, deceptive play patterns, clever ruses, amusing routines, and good basketball.

In an advance sale tickets will be $1.75 for adults and 75 cents for students. Tickets will be $2 and $1 at the door.

Tickets are on sale at Bowen Hardware in Arlington Heights and at Arlington, Prospect, and Forest View High Schools.

Playing men teams only, playing regular men rules, the Red Heads win more than 100 games each season. They'll try for another victory Tuesday and can expect an interesting battle from some of District 214's own "hardwood magicians!"

VanVeen National Winner

John D. VanVeen Jr., 203 N. Brighton, Arlington Heights, is the national winner of the Old Smuggler Hole-in-One Sweepstakes.

Honored Tuesday at the Key Club, 150 E. Ontario, Chicago, VanVeen received two round trip tickets to Scotland and $1,000 in cash.

Another $1,000 prize went to Lou Sabo, pro at Old Orchard Country Club, who sent in the winning entry. Bob Falkiner, assistant manager of Old Orchard, received the award for Sabo who is in Florida.

The Hole-In-One Sweepstakes is a drawing from approximately 10,000 entries throughout the country.

Thousands of golf professionals fill out cards when players on their courses record aces. These cards are sent to the Old Smuggler Sweepstakes and one name is drawn each year.

VanVeen is the second winner from Illinois in three years.

Bowling Feature At Beverly Lanes

The Paddock All-Stars, composed of five leading bowlers from the Paddock Classic Traveling League, will bowl the Old Fitzgerald team of the Chicago Classic League in an exhibition match this Sunday, Feb. 9, at Beverly Lanes in Arlington Heights.

Competition will get under way at 3 p.m. Everyone is invited and there will be no admission.

The Old Fitzgerald team has compiled many titles through the years. They annexed the ABC and Illinois State crowns in 1963 in addition to ruling the Decatur Classic.

OVER-ALL, THE Old Fitzgerald entry has won three Illinois state team events and two Chicago city titles. Making up the squad are Capt. Otto Niehus, Harry Lippe, Jim Stefanich, Ed Kawolics, and Les Zikes Jr.

Zikes, manager of Beverly Lanes, is also a member of the Paddock Classic division where he sports a 205 average.

Competing for the Paddock All-Stars will be Mike Dinschel of Pioneer Lanes (196), Warren Walter of Gunnell's Lanes (193), Al Jordan of Rolling Meadows Bowl (192), George Sargent of Hamm's Beer (192), and Don Christensen of Brass Rail (191).

Over Prospect

Forest View's Sophs Triumph

Sophomore wrestlers from Forest View toppled Prospect, 28-18, Friday to assure the Falcons a tie for the Mid-Suburban crown.

A win for the Falcons over Glenbrook North Friday night would clinch the sophomore championship for Forest View in the loop.

Taking wins by decisions for the Falcons were Dave Knudsen, 4-0 at 95-pounds; Larry McKisic, 4-2 at 112; Jim Kubik, 4-0 at 120; Ken Andrews, 4-0 at 127; Fred Prete, 7-4 in 180; and Al Gildemeister, 9-2 at heavyweight.

Forest View won on pins by Dennis Konieczki, 3:11 in 103; and Brian Lampert, 5:37 in 165.

Prospect wins came on three pins and one decision. Getting the pins were Rich Bertoglio, 1:48 at 133; Fred Sessions, 5:57 at 138; and Martin DeStefanis, 4:00 at 154. Nick Rutigliano won on an 8-2 decision in the 145-pound class

Maine West Tops Prospect in Two Swimming Meets

Prospect swimmers dropped both parts of their meeting with Maine West Friday, losing the varsity session, 66-29, and the frosh-soph, 64-31.

The Knights, varsity squad captured first places in only two events: Jim Cashmore won in diving, and a 200-yard freestyle relay team of Bob Haase, Mike Donovan, Cashmore and Jay Magnuson set a new school record of 1:39.4.

Another mark for Prospect was set in the 50-yard freestyle when Haase swam it in 25.1 to place third.

Taking seconds for Prospect were Barry Timko, diving; Hugh Wesler, 100-yard butterfly; Donovan, 100-yard freestyle; and Rick Peterson, 100-yard backstroke.

In addition to Haase, other third places for Prospect went to Bob Morton, 200-yard freestyle- Wesler, 200-yard individual medley; John Stitt, 400-yard freestyle; and Jim Smith and Bob Walkley, tying in the 100-yard breaststroke.

The only victory in the frosh-soph segment for Prospect came from a 200-yard freestyle relay team of Mike Donhau, Bob Vigstedt, Bob Krysiak and Gary Wetendorf.

Prospect also captured six second places and four thirds.

Arlington LL Sign-Up Scheduled

Registration for play in the 1964 season of the Arlington Heights Boys Baseball League will be held on Saturdays, Feb. 22 and 29, Mert Taylor, league administrator announced this week.

The sign-ups will be held in the downstairs room of Recreation Park Fieldhouse from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. All boys who will be eight years old before August 1 and will not have reached their 17th birthdays by that date are eligible to play. Those boys who did not play in 1963 must present a birth certificate at time of registration.

Fees of $6 for the first boy and $3 for all others in a family are payable at registration. A parent or legal guardian must attend the sign-up. Boys who live within the village limits of Arlington Heights are eligible to play in Arlington Heights Boys Baseball League.

Niles Units Bump Cards In Swimming

Inman, Tucker Shine For Arlington Tankers

The two Niles schools, West and East, took the measure of Arlington's varsity swimmers in recent competition.

Niles West bumped John Gardner's Cardinals 72-23 and Niles East rolled to a 74-21 victory.

Although Arlington dropped the two meets, there were some highlights in individual performances.

Sophomore Dick Tucker set a school record in the 50 yard freestyle against Niles West and then came back seven days later to eclipse his own mark by two-tenths of a second. Tucker's record now stands at :24.3.

GREG INMAN established a new mark in the 100 backstroke, covering the distance in 1:03.8 against Niles West to snap the record of 1:04.9 he set in the Riverside meet.

Tucker and Inman gave Gardner's crew their only firsts against Niles West. Greg added a victory in the 200 individual medley (2:27.9) to his backstroke triumph.

TUCKER AND Inman again headed their specialties in competition with Niles East. Dick turned in his record-setting :24.3 clocking in the 50 yard freestyle, and Inman ruled the 100 backstroke in 1:05.0. Greg was second in the individual medley.

Also posting seconds for Arlington in the two meets were Greg Stafford (200 freestyle) and Chuck Fenner (100 butterfly).

The two Niles schools also toppled Arlington on a frosh-soph level. See separate story.

Preparations continued this week for one of the most unique events ever held in the Northwest Suburban area.

"Everything is on schedule," Marty Weber, owner of Striking Lanes in Mount Prospect, reported as he completed the numerous details involved in a special sports day.

A unique event saluting the stars of the sporting world has been arranged for the 32-lane bowling establishment at Golf and Elmhurst roads in Mount Prospect.

Festivities will get under way at 1:30 p.m. on Sunday, Feb. 16.

"CHICAGO HAS had a tremendous year in sports and this is one way of recognizing some of those who took an active part," Weber emphasized again. "This will be a community effort in a sporting theme."

Weber has planned this special sports program with Striking Lanes manager Vic Helfer and Dick Christian. They've lined up an impressive list of sports celebrities for the Sunday program.

Striking Lanes is presenting the sports feature in cooperation with the villages of Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect, Des Plaines, and Elk Grove. Several village officials, including the four mayors, will be in attendance.

THERE WILL BE representatives from the Chicago Bears, Black Hawks, Cubs, White Sox, Northwestern, Loyola, and DePaul. Special exhibitions will be staged by Marion Ladewig in bowling and Jimmy Caras in billiards, recognized champions in their respective sports. The list doesn't end there.

Weber plans to honor these sports figures with special plaques in recognition of their "outstanding achievements." He has arranged a program to begin at 1:30 p.m. with the public invited to see in person some of the headline-makers of the sports world.

"We'll have chairs set up for the public," Weber emphasized, "and they'll be able to see the ceremony honoring these sports celebrities. Everyone is invited. There will be no charge for admission."

PROFESSIONAL football will have the biggest representation at the sports day. From the champion Chicago Bears will be Johnny Morris, Ed O'Bradovich, Rudy Bukich, Mike Ditka, Bill George, Mike Pyle, and Joe Marconi. George Blanda of the American Football League Houston Oilers will make an appearance as will George Bork of Northern Illinois University, the nation's leading passer who has signed to play in the Canadian League.

"We wanted to get Bork," Weber pointed out, "because he is a local (Mount Prospect) boy and because he had such an outstanding year in small college football."

If you're a baseball fan there will be Dave Nicholson, J. C. Martin, and Johnny Buzhardt of the Chicago White Sox and coach Rip Collins and Bob Will of the Cubs. Bobby Hull and Stan Mikita of the Black Hawks are slated to make an appearance.

CHICAGO AREA colleges also will be represented. New head coach Alex Agase will be there from Northwestern University. Loyola's George Ireland and DePaul's Ray Meyer, head coaches of two collegiate cage powers, will also be at Striking Lanes.

Lloyd Pettit, Jack Quinlan, Wally Phillips, and Milo Hamilton will represent the radio and television industry.

A special two hour program is planned by Weber complete with the Prospect High School band under the direction of Ed Volz and the Forest View High Jazz combo.

Watch these sports pages for the complete program next week.

Hinsdale Sophs Red-Hot in Win

Hinsdale's red - hot sophomores fired at a 51 per cent clip from the floor and hit 13 straight free throws Friday evening in posting a 49-39 West Suburban victory over Arlington High.

The host Imps never trailed, taking a 14-7 lead at the end of the period with a string of seven points in 58 seconds.

Hinsdale held a 26-20 halftime advantage, but Arlington fought back and knotted the count at 27-all with 3:55 left in the third period.

Jon Keys hit the tying basket, but Hinsdale quickly took the lead again and held on through the final 11 minutes.

SCOTT PFUETZE was the big man for Hinsdale with seven baskets and seven free throws for 21 points. The clever backcourt operator hit nine markers in the concluding period.

John Blomquist tossed in 14, eight from the free throw line, and Jim Jorgensen dialed 13 for the Cardinals. Bob Baker's outfit had the shots — 53 — but connected on only 14 for a 26 per cent standard.

The loss was Arlington's seventh in nine West Suburban contests this winter. The Cards will entertain Maine East (0-9) Friday evening and journey to Downers Grove (7-2) Saturday.

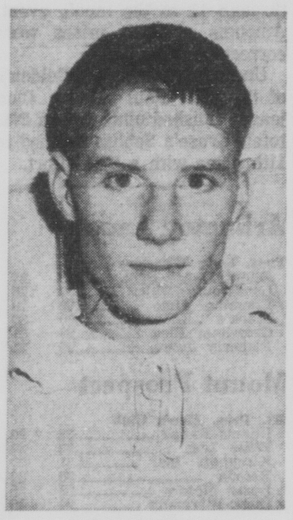
Cards Split In League Mat Tests

Arlington Bumps York, Falls to Downers Grove

Arlington's varsity wrestlers emerged with a split in weekend competition, edging York before falling to powerful Downers Grove.

Julius Fliehler's Cardinals slipped by the Dukes Friday, 23-19, taking the lead for good with Bob Conti's win in the 120-pound division.

Downers just had too much strength for the locals Saturday, yielding decisions in only two bouts en route to a one-sided 34-6 conquest.



BOB CONTI
Posts Two Wins

WITH THE weekend split Arlington now stands 3-3 in league action with La Grange coming to town Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. The Cards stand 8-6 over-all.

Scott Brown's pin at 95 pounds got the Cardinals off to a fast start against York, but the Dukes pulled ahead thanks to two straight decisions.

Conti, who authored two victories during the weekend and now owns a 14-3 record this winter, blanked York's John Caviness 4-0 at 120, and Arlington had an advantage it never relinquished.

DOUG DUSS (127), John Hermes (133), and Bill Anderson (138) picked up wins for Arlington before York counted again on a tie at 145. Anderson ran his record to 17-1 with a snappy pin in 3:02 at 138.

After Ken Rozek's tie at 145 Arlington didn't score again until 180 when Randy Opela fashioned a 0-0 deadlock with Jim Zakos.

York concluded its scoring as Mike Pikey nipped Mark Frase 8-7 in the heavyweight division.

IT WAS ALL Downers Grove Saturday as the rugged Trojans coasted to a 34-6 triumph.

Only Cardinals able to pick up victories were Bob Conti at 120 and Hermes at 133, both boys collecting their second wins of the weekend.

In a featured bout Downers Grove's touted Jim Gustafson, an all-league matmen as a junior, blanked Arlington's Anderson 5-0 at 138 pounds. The loss was only Bill's second in 19 matches this winter.

Announce Pairings For Cage Playoffs

Pairings for the Illinois State High School Association basketball district and regional tournaments were announced this week with 735 squads entered in the 1964 playoffs.

At the Palatine Regional Arlington High School drew the top seed and will play host Palatine in the first game on Monday evening, March 2.

In a second game Monday Mundelein will tangle with the Wauconda District winner.

On Tuesday evening at Palatine second-seeded Prospect will meet Forest View, and Barrington will battle St. Viator.

Monday's winners will play Wednesday and Tuesday's winners Thursday in semi-final action with the championship tussle Friday, March 6.

AT ELMHURST (York) the host Dukes drew the top seed and will meet Fenton in a first round game Monday. West Leyden and Glenbard West will get together in a second contest on the opening night.

Other first round games at York find Glenbard East meeting Lake Park and Willowbrook testing Immaculate Conception.

District play will be held from February 24-28; Regional from March 2 - 6; Sectional from March 11-13; and the State Finals March 17, 20-21.

Prospect's Wrestlers Top Falcons

Prospect High varsity wrestlers knocked off neighboring Forest View, 28-16, Friday, with the Knights taking most of their wins in the lower-and middle-weight classes.

Omar Aviles of Prospect took the opening match, 13-8, over Karl Meisenheimer, but then the Falcons countered with Larry Andrew pinning Bill Kalvog, 7-0, at 103-pounds in 4:27.

Forest View, though, then went without gaining another point for three matches. Prospect's Ray McKinnon, Bill Becker and Mike Phillips took decisions over Terry Hayden, Arnie Perez and Gary Hodson, 7-0, 6-0 and 9-5, respectively.

THE FALCONS got back into the win-column with a 6-4 decision over George Freeland in the 133-pound class by Bob Jennings.

Trailing 12-8, the Falcons began to threaten when they followed Jennings' victory with another by George Derby, 3-0, over Bob Virta.

Forest View again slipped, though, and the Knights swept the next three matches, with Jim McMillan decisioning Joe Gebhardt, 8-0; Chuck Bobinette defeating Coon, 6-4; and Bill Murphy pinning Pete Phillips, 2:13.

The two schools split on the last two matches, with Falcon Chuck Lemke pinning John Beier, 4:21, and Knight Mark Pasdiora pinning Ray Goertz, 3:28.

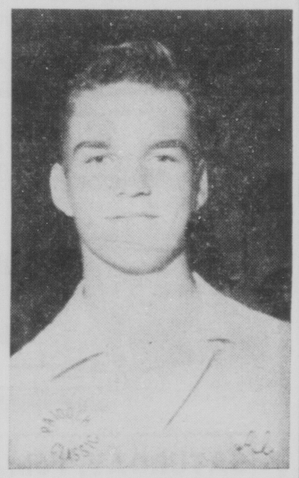
Borvig, Haase Pace RM Bowl To Big Night

Rolling Meadows Enters Records for Game, Series

It was wild week of high scores on the sheets and musical chairs in the standings. There is a new leader, and a new second place club. One of last week's leaders slipped all the way to sixth place.

But all this activity in the Paddock Classic Traveling League at Beverly Lanes last Saturday evening paled in the brilliance of the performance turned in by the Rolling Meadows Bowl team.



AL HAASE
685 Series

The RM crew jumped into third place in the all time PCTL standings on both team game and team series lists. The ingredients of Rolling Meadows 4-0 victory over Jeffery Lanes were games of 1155-987-1033, good for a 3175 series.

THE 1155 RANKS behind the 1191 turned in by the Casablanca team in the 1959-60 season and the 1158 carded by the Cook County Mobile Homes club in 1960-61.

The 3175 trails the 3195 rolled by the same Pentane Gas aggregation of 1959-60 and the 3187 chalked up by the same Cook County Mobile homes team that figures in the game records.

The first game scores showed Paul Borvig with a 258, Norb Leja, 253; Al Haase and Gene Koshinski 221's, and Al Jordan, 202. Series scores found Borvig and Haase with 685's, Leja, 617; Jordan, 604, and Koshinski, 584.

For Jeffery Lanes, which turned in its best team game of the season (983) in the opener but lost it by almost 200 pins, Hec Healey had a 633 and George Radke, a 605.

INCLUDED IN Rolling Meadows' big night was a jump in the standings. RM now stands in a second place tie with Hamm's Beer, a scant half point off the pace set by new leader, The Brass Rail Restaurant.

The Railers took over the top spot by virtue of their 3-1 victory over Gunnell's. A big 1083 in the third game gave them a slim 16 pin advantage for the total pins point.

Don Christensen fired a 197-223-211—631 to lead the way and teammate Fred Weseman was right behind with a 200-200-227—627. Hot as they were, both were topped by two members of the losing Gunnell's team. Warren Walter carded a 636, Mike Wagner a 633. Walter's included a 240, Wagner's a 231.

Hamm's Beer, tied for the lead a week ago, hung close to the lead with a 2-2 split against Morton Pontiac. Bill Heerdt had a 615 for the winners including a 242. The league's individual leader, Les Zikes had a 642 for Morton's. Game three was a 246.

PIONEER LANES turned in the second blitz of the night, a 4-0 shutout over the fading Casares Pro Bowl team. Don Jacobs (644) and Mike Dinschel (615) led the winners.

Saturday night at Gunnell's, the hosts draw the assignment of cooling off Rolling Meadows, Jeffery Lanes meets the Brass Rail, Pioneer Lanes encounters Hamm's Beer and Morton Pontiac faces Casares.

Kelly Holds Lead

Pace-Setting Squads Post Easy Wins

Kelly Olds needed a big evening in the Paddock Women's Classic Traveling League. They got one at the expense of Morton Pontiac.

In a closely-packed division where any stumble could result in a pronounced fall in the standings Kelly went into Saturday's action knowing that the second and third place outfits were tackling second division entries.

Second place Irv's and third place Steve's Restaurant both came through with 3-1 victories, but that still wasn't enough to gain any ground in the gals' competition.

KELLY OLDS blitzed Morton Pontiac 4-0 to extend its advantage to four points in second half action.

Kelly clearly outclassed Morton in their headliner, fashioning an evening's best series of 2665 with a 931 third game. Donna Dubs paced the front-runners with a 574, and she had games of 202 and 212.

Also helping out for Kelly were Agnes Saula (544), Rosemary Babich (522), Maxine Moehling (517), and Edith Wayne (508).

Ruthmary Baurhyte was high for Morton with a 517 series. Judy Reed opened at 221 but slumped to 137 and 127 for a 485 total.

NANCY DIETZ took honors for the evening with a 579 series as she paced Irv's Fire Extinguisher Co. to a 3-1 conquest of River Rand. Nancy posted a 223 first game.

Ethel Juenger topped River Rand with a 539 and Hazel Stieger contributed a 523.

In final action Saturday Steve's Restaurant belted Charlotte's Pizza 3-1 with Louise Lass' 554 leading the way. Ann Neumann was right behind with a 551.

Shirley Schultz (558) and Winnie Lohse (552) were the pacesetters for Charlotte's.

The standings:

Unpredictable Cards Bumped in Overtime At Hinsdale, 66-58

by BOB FRISK

Arlington lived up to its unpredictable label Friday evening in Hinsdale.

For three quarters the Cardinals gave the host Red Devils fits on both offense and defense.

Ted Wissen's crew dominated play after a tight first period and held a 48-37 lead with 7:40 remaining.

Hinsdale won in overtime, 66-58.

With the Cards enjoying an 11-point advantage early in the concluding segment Hinsdale fans sat back and waited for what appeared to be certain defeat. Cardinal fans saw the end of a frustrating four-game losing streak.

YOU COULDN'T get too excited when the Devils' Chip Campbell fired in a 20-footer that cut Arlington's lead to nine points. After all, Chip is a fine outshooter and was due to uncork a few bombs. He had been effectively harrassed by the Cardinal defense.

Campbell repeated thirty seconds later, and you marvelled at his touch. But the goal created only mild concern from the visitors' side of the gymnasium.

It was that third Campbell basket—again from 20 feet—that brought Hinsdale fans to their feet.

The Devils were down by five now, 48-43, and coming strong.

HINSDALE didn't pass the Cardinals in the wild final quarter but claimed a deadlock with 26 seconds remaining on a 10-foot jumper by Bob Armstrong. They dominated the overtime and walked off with a stunning 66-58 victory.

A dejected group of Arlington players showered in silence after this defeat. "I've never seen anything like it," head man Wissen remarked. "We had them on the run and then just let down."

Wissen saw his club explode in the second quarter and carry a 30-21 lead into the dressing room at the break. Arlington held a 14-13 advantage at the end of the opening stanza.

THE CARDS ran off a string of tenstraight pointsinthat of ten straight points in that second quarter, turning a one-point deficit into a 26-17 lead in four minutes. Jeff Beckman hit two 10-footers, Bob Conner slipped in a layup, Jim Jakubiec turned a steal into a layup, and Paul Splittorff fired home a 20-foot jumper.

Hinsdale battled back on two long goals by Campbell, but Conner and Splittorff responded for the Cards with Paul hitting a 10-footer at the buzzer.

Arlington held its lead in the third period with Splittorff and Conner doing most of the work and Conner continuing his effective work on the defensive boards. The locals built up a 12-point cushion midway in this stanza.

A BASKET BY Charley Lloyd gave Arlington a 48-37 lead with 7:40 left in the game, and that's when Mr. Campbell and his Hinsdale associates went to work. In two minutes the Red Devils were within two, 49-47.

Trailing by two points with 51 seconds remaining, Hinsdale set up a play. Armstrong got the ball at the 26 second mark, and he put up a 10-foot jumper that had eyes. Arlington quickly called a time out to plan its final strategy.

Beckman and Jakubiec worked the ball in the backcourt, and the Cards took another time out with 14 seconds left. In the hectic windup the visitors failed to put in the clinching goal and the stage was set for a three-minute overtime.

JOHN HAARLOW hit from the side to open the extra stanza, and the Devils were off and running. Arlington never regained the lead as Hinsdale pulled away with a 12-4 bulge and final 66-58 decision.

Campbell was high for both clubs with 26 points, and he fired in six baskets and four free throws in the final 11 minutes.

Splittorff zeroed in for 10 baskets and one free throw for Arlington. Conner added 15 and Lloyd ten.

The box score:

Forest View Cagers Bounce Back, 64-53

by MARV PRELLBERG, JR.

Ken Arneson's Forest View varsity cage squad bounced back from a heartbreaking overtime loss to arch rival Prospect High on Friday night and took the measure of Glenbrook South 64-53 in a Saturday night tilt at the Glenbrook fieldhouse.

One interesting facet of this Falcon victory was the near perfect free throw shooting display put on by the Forest View cagers.

The Falcon marksmen stepped up to the foul line for a total of 24 free throws, and they connected on 22 of them. This free throw record was quite a contrast to the Falcons' meager six for 18 performance the previous night against Prospect.

HOWEVER, IT was a good thing that Forest View had this exceptionally fine night from the free throw line in the Glenbrook contest. The Titans themselves had a very respectable night by hitting on 27 of 35 attempts, which netted them over one-half of their evening's point total.

Glenbrook South took the lead on Chuck Stewart's driving layup shot to open the scoring in the first quarter, and the Titans held on to a slim lead until a five point Forest View splurge in the closing minutes of the period brought about a 9-9 tie.

The Falcons charged into the lead in the first part of the second period, and, with Darrell Fenton leading the way with eight points, took a 25-20 margin over the Titans when the first half came to a close. Forest View's last six points came via the charity stripe.

COACH ARNESON'S charges protected their lead in the second half, and at one point in the third quarter the Falcons had a 12 point margin. Joe Mueller and Pat Dunnigan were big factors in keeping the Forest View attack rolling in the second half, as each poured in 11 points during this time.

Mueller led Forest View to the 64-53 win with a 15 point effort, but Dunnigan and Fenton were close behind with 14 markers each. Glenbrook South's Stewart matched the 15 point effort of Mueller to lead the loosers' cause.

The win gave Forest View a record of three wins and three losses in the Mid-Suburban conference standings and a record of four victories and 11 defeats for the season.

Matmen in Slump

Arlington's sophomore wrestlers have been having their troubles in West Suburban competition.

The young Cardinals dropped a pair over the weekend to York and Hinsdale and now have fallen in five straight league meets and six over-all.

Last week York hammered the Cards Friday, 43-5, and Downers Grove came up with a 39-8 decision Saturday.

Picking up the Cardinal points against York were Dave Peters with a 5-5 deadlock at 120 pounds and Kirk Wolter with a 4-0 decision at 138.

Arlington fared a little better against Downers with decisions by Peters (120) and Chip Douglas (127) and a tie by Mike Downar (165).

In a recent match with Hinsdale the host Imps racked up a 23-16 victory. Collecting Arlington's markers were Tom MacCarthy (95), Peters (120), Douglas (127), Dave Gooding (133), and Downar (165).

Neubert Registers Deciding Points in Knights' 45-42 Win

by MARV PRELLBERG, JR.

The stage was set for an exciting basketball event last Friday evening when cross-town rivals Forest View and Prospect squared off in the Forest View fieldhouse for an important Mid Suburban contest.

The gym was filled to near capacity when the tip-off got under way around 8:30 p.m., and for approximately one-and-one-half hours the Falcon fieldhouse was filled with a type of pandemonium that had never heretofore transpired within the two-year-old school.

When the final second ticked off the scoreboard clock, the pre-game favorite Prospect High had emerged a 45-42 overtime victor. Forest View, even in defeat, had done itself proud.

THE GAME was one in which the lead changed frequently, actually 19 times during the five periods of play. Each team had only average nights in the field goal shooting department with Forest View hitting on 40 per cent of its attempts against 36 per cent for Prospect. The deciding statistic was in the free throw shooting category.

Prospect converted their charity tosses at only a 50 per cent rate by making good on 11 of 22 attempts. However, the Falcons fared even worse at the charity stripe, as they made only six of 18 attempts.

Forest View's worst performance came in the second half and during the overtime period when only one of 10 free throw tries found its way into the net.

This type of free throw shooting pulled the rug out from under Forest View's determined upset bid.

FORWARD DARRELL Fenton led coach Ken Arneson's Falcons into a 14-13 first quarter lead with three field goals. Forest View lost and then regained the lead a couple of times during the second period of play, and in the last minute-and-a-half of the quarter moved out into the biggest lead of the game 27-22.

Prospect's Dave White cut this lead to three points with a jump-shot, and, with only 20 seconds left in the half, White broke up the Falcons' last shot strategy by stealing the ball and scoring on a lay-up to make the count 27-26 at halftime.

The nip-and-tuck battle continued during the third quarter and resulted in a 34-34 tie at the end of the period. This pattern continued into the final quarter, and with approximately three minutes remaining in this frame Forest View took a 42-40 lead on Pat Dunnigan's basket.

FOREST VIEW went into a stall game at this point and protected this lead until only 22 seconds remained in the game. Prospect's Dave Gobeille was fouled in a scramble under the basket after the Falcons' Dick Anderson had missed on a one-and-one free throw toss.

Gobeille hit on the first charity toss to make the count 42-41. His second shot bounced off the rim, but the Knights took control of the rebound and Fenton's fifth foul of the game brought the Knights' Don Neubert to the line with only 16 seconds remaining.

Neubert tied the score at 42-42 on the first shot, but Forest View's Anderson grabbed the rebound on the missed second attempt, and the Falcons called a time out with three seconds showing on the clock.

WHEN TIME resumed, Garron Kokai took the pass and fired up a jump shot from the side, but it bounced off the rim as the buzzer sounded forcing the game into a three minute overtime.

Forest View took control of the ball after the tip-off and went into the stall game in order to work for a one shot victory. However, the agile Neubert picked off a Falcon pass with only 30 seconds left, dribbled in for the game deciding basket and added a free throw when he was fouled on the shot.

DON NEUBERT
Overtime Hero

The Falcons had two free throw attempts during the remaining seconds of play, the final coming on a technical called against Prospect, but both were missed.

Falcons Post First Victory In Gymnastics

Forest View varsity gymnasts edged Glenbrook North, 68-64, Saturday to capture their first win in the school's two-year history.

Tied 55-55 going into the last event, the Falcons pulled it out when senior Ralph Kaspari and sophomore Fred DeFalco tied for first in tumbling to earn 12 more points.

With another point from taking sixth in tumbling, the Falcons added a total of 13 in the event. "They (the tumblers) outreached themselves," said a smiling coach Gay Hughes.

Kaspari and DeFalco tied with 85 points apiece in the decisive match. DeFalco also won the trampoline event with 105 points.

OTHER WINNERS for Forest View were Steve Kretschmer, earning 85 points atop the side horse, and Garth Freeman, with 104 markers, on the horizontal bar.

Three Falcons also placed second in the meeting. Dave Hippensteel took one with 97 points on the trampoline, while Marty Sidor (103) and Dick Antti (79) copped the other two on the horizontal and rings, respectively. Antti, in addition, tied in the side horse event for third place with 67 points.

The summary:

Wright Victory Gives JVs Win

The junior-varsity wrestling team of Forest View slipped past Prospect, 20-19, Friday when Bill Wright decisioned Frank Abboreno in the heavyweight match.

Trailing 19-17 going into the match, the Falcons found everything was "all-Wright" when the junior took a 4-1 decision over Abboreno, a soph.

Wright earned a take down and one reversal for the decision.

Taking other decisions for the Falcons were Fred Lindemann at 95-pounds; Steve DeHaven Rich Peluso, 112; Dean Jacobsen, 127; and Mickey Colovos, 154.

There was only one pin in the meeting, gained by the Knights' Doug White over Mike Capone, 155 in 120-pound class.

The Knights also took decisions by Don Gaeco, 133; John Mellen, 145; Bob Davis, 165; and Earl Smith, 150.

There was one draw when Forest View's Harry Hughes tied Prospect's Liga, 0-0, at 138-pounds.

It Didn't Last

Seven days after Illinois' Dave Downey fired in 22 baskets in a losing cause at Indiana the Hoosiers' Jimmy Rayl collected 23. Rayl's standard currently ranks as the Big Ten record.

Card Sophs Win 10th in Gymnastics

Arlington's unbeaten sophomore gymnasts rolled to their tenth straight victory Saturday afternoon, routing a visiting Hinsdale squad, 78-54.

Wayne Selvig's classy Cardinals recovered from a 10-point deficit after two events and recorded sweeps on three of the final four pieces for the decision.

Versatile Bert Schmitt again paced the Card sophs, collecting first on the horizontal bar, parallel bar, and rings for 21 markers.

Jerry Fontecchio ruled the tumbling event to round out the Arlington firsts.

Picking up seconds for the Cardinals were Steve LeVan (side horse), Lee Combs (horizontal bar), Tom Dunn (parallel bar), Roy Rettburg (rings), and Dick Atwater (tumbling).

Forest View Wins Soph Gym Meet

Forest View frosh-soph gymnasts ran neck-and-neck with Glenbrook North for four events Saturday and then broke the contest wide open in the last two to win, 78-54.

Leading by a slim 46-42 margin, the young Falcons outpointed the losers 16-6 on the rings and 16-6 again in tumbling.

Taking firsts for Forest View in the meet were Bill Glab on the trampoline; Greg Shornden on the parallel bars; Bob Johnson on the rings; and Bob Klopp in tumbling.

The Falcons also took four third places; two fourths; one fifth; and three sixths.

Lists Who May Use Simple Tax Form

Taxpayers may use the simple card Form 1040A in filing their 1963 federal income tax returns if their incomes are less than $10,000, E. C. Coyle Jr., director of Internal Revenue for the Chicago district, said this week.

Husband and wife may file a joint return on Form 1040A if their combined income is under $10,000.

TAXPAYERS whose incomes were less than $10,000 and consisted entirely of wages subject to withholding, or entirely of such wages and not more than $200 total of other wages, dividends, and interest, may use the Form 1040A.

Taxpayers who use the Form 1040A must take the standard deduction allowed in lieu of contributions, interest payments, medical expenses and other itemized deductions.

As in past years, taxpayers with incomes under $5,000 may figure their own tax or have Internal Revenue do it for them.

COYLE SAID taxpayers cannot use Form 1040A if they (1) claim status as "Head of Household" or "Surviving Spouse"; (2) claim credits for dividends received or retirement income; (3) claim exclusion for "sick pay"; (4) paid an estimated tax during the year; (5) claim travel, transportation or other expenses; (6) do not use the cash method; (7) are nonresident aliens; (8) are delinquent in filing their returns; (9) are subject to self-employment tax; or (10) itemize deductions, or if spouse itemizes deductions on a separate return; (11) file on other than a calendar year basis, and (12) claim exemptions for dependents based on multiple support agreements.

If the taxpayer computes his own tax and if there is tax due, a check or money order, payable to Internal Revenue Service, must accompany the return.

Document 5107 which furnishes more detailed information on this subject is available upon request from the Internal Revenue Service. (A14

Advances Noted in Equal Housing Drive

by SHERWOOD ROSS
(Third of a Series on Housing)

Suburbanites should roll out the welcome wagon for new Negro families, says Roger W. Nathan, executive director of the Illinois Human Relations Commission.

"Moving from one place to another is a traumatic experience under normal conditions. For Negro families, seeking decent housing in all-white towns or communities, it is extremely trying. They must be made to feel welcome," says, "or we betray our American ideals."

Nathan believes there is growing sentiment for equal housing opportunities for Negroes in many communities which, heretofore, haven't given the problem much thought. The recent declaration by Winnetka home owners for fair play in housing appears to bear out Nathan's viewpoint. In Western Springs, another suburb, clergymen have taken a similar stand.

Sherwood Ross

Illinois, he says, now has 70 human relations councils, (twice as many as 1962), prompted by the turbulent changes in racial events last year. Peoria and Freeport have fair housing resolutions pending and Chicago, for the first time in its history, has passed an ordinance prohibiting real estate brokers from discriminating against Negroes, a long overdue reform.

In Chicago, where Negroes have been consistently barred from 42 or 75 communities, the City Human Relations Commission is entrusted with the machinery for hearing complaints, just now starting to trickle in. In Cook County, of 115 suburbs, only 11 have more than 1,000 Negroes, according to the U.S. Census for 1960.

SAYS NATHAN, "A state fair housing law is needed desperately. We're 80 years behind the times. We've talked about voluntary action for so long but it just hasn't materialized." Nathan observes that there has been some tendency on the part of Negroes to "stay together," a characteristic of many minority groups. "But those who want to get out of the ghetto have been rejected so often that, in many cases, they've simply given up. It's up to fair-minded white citizens, in the city and suburbs alike, to roll out the welcome wagon."

The state director says that human relations councils could help encourage law and order when Negro families move in; that they can urge town councils to pass laws affirming policies of housing equality; and that they can debunk myths about Negroes - such as the one that property values "fall" if Negro families enter a neighborhood.

Other developments which appear to be building up steam for the movement of Negroes to suburban towns are these:

Negroes aren't "running scared" since Rev. Martin Luther King and other leaders led them into the streets to protest for their rights. It is their feeling that it is dignified to demand all the rights of citizenship and undignified to deny them.

—Many seek work in suburban offices.

—INTERRACIAL and church groups are urging Negroes to integrate suburban communities. Typical of these are HOME, Inc. (Housing Opportunities Made Equal), the American Friends Service Committee and the Urban League's Council of Religious Leaders.

—A number of old-line suburbs are suffering from high vacancy rates, at least in rental housing. Middle-income families would provide them, and their merchants, with a financial shot-in-the-arm.

—Public opinion is shifting. The "Not Next Door" advocates have been taking a serious beating in the press. Suburbanites who are indifferent frequently would rather have a Negro family move in than chance a name-smearing fight like the one that made Deerfield a dirty word from coast to coast.

—In the executive-class suburbs, where income and education levels are high, open-minded elements have been making strong cases for, at the very least, token integration. In these suburbs, where residents feel "secure," the arrival of Negro families will not harm their "prestige." Their "prestige" does not depend on anything so tenuous as a color line.

—THE NEGRO move-ins would, of necessity, be of the kind who could afford the homes and apartments in a suburb. These middle-income and upper-income families are culturally very much like their white counterparts. Any talk of "lowering property values" or "increasing delinquency problems" would be strictly the handiwork of demagogues. It hasn't happened in Skokie or other suburbs.

It would be deplorable if Illinois got another black-and-blue eye a la Deerfield over housing integration at a time when it is struggling to attract new industries. Human relations councils are our best hope of averting such a catastrophe. (A14

Expect to Use Herrick House About April 1

The first steps have been taken toward removing dependent children from the Audy Home in Chicago where they long have been housed with delinquents, according to George A. Ranney Jr., chairman of the Citizens Committee on the Family Court.

"The removal of dependent children from the Audy Home will now be possible through the establishment of a facility for the temporary care of dependent and neglected children at Herrick House near Bartlett. We hope that Herrick House will be ready for occupancy about April 1," Ranney said.

He made a progress report to some 500 citizens and friends of the Illinois Children's Home and Aid Society at the society's 80th annual meeting Jan. 30.

The citizens committee was established by the Circuit Court of Cook County in 1962 to survey the needs of the Family Court, to make recommendations for the court's improvement and to see that those recommendations were carried out. (A-14

Motor Club

Gives Rules for Car Care, City Driving

The gentle, slow, stop-and-go kind of life typical of today's in-town drivers is the worst kind of life a car can have, in the judgment of top automotive and petroleum engineers.

Water, acids, carbon ash and other contaminating products of combustion collect in all car engines, but don't have a chance to be driven out during short shopping or business trips.

CARL F. KRIEG, regional manager of Allstate Motor Club says that by following these few simple rules and special maintenance needs peculiar to city driving you can avoid unnecessary wear of your car's engine:

1. Get in your car and go, instead of idling or racing the engine in an attempt to warm it up quickly, as this only circulates cold oil which can damage expensive engine parts.

2. Drive about five miles before using the heater so as to not delay engine warmup.

3. Take your car out on the highway often for a half hour run at maximum permissible speeds.

"THESE DRIVING practices will help keep maintenance costs down, clean up the engine and make it perform with greater pep," Krieg says.

Special maintenance practices also should be carried out by in-town motorists to avoid unnecessary engine breakdown.

The Allstate Motor Club recommends that you change your car's oil and oil filter regularly. Unless your manufacturer recommends otherwise, oil should be changed every 60 days in the summer and every 30 days in the winter, with never more than 2,000 miles between changes.

Oil filters should be checked each time you change oil and replaced when your serviceman advises.

GREASE JOBS also should be done on the basis of time rather than mileage, with never more than 2,000 miles between lubrication jobs. Drivers in central or northern states should have their cars lubricated every month between November and April and at least twice each summer. At this time it is also a good idea to have the exhaust system checked for rust and leaks.

A battery capacity test rounds off the list of maintenance tasks. This test will tell you the exact condition of your battery and can predict possible future troubles. During severely cold weather, a slow charge of your battery is recommended every two or three weeks. (BB

Kunze Appointed Promotion Director

Walter E. Kunze Jr., 534 S. Lincoln Lane, Arlington Heights, has been named director of promotion planning and engineering services for the Portland Cement Assoc.

Kunze will direct the activities of five promotion bureaus and the association's personnel training program.

He joined the Portland Cement Assoc. in August, 1952, as a structural engineer in its structural and railways bureau. He became assistant manager of that bureau in 1958 and the following year was made manager of personnel training. He was named manager of the structural and railways bureau in January, 1960.

PRIOR TO joining the association, Kunze was a structural designer with the consulting engineering firm of Metcalf and Eddy, Boston, and Toltz, King and Day, St. Paul, Minn. He holds a bachelor of science degree in civil engineering from The Citadel, Charleston, S.C., and a master of science degree in civil engineering from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

WALTER E. KUNZE

He is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, the Reinforced Concrete Research Council, the American Concrete Institute, the National Society of Professional Engineers and the Illinois Society of Professional Engineers. He is a registered professional engineer in South Carolina.

This past summer, Kunze was a member of a three-man association team which surveyed damage caused by the devastating earthquake of July 26 at Skopje, Yugoslavia. (BB

Says Tax Report Must Include Extra Income

E. C. Coyle Jr., district director of Internal Revenue, reminds taxpayers that extra income must be included in their 1963 federal tax returns.

He pointed out that interest on savings accounts and U. S. savings bonds, tips, most dividents, profits from hobbies and from sales of property are all taxable income.

The taxpayer should read the form and instructions which list the various items of income that must be reported, Coyle said. As a general rule, all income from all sources is taxable, unless specificially excepted by law.

Taxpayers who fail to report all taxable income will have to pay any additional tax due as well as interest of 6 per cent. They may also be subject to penalties. (BB

Realty Firm Offers Nationwide Market

F.B.K. Inc., Realtors, 123 S. State Road, Arlington Heights, now offers a nationwide referral service to prospective home buyers and sellers.

Through membership in Realty Programming Corp. and its monthly publication, "Homes for Living," FBK assists industrial firms in the relocation of employes, according to Don Florence, sales manager.

This service helps individual sellers by displaying their homes from coast to coast to prospective home buyers who plan to move to this area, Florence said. It also offers persons living here who plan to move to another state an opportunity to select a home prior to moving.

DON FLORENCE

THE F.B.K. SALES manager estimates this exposes a home to 35 per cent more prospects.

"Homes for Living," issued monthly, contains complete descriptive information and an exterior photo of each home. The publication also contains a map of the particular city and information about the real estate firm in the city offering this service, Florence explained. It is mailed to other member real estate firms throughout the country.

F.B.K. is the only firm in this area offering this service, he said.

Bruning Co. Introduces New Copier

What the manufacturer describes as the first completely automatic diazo machine for general purpose office copying has been introduced by Charles Bruning Co., of Mount Prospect, Ill.

The Copyflex 285, as the new machine is called, employs a magnetic retention device which retains the original on the cylinder until a pre-set number of copies of the master is made. Sensitized copy material is fed automatically.

The operator simply inserts the original in a carrier that has metal strips along the edges, sets a dial for any number of copies desired, presses the automatic feed button and feeds the carrier into the machine. There is nothing more to do.

For complete information on the new Copyflex 285, contact the marketing - promotion department, Charles Bruning Co., 1800 W. Central Road, Mount Prospect. (BB

Exhibit Cardinal's Stamps

Marshall Field & Co.'s Old Orchard store will exhibit portions of the world famous stamp collection of Francis Cardinal Spellman from today (Thursday) through Saturday, Feb. 22, in the stamp and coin section, second level.

The exhibit will feature stamps from Vatican City in Rome. The Council of Trent, the Roman Basilicas, beatification of Pope Pius X, and St. Boniface are among the issues which will be represented.

Stamps of Israel, a collection specially prepared by the Israeli Postal Administration, also will be exhibited.

The collection was recently presented to the Cardinal Spellman Philatelic Museum at Regis College, Weston, Mass., and includes stamps depicting the twelve tribes of Israel and biblical scenes with quotations from the Old Testament. (BB

HINTS TO HOMEOWNERS

by James Fizzell, Associate Farm Advisor

ALERT HOMEOWNERS DIAL DAILY 392-3060

Soil tests help you by telling what to add to your lawn or garden to get the best plant growth. Testing in late winter lets you correct soil nutrient difficulties before spring growth begins.

Soil testing primarily tells whether the soil is acid, neutral or alkaline, and how much of each plant food is present in the soil. Soil that is too acid or too alkaline causes plants to be weak or stunted. Their roots cannot develop properly and cannot make use of plant foods already in the soil.

Improper soil reaction can be corrected by the addition of lime or sulphur. Lime reduces acidity. Sulphur or aluminum sulfate will increase acidity.

NITROGEN, phosphorus and potassium are the major plant food elements, and each is necessary in the correct amount for good growth of plants. Nitrogen stimulates quick growth and causes the dark green color of healthy leaves. Phosphorus is necessary for root growth. Potassium increases plant vigor and disease resistance.

Ordinarily it isn't necessary to test soils for minor elements such as copper, zinc, boron and others. Most soils contain enough of these elements to supply the very small amounts needed by the plants. Also, many fertilizers and water supplies may contain small amounts of these materials.

Fertilizer may be applied without testing the soil. Using recommended rates probably will not cause an oversupply of plant food; however, in doing this, some plant food may be added which is not needed. It is quite easy to over apply materials used to correct soil reaction. Too much lime or sulphur can easily make the soil too alkaline or too acid.

If you would like to have your soil tested, the Cook County Soil Testing Laboratory will do it for a nominal fee. Take a little soil from several places around the garden or lawn to a depth of 4 to 6 inches. Mix the samples well, then take a cupful as the sample to be tested.

IF YOUR SOIL is not all the same, send samples from more than one place. Mark the samples so you know which one came from each area, and also indicate what plants are growing in it. Let the samples become air dry before mailing.

Address the package to: Cook County Extension Service, P. O. Box 414, Arlington Heights, Ill.

Enclose $1 to cover the cost of testing each sample.

oFllowing the tests, we will recommend the type and amounts of materials needed to improve your soil. (BB

NI-Gas Is Modern Day Genie to Area

Aladdin's lamp has become a thing of the present day and it burns natural gas supplied by Northern Illinois Gas Co. The corporate picture of 1963 proves it.

Through advances in the past year in the total energy concept, underground storage and growth of customs, NI-Gas has become a modern day geni to the homemaker and businessman in this area.

The new NI-Gas general office located at the East-West Tollway and Route 59 is now using this total energy concept in the form of four gas-burning turbines. Natural gas is the single fuel source used to light, heat, cool the building, run all the electrical equipment and to cook in the cafeteria. No electricity is purchased from other sources.

THIS INNOVATION has proven highly successful, and in 1964 NI-Gas hopes to be marketing this concept.

Also in 1963 construction was begun on the Schaumburg maintenance center on Wiley Road. About 60 employes will report to the 8,000 square foot structure for completion in March, 1964.

To assure greater customer service the division office in Glenview has been changed over to electronic data processing. This will insure faster and more efficient billing information to both the customer and the utility.

PALATINE High School made plans in 1963 to become the first wholly gas heated-air conditioned high school in the state.

The company reported nearly 40,000 more customers in 1963.

Social Security Is Not Taxable

Social security benefits are not taxable and should not be reported as income on your federal income tax return, according to E. C. Coyle Jr., director of Internal Revenue for the Chicago district.

Social security benefits, however, are used in computing the retirement income credit and also are important in determining a claim for a dependency exemption.

When an individual receives social security benefits which are less than one-half of his total support, Coyle explained, your contribution toward his support may entitle you to claim him as a dependent.

You must furnish more than half of the dependent's total support for the year, he said.

American Oil Aids Driver Education

The fast-growing program of driver education in the nation's high schools is getting a boost from a major oil company in areas where help is needed most — financing and the development of new training aids.

Support for driver education by the American Oil Co. and its dealers is based on the development of eight new films for classroom showing, plus the necessary supporting materials for their more efficient use.

The films, produced with the cooperation and assistance of the National Commission on Safety Education, are currently being donated to high schools with driver education courses by American Oil dealers in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin.

LATER IN the year, the company plans to expand the program throughout the country to high schools which have recognized driver education courses.

Along with the films goes a teacher's manual, also especially developed for use in the program; copies of a booklet, "Tips from Pro Drivers," published by the company in cooperation with the National Safety Council, and for distribution to students who pass the course, an all weather bumper decal indicating that the student has been "Schooled in Safety."

In addition, the American Oil Foundation has awarded a substantial grant to the NCSE, an agency of the National Education Association, to help the commission in its vital work in promoting safety in the nation's schools. (B

Tells Earnings

Earnings of the Pure Oil Co. in 1963 are estimated at slightly more than $3 a common share compared with $2.93 in 1962, Robert L. Milligan, president, recently told the New York Society of Security Analysts.

Product sales increased 4.3 per cent to a record 3.4 billion gallons, against an oil industry increase of 2.9 per cent, but deterioration of gasoline prices in the closing months cut the year's profits, he said. (BB

Perhaps a Home in the SHIRES
Is For You

If you have a taste for freshness and originality, you're among those who will appreciate the SHIRES, in Des Plaines. A few choice homes remain in this select new community of 83 prestige families, designed by award-winning architect Herman York.

Mr. York's designs only begin with the spaciousness he felt would be wanted . . . from there he has employed unique design features intended to give the family of substance a sense of special pride in its surroundings. A split foyer with dual staircases sweeping up to a raised living room . . . a "patio-in-the-sky" . . . a huge grand piano living room — these are some of the Shires' distinguishing features. Priced from $30,000 to $35,000.

To Herbie: LETTING YOU GO
(Author: Vera Sohr Kelly)
I let you go, not far away,
But to the closest place I know:
God's omnipresent care.

I pray for more humility.
Oh, holy joy that sees you there,
Complete, secure, and free!

And as I pray, I am with you
Where hearts and minds and words obey
The patient, tender, true.

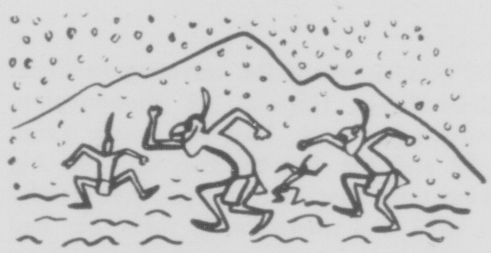
How "Necessary" Is College? BY SLOAN WILSON

Round Table: Should Your Town Welcome Industry?

Last December local ski areas were feeling the effects of a severe snow drought, according to a ski buff from Boulder, Colorado, and Mr. Robert Parker, the assistant manager at Vail Ski Area, decided that his resort, at least, would take matters in hand.



What did he do? He pulled in 15 Ute ceremonial dancers from the Indian reservation, headed by one Eddie Box, and asked them to do a snow dance. Actually, it was a rain dance, and, of course, rain would have been more of a disaster than inadequate snow, but Mr. Parker, being a wise man, went through with it anyway, relying on Ute magic plus the temperature at Vail.

"Don't you want me any more?" "Are you going to take home a new baby instead of me?" Because fears like these terrify small children who have to go to the hospital for the first time, Dr. Albert J. Beckmann, chief pediatrician at Franklin General Hospital in Valley Stream, Long Island, has developed a program with the local school district which he hopes will reassure the very young. He begins by observing the children's reaction to the word "hospital" on tapes and in essays, then they're given a tour of the hospital and afterward he records what the children have to say. "We are trying to provide a factual and unemotional experience for them," the doctor explains. "Unlike their parents, we trust them to come to a good conclusion." With their teacher, the children visit the pediatric wards, where they find beds with side rails and remote-control television. The food-preparation room comes next—Dr. Beckmann knows his public—and on to the convalescents' playroom filled with toys. "Why, you could live here," said one nine-year-old boy. "I could have no better proof of the program's success than that one little statement," said Dr. Beckmann.

In February there are countless excuses for parties —Valentine's Day, Lincoln's and Washington's Birthdays (and you can even celebrate Groundhog Day), so here's a potpourri of recipes for delicate and delicious and sometimes pink and frothy treats to make your gala special (or maybe just to cheer up dinner at the end of a dull day).

What happens when a man just happens to prefer ginger ale to hard liquor? It's not easy to get by with it socially, but here's how one soft-drink addict pulls it off (although he admits sometimes he could use a stiff drink to do it).

Will Industry Work for Your Town? . . . page 14

Should your town open its gates to industry? Must you sacrifice beauty and order for the tax money industry would bring? Or can industry learn to live in the suburbs to suit suburban standards? To find the answers we queried a panel of editors and publishers of suburban newspapers in various parts of the country. From them, you can draw your own conclusions.

HOMEOWNERS in West Hartford, Connecticut, were understandably confused when they received this gallimaufry from the city: "Please be advised that notice of caveat assessment for penetration macadam-wearing course is null and void as of this date." So they asked the mayor, who explained, "It just means you don't have to pay for a blacktop road you had previously been assessed for." And he added, "I'm asking town officials in the future, when talking about a penetration wearing course, just to refer to it as a road." What a relief!

Next time you complain about your job, think what it would be like to be shot from a cannon for a living. Babu Zacchini, 22, spent an entire weekend doing just that, we hear, at a shopping center

In Des Plaines, Illinois, the hand that rocks the cradle keeps the town rocking right along, too. There's a woman on the Board of Aldermen; and the city treasurer, the deputy city clerk, the civil-

Louis Palladino of Upper Darby, Pennsylvania, witnessed this little scene on a local bus recently: When a young mother got on with her small son, the driver automatically asked the customary question, "Not over five?" (the age limit for riding without paying a fare). "No," she said, firmly. Whereupon Junior, as you might know, stopped dead in his tracks and protested loudly, "I'm not five, Mommy, I'm six!" Hearing the burst of laughter that followed and seeing the young woman turn brilliant red, the chivalrous driver turned to the boy, gently patted him on the head, and said for all to hear, "Quiet, Sonny, your mom knows how old you are better than you do."

At 8 p.m. one dark night in Birmingham, Michigan, this winter, a woman's screams caused her neighbors to call for the police. Within minutes they arrived on the spot and found the victim being threatened at gun point—but by a water pistol. Apparently Dad and the kids (all in pajamas, and all by now soaking wet) had decided to have a water-pistol

Lore Fiedler of Morris County, New Jersey, tells about a town in that state with the unlikely name of Piscataway, which let the students name their own junior high school. And, wouldn't you know, they named it after an Indian chief, Canackawack, who lived in the area three centuries ago. The cheerleaders there, however, won't have any more trouble with this tongue-twister than those at another junior high school in town—Quibbletown School. And then, nearby, there's Possumtown, and who knows, there may be a new school there one day, too. Jawbreakers, anyone?

FOR MANY BOYS AND GIRLS AMONG THE MILLIONS NOW APPLYING, IT'S NOT THE ONLY ANSWER

journalism in my opinion, and I doubt if any "Drama School" could give the kind of education that 17-year-old professionals get by going right into the chorus and making the rounds on Broadway, fighting for parts. Really serious concert pianists and instrumentalists of all kinds rarely can find time for much "general education." For most young people with real talent to perform an art, not just to "appreciate" it, the rigorous training they need is hard to find on a campus.

All this may seem to be beside the point for youngsters who have little real interest in the arts or in a life of the intellect and who just want to get as good a job as they can, buy a nice house, raise a family, and go to the beach on weekends. Even if, for such people, colleges are only a kind of club where they can meet the elite of their area and get a label which will make them acceptable to the personnel men of large corporations, a diploma still serves their purpose, and a turn-down by an admissions officer or financial difficulties which make college impossible is bad news, indeed. But in all honesty, how hard is it to overcome the handicap of having to write "None" in the blank that calls for college degrees?

SURE, SOME CORPORATIONS have a firm rule against anyone but a college graduate in executive training programs, but the practice is not universal. There are some corporations which are more broad-minded, and almost any corporation will make exceptions for a young man who has found a way to prove himself useful. The trick, of course, is to discover the way. Girls can easily get into offices by learning to typewrite. If they are intelligent and conscientious, people will begin to stop caring whether they went to college or not. Most youngsters nowadays have no idea how hard it is to find a person who takes an active interest in the work of an office, instead of just serving time. The girl who uncomplainingly stays late to make sure that the mail is out does not go long unappreciated. Of course, if she's pretty, that helps, but college doesn't have much to do with that.

For young men, it's harder to get any job at all in an office, but it is still possible to become a shipping clerk or a mail boy, and although things aren't exactly as Horatio Alger would have liked them, records prove that many a vice-president started that way. It undoubtedly is harder to rise from the ranks than it used to be, because of the insistence on diplomas, but one would be brash, indeed, to predict that none of the hungry young men in mail rooms today will ever get that vast expanse of carpet everybody seems to yearn for so much.

Even if corporations in their blindness eventually decided to require college diplomas of everyone, including elevator operators, all would not be lost for the bright young man who wanted a career in business. A good salesman is always in demand, and if a man has the guts and intelligence to start his own business, he never has to fill out personnel forms. After knowing a good many men who have spent their lives as employees of big corporations, never having any independence or real freedom, no matter how much money they make, I can't understand why more people don't start when they are young to build some tiny empire of their own. If a youngster had, say, $8,000 set aside for college and had no real intellectual bent, he might be wise to work in stores for a few years and save his money for the day he can open a small establishment with his own name on the door. The day of small business is fortunately not entirely gone in America. Small grocery stores may be giving way to super markets, but in every town there are men who are fully in charge of their own operations and who make a comfortable living at it. I, for one, would rather run a successful garage or shoe store in a pleasant suburb than to get behind the wheel, bound for an office every morning, with my stomach aching in preparation for the latest crunch of company politics.

The lack of a college diploma is less and less of a handicap as a man grows older, if he can find a way to prove himself when he is young. Nobody cares what a 30-year-old's education has been, if he has a record of accomplishment of any kind. In trying to find a way to prove himself, a youngster without a diploma has the advantage of being a little more hungry than others, a little less smug, a little less convinced that good things will come to him without much effort. The same is true in a man's intellectual life. All too many college graduates acquire the curious notion that their diploma is a certificate proving that they are educated and, therefore, don't have to work at self-education for the rest of their life.

It is common to meet college graduates who read little but the sports page but who are sure that their opinions on literature, politics, and the arts are important because they've got a good education, and they can prove it with a sheet of simulated sheepskin, often written in Latin, which they can't understand. Anyone who bothers to read even five or six good books a year will be far better educated when he is 30 than a college graduate who stops trying, and a person who uses his local library will soon find it hard to regret his lack of a diploma. He will be simply too wise to attach false value to a piece of paper.

ALL THIS, OF COURSE, does not contradict the fact that college is necessary for many kinds of training, helpful in many more kinds, and at least enjoyable for the thousands who learn hardly anything at all. Colleges are fine institutions and among the proudest inventions of mankind, but things are getting a little out of hand when youngsters start to feel that if they don't go to them, all is lost. The human spirit is, at its best, invincible, and a bright boy or girl remains bright, with or without a college degree.

Colleges help a lot of people, but there are many roads that lead to the promised land.

HOW "NECESSARY" IS COLLEGE?

BY SLOAN WILSON

Author of "Georgie Winthrop," "A Summer Place," "The Man in the Gray Flannel Suit"; formerly special reporter at the White House Conference on Education.

ILLUSTRATION BY JOHN WOOLHISER

A man without a diploma may be a little more hungry . . . a little less smug.

NOWADAYS more and more youngsters are being urged to go to college. It's almost impossible to get a good job without a college degree, they are told, and are reminded that on the average, a college graduate makes $100,000 more in his lifetime than a person who ended his education with high school. We are also told that graduates make better citizens, have happier marriages, read more, and, in general, lead more fruitful lives.

All this is a relatively new development. In my father's day, only people who wanted to enter the learned professions felt it necessary to go to college. When, in 1900, he went to the University of Virginia in hopes of becoming a physician, he was one of only about 300,000 college students in the nation. When I went to Harvard 38 years later, everything had changed. I was one of about three million college students in the United States, and precious few of us had any clear idea of why we were there. Now my children are preparing for college or for something. If they go, they will be among ten million college students in this country, most of whom will have a fairly clear idea of why they are there: to get a better job afterward.

It undoubtedly is true that college graduates find it easier than high-school students do to get a job the moment they graduate, but I have a feeling that the over-all values of a college education are being vastly exaggerated. Conversely, the terrors of embarking upon life without a sheepskin firmly clutched in one's right hand like the broad sword of yesteryear are overestimated.

Perhaps one reason so many people think college is indispensable is that they don't compare it to other things a young person can do between the ages of 18 and 22. What if the same money put into college were used for living a few months in several different countries? Certainly one could learn modern languages better that way than in an American classroom. Four years as a copy boy on any good newspaper staff or as a boy of all work on a small paper is still better than any school of

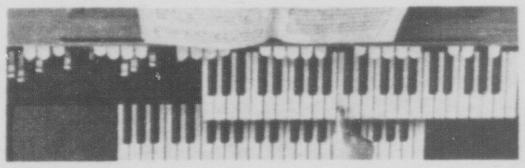
Why children learn music better on a Hammond Organ

Most children are born with a sense of rhythm, an ear for pleasant sounds, an instinctive response to melody. Music lessons, therefore, can be as natural for a child as learning his native language. Read how a Hammond Organ fosters this natural process and gently disciplines his musical instincts.



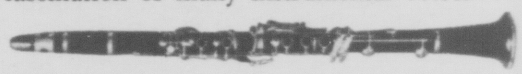
When a child presses a certain key on a Hammond Organ he hears a certain note. When he releases it, the sound stops. Simple, natural, cause and effect.

Whenever he presses that key, he hears the same note. Natural, predictable, reassuring to a child.

With the keyboard spread out in front of him, he can quickly grasp the natural relationship between the position of the printed notes of music and the sequence of the keys. He quickly learns this relationship, but, more important, he understands it because it is natural and satisfies a child's strong sense of logic.

But the genius of a Hammond goes beyond its logic. The instrument satisfies him with its rich, mellow tone. What he plays sounds important. Even scales and finger exercises don't bore him because they sound like music. And when he sounds good, he knows he's making progress.

A Hammond Organ introduces him to the fascination of many instrumental voices . . .



teaches him how to identify brasses, strings, woodwinds, and he goes quickly from identification into a growing ability to blend them into magnificent orchestral effects.

No other organ gives him such a variety of tones. No other organ allows him to manipulate them as easily.

In addition, a Hammond Organ gives him rich echo effects, brilliant percussion accents, subtle vibrato expressions . . . more total music than he can explore in a lifetime.

Hammond dealers provide excellent lesson programs for children. Patient and knowledgeable teachers will instruct your child individually, or in exciting group classes. Many dealers have plans for teaching children and parents together.

Nurturing your child's instinct for music is the most natural thing in the world. You'll give him more music, more understanding, more lifelong satisfaction, if you start him on the natural instrument—a Hammond Organ.

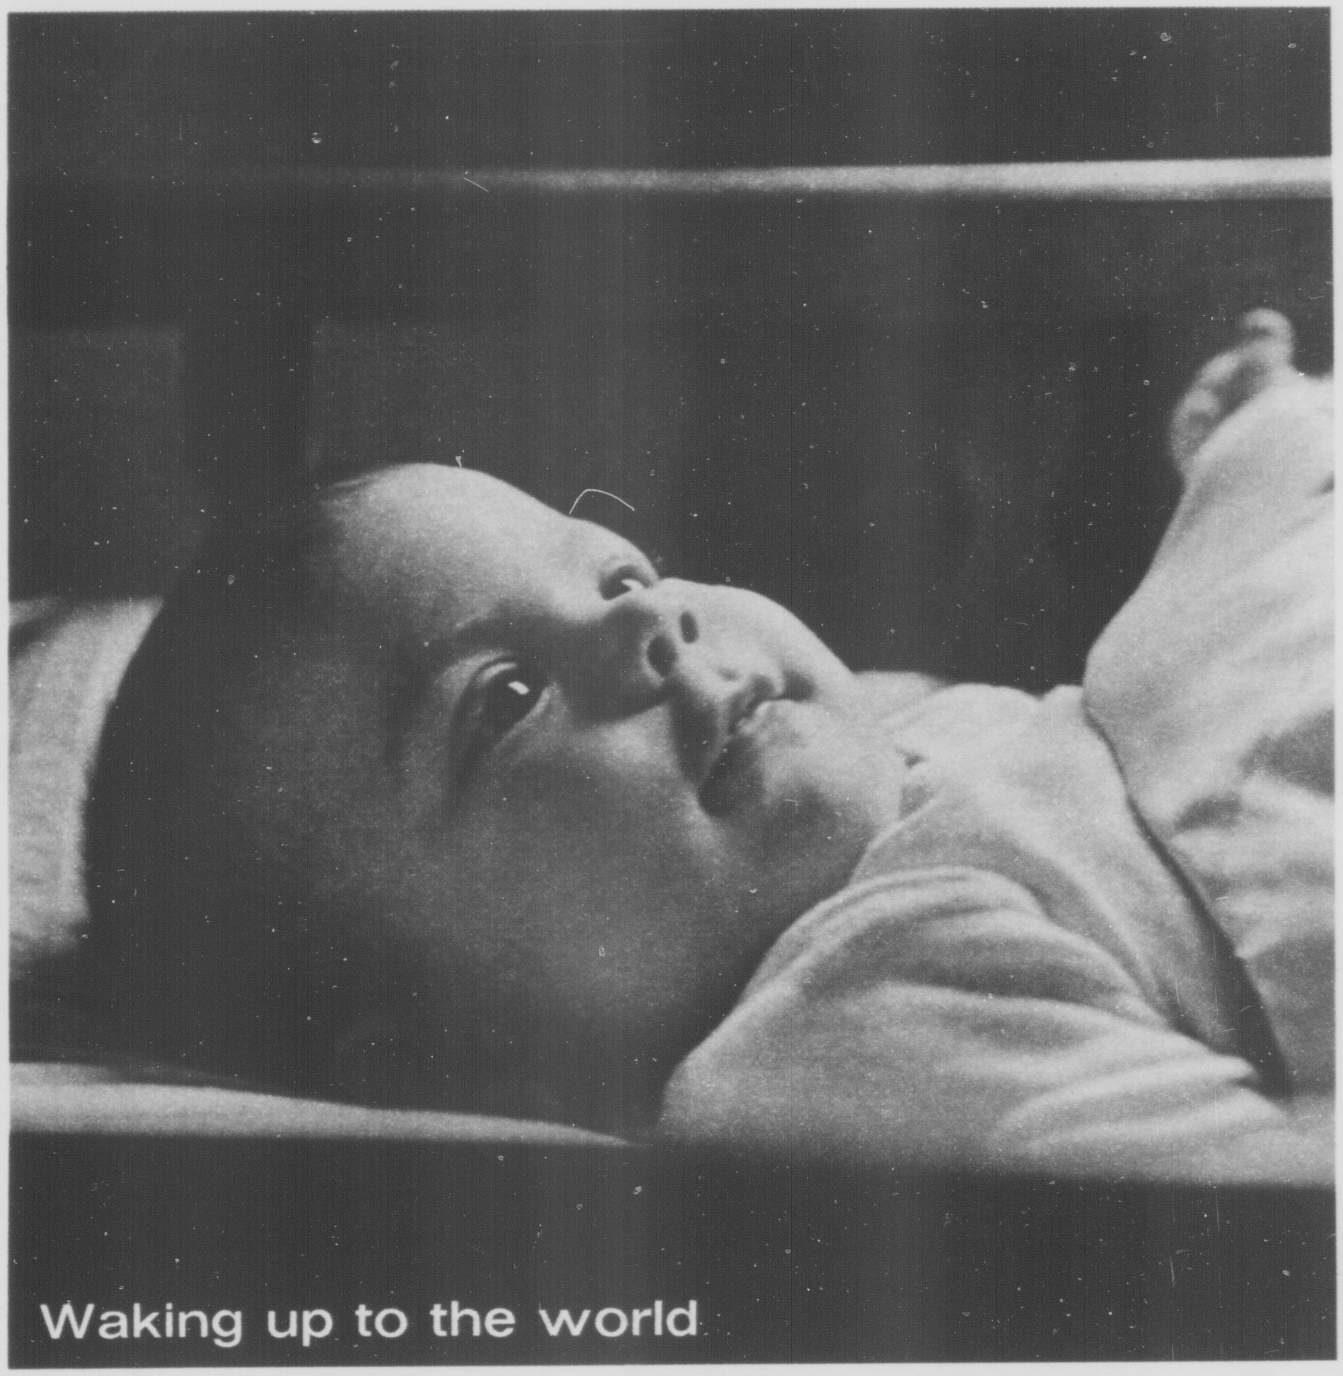
BRINGING UP BABY,®
HINTS COLLECTED
BY MRS. DAN GERBER,
MOTHER OF FIVE



Think newborns do nothing but eat and sleep the first few months? Any expert baby-watcher will tell you that your baby is busy learning right from birth. He blinks at light and startles at sharp sounds. (Why, at one month he can follow light and sound and starts to learn from what he sees and hears.) Taste buds begin to develop by reacting to sweet, sour, bitter and salty almost immediately. Through skin sensations a wee one learns the comfort of warmth and cuddling, the discomfort of cold and pain. A do-nothing? Indeed not. All this activity is practice for future development.

Solid facts. When your baby's about to embark on cereal, you'll find Gerber Cereals ideal for several reasons. The mild flavors have a way of waking up tender taste buds gently. The texture has an easy-to-swallow smoothness that's designed to please a delicate palate. In addition, the nutrition your baby gets from Gerber Cereals will stand him in good stead throughout babyhood. All five are enriched with iron and calcium. Plus important B-vitamins . . . factors in sparking appetites and spurring growth.

More busybody activities. Apart from learning through his senses in the early months, a baby is busy with other things. For example: clenching and opening fists lead to eventual graspability. Flexing of legs and arms are trial runs for creeping. Coos and gurgles are the forerunners of speech. Yes, being a baby is a full-time job.

More early dietary data. Special baby juices come early in the modern baby's diet for the vitamin C they provide. Gerber Strained Orange Juice and Apple Juice are ideal starting juices because they're ever so mild and well-tolerated by babies. The Orange Juice has natural vitamin C, the Apple Juice is enriched with vitamin C to the same degree. Can't think of two more refreshing ways to help keep your baby's gums and other body tissues in good condition.

P. S. Gerber offers seven other combination juices (vitamin-C enriched) to teach your tyke the delights of different flavors.

For your baby's well-being:
Gerber prepares over 100 baby foods – infant formulas, cereals, strained and junior foods – to meet your baby's nutritional needs. We're proud to say:

STRAWBERRY GELATO

Especially for . . . Dinner or The Dessert Bridge

- 5 teaspoons unflavored gelatin
- 1½ cups sugar
- 4 cups milk
- 2 cups instant nonfat dry milk (not reconstituted)
- 2 10-oz. pkgs. frozen sliced strawberries, thawed
- ¼ cup kirsch
- ¼ teaspoon red food coloring

1. Thoroughly mix the gelatin and sugar together in a large saucepan. Stir in the milk and then the nonfat dry milk.

2. Stir over low heat until sugar and gelatin are completely dissolved. Set aside to cool.

3. Turn strawberries and kirsch into an electric blender container; blend thoroughly or until smooth. Force the purée through a fine sieve into the cooled milk. Stir until blended, mixing in the food coloring.

4. Pour into refrigerator trays and freeze until firm, 2 to 3 hrs.

5. Spoon the amount of ice cream to be served into a bowl; allow it to soften slightly and whip until smooth, using an electric mixer. Spoon into chilled stemmed glasses and serve immediately. Garnish with whole strawberries, if desired.

LINCOLN-TODD FAVORITE CAKE

Especially for . . . The Birthday Party

- 1¼ cups (about 6½ oz.) toasted blanched almonds, finely chopped
- 3 cups sifted flour
- 1 tablespoon baking powder
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1 cup butter
- 1½ teaspoons vanilla extract
- ¼ teaspoon almond extract
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 cup milk
- 6 egg whites
- 1 cup sugar

1. Grease bottom only of a 10-in. tubed pan. Line with waxed paper cut to fit bottom; grease waxed paper. Set aside.

2. Sift together the flour, baking powder, and salt; set aside.

3. Cream the butter and extracts together. Add 1 cup sugar gradually, creaming until fluffy after each addition.

4. Beating only until smooth after each addition, alternately add dry ingredients in fourths and milk in thirds to creamed mixture. Stir in the nuts.

5. Beat egg whites until frothy. Add 1 cup sugar gradually, beating well after each addition. Continue beating until rounded peaks are formed (peaks turn over slightly when beater is slowly lifted upright). Gently fold beaten egg whites into the batter until thoroughly blended. Turn into prepared pan and spread evenly.

6. Bake at 350°F about 1 hr., or until cake tester or wooden pick comes out clean when inserted in cake, or until surface springs back when lightly touched.

7. Remove from oven. Cool 15 min. in pan on cooling rack. To loosen from pan, run a spatula gently around tube and sides. Cover with cooling rack; invert cake and remove pan. Immediately peel off waxed paper and turn cake top side up. Cool completely. When cake is completely cooled, frost with Fluffy White Frosting. Decorate with finely cut candied cherries.

One 10-in. tubed cake

FLUFFY WHITE FROSTING

- ½ cup diced candied pineapple
- ½ cup candied cherries, cut in quarters
- 2 cups sugar
- 1 cup water
- Few grains salt
- 2 egg whites
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- ¼ teaspoon almond extract

1. Mix together the sugar, water, and salt in a saucepan. Place over low heat, stirring until sugar is dissolved. Cover and bring to boiling; boil 5 min. Uncover saucepan and set candy thermometer in place. Continue cooking, without stirring, until mixture reaches 230°F (thread stage); using a pastry brush, wash down crystals from sides of saucepan during cooking as necessary.

2. Beat egg whites until stiff, but not dry, peaks are formed. Continue beating egg whites while pouring hot sirup over them in a steady thin stream. (Do not scrape sirup from bottom and sides of pan.) After all of the sirup is added, continue beating 2 to 3 min., or until frosting is very thick and forms rounded peaks when beater is lifted upright. Fold in extracts and candied fruits with minimum number of strokes. Frost cake immediately.

Enough to frost sides and top of a 10-in. tubed cake

- 2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
- 2 tablespoons chili sauce
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon black pepper
- ½ teaspoon rosemary
- ½ teaspoon thyme
- 2 cups dairy sour cream

1. Rinse and drain chicken livers. Pat free of excess moisture with absorbent paper. Coat lightly with flour. Set aside.

2. Heat butter in a large skillet. Add onion and cook until onion is golden in color, about 3 min., stirring occasionally. Remove one-half of onion-butter mixture and set aside for second frying of livers. I Don't Drink, Thank You

(But nobody wants to believe it)

BY ROBERT FONTAINE

FOR SOME YEARS now, for reasons that have no bearing on this treatise, I have not taken any alcoholic beverages. I am not going into the advantages of such an attitude. My wife will be glad to expound on the matter at length. I would like to point out, though, for anyone who is considering this drastic step, some of the discomforts involved.

Women, particularly, seem to resent my sobriety. I recall a cocktail party not so long ago where I met a charming girl, glass in hand, eyes a-sparkle. We got along famously for 10 minutes when she said abruptly, "What are you drinking?"

"Ginger ale."

"With nothing in it?"

"Nothing in it. I tried an olive once, but I didn't like it."

"Hmmm." The girl pulled down her skirt and moved a little away from me. For a while she just sat there staring at me. Then she said, "It seems kind of sneaky," and walked away.

At another gathering, this time of businessmen, I was trying to put over a good commercial idea and sat down with a stout fellow who had had quite a few, which was his privilege. We began discussing my idea, and it impressed him favorably. In the midst of the conversation he asked me what I wanted to drink.

"Just ginger ale."

He scowled, ordered a double shot of something and cooled off. Somewhere something wasn't quite right. He couldn't put his finger on it, "y'unnerstan'?" He had a few more doubles and then gave me a firm, logical reason why I couldn't sell him. "I got news for you!" he shouted. "Fellish not drinkin's out o' tush wish hish fellow men. She? Out o' tush."

You may be sure I am constantly under this sort of pressure. Religious friends quote the Bible about taking a little for your stomach's sake. Medical friends point out that moderate drinkers live longer than abstainers. ("Married people," I point out, "live longer than single people, but that's a damn poor reason to get married.") Psychologists attempt to convince me that alcohol is the great smoother of interpersonal friction, the great social catalyst. (I happen to think ginger ale is.)

Lovely young ladies try to tutor me into understanding that drinking improves the relations between the sexes and that if they are drinking and I am sober, it gives me an utterly caddish advantage. (As a matter of fact, it does not. Under the influence of alcohol I felt I was irresistible to women and when the women had enough, they thought so, too.)

The non-drinker lives in a world of prejudice and intolerance. He is made to feel a little like an illegal Chinese immigrant; guilty, uneasy, and not quite the possessor of any constitutional rights.

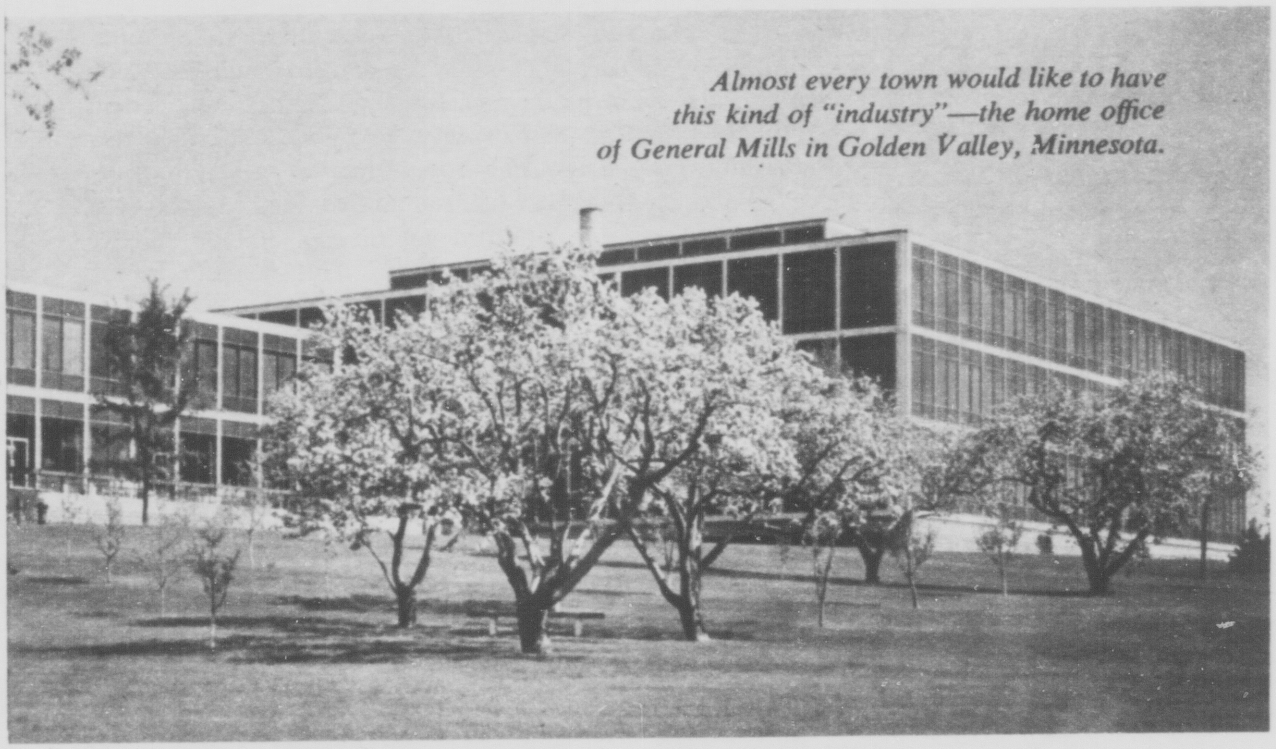
NOW AND THEN there is a rift in the clouds; a gleam breaks through and someone seems to understand. About three nights ago I was dancing at a night club, feeling quite gay on trout, chocolate parfait, and coffee, even sitting in with the band for a few numbers. A friend came over and said, "Man, you and your wife look like you're having a ball! What're you drinking?" he asked, calling the waitress.

"Nothing, thanks. I don't drink."

He stared at me a moment and then smiled. "I want to shake your hand. Anyone who can get up on the bandstand like that and make a jackass out of himself sober deserves a lot of credit."

So, you see . . . ?

What I mean is, most of the times I enjoy being sober, but there are infrequent moments when I almost feel I'll have to get drunk to do it.



Almost every town would like to have this kind of "industry"—the home office of General Mills in Golden Valley, Minnesota.

Obviously, local governments could use the revenue— but some would rather go hungry means still more space for adequate parking facilities.

Another requirement of modern industry is research, experiment, test, and evaluation. New industrial laboratories to meet this need have tended to seek suburban locations because they are welcome there, relative to other types of industry, and because such locations are favored by the scientists, who are the key personnel. Central and regional offices of large corporations also find suburban locations congenial and convenient.

Even the United States government gets into the picture. A few eyebrows were raised in Chamblee, Georgia, when the Regional Center of the Internal Revenue Service moved in, bringing carloads of data-processing equipment and hundreds of new workers to house. But as a focal point of the Atlanta metropolitan area, Chamblee takes pride in its careful planning for the accommodation of new enterprises, and now town and Center are getting along "very happily."

But before the welcome mat goes out in a congenial, convenient location such as Chamblee, the civic authorities must still consider the views and attitudes of the people who came there to find, not promising industrial developments, but open space where they could enjoy life. It is still the exception when a suburban community goes after new industry, regardless of type, and the local zoning laws are made in order to spell out what is acceptable and what is not, sometimes in general terms but often in minute detail. Some zoning codes simply state what types of industry are forbidden—usually barring odors, smoke and other forms of air pollution, noise, and also in some cases heavy additional motor traffic. Other codes prescribe precisely what types of industry (down to products and methods) may be admitted. Zoning is also used, of course, to control the quality of residential properties; in connection with industry there is some suggestion that zoning limitations on low-cost housing may be intended to induce low-income workers to live elsewhere, thus "having the industrial tax revenue for ourselves and letting some other town educate the workers' children."

HOPKINS, Minnesota, offers an interesting example of the best of both worlds. Hopkins has some rather choice industries—"we encourage 'em, fight for 'em, and generally do everything we can to help them grow." The industries located in Hopkins actually have more workers than the total resident population of the town; most of these workers live elsewhere. Hopkins also has a flourishing retail trade—industry pays one-third of Hopkins' tax bill, the retail community another third. Money is therefore available to finance an elaborate parking system, which serves the "commuting" workers, Should Your Town Welcome Industry?

AS YOU WATCH your taxes doubling and tripling, are you becoming resigned to what one commentator calls "cohabitation with industry"?

Granted, industry nowadays does not have to mean noise and smog and fuming chimneys. We are all familiar with the industrial park that "looks like an art museum, sounds like a symphony orchestra, and smells like Chanel No. 5." Even so, is your town going to put up with it? And possibly even welcome the presence of brisk commercial traffic—and the additional revenue—where there used to be only the plain-living quiet of a country field?

When we explored this question with a Round Table of suburban editors and publishers, we got every kind of response from icy rejection to eager approval.

Excelsior, Minnesota, reports on the one hand: "We have no industry here, and we want none of any kind."

Pasadena, Texas, boldly proclaims: "This is an industrial suburb. Every aspect of our community life is geared to the needs of the industrial worker."

Between these extremes, we found every sort of approach.

Take zoning restrictions, for example. Palos Verdes, California, has just one type of industrial zoning—"the tightest in Los Angeles County." It is called SR&D (Scientific Research and Development). Only one firm has accepted the austere restraints: Activities are limited to thinking.

Outside Atlanta, De Kalb County, Georgia, has—and we quote—"some of the most effective, dynamic, and expanding industry anywhere in the nation. There is a major automobile assembly plant of General Motors, a regional Chevrolet-parts depot, and many varied industries—Singer Sewing Machine, American Cyanamid, Eastman Kodak, and many others."

The industries have come, but in other "zones" the graces remain. Business expansion is definitely encouraged, but there are strict laws to protect the town's character and keep space for quiet byways and pleasant houses, for swimming pools and mocking birds and magnolias, as well as for lathes and presses and parking lots.

By contrast, we hear from Macomb County, Michigan, in the Detroit metropolitan area, that its zoning codes are apt to prove "flexible by amendment" when a city council fears the loss of some desirable prospect to a neighboring community. (Industry-happy Pasadena, above mentioned, just laughs and laughs—and makes jubilant claim to being one of the biggest cities in the U.S. having no zoning regulations of any kind.)

The case for industry is plainly stated by Mountain Lakes, New Jersey: "Our generally favorable attitude toward industry nowadays is born of the realization that $20,000 homes on ⅓-acre lots cost us more in services and education than they pay in taxes."

Industry, on the contrary, produces more tax revenue—in some cases a great deal more—than it requires in services. Industrial property is likely to have a high assessed valuation and to take up relatively little space compared with the taxes paid, in contrast to the wide dispersion of residential properties. For instance: a generating plant at Milford, Connecticut, with a 50-family education load pays taxes on a $30,000,000 valuation—$600,000 per family, a valuation matched by few suburban residences indeed! One of two new plants locating this year in Trenton, Michigan, will add $1,000,000 extra school-tax revenue. (Trenton now has the third highest per capita tax intake in the state.) At a new industrial park at Smithtown, New York, the planned investment in buildings is $40,000,000—"a big boost in tax revenue both for the town and the adjacent school districts."

THE ADVANTAGES to the suburban community of having a reasonable number of industrial taxpayers are only one side of the story, of course. There must be economic advantages to industry in seeking suburban locations, or they would not be sought.

The search for more space at reasonable cost is perhaps the most important of the urges that brings industry out from the city. Modern industrial processes emphasize a straight-line flow of materials along a single level. Often in building a new factory it is necessary to plan the complete processing layout first, and then build the factory around the process. Enough additional ground space to permit future expansion is usually sought as well. Since that kind of space is rarely available in cities any more, industry is moving out, with the further result that workers must often come considerable distances to their jobs, which in today's terms

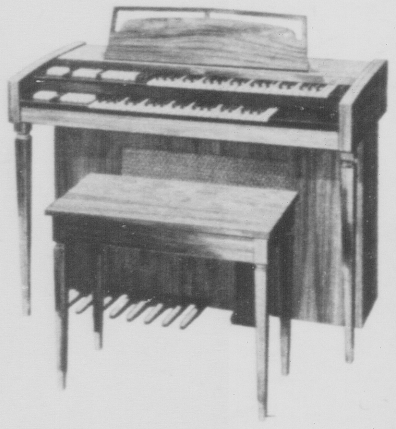
LIKE TO MAKE THINGS WITH YOUR HANDS?



We have nothing against hobbies. Far from it. Today, hobbies are what separate the men from the boys. But if you must make something with your hands, why settle for ceramic tiles or lamp bases or hooked rugs or number-painting? Live a little! If you must make something with your hands—make music! What could be more glorious... more soul-satisfying... more relaxing... more down-right fun? And you can make music. Right now. Today. Even if you "never took a lesson in your life!"

That's right. With Conn's remarkable new learning method, "Instant Music," you will be playing any one of 39 familiar tunes—in a matter of minutes! All you have to know is your alphabet from "A" to "G." No endless scales and exercises. "Instant Music" gets you off to a fast start and with the right techniques. You play with both keyboards, with various band effects—and with foot pedals, too.

In other words, you play naturally (the way a professional musician does). No lifeless push-buttons. No recorded gimmicks. You play with true human expression on a professional-quality instrument. The Conn sounds like an organ. The Conn plays like an organ. It is, after all, the product of C. G. Conn, Ltd., world's largest manufacturer of band instruments! There are seven handsomely-crafted models to select from. Prices start at $995, and your Conn dealer can arrange convenient terms.

makes it convenient for them to shop in Hopkins, and also accommodates the residents who lead a pleasant suburban life on the fringes.

Ten years ago there would have been very little chance for plants to locate in many of the communities which have now faced up to stern tax facts. Some have learned their own lessons the hard way. Milford, Connecticut, before they saw the light, once rose up in arms against the prospect of a big helicopter plant—"so they located across the river in Stratford. Stratford got the tax dollars, and we got most of the kids to educate. This made a lasting impression."

In Fort Washington, Pennsylvania, there was a bitter fight against a proposed industrial park some years

Could Gordon's possibly be older than the London Bobby?

Surprisingly enough, yes. It was in 1829 that Sir Robert Peel reorganized the London Metropolitan Police, who promptly became known as "Peelers" or "Bobbies". But this was sixty years after Alexander Gordon had introduced his remarkable gin to London and given it his name. Happily, the Gordon's you drink today is based on that original 1769 formula. That explains its unique dryness and delicate flavour. Explains, too, why Gordon's is the biggest selling gin in England, America, the world.

PRODUCT OF U.S.A. DISTILLED LONDON DRY GIN, 100% NEUTRAL SPIRITS DISTILLED FROM GRAIN. 90 PROOF. GORDON'S DRY GIN CO., LTD., LINDEN, N.J.

Industry

back; the deal was pushed through despite opposition, and now the park is a showplace of its kind and has attracted some welcome industrial taxpayers.

An occasional barrier to new industry is high land prices. In Maple Heights, Ohio, some desirable land parcels — unimproved — were being held by owners for higher prices, but a determined community spirit was aroused to take action in order to open the door to industry. The county tax authorities were pressured into revaluating the land upward—"so either the owners will be inclined to sell and we'll get needed industrial taxpayers, or at worst we'll get more tax revenues from the unimproved land."

So, in detail, local issues are of infinite variety, and yet they all turn on a single pivot: Rather than see their towns and schools deteriorate, people are coming to accept the compromise that admits industry and its tax money to their community, and some are finding that the imagined evils are not so dreadful after all.

Many communities, indeed, are paying substantial sums to professional planners and consultants to lay out a future course intended to keep Our Town in good financial health without sacrificing beauty or happiness—and it takes a professional, in these complicated times, to plan the best use of land and location for the continued welfare of all who live there. The frustrated village manager in Illinois who resigned with the angry statement that "the ideal suburban village 10 years from now is going to be an industrial park run entirely by automation" missed the whole point. The suburbs and industry are joining hands because each needs the other, but industry is learning to live in the suburbs by suburban standards—to the benefit of all.
